The largest thing of the kind ever attempted here—a gigantic forensics tournament—will be held on the CPS campus next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, in conjunction with the Western Association of Colleges and Universities (WACU). Twenty-five CPS Debate Team members from sixty universities and colleges will participate. An added feature to the tournament will be the presence of the nation’s outstanding squad debate team—Bruce Fyfe and Charles Golan from Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

The boys have just returned from a very successful tour of Arizona, and their entry into the tournament was an unpremeditated surprise.

Approximately 150 debates, 190 outside and after-dinner speakers, and 46 orators will take part.

Teams are expected to arrive Sunday afternoon. The debates will begin at 10:00 Monday morning. Finals in debate, extemporaneous speaking, and floor dramatics will be held Wednesday afternoon, and the announcement of the winners will be made that evening at dinner in the Fine Arts Building. The grand prize, the $2,000 John S. Ford Memorial Trophy, will also be awarded for Monday evening, as the First Presbyterian Church sponsors the Wednesday evening radio program which will be presented by members of the winning debates.

Schools with teams competing in the tournament are: The College of Puget Sound, the University of Washington, Western State College, Montana State College, Stanford, California Institute of Technology, University of Chicago, University of Idaho, San Jose State College, the College of William and Mary, and the University of Washington-State College. Universities in England, Scotland, Canada, Australia, and South America will also enter.

The sponsors of the teams are the Debate Clubs and the Forensics Organizations of the various Schools.

WHY PERSECUTE THE JEWS?... In President Hohen's new book, "A History of German Jewish Persecution," there is a commentary on Germany's Jewish persecution that the other day Hitler has set back German civilization 300 years. That is, to the day of the Spaniard Inquisition and the expulsion of Jews from Spain by the Christian kings. The Talmudic expulsion was instigated by religious fanatics on the part of the Christians, whereas the Talmudic expulsion was the result of the same German anti-Semite activity. Just what is the actual cause of the Talmudic expulsion in Germany cannot be said with any degree of certainty... The Talmudic expulsion, however, was an attempt on the part of Hitler's boyhood alternates with the Jews, a feeling of inferiority before the great Jewish intellects living in Germany at that time. To power over, the traditional antisemitic atmosphere was not even raised in antisemitism, however, is not a new thing, but dates back to medieval times. The factors that may explain the persecutions in Germany today probably do not hold for the entire past history under similar conditions... In the opinion of Hugo Victor's excellent Antisemitism: Historically and Critically Monographic one may find in comments, in which he refers to the causes of antisemitism... They list the factors as follows: in the first place, there are more or less the factors that he back of it. Further, there is a complete lack of love, no more reads are the hands on the backs. The Second World War --- the overthrow of the Jewish state and the rise of Jewish nation was a displacement for Christianity: antisemitism was an inevitable result of the Dispersion; it will be until the Creation of the Messiah. Neo-orthodox Jews --- the same idea as the Orthodox Jews, but there will be a gradual reorientation between the Jew and Nazi Jew... Liberal Jews --- antisemitism is an outgrowth of fanaticism against the Jews, and it is doomed to become an increasing enmity against humanity... Secular Jews --- the result of existing national and cultural disparities between Jews and the anti-Jewish press in the West... It is the abnormal position of Jews as a people without a State... Rockefellarian Theory --- antisemitism a means used by the rulers to divert the lower class from the admiration from the public as a result of this is a target for social hatred... Religious Jews --- anti-Jewish hatred by his avowed competitor for his intelligence and Jew feels himself inferior to Jew and hates him for it... Kohenburiel --- anti-Semitism --- BINNENBAUER --- religious fanaticism as the last name of antisemitism: Jews regarded by Christians as materialists of the Savages... Baruch-Ovadia view --- the propaganda of people toward the strangest and incomprehensible, and the Semitic Theory... The true cause, however, may be much more complex than we are prone to suppose.

KOHLER TO REPRESENT TACOMA ARTISTS IN STATE COUNCIL
Mr. Melvin Kohler has been chosen representative of the Tacoma Art Association for the Artists' Council of the state of Washington. This council has been organized in order to obtain greater nation-wide recognition for Pacific Northwest artists.

Kohler has also been chosen to act as judge for state-wide contest for a national to be sung in the next Washington post.

Volleyball Is Next Greek Sport
An eighth-week inter-collegiate volleyball tournament got under way this week. In opening games Tuesday, Sigma Chi defeated Sigma Mu Chi and the Idaho players beat Delta Psi Omega.

The inter-mural sports department has planned to draw up the schedule of the games to be followed for each date and for each team on each day of competition, and this is in order that we may have the first final contest.

Over the week-end Mr. Kohler visited the Art department of Reed College where they have just received a Carnegie collec-

Zeta's Win Football Championship

SECOND WIND by Dust

This column is naturally an account of being unfailingly human to make the simple statement that the Stanford Tigers had three times in their life when they played the Penn State Nittany Lions. But any team that makes only one first down in two games, two years running, must have Lady Luck hanging around somewhere. Last year the Bengals failed to catch in a first and ten, and this fall they made only one. Tough break, Everett!

For a good laugh ask Johnny Bley about showing a few bob up at the Zeta pledge dance. If Whitehead plays the saxophone like he did against Colorado, Pacific will run into the football title. The Missionaries played the best game of the season aggregation that they have played in years, winning 21 to 6. Thus reversing the 16 to 6 score of the previous season.

... and the surprise is the story in a week or so ago made the statement that certain members of the Logger had been removed therefore for breaking bread. If so, no must have been more girls who played well half down at Portland. After a hectic season of football, the Troll Sports Staff announces that following selections for the all-sack team:

Honorable Mention went to the following: Ill, Indus, Laramie, Utah, Wyoming, Horse, Melville, SMX, Chicago.
