Women's Sport Program For 1927
Shows All-Round Improvement

Women's Sports Editor of Trial Reviews Accomplishments of Loquelettes During Past Season in All Sports

With the Sport Editor

By Ethel Teufel

With the coming of the new year, more and more women athletes are taking an active part in sports. There has been a great deal of interest in the schools, and the sport programs have expanded as a result. This is due in no small part to the fact that the women's teams have shown more spirit and enthusiasm than ever before. They have been more determined to win and have contributed greatly to the success of their teams.

In addition, the women now have a more organized approach to their athletic endeavors. They have formed groups to discuss their goals and strategies, and they have worked hard to improve their skills. This has led to greater success in sports, and the women's teams are now considered to be just as capable as the men's teams.

With this increased interest and participation, it is hoped that the performance of women athletes will continue to improve. The future looks promising, and it is expected that the women's teams will continue to bring home success and recognition.

YOU THINK WHAT YOU DRESS

What I Think

Do you think you should have a certain look for certain occasions? The Daily Princetoniana says: "In certain circles, there is a general feeling that a certain type of dress is necessary for the proper conduct of business and that one's personal appearance should be considered in relation to one's social position."

But what do you think? Is there a standard of dress that should be followed in all situations, or is it more important to dress comfortably and appropriately for the occasion? Please share your thoughts on this matter.

SHEAR ROBBERY

The following case was recently reported from the University of Minnesota, and is of great interest to students, faculty and alumni.

A STUDENT: I believe that I am entitled to the use of the University's facilities, and that I should not be prevented from attending classes or participating in extracurricular activities because of my association with a political organization.

SHEAR ROBBERY: I have no objection to your association with a political organization, as long as you do not interfere with the operation of the University. However, I must insist that you must not use the facilities of the University for political purposes.

A STUDENT: But if I use the facilities for political purposes, I will not be taken to court. Shear robbery, I believe, is contrary to the spirit of freedom of speech and association.

SHEAR ROBBERY: Freedom of speech and association are certainly important, but they must not interfere with the operation of the University. I must insist that you must not use the facilities for political purposes.

A STUDENT: I do not see why I should not be able to use the facilities for political purposes, as long as I do not interfere with the operation of the University.

SHEAR ROBBERY: You are entitled to use the facilities of the University as long as you do not interfere with the operation of the University. However, you must not use the facilities for political purposes.
