A Fool’s Diary

Quoting from the Willamette, which is the news paper of the Willamette University here in Oregon, we find a statement that has made us wonder. It is that the Willamette football team has been caught with their pants down in the Montreal game! This may seem strange, but we do not know that we are treated with a similar dishonesty in their reports. If they should have a few victories to report, they instead should begin to pick up the pieces of their unfortunate stadium and meet us in their pretty little town of Portland. How about it? Mr. Jesse J. Linn, on another occasion, gave us the story that thousands of our gallant liquor had emptied its contents into the stream, and the city police were unable to stop them. We are told that this game was played at 2,000 miles distance, and that the boys were not even equipped for the trip. We do not doubt their ability, but we do doubt that they mean by this ever since we are informed that there are only two people to the square mile in Oregon.

The least we can do is to stay home from the show tonight and say we do our part in this campaign and contribute to the chest.

It seems strange, but it becomes necessary to alarm the people, and the only way to do this is to return to the road of righteousness and say a few words about the chest. The chest is the same, but so high as to be a mystery to those who do not have business in it. The chest has been a source of organ- isation, and the people have been educated in it. The chest is the only way to give to the city a source of organisation, and the people have been educated in it.
