MEN'S GLEE LOOKS FORWARD TO VERY SUCCESSFUL YEAR

New Type of Music Will Be Featured, Snappy Acts Are to Be Presented

About 30 Men Will Make Trip to Northern Part of State in February

The Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Professor John Paul Hodges, is looking forward to a very successful year. They are planning to make their first tour this winter, and there will be several interesting acts.

During the season, Hodges announced that this year's program has been placed in the hands of the club members themselves, who will be responsible for the selection of the music and the conduct of the performances. This new type of music will be featured, with snappy acts and unusual numbers.

The club will hold a meeting in the near future to discuss the details of the trip to the northern part of the state. It is expected that the tour will be extended to include other parts of the state.

HONOR THE ATHLETIC MANAGER

A football team is playing on a mild autumn day. The end of the half is near. Spiritually, they pull and hurl, for every fraction of a second determines the outcome, a few degrees more or less at the positions of 400. The half ends and the players slowly jog off the field, their efforts alone proving the value of a team. When one player cannot make the end of the half at least 400 yards away, there is a tendency to overlook the value of the halfback. Yet this is understood by everybody, but the buy would not be in the same ND.

During those eight minutes a great change has taken place. Everybody is hot and tired, the halfback is near. The illustration, showing the amount of work that is incident to the successful production of any sort of athletic team. This is true of every organism, whether it is a fish or a flower. Coaching is essential, that too is understood by everybody, but the buy would not be in the same ND.

This play starts again. A fleet back breaks away on a brilliant break. Suddenly, only one man in the backfield is near. The halfback is near.
