Demonstrateable Bleachers and An Eight-Foot Fence Will Be Constructed if Central Board Plans \r

Became reality. \r \r
Because of the difficulties experienced by the \r administrative board in locating the bleachers and fence to be used next year. This was the decision made by the Central Board at their last meeting, when motion was made to construct the \r bleachers and fence, which will accommodate 1,500 people, and that \r are demonstrable constructs. \r

CURSTONE OPINIONS by H. C. L.

The school year begins! "Retreat" is to be published today in New York by the American Student. Reading a manuscript, we are impressed with the work of the editor, who has performed the school's task so bravely. The volume is full of fine and interesting stories. We are pleased that you are willing to help us with the staff in producing this magazine. We hope that you will continue to write for us.

Discusses Gentleman

A gentleman, as we understand the term, is one who possesses certain qualities and conducts himself in a particular manner. A gentleman is a person who is polite, kind, just, and honest. He is one who knows how to behave in public and in private. He is a person who is respected by others. He is a person who is worthy of respect. He is a person who is liked by others. He is a person who is respected by others. He is a person who is liked by others. He is a person who is respected by others. He is a person who is liked by others.
