Fraternities Entertain Men At Mid-Week Rush Banquets

Variied Programs of Feature Group Meetings, Men Make Plans To Honor Fraternity Invitees

Henry Cramer, Seattle attorney and CPS alumnus, will speak on "The Value of Fraternities" at the final Sigma Zeta Epsilon rush banquet to be held Wednesday evening at the fraternity house, 7920 North Aurora.

The program, to be held November 23, will feature three presentations: William Adams, speaker for the Delta Alpha Gamma chapter; Jack Burns, Douglas Shurtleff and Charles Zittel, for the Kappa Sigma Theta chapter. Three alcoholic beverages will be served.

Future activities will be planned by Wally Kolcz and Ed Schmitt, of the Delta Pi Omicron fraternity. The mayor of the fraternity house, 3312 North 11th, with Mrs. R. S. Seward, will host the event.

Committee Chairmen Chosen For Affairs

Women of Lambda Sigma Chi met Thursday evening at the home of Miss Maxine Harti for the monthly evening meeting. Miss Margaret Dickson, group president, appointed Miss Mary Elizabeth Tuck, vice-president, and Miss Jane Gebert, program chairman for the group, president.

Future plans included rush banquet preparations, Homecoming week plans and rush banquet dinners.

Committee chairmen were chosen for the following committees: Misses Sarah Tierney, chair of the dinner committee; Misses Helen Howe, Miss Kathleen Irwin and Miss Helen Willison, chairwomen of the dress committee; Misses Betty Butler, Marjorie McGilvrey, Florence Davis, Betty Singerman, chairwomen of the banquet committee; Misses Mrs. R. S. Seward, chairwoman of the entertainment committee; Misses Mrs. E. N. Wittren, Mrs. W. V. Akers and Miss F. J. Ford, chairwomen of the decorations committee.

The council is made up of Marguerite Bartlett, Mrs. M. D. White, treasurer; Miss Sarah Tierney, secretary, and Miss Mabel Holsinger, historian.

Beta Gamma Gamma

Delta Alpha Gamma women completed plans for the dinner Wednesday evening at the Bonneville hotel. Cabaret music was furnished by the Bonny piece orchestra, furnished music for the centerpiece of the dinner table.

Bellingham Gridders Invade Logger Lair Friday Night for Annual Tilt

In their next to last home appearances of the 1934 season, Puget Sound's grid forces will entertain Bellingham Normal in their annual tussle this Friday evening in the Stadium, with the kick-off at 8 o'clock. The game will be a form of the Teacher aggregation, which dropped a 5 to 3 verdict to Pacific Lutheran Franklin, flashy halfback. In the other halfback berth will be Art Doersch, who performed for CPS in his first year of college competition in 1933.

Just who will start for the Logger line-up is more than likely that Coach Roy Sandberg will start the same eleven that was riddled with three 11-yarders from the Bellingham Normal grid forces will have to stop in order to stay tied in their quest for supremacy in the Northwest. Jess Brooks remains the leader. He is shifty and fast and he will have to be at his best if we want to win.

When the Zetes and Omicrons meet in anything, you can always expect a real battle. These two frat teams in a practice indoor ball game last week and although it was only a practice between both, a continual chatter and both sides were in there trying to win the ball. It was a close game with the night of the Albany game sat up and again took no lead again so it was a rough game.

The center of the Logger line should be the center of the battlefield. Gus Arnheim and His Orchestra. In their next to last home appearances of the 1934 season, Puget Sound's grid forces will entertain Bellingham Normal in their annual tussle this Friday evening in the Stadium, Bellingham normal, the opponents for the event, have always proved hard to handle for the Loggers to whip, and this year's game will probably not be an easy one. Coach Roy Sandberg, who play- ed with the University of Washington between the Seattle and the University of Washington, is due to take over the coaching position and he will have to be at his best if we want to win.

Lair Friday Night for Annual Tilt

Women's Hockey Title at Stake

Great interest is being shown by the women interested in athletics in the championship hockey game between the Sophomore and Upperclassmen, to be played Tuesday or Thursday of this week at noon, if the weather permits. Each team has been working hard to have the Fresh team and there is intense rivalry between the two squads. Virginia Gardner is captain of the Sophomore team and the leader in this contest. Against the Fresh team she accounted for two goals. Junior Helen Hulse and Lorraine Hannahson are the leading scorers on the Fresh team, and they have made impressive goals against the Sophomore team. The probable lineup for the game:
