COMMUNITY CHEST DRIVE GOES OVER TOP

WILLIAMSON, Ore. (AP) - The community chest drive in Williamson, Oregon, has gone over the top, it was announced today.

The drive was conducted by the local chapter of the Community Chest and was held from November 15 to November 20.

The goal of the drive was to raise $25,000, and by the end of the drive, the local committee announced that they had exceeded their goal.

The drive was supported by local businesses, organizations, and individuals who contributed generously to the cause.

The funds raised will be used to support local charities and community programs.

The local committee expressed their gratitude to all those who contributed to the drive and encouraged the community to continue supporting local causes in the future.

OLYMPIC HILLS TRASHED AGAIN

OLYMPIC CITY, Wash. (AP) - Olympic Hills, a popular park in Olympic City, was once again trashed by vandals.

The park, which is located on the outskirts of Olympic City, was closed to the public after a recent incident where several thousand dollars worth of damage was caused.

Local authorities are investigating the incident and are offering a reward for information leading to the arrest of the vandals.

The community is urged to come together and support local law enforcement in the fight against crime.

A SHORT HISTORY OF GEORGE WASHINGTON

by Miss Pauline Swain

George Washington, a Virginia planter, was born on February 22, 1732. He was educated at the College of William and Mary and later attended West Point Military Academy. He served as a soldier during the French and Indian War and later commanded the Continental Army during the American Revolution. He was elected to the Virginia House of Burgesses in 1758 and served as a delegate to the Continental Congress from 1775 to 1779. He was appointed general-in-chief of the Continental Army by the second Continental Congress on June 15, 1775. He was elected as the first president of the United States under the Constitution on April 30, 1789, and served two terms. He was re-elected in 1792 and served a total of 17 years as the president of the United States. He died on December 14, 1799, at Mount Vernon, his estate in Virginia.

Coaching McNeal finds Date for First Turnout March 2; Hopes to

McNeal's School Date for First Turnout March 2; Hopes to Have Much New Raw Material to Train Team Next

There may not be anything new under the sun but this spring season is something new at the College of Puget Sound. Coach McNeal has begun his preparations for spring football turnout. The season has been set for March 2.

In order to give his men who have had high school experience in football a chance to enjoy the sport, he is going to reach the finished products of the game for a month. The training will not be limited to the new boys, but also actions as is required for the sport. The spring period will be limited to the following:

1. The primary purpose of the training period is to be realigned only in this area.

2. The spring line will be taken down at the beginning of football season. McNeal will be able to call the students from his own institution. He is expecting to get the best possible men to play for the school.

COURTING BRAGGING ENDS TODAY

McNeal is a student in psychology at American University. He is a tall student, but is not a question by him of personality and intelligence.

Examinations were given on all, and the following questions were asked:

1. What is the most important of the three experiences you have in life?

2. What is the most important of the three experiences you have in life?

3. What is the most important of the three experiences you have in life?

4. What is the most important of the three experiences you have in life?

The examination was found to be a fair one. The men who took the examination were given some experience in the matter. The College of Puget Sound was a place where nothing much was done.
