Students Press for Difficult Solos With Ease; Society Plans Recitals For Dec. 11 and 13

Handel's oratorio, "Messiah," will be presented Dec. 19 and 20 at the Messiah Church of the College of Puget Sound Sunday evening at the First Methodist Episcopal Church.

Professor John Paul Bennett of the Conservatory of Music conducted the College orchestra, with soprano Leon Jacobson at the piano.

Solos by Mrs. Luke Price, soprano; Leon Hardin, bass; Elsie Truth, contralto, and Robert Wilson, baritone, at the conservatory, sang the recitatives, simultane- ously with the college orchestra. The program included "O Holy Night," "O Come, All Ye Faithful," "Stabat Mater," "Nunc Dimittis," and "Rocking Horse." The program also included two choruses from "Messiah."

The choir was composed of students, faculty, and members of the community. The program was presented by the College of Puget Sound orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Beekman.

The program included: "O Holy Night," "O Come, All Ye Faithful," "Stabat Mater," "Nunc Dimittis," "Rocking Horse," and "Messiah." The program was presented by the College of Puget Sound orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Beekman.

The program included: "O Holy Night," "O Come, All Ye Faithful," "Stabat Mater," "Nunc Dimittis," "Rocking Horse," and "Messiah." The program was presented by the College of Puget Sound orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Beekman.
Lambda Chi Sorority Has Annual Winter Informal

Over Two Score Couples Attend Christmas Dance
Given At Elks' Temple

Guests of Lambdas Sigma Chi were entertained Saturday evening at an informal give-in the Elks Temple. The affair was an annual winter event sponsored by the chapter and over two score couples attended. A holiday motif was followed in appointment with evergreens and silver and gold decorations carrying through the theme. Smart dress prevailed and a few found on a miniature Christmas tree in the lobby of the temple and left without. Miss Beverly Thompson was dance chairman assisted by Misses Paul Anderson, Margaret Heilman, Carl Carleson and Ann Fremor. Patrons and pats were Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Burmeiser, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McCullum, Mr. John B. Cromwell Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Carleson.

HONORARY TO MOTHERS

Of-staff Ballroom has been named chairman of the Delta Chi Omega committee for the informal to be given sometime late in January. Others who will work on the committee are Helen Jaeger and Florence Tkacz. Entertainments arranged for the ballroom included music provided by the Delta Chi Omega chapter and a program of songs and recitations. It was given to acquaint the pledges with the activities of the fraternity. Emery Asbury spoke of the work of the mothers' association. Charles Anderson, president; Harold Brown, vice-president; and Har- old Schroedel, treasurer.

Delta Kappa Phi Honors Parents

Of special interest during the past week was the mothers' and fathers' night sponsored by the Delta Kappa Phi. The informal was held Wednesday evening, November 30 at the home of Frank Hubbs. Gene Williams opened the meeting and spoke on home entertainments. The program was turned over to the Delta Pi Omicron fraternity, president; Ray Bratford, Elsie Korpela, Edith Gus- tafson, and Leon Moltin who will have charge of the party. The program in- cluded music given by the Delta Pi Omicron fraternity and a social hour.

Gamma Delta Phi To Entertain at Informal

In order to create more interest in the Gamma Delta Phi chapter of the sorority, a dance was held in their newly furnished sorority room. December 8 has been designated as Christmas themed for the occasion. Other plans were made at the meeting concerning a party to be given later in the first semester. Ernest Ho- sam, Helen Hall, and Bill Seibert will have charge of the party. The Beta met at the home of Alpha Timmermann, 606 South 1 for a hot-chocolate supper and business meet- ing.

Y. W. C. A. Meeting Features Seaback

Mrs. A. Battin and Dr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Seward.

Robertie Bookston has been named chairman of the Delta Chi Om-

Sigma Mu Chi members met for a short business meeting at the chapter house Wednesday evening to discuss plans for their dance December 16. July Davis is dance chairman, assisted by Helen Hance, president; Ray Bratford, vice-president; and Harold Brown, treasurer.

Sigma Zeta Epsilon

Members and pledges of the Delta Zeta met Wednesday evening, No- vember 28 in the Y. W. C. A. room. The business meeting was held, with plans for the informal dance to be given by the chapter, December 16. July Davis is dance chairman, assisted by Helen Hance, president; Ray Bratford, vice-president; and Harold Brown, treasurer.

Ms. Chi Mu

Sisters of the Chi Mu chapter will entertain the guests at the Chi Mu dance committee for the winter formal to be given sometime late in December. Misses Virginia Gardner and Lucy May Spencer in violin duet. A quartet, including Misses Charlotte Cook, Martha Perry, Virginia Phillips and Ann Bashford, will sing Christmas carols.

SPECIAL DANCES

Further plans for the Alpha Chi Mu formal are being made, with the dance committee for the winter formal to be given sometime late in December. Misses Virginia Gardner and Lucy May Spencer in violin duet. A quartet, including Misses Charlotte Cook, Martha Perry, Virginia Phillips and Ann Bashford, will sing Christmas carols.

Patronize Trail Advertisers

The following people were taken into the club: Marciella Anderson, Charles Asbury, George Brookey, Roberte DeMoss, Dorothy Doles, Daughley, LeRoy Diplog, Robert Denny, Virginia Phillips, Stella MacLean, Stella MacKenzie, Wilma Osborne. The program in- cluded music given by the Delta Pi Omicron fraternity and a social hour.

Killian Mansion

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Johnson, both 27, are living in Kirkland, Wash., where Mort is teaching school.

Proctor Pharmacy

We Serve You Best

2 STORES 2 STORES

Fountain Pens - 14K Gold
Iron & Tipped Pens
Self-Filling—Fully guaranteed
SPECIAL 69c

SUN DRUG CO.
Corner of 10th & A Street
2310 Pacific Avenue
Phone Main 646

We Develop Films Free

Special Holidays

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Johnson, both 27, are living in Kirkland, Wash.; where Mort is teaching school.

Ambassador Inn On American Lake To Be Scene Of Affair Honoring Members

Pledges of Alpha Beta Upsilon sorority will entertain the members with an informal Christmas dance to be held December 9 at the Ambassador Inn on American Lake. Corinne Willis, assisted by Ruth Penke, Lois Farrand, and Anna Lois Johnson, will have charge of the formal program for the evening, December 9. The dance will be decorated with red and green and tinsel, following a Christmas motif. Patronesses and patronesses include Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rattigan, Mrs. John L. Bratford, and Dr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Seward.

GROUPS MEETING DATES

Albatross Club Tea Scheduled

In Joe.

Open House Planned

Two stores, both 127, are living in Kirkland, Wash. Phone Broadway 4375

Ice Cream

For December 9

Spiced Ice Cream

5, 192
The three men shown above played their last game of intercollegiate football for CPS when they emerged from the Columbia tower in Portland, after having performed under the Marson and White colors for four years. Above at the right is shown "Ocky" Johnson, halfback, whose line blocking and superb punting have been the deciding factors in many Logger victories. Before coming to CPS, "Ocky" played at Fitch High School and Willamette, end. Deane Pettitsonend, end. Deane has few peers as an end in the Northwest and ruled All-Conference last year at that position in addition to holding the local team. He is one of the Logger gridironers who stand good chances of placing on this year's eleven if the coaches make the right selections. At the top is Archie Cox, two-year lettermen, announced Tuesday. Coach Sandberg guides Loggers Through Successful Grid Season

Coach Sandberg Guides Loggers Through Successful Grid Season

Coach Sandberg guides Loggers through successful grid season.

The annual Homecoming game was won by CPS over the Marson and White 3 to 0. It was the first of four rough games on successive week-ends—a so-called suicide slate. After Al Weinel, star Pacific back, scored CPS' first touchdown for the winning touchdown. Whittam, 1921 title defender, the next victim of the Lum- berjacks,journeying to Walla Walla the boys pushed the Missouricans off their feet in the opening minute. Deths pulled a Whitman pass out of the air and carried it to the 10-yard stripe—Jimmy Ennis went over for the score. Whittam also made a touchdown, but Ruby's point conversion had given the Tacomaans the one extra point that spelled victory.

Parry Added to Coaching Staff

It was announced that Coach Sandberg found himself surrounded with several new assistants this fall. The newly added to the staff were Pat Parry, star WSC guard. In the mix with the College of Idaho the Puget Sound found some big holes in the Coyote forward wall which proved to be an important factor in the 30 to 9 victory.

The men above played their last game of intercollegiate football for CPS when they emerged from the Columbia tower in Portland, after having performed under the Marson and White colors for four years. Above at the right is shown "Ocky" Johnson, halfback, whose line blocking and superb punting have been the deciding factors in many Logger victories. Before coming to CPS, "Ocky" played at Fitch High School and Willamette, end. Deane Pettitsonend, end. Deane has few peers as an end in the Northwest and ruled All-Conference last year at that position in addition to holding the local team. He is one of the Logger gridironers who stand good chances of placing on this year's eleven if the coaches make the right selections. At the top is Archie Cox, two-year lettermen, announced Tuesday. Coach Sandberg guides Loggers Through Successful Grid Season

Coach Sandberg guides Loggers through successful grid season.

The annual Homecoming game was won by CPS over the Marson and White 3 to 0. It was the first of four rough games on successive week-ends—a so-called suicide slate. After Al Weinel, star Pacific back, scored CPS' first touchdown for the winning touchdown. Whittam, 1921 title defender, the next victim of the Lum- berjacks,journeying to Walla Walla the boys pushed the Missouricans off their feet in the opening minute. Deths pulled a Whitman pass out of the air and carried it to the 10-yard stripe—Jimmy Ennis went over for the score. Whittam also made a touchdown, but Ruby's point conversion had given the Tacomaans the one extra point that spelled victory.

Parry Added to Coaching Staff

It was announced that Coach Sandberg found himself surrounded with several new assistants this fall. The newly added to the staff were Pat Parry, star WSC guard. In the mix with the College of Idaho the Puget Sound found some big holes in the Coyote forward wall which proved to be an important factor in the 30 to 9 victory.

The men above played their last game of intercollegiate football for CPS when they emerged from the Columbia tower in Portland, after having performed under the Marson and White colors for four years. Above at the right is shown "Ocky" Johnson, halfback, whose line blocking and superb punting have been the deciding factors in many Logger victories. Before coming to CPS, "Ocky" played at Fitch High School and Willamette, end. Deane Pettitsonend, end. Deane has few peers as an end in the Northwest and ruled All-Conference last year at that position in addition to holding the local team. He is one of the Logger gridironers who stand good chances of placing on this year's eleven if the coaches make the right selections. At the top is Archie Cox, two-year lettermen, announced Tuesday. Coach Sandberg guides Loggers Through Successful Grid Season

Coach Sandberg guides Loggers through successful grid season.

The annual Homecoming game was won by CPS over the Marson and White 3 to 0. It was the first of four rough games on successive week-ends—a so-called suicide slate. After Al Weinel, star Pacific back, scored CPS' first touchdown for the winning touchdown. Whittam, 1921 title defender, the next victim of the Lum- berjacks,journeying to Walla Walla the boys pushed the Missouricans off their feet in the opening minute. Deths pulled a Whitman pass out of the air and carried it to the 10-yard stripe—Jimmy Ennis went over for the score. Whittam also made a touchdown, but Ruby's point conversion had given the Tacomaans the one extra point that spelled victory.

Parry Added to Coaching Staff

It was announced that Coach Sandberg found himself surrounded with several new assistants this fall. The newly added to the staff were Pat Parry, star WSC guard. In the mix with the College of Idaho the Puget Sound found some big holes in the Coyote forward wall which proved to be an important factor in the 30 to 9 victory.

The men above played their last game of intercollegiate football for CPS when they emerged from the Columbia tower in Portland, after having performed under the Marson and White colors for four years. Above at the right is shown "Ocky" Johnson, halfback, whose line blocking and superb punting have been the deciding factors in many Logger victories. Before coming to CPS, "Ocky" played at Fitch High School and Willamette, end. Deane Pettitsonend, end. Deane has few peers as an end in the Northwest and ruled All-Conference last year at that position in addition to holding the local team. He is one of the Logger gridironers who stand good chances of placing on this year's eleven if the coaches make the right selections. At the top is Archie Cox, two-year lettermen, announced Tuesday. Coach Sandberg guides Loggers Through Successful Grid Season

Coach Sandberg guides Loggers through successful grid season.

The annual Homecoming game was won by CPS over the Marson and White 3 to 0. It was the first of four rough games on successive week-ends—a so-called suicide slate. After Al Weinel, star Pacific back, scored CPS' first touchdown for the winning touchdown. Whittam, 1921 title defender, the next victim of the Lum- berjacks,journeying to Walla Walla the boys pushed the Missouricans off their feet in the opening minute. Deths pulled a Whitman pass out of the air and carried it to the 10-yard stripe—Jimmy Ennis went over for the score. Whittam also made a touchdown, but Ruby's point conversion had given the Tacomaans the one extra point that spelled victory.

Parry Added to Coaching Staff

It was announced that Coach Sandberg found himself surrounded with several new assistants this fall. The newly added to the staff were Pat Parry, star WSC guard. In the mix with the College of Idaho the Puget Sound found some big holes in the Coyote forward wall which proved to be an important factor in the 30 to 9 victory.

The men above played their last game of intercollegiate football for CPS when they emerged from the Columbia tower in Portland, after having performed under the Marson and White colors for four years. Above at the right is shown "Ocky" Johnson, halfback, whose line blocking and superb punting have been the deciding factors in many Logger victories. Before coming to CPS, "Ocky" played at Fitch High School and Willamette, end. Deane Pettitsonend, end. Deane has few peers as an end in the Northwest and ruled All-Conference last year at that position in addition to holding the local team. He is one of the Logger gridironers who stand good chances of placing on this year's eleven if the coaches make the right selections. At the top is Archie Cox, two-year lettermen, announced Tuesday. Coach Sandberg guides Loggers Through Successful Grid Season

Coach Sandberg guides Loggers through successful grid season.

The annual Homecoming game was won by CPS over the Marson and White 3 to 0. It was the first of four rough games on successive week-ends—a so-called suicide slate. After Al Weinel, star Pacific back, scored CPS' first touchdown for the winning touchdown. Whittam, 1921 title defender, the next victim of the Lum- berjacks,journeying to Walla Walla the boys pushed the Missouricans off their feet in the opening minute. Deths pulled a Whitman pass out of the air and carried it to the 10-yard stripe—Jimmy Ennis went over for the score. Whittam also made a touchdown, but Ruby's point conversion had given the Tacomaans the one extra point that spelled victory.

Parry Added to Coaching Staff

It was announced that Coach Sandberg found himself surrounded with several new assistants this fall. The newly added to the staff were Pat Parry, star WSC guard. In the mix with the College of Idaho the Puget Sound found some big holes in the Coyote forward wall which proved to be an important factor in the 30 to 9 victory.

The men above played their last game of intercollegiate football for CPS when they emerged from the Columbia tower in Portland, after having performed under the Marson and White colors for four years. Above at the right is shown "Ocky" Johnson, halfback, whose line blocking and superb punting have been the deciding factors in many Logger victories. Before coming to CPS, "Ocky" played at Fitch High School and Willamette, end. Deane Pettitsonend, end. Deane has few peers as an end in the Northwest and ruled All-Conference last year at that position in addition to holding the local team. He is one of the Logger gridironers who stand good chances of placing on this year's eleven if the coaches make the right selections. At the top is Archie Cox, two-year lettermen, announced Tuesday. Coach Sandberg guides Loggers Through Successful Grid Season

Coach Sandberg guides Loggers through successful grid season.

The annual Homecoming game was won by CPS over the Marson and White 3 to 0. It was the first of four rough games on successive week-ends—a so-called suicide slate. After Al Weinel, star Pacific back, scored CPS' first touchdown for the winning touchdown. Whittam, 1921 title defender, the next victim of the Lum-
Dr. Holland Defends College

Dr. Holland defended the college in a speech on May 16, 1932. He charged that there is something rotten in the college. —B.

One thing that the college lacks is all-college dances. Here in Puget Sound several dances have been held. We have no such dance. —B.

varsity ball banquet preceding the dance. During intermission an appropriation of $100 was presented to Central Board by the international peace club. This was a new system for debating. This was a new system for debating the question of an annual financial basis. This was a new system for debating the question of an annual financial basis.

Dr. Collidge O. Chapman, for that work. The club is to have $1200 to apply for the accumulation of deficits in all activities remaining is to be charged to fees. The balance of the indebtedness for the apportionment of the total amount of $1200 is to be taken in equal amounts from each semester's fees. The balance of the indebtedness for the apportionment of the total amount of $1200 is to be taken in equal amounts from each semester's fees.

Dr. Chapman, for that work. The club is to have $1200 to apply for the accumulation of deficits in all activities remaining is to be charged to fees. The balance of the indebtedness for the apportionment of the total amount of $1200 is to be taken in equal amounts from each semester's fees.

Dr. Chapman, for that work. The club is to have $1200 to apply for the accumulation of deficits in all activities remaining is to be charged to fees. The balance of the indebtedness for the apportionment of the total amount of $1200 is to be taken in equal amounts from each semester's fees.

Dr. Chapman, for that work. The club is to have $1200 to apply for the accumulation of deficits in all activities remaining is to be charged to fees. The balance of the indebtedness for the apportionment of the total amount of $1200 is to be taken in equal amounts from each semester's fees.