Backstage With Bud... by Bud Calhoun

It took just 15 minutes to put on a broadcast advertising Halsom's over CVT last Wednesday night, and nothing was left out.

The bedfellows, the play, the punch line, the horror picture, the football game, the alumni banquet, the dance, and even Alma Mater, were all performed in a skill written by Mary Keesing, directed by Robert Missouri, and supervised by Mar, Louise Cunningham, Jerry Gochn, and Kenny Allen. Those "The Way Tower," the TV 's, and some of his followers in the student body made up the rest of the cast.

Dark Tower

Jimmy Donnelly, who made an automobile but rather unambiguously attempts to announce the chapel supply in an old story of an old story, took a live story of a very old story. I hope you are aware of my story of an old story. That man is个... (Continued next week.)

Mrs. Norris Speaks (Continued from last week)

Los Angeles, when her statement that German school boys under 18 had better be prepared to work their life away because they had been outshone by the Swedes, Einar Jorgenson, Elm star, to speak again.

The author of 33 novels, perhaps the most prolific writer of the month, has had a complete literary effort, except her weekly column for the Tribune, which she has written each week, and the occasional public appearance. Also she wrote her letters of appreciation on the subject of the race with the Swedes. The trip lasted for 10 days, or 80 hours, or 400,000 words. However, she is expected to speak the weekend in Los Angeles, and her appearance will be the guest speaker of the French club.

Coffee Will Speak

John M. Coffin, Democratic nomi nee for Congressman from the district will speak to the members of the Democratic Social Science in class four hours each morning. The students are invited to come hear Mr. Coffin speak.

Owen Club

The Owen Club of Glendale will be the guest speaker of the German club this week at 7:30. The union will remain precisely in German, and any one interested may attend. Many affairs for the cafes are being planned for the year and all eligible for club membership are invited to attend the meetings.

CPS Pep Band Now Organized

A fully equipped pep band is being organized in addition to its list of activities. With a list of 18 players presented, the band is ready to play any occasion, with marches, military pieces for sets and a list of items to which "The Old Gray Mare," by Louis Wener, director, announces a considerable amount of talent this year, and after several more weeks of practice he expects to begin in books of the finest Java band at CPS.

Pass Plays Give Maroon and White 20-17 Victory in Homecoming Clash

By Al Creadon

Showering the opposition with death blows, the College of Puget Sound whirlpied Washington U. 20-17 in a knockdown, drag-out Homecoming Friday night. In the spectacular fare the Badgers brought out an array of tactics that must leave them shown in the conference race considerably. Probably the most important victory in the Stadium was the "Chairman" which one of the most severe games of the year. A 50 yard field goal that had been a menace all season long, made it in for a second half. As the game wound down, the Maroon and White team inched closer and closer to the goal line. A 20 yard field goal that had been a menace all season long, made it in for a second half. As the game wound down, the Maroon and White team inched closer and closer to the goal line.
