The College of Puget Sound Mecca of Speakers of Northwest; Convocation Friday May 8, 1942

John O'Connor to Represent Puget Sound in Illinois

With John O'Connor as representative, Puget Sound will be entered in the National Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest, Washington Square, to be held in the auditorium of the Pullman Palace Theatre, May 7, and May 8.

The University of Washington and Gonzaga University will also send representatives, who will have a chance to go to the western region contest, May 7, and May 8, at Seattle, California.

Purpose of the Contest

The Intercollegiate Oratorical contest is held with the object of discovering the great American orator. The winner of the contest will represent the university at Chicago.

The following are the dates when all will be competed in:

May 7 at 2:00 p.m., when the preliminary competition will be held

May 8 at 2:30 p.m., when the preliminary competition will be held

May 8 at 7:30 p.m., when the final competition will be held

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.

In the course of the contest, the students of the American Revolution may be called to the presence of Queen Elizabeth, and the students of the Sons of the American Revolution to the presence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.

In the course of the contest, the students of the American Revolution may be called to the presence of Queen Elizabeth, and the students of the Sons of the American Revolution to the presence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.

In the course of the contest, the students of the American Revolution may be called to the presence of Queen Elizabeth, and the students of the Sons of the American Revolution to the presence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.

In the course of the contest, the students of the American Revolution may be called to the presence of Queen Elizabeth, and the students of the Sons of the American Revolution to the presence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.

In the course of the contest, the students of the American Revolution may be called to the presence of Queen Elizabeth, and the students of the Sons of the American Revolution to the presence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.

In the course of the contest, the students of the American Revolution may be called to the presence of Queen Elizabeth, and the students of the Sons of the American Revolution to the presence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.

In the course of the contest, the students of the American Revolution may be called to the presence of Queen Elizabeth, and the students of the Sons of the American Revolution to the presence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.

In the course of the contest, the students of the American Revolution may be called to the presence of Queen Elizabeth, and the students of the Sons of the American Revolution to the presence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.

In the course of the contest, the students of the American Revolution may be called to the presence of Queen Elizabeth, and the students of the Sons of the American Revolution to the presence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.

In the course of the contest, the students of the American Revolution may be called to the presence of Queen Elizabeth, and the students of the Sons of the American Revolution to the presence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.

In the course of the contest, the students of the American Revolution may be called to the presence of Queen Elizabeth, and the students of the Sons of the American Revolution to the presence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.

In the course of the contest, the students of the American Revolution may be called to the presence of Queen Elizabeth, and the students of the Sons of the American Revolution to the presence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.

In the course of the contest, the students of the American Revolution may be called to the presence of Queen Elizabeth, and the students of the Sons of the American Revolution to the presence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The contest is open to all members of the college with an interest in oratorical society and the Sons of the American Revolution.
QUEEN ED IS CROWNE D

...in the room and upon the stage was seated the small group of faculty members. The music of the orchestra was played, the music filled the air, and the audience was entranced. The procession entered the room, led by the Dean of Students, followed by the faculty members. The audience stood, applauding and shouting in excitement. The queen was announced, and the crowd erupted in cheers. The queen walked forward, smiling and waving to the audience, and the crowning ceremony began.

PHILOS ENJOY HOUSEPARTY AT ISLAND OF SICILY

The island of Sicily was the perfect setting for a relaxing weekend. The sun was shining, the sea was calm, and the air was filled with the sweet scent of jasmine. The group of friends had rented a villa on the beach and were spending the weekend enjoying each other's company and the beauty of the island.

DEAN TALKS AT YM MEET

The dean of the college presented a talk on the state of the university and its future. The audience was attentive, and many questions were asked. The dean responded to each question with thoughtfulness and insight, and the discussion continued long after the formal session ended.

Don't Forget

You can find all of your TEXT BOOKS and SUPPLIES here.

M. R. Martin & Co.
200 Pacific Ave.

The Tacoma Daily Ledger

FIRST WITH THE LATEST

MORNING NEWS IS PREMIERE

News stories are brief, to the point. You can find what you are looking for quickly.

BE PREPARED

MENTALLY ALERT

READ THE LEDGER AT BREAKFAST

A REAL MEANINGFUL DAILY

15¢ Per Week Daily and Sunday

Broadway 2244
ST. MARTIN'S OUTFIGHTS THE WASHINGTON RELAY TEAM

Lugger Baseball Ansels Drop Game to Laggies

The "Lag" boys of baseball this afternoon will try to break the stoic resistance of their opponents, the "Ansels". The score of the game was 3-2 in favor of the Laggies. The outcome of the game will be decided by the second game, which will be played at 2 p.m. on Saturday.

SPORTS EDITION OUT NEXT WEEK

Next week the weekly sports supplement will be published, and special features will be given to the future events of the season. The supplement will be the best paper of the week, and will cover the important events of the University of Washington.

SPORTS STAFF

David F. M. Hansen, George Tibbits, Thomas Hagen, John Coon, and Evelyn Bjorkman

With the SPORTS EDITOR

THE RELAY CARNIVAL

Tomorrow the Pacific Sound track team (in Seattle) will give its annual exhibition at the University of Washing ton. The team will be made up of two Northwest universities and one from the East.

The team has five men from the Mariner and White marines and five from the University of Washington relay team. They will all be able to win any of the six track events.

We wonder whether any other schools of the Northwest have done the job, and if the best in the state is in the state. We are not prepared to make this statement. We believe that the best track team is in the Northwest, and that the best is in the Northwest.

"Iron Man" Tibbits, whose name will become known as the Northwest track team, has been doing a splendid job. "Red" Battle and "Babe" have made a good showing. Pacific Avenue has been doing very well, but "Red" Battle and "Babe" have made a good showing. Pacific has been doing very well, but "Red" Battle and "Babe" have made a good showing.

It is true that financial aid is not plentiful in small schools but we believe that the best track team is in the Northwest, and that the best is in the Northwest.

STAFF CHANGES

With the exception of the regular staff, there will be no changes in the staff. The Freshman A cricket team (32) has been elected president of the Tacoma Athletic Association.

SPORTS ADVERTISERS

Fidelity Barber Shop
For Appliance Auto
611 2nd Ave.
J. A. (Jack) Hansen

Maddux-Raymond
FURNACE
2215 4th Ave.
Main 380

PHILADELPHIA TIMES
6/11/1930

Home of SPALDING

ATHLETIC GOODS IN TACOMA

WASHINGTON HARDWARE CO.
10th and Pacific Avenues
Features

When Dad was a "Modern Youth"

BICYCLES, association lectures, and the "glided" potholes with their horses and cars; at night the midnight oil burning in student lamps with the gas lights glimmered and flickered across the campus—the gay nineties when Dad was in college seem quite unknown to us to-day.

Now it's superb readers, the movies, and radios. As night the Mazda lamp made the midnight oil in dormitory nooks, while modern street lighting throws in friendly glow over the campus.

Without electricity we would have none of these improvements. To-day's marvel of electric invention becomes to-morrow's accepted utility. In the coming years, by taking advantage of new uses of electricity you will be able to go so much farther that the "tearing twenties" will seem just as primitive as the "gay nineties".

\[ Finite \]

Relay Carnival Tomorrow

At Seattle

When Dad was a "Modern Youth"