The game, one of the most exciting in the history of the university, was played on the red turf of Callahan Field.

The two teams were evenly matched, and at the end of the first half the score was 2 to 0, with the Sound leading. The second half was even more exciting, and the final score was 10 to 4 in favor of the Sound.

The crowd was completely sold out, and the game was an excellent example of good sportsmanship on the part of both teams.

The game was well played by both teams, and the Sound was victorious in the end.

Loggers come to life in last half to take measure of badger squad.

Loggers Stage Great Come Back against Skinning Badgers, Winning Second Place Honors in Northwest Conference Football Standings; Gallman Stars for Puget Sound.

The College of Puget Sound Loggers staged a great comeback in the Stadium Saturday to defeat the Pacific Badgers for a score of 14 to 0 and win second place honors in the Northwest conference football standings.

Although the Loggers did not score the first half of the game, they put up a strong fight, and in the last half, when scores were tied, managed to sneak in a touchdown and hold the lead throughout.

The Loggers' touchdown was scored by a sharp fisted back who broke loose from the Badgers' line and rumbled his way to the goal line for the score. The Loggers' defense was strong throughout the game, and they did not allow the Badgers to score.

The Loggers' victory was well-deserved, and their performance was highly praised by the fans. They are expected to continue their good form in the coming season.

Thanksgiving is before us, and the meal time, with all its trimmings, is at hand. We do not wish to be too fulsome in our blessings. These should clearly include the fruits of the earth, which will be profuse, the comfort which our homes afford, and the love and tenderness of the family circle. These are the blessings which we have to be thankful for, and which we should not neglect to remember.
