The answer is, this current senior class at Sunset High School, for the most part, remained the same as the time the seniors attended the same school.

Following the tradition, a later senior survey was held and some surveys apologized for the senior survey which will be held at Sunset.

On June 8, the President, Gertrude

Hess, and the Treasurer, Ruth

Todd, announced the survey which was initiated by Miss Hess, the President, and by the other officers of the school.

The purpose of this effort was to find out the similarity of the students of the past and those present.

The students who were present were also selected to receive their senior survey, which was entitled, "The Sunset Student,

Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow."

The students included in the survey were: Gertrude Hess, Ruth Todd,

William, Mrs. Hess, and Lila Thomas.

SPRING SONG

Sing a song of spring time,

Sing of the days of light,

When the world was young,

Sing of the days of spring.

What’s the day of spring?

The sun is shining bright,

The birds are singing,

The flowers are blooming,

What’s the day of spring?

What’s the day of spring?

Here are the leaves on the trees,

The wind is blowing

The sun is shining

What’s the day of spring?

What’s the day of spring?

May our songs be sung

For the world to hear,

And our songs be true,

For the world to see.

Students of 1932 Look Through Annual

of '27; Feature Writer Tells of Dream

It was in the spring of '27 when the first issue of the Puget Sound Trail went out, and the boys were very pleased with the results. They had been working on it for some time, and they realized that it was going to be a big success. They decided to hold a contest to see who could come up with the best ideas for the next issue. The contest was open to all students, and the winners would be announced in the next issue. The contest was a great success, and the boys were excited to see what the students would come up with. They couldn't wait to see who would win and what they would write about.

Mystery Column

This week the Mystery Column is being presented by the editor, who is eager to share some interesting stories with the readers. The column features a variety of stories, ranging from murder mysteries to mystery thrillers. The stories are written by different authors, and each one is sure to keep the readers on the edge of their seats. The column is a great way to get a taste of different genres and to discover new authors.

Looking Back

With this latest edition of the Puget Sound Trail to be published, we pause to reflect on the past few months. We have come a long way in terms of improving our publication, and we are very proud of the progress we have made. We are grateful to all of the contributors who have helped us along the way. We are also grateful to all of the readers who have taken the time to read our publication and to share their feedback with us.

Whimsy Facts
