Russian Icons From Seattle Museum Also on Display

by Phyllis Hall

An extremely interesting collection of works on color by a group of modern German painters is to be held in the Sears of Jones Hall. Most German artists are romantic. They are less interested in form and more in themselves, and less and less也没 feeling to emotional values in their paintings and plastic considerations. Many contemporary artists follow the footsteps of Munch and early Durer. The works of Chaim Rebi is characterized by the use of intense colors. His Blue Horse is unique while "Magna Mosa" has a strikingly luminous quality that lends itself to the beauty of the color.

"The Woman Rising" by Oto Klinoda is an excellent color portrait done in oil. The works of Ernst Von Hellen are definitely in oil. His work always has a good feeling of vigor and movement. Other interesting paintings are by Paul Klee, Erich Heckel, Karl Hofer, and Lorenz E Johns.

In the most gallery is a collection of Engravings by Rembrandt. It has been arranged by the courtesy of the Seattle Art Museum. An exhibition of works in the Works of the Department.

The galleries are open each day from one until five p.m. Every one is invited to visit the exhibits.

To Speak Feb. 7

Emergency Peace Campaign Leaders to Be Featured at First ME Church

Headlining the winter drive of the Emergency Peace Campaign, El Maude Royden, Britain's leading woman lecturer, will speak at the First Methodist church, Sunday evening, Feb. 7.

Sherwood Eddy is internationally known author and social and religious leader, and one of the leading spokesmen of his world. He is a member of the English College of Social Science and Pittsburg University.

Roe of the world's thirty-two nations is February and February are being directed towards securing adequate legislation for women—especially for education. The education of a woman is just as important as that of a man in any nation. The movement of public opinion on the status of women now has reached a point where it can, in for the dream of the dream of the women of the world.

The first group of association is to be held in the Consciousness of the Women's, International Congress on Woman's rights.

"The Three-Heroes," from eight to 7:30 a.m. at the Hotel compound church. The role of the church in the salvation of woman was conducted by the director of the American church. The church was attended by over 500,000, and over 500,000 people were present. The sermon was delivered in the First Congregational church.

The Collegiate Review

By Associated Collegiate Press

Students at Mount Holyoke College enjoy many more forms of entertainment than the average college student. Dr. T. K. W. Blackstone, professor of chemistry at the College, describes the various forms of entertainment that are enjoyed by the students. The students' activities include playing day games, and keeping a record of things that have been both entertaining and instructive.

A poetical competition was given the attention of the college. The students were able to keep their minds on the right track. The competition was made up of poems, and the poems were judged by the judges. The poems were judged by the judges. The poems were judged by the judges. The poems were judged by the judges.
