CPS Places At Forensic Tournament

Ten members of the College of Puget Sound forensic squad accompanied by Miss Martha Pearl Jones and Professor Charles T. Battin, debate coach, returned yesterday from the Intercollegiate Forensic Tournament, held on the campus of Linfield College in McMinnville, Oregon, last Friday and Saturday, with four second place and one third place awards to their credit. Although they were unable to capture first place in any of the events, their winning of the second places made them one of the outstanding groups in the tournament.

The men's debate, the CPS team composed of J. Herman Mattson and Charles Thomas made its presentation.

ELSIE KORPELA Given Award

Student Body Vice-President Receives AAUW Gift

Elsie Korpela, vice-president of the Associated Students of CPS, received the annual award of $50 given by the American Association of University Women in Tacoma Wednesday. Mrs. W. W. Mattox, president of the Tacoma branch of the organization, made the presentation.

Miss Korpela has been prominent in all activities during her four years of work at Puget Sound being president of the Kappa Sigma Theta sorority, heading the YWCA cabinet as well as holding membership in various other organizations. She is majoring in business administration in preparation for secretarial work and is doing part time work as assistant secretary of the Kiwanis club.

The AAUW award is made annually to the senior woman who has fulfilled the following conditions: partial or complete financial independence, high scholarship, wholesomeness of influence and promise.

SPANISH CLUB HOLDS INITIATION

Initiation services for the Spanish Club were conducted last week. They were presented in pageant form with conversation in Spanish throughout. Several alumni aided in the ceremony, which was held at the Mason church parlor.

Plans are now underway for programs during the new semester, and membership is extended to all students who have had two years of high school, or one year of college Spanish.

PETITIONS DUE FOR ELECTION

Central Board, Managers to Be Elected

Petitions from students for positions as officers in Central Board must be turned in at the secretary's office, Thursday, February 23, not later than 4 P.M. Six officers will be chosen, along with five managers and two editors, who are nominated by department committees.

The editors will be chosen for the Tamanawas and Trail, with business managers for both publications. In addition a yell king and dukes will be chosen. President, vice-president, secretary, and representatives for the sophomores, junior and senior classes are to be elected to Central Board, there being one representative for each class.

Students who are unconditional members of a class, and who conform to certain class regulations, are eligible for election. President and vice-president must be seniors, secretary and yell king must be sophomores. The Log also states that no student manager or member of the Student Judiciary may be considered for Central Board.

This year candidates may give campaign speeches at regular chapel sessions on February 27 or March 1. The election will be held March 2.

Stunts, Dance Tuesday Night

Central Board Curtains College Banquet

Competitive stunts, refreshments and a dance will comprise the program of All-college Night to be held on the campus tomorrow night. The entertainment will start at 8:00 p.m. in the auditorium of Jones Hall where acts will be put on by each class with the best receiving a prize sufficient for each member of the group.

The Associate Girls' Club will then serve ice cream and cake in Jones Hall. The dance is to begin at 9:00 p.m. in the gymnasium with Roy Norman's orchestra playing. The decorations and refreshments will carry out the All-American idea.

"This is for college students only," says Jack Sprenger. "The alumni are invited but they have to pay 35 cents. It is strictly a no-date affair so we want every one out." The committee in charge consists of Dorothy Foxwell, chairman, Jack Sprenger and Elsie Korpela.

For an economy measure the annual all-college banquet has been changed to an all-college night held on the campus this year. At present the school deficit of the Associated Students is approximately $3000. In an attempt to get out of the red Central Board decided to curtail spring activities and apply the balance to the deficit. CPS is not the only college which has had to do this and it is hoped that this will lead to better conditions in a few years.

GRID MANAGERS NEEDED

Applications for football managers for the 1933 season should be in the hands of Coach Roy Sandberg this afternoon—tomorrow at the latest. Herbert Edwards is slated to be the head manager, and two assistants will be chosen to work with him. Prompt action on this matter is necessary as equipment is to be issued for practice.

Trustees Meet; Honor Patron's Founder's Day

Annual Patrons and Founders' day will be featured in a special program scheduled for tomorrow honoring the founders of the College of Puget Sound.

The trustees of the college will first meet at 9:00 in the morning, adjourning at 9:30 to the auditorium. There a special program will be headed by an academic procession. Reverend Horace Williston of Puyallup will read the scripture, and the Invocation will be delivered by Reverend C. S. Renelle.

Dr. B. F. Brooks will deliver an address on "Foundation Days." This is to be followed by music by the Adelphian Choral society and the Adelphian Choral society and the Adelphian Choral society.

STUDENTS VISIT STATE CAPITOL

Witness Process of Law-Making

Having their picture taken with Governor Clarence D. Martin was just one of the thrills experienced by approximately 150 CPS students Thursday on a visit to the session of the state legislature at Olympia.

Two buses and a number of private cars provided a means of transportation for the students. The day was spent in inspecting the various capitol buildings and watching the State Senate and State House of Representatives go through the process of law making. Other departments visited were the supreme court, state treasury office, the Governor's offices and committee rooms.

Professors Davis, Roberts and Williston accompanied the group and greatly assisted in finding the many buildings and offices. Most of those attending were out of history, journalism and political science courses and were able to learn much in connection with their studies.

Band Requires More Musicians

A call for more musicians has been made by Harry W. Evans, band director. Plans are being made and practice has begun for the annual band concert to be presented sometime this spring.

"To put on the type of program I have planned, greater instrumen- tation is needed, especially in clarinets," says Mr. Evans. A half hour credit is given for this course.

ART CLUB SHOWS JAPANESE PRINTS

The Art Club formed this winter wishes to interest the school in art and is sponsoring an exhibit of over 200 pieces of Japanese wood print art. The collection is owned by the Shima Company of New York, and contains copies of fa- mous Japanese artists as Hokusai, Shoson, Utamaro, and Hiroshige. Shoson is noted for his prints of birds and animals and flowers. The club has one of Hiroshige's original prints of a landscape which is highly valued. Most famous among the collection is a copy of The Wave.

These artists lived during the eighteenth century and the prints are valued for their unique coloring. The Japanese prints or prints with ink instead of oil or water color and uses wood blocks. Along with the group the club has a book illustrating the steps in wood block printing. All these prints are for sale and everyone is invited to view the art work, in the art room on the third floor.

Mrs. Drushel spoke to the Alpha Chi Nu fraternity on etiquette at their meeting Wednesday, February 15. Further plans for the formal initiation to be held February 25 were made.

FACULTY MEN ARRANGE PARTY

Members of the Faculty Wo- men's club were entertained Fri- day evening in the parlors of Epworth Methodist church by the men of the faculty who planned the party in secret. Mrs. Raymond Drewry, president of the club named Miss Doris Fickel on the program committee to assist the men and Mrs. F. S. Herrmann was supper chairman.

When the guests arrived they were submitted to an intelligence test, after which, with Dr. Edgar C. Wheeler as "teacher" a three- act tragedy, "The Last Day of School" was given, with the men filling the roles of boys and girls. A number of games were enjoyed by the audience during "recess" and supper was an old-fashioned box social.

Hopes for a Logger basketball championship faded away as a strong Willamette quintet took two games, played Thursday and Friday on the local court. The first game was hotly contested and went to the Bearcats 32 to 27 in the last few minutes. The visitors took the second game 52-33.

In the first contest the score was fairly even throughout with the two teams exchanging the lead from time to time. At the half the score stood 15-14 in favor of the visitors. The Bearcats took the lead in the second half but with two minutes left to play the Loggers brought the score up to 28-27 only to lose the game when the visitors sunk two field goals in quick succession. Bates took scoring honors with 11, followed by Lemmon, a Tacoma boy playing for Willamette, with 10.

In the second game the first half was evenly played until the final minute when the Bearcats located the basket and led by a score of 19-17 at the half.

The visitors continued to score in the second half and their tight defense held the Loggers in check although several rallies by the Mau- room and White hoopsters brought the score up to 28-27 only to lose the game when the visitors sank two field goals in quick succession. Bates took scoring honors with 11, followed by Lemmon, a Tacoma boy playing for Willamette, with 10.

OUR RETRENCHMENT PLAN

Many comments were heard about the size of last week's Trail. These were expected. Every paper aims to please, but seldom achieves its objective. However, the Trail staff harbors no qualms about decreasing the size of the paper. This move is one to help alleviate the ominous presence of "that perennial deficit."

At the first of the year Trail heads pruned their budget closer than any department in school, thus we decreased the possibility of publishing a paper every week in favor of striving to lessen the anguish and worry of the general manager. When apportionments ran low the paper was discontinued.

With the opening of the new semester new blood (student body fees) has poured into the various departments. Having experienced one semester of scrimping, the Trail staff wants to do it the same way, voluntarily cut its expenses by printing a smaller paper. Also the second semester apportionment has been cut from the amount originally decided on, but this misfortune is being felt by every department. The staff regrets having to cut the size of the paper, but it is not ashamed of it, for economizing is not a shameful practice. All the departments are doing their share in carrying out this program. The debate squad left early Friday morning for Linfield in order to save one night's lodging.

The Trail staff does not believe in buying something which cannot be paid for, therefore, if you do not believe in economizing, you will not receive sympathetic hearing from the Trail staff.
