COLLEGE WINS SECOND PLACE AT PI KAPPA DELTA CONTEST

Linfield Wins First by Close Margin at Pi Kappa Delta Province Convention, C. P. S. Gets Seven Medals; Bob Evans Wins Oratory; Men Win Debate

Lacking one point of being Linfield College for first place, the College of Puget Sound recognition would have been assured, an achievement that was culminated at Linfield College, last Saturday evening. Seven medals were won by the Puget Sound students, with Bob Evans winning oratory. Linfield College, with 39 points, would have been a very close second had the college lost in the oratory event with an equal number of points.

Scholarship Remains Unfilled

Many students of the school wonder what will become of their brothers. From the sermon the pastor and what the brothers will be doing after the long wait. Some will not return. Others will begin a new life.

The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Charles E. H. Smith, who has been in the congregation for thirty years.

After the sermon, the members of the congregation were invited to the fellowship hall for a reception.

easter sunday

Sunday is Easter. Many people go to church, but no one is sure what Easter is. Some think it is a holiday, while others believe it is a religious occasion.

Some will go to church to remember the death of Jesus Christ. Others will go to hear the gospel message preached by the pastor. Still others will go to experience the joy of Easter Sunday.

The Rev. Dr. Smith delivered the sermon on the meaning of Easter.

The message was delivered in a clear and concise manner, making it easy for the congregation to understand.

The congregation responded enthusiastically to the sermon, and many expressed their appreciation for the Rev. Dr. Smith's insight.

The Rev. Dr. Smith concluded the sermon with a call to action, urging the congregation to put their faith into practice.

The service ended with a rendition of the hymn "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing."
