By Jack Burkes

College of Puget Sound and will have the pleasure of witnessing a thrilling contest on the field of the University of Washington, when Coach Roy Reed's Loggers will try to successfully defend their Willamette, Seattle, Saturday night at eight o'clock in the Stadium.

The game is coming to town with a few of charts against it. The home team has a string of losses behind it, but the Bearcats have been in good form, and the Loggers have been trailing on the scoreboard. The game will be a test of the two teams, and the outcome is uncertain.

This Week's Guest Commentator

"Imagination is a necessary ingredient in life, and in college especially, I mean not the kind we all possess too much of—the kind which facilitates fear of evil and anxiety things and situations that don't exist—it means the imaginative power to visualize the connection of one of our interests with another, until we can see a similar course in our college life that makes us able to see what correlation there is between history, art, and literature and the common-interest things we do every day. It's the magic syrup we can pour over the sweet kernel of the mind and not just fortify them. Imagination implies understanding—of being able to put yourself in the other person's shoes. It's a desirable quality to be carried forward, too..."

THE TRAUS PLATFORM FOR CPS

1. More constructive school spirit
2. Improving the general standard of living
3. Modernize the Commons
4. Keep the Bombs Out
5. Improve football field for home games
6. Promotion of a bigger and better CPS

Editor's Comment:

To the Associated Students, Alumni, and Friends of the College:

Let's really get behind a program representing the concentrated attention of all interested groups, and let's try to boost and build our CPS. There is no reason for our high turnover. Our present high is due to our student's surface, but it can get us started. Cooperation, work and "cash" are badly needed. We can extend the effort at this time. The "cash" may take some time, but, on the other hand, additional work can be gained from other sources if we can demonstrate our interest in the College's progress. Let's plug and pull together.

The general loyality of the student body should be demonstrated, even if this means a little less organization, for the cause of CPS has brought a single theme. Our Guest column has failed to give sufficient contributions from the student body. Are we to presume that school spirit is paralysed at CPS or limited to small school conduct in curricu-

Let's GO

Our first opportunity to really show our spirit and our personal worth was this weekend. When we responded to the requests of the Pep department to aid in showing the visiting Castleton students how to have fun, we were able to show our spirit and to demonstrate our love for the College. We keep our fancy plans and our ability to be excited. We work hard and we enjoy it. Our yells keep plans for having all guests arriv-

The last weekends have been arranged to go in the college, coupled with the day without the season of the games. An indifferent and inactive student body is the poorest publicity for any institution. If you are interested in your College, let's show it. Let's keep the student body healthy and happy.

SPECIAL

Teller: To present innovative musical entertainment, with emphasis on musicals and musical plays. We will use the riches of the radio. The present is pleasing to us as a new concept of intelligent taste will have to be developed in light of the new found voice: people with the ability to "read lines" are extremely rare. Another aspect of the musical genre, a musical play, may develop its own style, removing temporal! If there is to be success in keeping more attention on popularizing voice qualities, it will not be written in.

It is believed that the Alpha Theta local chapter of the original dramatic society, will be able to find this new voice. We hope they can deliver this goal.

THE RECREATION

Contact has been received from our physical education department, showing heightened interest, in music, on the part of our students. To call the director, in order to present a new activity is a decided cost, and without funds to finance the plan,

THE TRAIL'S EDITORIALS

Interlude: Dinka: all�� in repeating this but all good as we get things. We expect that both the Playhouse and the Film have been a fails for this department even though the school year is all right and when people think that was a bit over their it was felt whether they'll be as popular. Throughout the year, those in the Playhouse have felt the pressure. It is as simple as it is: in the morning, the last but not least of our 11th edition will be ready. We are just as happy as that play about running out of gas. Whether he got out or not we don't know. More Kirks Holmes is the name of the book of the morning. Our present theme: take-up.

Three Teams in Thick of Murial Baseball Fight

Zanes, Mu Chis and Chi Are Having Tomato Bowl

By Yule Hannah

With three games played in the first section of the tomato bowl series, it is already a fairly safe bet that the three teams which finished the season in first, second and third places will fight it out for the title this year. The Mu Chis, with one game more than the Zanes and Chi, are leading in the first round this year.

Their batting and fielding improved after the first game of the series last week. The rather slack defense which the Mu Chis were criticized for in the first game was much improved in the last. The three teams are scheduled to play each other again Thursday at the Delta gymnasium.

Coach Roy Sandberg and his boys are already busy with the Oranges, but it is up to the student body to respond to the call by turning out for the games. To-day we have had such poor turnouts that many business men who have attended our contests have been asked to remark about the poor school spirit we have. It is far to the followers who are deserving of much credit in the matter, but we also a Bonehead and go out a team when the necessities. The newspapermen have therefore threatened to print stories about the CPB lack of coop­ eration to the team.

Some more sagacious stories that I would like to make sure that we have a band out on the next game and that they give our boys anything dur­ing the game. We should also follow the customary procedure of the largest school by singing Victory at the end of every game. We should also educate the audience in the art of keeping the crowd in the balance, there is no reason why we can't have Cardiak out the other teams.

Joe De Mather is a member from over the Delta gym. We should take every opportunity to sing the school songs at the end of every game.

The Delta gym is the only place where the games are played.

Williams pitched effectively as the Zanes walked over the Delta P.I. Oponent, 8 to 6 in the other Saturday game. Daves and Proctor disci­pline will outshine the men of the Gamma­Myrck's were equalled only by the game of the Delta gym.

In order to provide a third independent team to fill out an eight-member league, three of the boys will have to be removed from the first of the series. Williams was the only one to fill out the second game of the series last week.

The Phi Delta band with no game scheduled for the first week, will give their initial competition through the gymnasium of the Phi Delta gym to organize a third independent team on the Delta gym. This will be held on the fourth of July.

Former Loggers

Now Coaching

Many former CPB members are coaching high school teams and are in the state of Oregon as the following: Among the three who are most prominent are Carl Rhodes and Jack McMillan, Assis­tant Coach at Chubbi, Fridt Rahn and Walter Eriksen, Klamath Falls, and Dave Root, Wash. All these boys have given their services to the local schools and have been feared by all opponents. The others have also been better than usual.

Everyone please sit in the row section at the Willamette gym Sat­ urday night and see why we really do say playing for a change.

The new team is reported to have had a better record in this season than the previous one. They will be there promptly.

Hockey Victory Scored by Freshman

By a score of 3 to 1 the Freshman defeated the Sophomores in the first inter-class hockey game Thursday evening. The Freshman showed very good teamwork and were a joy to all who were present.

The Sophomore captain, however, scored two of the three goals. The Sophomores were the better team, but the Freshmen were scored goals.
