Discount Budget

For Next Year

The budget of the College for new business plans. Possible for that of the current year,” according to the statement released this week from the Office of President Edward H. Todd. “The income for this year has been about $2,000. A little less than was estimated a year ago. It was not determined that the income could be cut this year until early in the second semester,” the statement says.

"Cuts in salaries have been made this year averaging about 12.5 percent. This year will require a cut of 10 percent to 25 percent below salaries approved for this year..."

Loggers Lose To Washington

Huskies Stale Rally in Ninth Inning

In the opening game of a two-game series the University of Washington tied the final ninth inning to defeat the College of Puget Sound. The score was 8-7.

The Bears, however, scored two runs in the last two innings to tie the game and send it to extra innings. In the ninth inning, the Huskies scored four runs, but the Loggers managed to tie the score and force extra innings.

The game was played on the University of Washington campus.

Loggers Open Season at Ellensburg

Defeating the Puget Sound men's tennis squad in four out of five matches and both doubles, the University of Washington net men staked a comparatively easy victory on the Logger courts last Friday afternoon.

Domino Style

Other leading scorers were Hass of the Maroon and White and Minitti of the Purple and Gold, who were tied for scoring honors in the tournament. The Maroon and White net squad lost to the University of Washington basketball team.

Net Squad Drops Tournament to 'U'

The Loggers were defeated by the University of Washington in the opening game of the tournament, but they rebounded to win the next two matches.

Intramural Schedule

In preparation for the University of Washington's upcoming basketball season, the Loggers have scheduled a series of intramural games. The games are scheduled for the next few weeks, and the Loggers hope to improve their skills and team dynamics.

Loggers Open Season Tournament

The Loggers opened their season against the Ellensburg High School basketball team. The game was held on their home court.
