We once knew a fellow who got mad at himself the other day and had to put himself on the back for an hour before he would speak to anyone.

He made a run around the end, was tackled from the rear, the ball fell out upon his neck, the fullback on his ear, the center cut upon his leg, two ends sat on his chest, two guards and the fullback sat down on him to rest, the left guard cut upon his head, a tackle on his face, the corner was cut, called it, and "that was that."

Q. Who was the ball carrier?
A. No person on the field had possession of the ball for the entire game, and there was a headless man in the rear.
