LOGGERS LEAVE FOR B. C. FRAT TONGUE

EAST AND WEST COMPARED IN Y. W. MEETING

Ellena Hart Giving Series of Talks

"It is certain that there are differences between people of the East and West. At times, these differences are so great that the person who comes to speak is not properly understood, and where a further discussion exists, the conclusions drawn are frequently erroneous because they are based on the wrong assumptions," said Miss Hart in her address.

FORESHORE FORENSIC CLUB ORGANIZED FOR DEBATE

Members to Be Experienced in Debate

Various elements at C. F. will be a great success, if careful selection and promotion by the forensics club can be sustained. We will go to the best debaters, but we must be sure that all selected will be able to think and appreciate all the arguments of the debates. This will be the key to the success of the debate team. To do this, all members must have a great deal of experience in debate.

SQUAD LEAVES TONGIE FOR CANADA

Although the team is playing well, there are still several things to be done before the team can be prepared. The squad will need to have as much as possible in order to compete in the big tourney. The squad will be under the direction of Coach Chase, who has been preparing the team for the last two months.

TENNIS COURTS
The Portland Loggers, who are in the best shape they have been for years, will use their courts on the campus west of the tennis house.

The Portland State colleges will be playing their third round of matches tomorrow. The Loggers are one of the best teams in the Pacific Northwest. They have played well against the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and the University of British Columbia.

Chaplain Don Wellman
Veteran Logger Played Many Positions

By Preston Wright

Vocal Sports Engineer

Chuck Don Wellman is an all-rounder of the ball game, became the first-string quarterback in his second year, quarter back in his third year, and halfback fullback out at quarter end on the 15-yard line.

Don entered College direct from Madison, where at school he played football and baseball in high school and college. He played a good game in the 2-11 with Stanford, and scored a field goal on the end. He is a good kicker, and has a good covering ability of the backfield.

Don's knowledge of the game
has made it possible for him to be a good substitute for Bartlow, the star quarterback.

TRUE TACT

The traffic policeman had a big mouth. He ordered a car to stop, and, when the driver failed to stop, he ordered a heavy fine. The driver then ordered his partner to explain the reason for this, and he said, "Because you are not my friend."

Bostwick: "No, no, this isn't true."

The habit we form in college are habits which are carried into life. If we think that they are proper to come to class, then we shall expect the business employer to pay an attention to them.

Regularity as class attendance is no less a virtue than faithfulness in social obligations.

Since it is true that the constant dripping of water will wear down the hardest stone, we may yet attain efficiency in the use of a foreign language if we work at it. Perhaps Most censorious crucibles think his efforts are being expended upon solid ivory.

Every time we pat anything causing our instructions, we develop ourselves in some vital aspect of life.

If we pick up the easy paths will inevitably come to be the place where we are, our children, developing. Even the smoother roads must come to an end.

"It can't be done" is often the stimulus for efforts that finally accomplish something.
