LOGARITHMS BY RICHARD A. KINSEY

Today is FEBRUARY 1st day. He is writing his column.

We are afraid to eat soup in the kitchen now—now sometimes carrying dinner over there the other day.

No Asbestos, Prof. Root's first name is not found.

There is a fountain where he found the oil on the hedge. He went on the ship now.

Well girls we know it, then fall that the chimney is too small, but the poor hair dresser don't want to.

ROOM It's easy enough to be happy. When an old song is sung, the sun is in the sky.

But this will only last until the song is sung. The students are looking far too long for a cloud of fumes.

FRESHMAN GIRLS ARE CHOSEN TO BE SPLENDERS

Fifteen Girls Are Pledged in Amphictyon to Uphold School Spirit in C. P. S.

Tuesday afternoon, November 13, the members of the C. P. S. Amphictyon Literary Fraternity, held their annual pledging. In the hour of Miss Central Market, the Riding Stables society, prepared for the ceremony. The members of the club were in attendance.

The ceremony was scheduled for 4:00 p.m. at the riding stables. After the dedication of the Amphictyon, the ceremony began. The number of pledges was announced, and the pledges were presented to the members of the club. The pledges were then led in the club pledge.

PUGET SOUND OFFERS NIGHT SCHOOL COURSES

Student Preference Hold Evening Courses in Education, English and History. Course Offer Advantages.

The student body of the College of Puget Sound has been organized for the last two years. The school year is divided into two terms, Fall and Spring. Each term includes a series of classes offered during the evening hours.

The courses offered in evening classes are designed to accommodate working and non-traditional students. The evening classes provide an opportunity for students to continue their education without interrupting their work schedules. The classes cover a wide range of subjects, including English, Education, and History.

The evening courses offer several advantages, including flexible scheduling, smaller class sizes, and personalized attention from instructors. The evening classes also allow students to connect with peers from diverse backgrounds, fostering a sense of community and shared learning experiences.

In our Realm of Society

Y. C. A. TTA

The Y. C. A. TTA met recently in the new wing of the college at a meeting. The college and the city of Tacoma were represented at the meeting. The students of the Y. C. A. TTA are planning to establish a Y. C. A. TTA chapter at the university.

PHILCO Juvenile Party

"Dear Sir: or you keep your head!" "Oh, we're going down again in 40 years."

This is the question that was asked at the Y. C. A. TTA meeting. The students decided to hold a party to celebrate the anniversary of the Y. C. A. TTA.

There were a few of the many occurrences in any session of the committee, but some of the more important and decisions were made during the last meeting between the members of the Y. C. A. TTA. The following are some of the highlights:

Wednesday, November 13

4:00 P.M.-Kappa Sigma, Phi Beta Psi, Phi Gamma Sigma. 8:00 P.M.-Phi Kappa Tau, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Kappa Phi, Phi Beta Chi, Phi Delta Theta.

The Y. C. A. TTA is planning to hold a party to celebrate the anniversary of the Y. C. A. TTA. The students decided to hold a party to celebrate the anniversary of the Y. C. A. TTA.

VARSITY ME N INELIGIBLE FOR U. OF W. GAME
Loggers' Hope Are Hard Hit; Most Play in Work Is Made Up
By Van Dooner
The Puget Sound "Loggers" will not over the week in preparation for their annual meeting with the University of Washington, as a result of news that the school sent a telegram to the Logging Team to a responsible official at Seattle. The telegram stated that five of the Puget Sound lineup have been declared ineligible, and they are not able to play in the game.

Schwezy and William are two of the group of four lettermen around which Mac Eachel has built his strong squad of this team. Schwezy plays tackle, playing opposite Dacus. These two lettermen are as good on the court as on the field. Schwezy's; this year shows better offense than his previous years. Last year he made a commendable reputation for himself at all.

LOGGERS HOPE TO HOLD FAMOUS PURPLE TORNADO TO SMALL SCORE

Puget Sound Has Chance to Make Good Showing If Disabled Players Can Make Up Work

By Van Dooner

The University of Washington and the College of Puget Sound football teams will meet each other to battle the interested eyes of alumni and friends of both schools on the field of the campus of the University of Washington.

Last year the Loggers held the Huskies in a 1-1 tie before an enthusiastic crowd of eight thousand spectators. The team was outshone by the Huskies against Washington State, and the University of Oregon Conference was no great as that made over by Puget Sound. For most of the game the Loggers held the Huskies over the field and the only way that the U. of W. managed to play the action was by the U. of W. of the U. of W. and any play which was not played on the field was not worth the crowd, but not for the break the crowd would have been 2-0. The University made only 2 first downs to our 5, and only 21 yards from the line of scrimmage against 147 for Puget Sound. All the game nothing was enough, but the College put up a greater fight than a moral score of the score would indicate.

November, Saturday, November 18th, must be remembered as an important date in Pigskin football story. It should hold a prominent place in the annals of school spirit that has ever been shown in this college. More than 30 members banded together to form a team. The game was won, and the sound of victory was heard in every corner of the college. The players were jubilant, and the whole community shared in the joy of the day.

David Macmillan, one of the football men, said: "Our victory is not just for us. It is for the entire college. We have shown that we can work together and succeed."

The team was formed by a group of students who believed in the power of teamwork. They practiced hard every day, and their efforts paid off. The spirit of the college was united, and the victory was a testament to their hard work and determination.

The game was played against a tough opponent, and the players gave their all. They ran and passed, as if their lives depended on it. The crowd was cheering them on, and the atmosphere was electric.

The victory was not just a win for the team. It was a win for the college. It showed that they could overcome any obstacle with hard work and teamwork. It was a day to remember, a day of pride and joy.

CAMPUS CHATTER

As HEARD IN THE BOOK

We are very glad to see that they are finally getting six flags on the shoulders and that they look very good. It has been mentioned by some of the players that the team should be better known throughout the state, and they have agreed to do all possible to make the college name known.

The greatest thrill of a student is being on the football team. They are the heroes of the campus, and the students look up to them with admiration. They are the ones who represent the college, and their efforts are appreciated by all.

One of our football students spoke out in favor of the team. He said: "I am very proud to be a member of the team. We worked hard, and now we have shown that we can succeed."

The players appreciate our efforts. They know that they could not have done it without the support of the entire college. They appreciate the teamwork and the spirit of the college.

The victory is a testament to the power of teamwork. It shows that when we work together, we can accomplish great things. It is a day to remember, a day that will live in the hearts of all for years to come.
