Tap on Deschutes

Last Thursday a meeting of the Biology Club was called to discuss plans for a trip to be held this day after Thanksgiving. Friday for it. The trip will continue all day unless unforeseen barriers arise. The students will arrive early in the morning for upper Deschutes falls, and later follow up the river. The main activity of exploration will be for amphibians, frogs to fish not airplanes. The first day the students went over to Fox Island and collected many varieties of frogs and such creatures. All these collections will be studied and put in the mull.

Alpha Chi Nu Men Entertain At Semi-Formal

Alpha Chi Nu men honored guests Saturday evening at a semi-formal dance given at the Benvenue hotel. The decorations were arranged in a Thanksgiving motif and programs were designed to follow the theme. Fred Britton was Master of Ceremonies and working with him were Bob McKenzie and Valen Honeycutt. Guests and members worked for the design of Richard Lemongio and his others.

Programs and parades for the evening were Prof. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Dr. and Mrs. Powell.

Joe Brewster and Edi Anderson were asked as special guests for the evening.

Softball Title
Won by Mu Chis
An Ohio Defeat Zeta 9-3 for Softball Title, First Intramural Volleyball Today Repeating its lovely victory in regular league play, Sigma Mu Chis intramural softball team turned in a 9 to 3 victory over Sigma Zetas. For this last Tuesday, in a pool-softball league, each with a record of five victories and one defeat, and will receive the same number of points toward their respective intramural totals.

The game was a lovely playoff exhibition, nothing like the first meeting of the two teams, which went in the Mu Chis by a 5 to 3 count in a 10 inning game.

Inaugurating the intramural volleyball season, the Delta Chi Order and Delta Upsilon Phi made their debut in the season opener. The Mu Chis and The Ter-nible Eighties meet in the second contest series of the season.

All week long the outfits from the various Greek brotherhoods were struggling in an effort to develop a team which can hold the trophy off the Sigma Chi Nu mantle where it now sits.

team.

Gonzaga Held To Close Score
Highly-Rated Gonzaga Club Believes In Single Touchdown and Safety

The center of Tacoma sports fans that came to the Stadium last Sunday was in the Gonzaga Clubhouse. Gonzaga made a strong effort on the ground as a result of a gallant effort on the part of the Loggers, Cougars cut their losses to three quarters only to lose 4-2 when the Zags capitalized on the breaks in the second period.

Placed to lead by an easy 20 points in the first quarter, including their third, the Kamloops player scored a minor upset, holding the highly rated Cougars to an 8-7 score. The Zags had another big plus from a player.

Gonzaga's all-round backfield, George McDaniel, as Gonzaga was effectively battled up by the all-rounding Pacific defense, was the key man on the field. Mack Brown was all over the campus team when they reached the 8-yard stripe. These were stopped by a studious Bulldog defense, and at the fourth quarter point, the white flag of credit propped on the field. The last down Muller's place amid the noise. The Lumbermen again threatened in the last quarter after a long drive. Rosser's run to the 30 and a 15-yard run had them out of the game and only to lose by the 28-yard margin, but again the Pacific defense was stopped cold.

A series of Gonzaga passes carried the ball up to a single touchdown distance, and Burgard was stopped inches short of the end. Zig touchdowns as the final gun sounded.

Pulver's last move, for CBS, Joe D'Alfonso, Howie Ruse, Jerry Plo-ser and Joe Kimball were selected for the Loggers. Joe Miller was also the chief ground-pusher for the Lumbermen.

Lettermen to Choose Queen of Yardsly Ball

When the Queen of the Ball will be chosen, the Lettermen's club can tell and they themselves will have said what they have chosen. And then, the Lettermen's club was the most representative of all groups on campus. When the Lettermen's queen will be crowned, the Lettermen will be crowned for the Yardsly Ball.

The Yardsly Ball is a beautiful gala night, and the Queen of Yardsly Ball, Nina Daves, is the chairman of the program, and the Queen of Yardsly Ball, Nina Daves, is the chairman of the program.
