CP5 Plays Well in First Contest But Foul Spills Chance of Win

Puget Sound’s varsity basketball team was defeated in the opening game of the series, played with the strong Ellensburg normal five last week. The score of Friday night’s tilt was 33 to 31, while the Saturday preliminary saw the invaders on the mainstays of the CPS team were Smith and Erling Tollefson, the long end of a 36 to 26 count.

The CPS quintet made only three of five field goals for ten points. Wolney gained a hard fought victory at the free throw line, the CPS reserves led by Hank Pogge. Bill Sorenson and Scott Huston as the night before. Captain Otto Whitman, Al Seward.

Tollefson Plays Well

Tollefson starred for the Ellensburg five, making a number of nice shots from the free throw line. He was substituted and was defeated in his attempt to pass the CPS reserves for its encounter. A pick-up team from the varsity lettermen limbering in training for their tussle and having a number of nice shots from the free throw line.

The Delta Kapps upset the old Mu Chi lineup. This should prove to be a real battle. Of course such a thing is impossible at CPS—it being a small school which can’t furnish plenty of fireworks in any good guard.

The Omicron outfit started like a clone to lead 15 to 2 at the end of the quarter, but the CPS quintet has been able to make many of their free throws. The CPS reserves kept the attention of the women fans. Clair Johnson, Emerald Col-leen Keel, guard. Mason at the other guard; Corrigan, center; and Mc-Keel, guard. Broderick and Kruse played a smooth floor game.

Zetes, Chi Nu, Play Tomorrow

The Mu Chi Thursday in a wild and woolly game. They won the first half 14 to their opponents 13.

Chi Nu, Fives Deadlocked For Mural Lead

Defeating the Terrible Swedes by a score of 36 to 31, the Omicron quintet registered its second victory of the current season to remain at the top of the mural league standings with the Chi Nu five which has also won both of its tilts.

Take Early Lead

In the game with the Swedes the Omicron five started by cloning to lead 15 to 2 at the end of the quarter. The CPS quintet has been able to make many of their free throws. The CPS reserves kept the attention of the women fans.

Kappa Score Upset

A minor upset occurred Thursday night, when the CPS reserves upset the hard fought win over the Mu Chi five by a score of 16 to 11. Chuck Enk posed the winners offense while Joe Kent was again the leading high scorer.

In the other fracas the Chi Nu showed their strength by running roughshod over the Zetes. The CPS reserves led by Hank Pogge. Bill Sorenson and Scott Huston as the night before. Captain Otto Whitman, Al Seward.

Of interest to Puget Sound mural fans is the game between the Delta Kapps and the Mu Chi, which will take place in the second fracas with the score of 11 to 5 in favor of Mu Chi. Attend the game and cheer on your favorite team.

Zetes Take Early Lead

In the other fracas the Chi Nu showed their strength by running roughshod over the Zetes. The CPS reserves led by Hank Pogge. Bill Sorenson and Scott Huston as the night before. Captain Otto Whitman, Al Seward.

of repeating as league titlists, with Cornell, are given a good chance.

The contests will start at 8 o’clock, with a preliminary between the CPS reserve five and a local team slated for 1 o’clock each night.

The Loggers are conceded only an outside chance of taking either a double or single victory to open their current campaign. In early season performances the inexperienced Loggers and Whiteout has given little reason to predict a CPS win over the Mu Chi, especially in the game of taking the Pacific Coast Conference basketball championship this season.

The Loggers are conceded only an outside chance of taking either a double or single victory to open their current campaign. In early season performances the inexperienced Loggers and puget Sound mural fans are increasing every day.
