Dr. Todd Attends Plan Conference

355 Leaders of Northwest Discuss Uses of Resources

Dr. Edward H. Todd, spent three days last week in Portland attending the Planning Conference of the North-Wes. Northwest, which ended Thursday. Nearly 850 leaders from Minnesota, Idaho, Oregon and Washington attended, and the conference continued the findings of Marshall N. Davis, of the Portland College of Education.

The purpose of the meeting was to try to use the conference plan for the Northwest in advance for the resources of the Northwest for the future, to stimulate the intellectual property of the people, the conference went on record as favoring more federal and state aid for education, and in the private supported endowments. In the privately endowed schools they favored a federal student aid plan.

In the opinion of Dr. Todd the conference was a successful meeting in view of the religious conference as the latter came to the conference in general discussions as well as to the faculty conference.

Scholarship Delegates

Delegates, as guests, from Pacific Lutheran College, the University of Washington, the University of British Columbia and Dr. Karl Prichard, of Wash- ington State College, were the only delegates attending.

The latter group was called upon to discuss the complications of a split cast of artists.

Dr. Todd made a suggestion for the conferences to be held in the future.

Miss Amy Heminway Jones, head of theINR club at the meeting, Friday, other meeting held in the University of British Columbia. and all the INR school clubs.

Plans for the conference were made up by the conference which will be held in the Union Auditorium this week.

Sir Herbert Ames will be one of the guest speakers at the INR Conference which will be held on the Campus this weekend.

Theta Phi Alpha Picks Play Cast

Two Lower Classes Present "Where's Your Wife"

After brief tryouts, the cast for the freshmen-sophomore play, sponsored by the Theta Phi Alpha fraternity, was announced in the plan. The play, "Where's Your Wife," by G. B. Sartor is a three act farce.

Due to the shortness of time and the complications of a split cast of characters, the freshmen will not take the play through the first half, with the sophomores finishing it. As previously planned but the entire play will be enacted by one cast of younger players.

Freshmen and sophomores who make up the cast are:

- Helen Welten
- Marenka Likens
- Jane Insma
- Dave Roberts
- Mrs. Howe
- Dorothy Ann Simpson
- Madame Zeller
- Lucille Berry
- Mildred Wachtman
- Beryl McFarland,
- Bernard Watson

The Watch Dog

One of Margaret Jane's boy friends, named Paul Fredrickson, paced up and down in front of Rhodes Brothers for more than an hour in anticipation of meeting his last Margaret Monday as a result of a practical joke played on him by the Students. He telephoned the Trail office to tell Miss Jane and the Prophet office of his whereabouts in Rhodes at 1:30, with a gaiety and excitement that gave no knowledge of the fact.

Speaking of practical jokes, I understand that Margaret Jane has been all-a-flustered by a faked letter, with such descriptive phrases as "I think you're gorgeous, wonderful, divine." Humph, she might have known it was a joke!

Betyah Wilhelm is being weary-grouned by the boys more than somewhat lately. It's reported that Evalyn Mellingh and Margaret Jane have dined at the Hoplions contributions, that new potential feminine chamions in our midst is Frank Haley, whose adolescent days were spent at William and University.

Bub Buenger, brave soul, was the only Theta among the group pictures that really seemed to be out of the picture. He trumped Mr. Patricia Steele's coo at the Zeta cotu Pray they finally got around to speaking on the out-
