Puget Sound INR Hosts Annual Club Convention

41 Delegates at Meetings Featuring Speakers of Interests to Puget Sound Students

At the Northwest Conference of International Relations Clubs Fri, Saturday and Sunday, CPS terted 41 delegates from 14 colleges and one high school of Washington, Oregon and British Columbia. Sir Herbert Ames and Miss Emma Hermanson Jones, both experienced in international politics, spoke to the conference.

The University of British Columbia sent 10 delegates. Victoria college, 13; University of Alberta, 1; Albany college, 6; Pacific colleges, 5; Bel- linrgham Normal, 2; Eastern Oregon Normal, 2; University of Oregon, 1; Albany college, 6; Pacific colleges, 5; and Reed college, 2. The conference is limited to only high school delegates to at- tend.

Club Adviser Grateful

"We greatly appreciate the help of the people in providing accommo- dations for our guests," said Prof. Frank Reinoud, who is in charge of the INR club here. "More homes were opened to them than was neces- sary."

Friday morning the delegates registered and greetings from Presi- dent Chauncey T. Tegmey and Prof. T. W. Harkonen, president of the local, International Relations Club were given. Miss Jones of the Carnegie Endow- ment for International Peace and William McCandless of the University of Washington replied.

Sir Herbert Opens in Chapel

Sir Herbert was introduced by Pusey Tewson to the student body of the college. He told of his days in the Navy and how he has been advising the students of the Navy. He spoke of "The Great Reconcilia- tion Between Germany and France after the World War."

Talks by Student Delegates to the Conference

Subjects discussed by various students were: "The Child Today and His Sociological Problems" by Raymond Showalter, Miss Hazen is state su- preme of the states of Washington, Oregon and Idaho. "P. T. A. Ses- sions" by John Leik of the Womens' Federation, will be "The Modern Social Studies Department, Its Methods, Materials and Philosophy" by Margaret J. Michaelson who was in charge of five or six books for this year's students.

New High School Course

In response to new state require- ments for high schools, two new courses will be offered in 1934 high school teachers. The first of these is in home relations, in which one a- year course will be required in high school. Miss Winfield Hauen will offer three courses in this depart- ment, "The Child, Home and His Parents," "Home Relations" and "Parent Education." The last course will be advertised for parents and club women through the P. T. A.

'Swede' Lindquist, Fullback

Maurice Webster, Harold Kemp, "Swede" Lindquist, fullback, and Martin Nelson, tackle, were awarded the annual Mahncke Scholarship trophy, which is voted by the team to the most valuable player. Jack Sprenger, '33, president-elect of the College Football Association, will be Thomas' teammate in the third choice—teacher.

April Sweaters and Certifi- cates Awarded

Topped by the announcement that the annual Scripps Review had divided scholarship honors in com- petition for the Malakoff trophy and presented the crew, the highest honor was awarded the Johnson-Cox Inspirational trophy, actual award assembly was held in chapel Wednesday.

Award Fourteen Sweaters

Nine sweaters were awarded the students who have won the highest academic honors for the year. Among those making up this year's list were Jack Slatter, tackle, and Jack Sprenger, fullback, who are remaining on the team next year. "The annual will contain six see- sons beginning June 12, with Philos- ophy." Miss Troxell is out- putting an intelligent survey of the city and its problems which will be, when completed, an added intelligence to a study of history, geography, and economics.

The Sigma Epsilon five was temporarily eliminated from first honors in the intramural league when they were defeated by the "Mogul Sons" 33 to 31 in a game that necessitated a score of 33 for first honors in the last Tuesday. The Zeets were leading comfortably by an eight-point margin at the half-time, but the Mu Chi kept plugging away until they tied the score and then out played and outflied their formidable rivals to capture one of the most handsome hoop contests of intramural play.

Judy Davis led off in the scoring with 12 points and was closely followed by Joe Kretschmer, Mu Chi forward, who, with eight points and two field shots, was the big gun in the Mu Chi victory.

WHERE'S YOUR WIFE?

In this week's edition, we present a sensational true story from the trail of love and marriage. A young couple, John and Mary, have been married for only a year, and things are not going as planned. John has been spending more time at work, leaving Mary at home alone. She has become increasingly unhappy with the situation and decides to confront him about it.

John: I know what you're thinking, Mary. It's just that I've been so busy lately.

Mary: You're busy all the time. I want to know what's going on.

John: I promise I'll make it up to you.

Mary: Don't make promises you can't keep.

John: I'll do better next time. Mary, I love you. I just need time to balance my work and home life.

Mary: It's not just about balance. It's about commitment. If you can't commit to us, then I'm afraid we'll have to part ways.

John: I understand. I'll try harder.

Mary: I hope you do. Because if you don't, I'll leave you.

END OF DISCUSSION

We hope this story will serve as a reminder to all couples to communicate and work together through any challenges they may face. Remember, love is not just about being happy; it's about being there for each other through thick and thin.
