BY A JUNIOR

With nothing to do during Freshman Week, the Trail feature reporter decided to record his experience of a Freshman. He followed one that he thought particularly green among the various proceedings that children always make, and this is what he did.

First thing Monday, the specimen wandered by accident into Jones Hall, and after a prolonged stay there began to wonder how he was to get to sleep. Some time later he woke up in time to leave with the rest, and with a bright inspiration he tied the dues. To take care of all freshmen, a sufficient amount to lighten the heart and rest one's mind.
