I ask the ASCPS to improve the presentation of our chapel programs by having the chapel committee, which is now elected, represent the student body. The committee would be appointed by President Todd, John Boyce

I believe that the ASCPS and the faculty should cooperate in every way possible to have the chapel programs, engaging, instructive and thought-provoking, are so important that we should make time to talk about the problems that are there.

Selection of chapel programs might be left to a committee of students and faculty members. The committee members should represent the various student groups and academic departments. This would give everyone interested the opportunity to empower.

I think the chapel program is so important that anyone interested should take time to talk about the problems that exist.

It is my conviction that the ASCPS should take an active interest in the chapel program. At present, no extensive chapel committee, appointed by the president of ASCPS, among the most of the student body, is being represented. This would fix the responsibility for chapel programs free from active interest for all student groups, not just those attending chapel and do not make it an ASCPS function.

I believe that the chapel program should be organized on the whole-hearted support by the whole student body.

Ed Granland

I feel very strongly regarding more publicity and funds for our activities. The more publicity, the more people come to see what we are doing, the more visitors we get, and the more people can accept responsibility for those programs. Therefore, I am very much in favor of us students participating as much as possible in the presentation of chapel programs, and being a part of the whole student body. I will do my best to work with the student body, and use the student body to work with the student body.

Betty Heaton

I have worked to state our opinions on chapel programs and variety activities, and I am still willing to support, as I feel very strongly on those subjects as the majority of CPS students do.

In the light of the current most favorable programs and presentations, the opinions that are expressed should be able to take over even the whole process of the student body in general. We feel that the student body itself is entitled to free speech and the right to work at the top of their ability.

Lyell Jamison

As long as the chapel program is continued, I believe our programs should be a part of the daily routine of the student body.

I believe that the student body should be more involved in the planning of the programs and in the selection of the programs.

The completion of student participation in chapel programs should be greater, as it has been in the past. I, believe, the need of the student body. I advocate a greater consumption upon the shoulders of the "new-meeting" type and an opportunity to hear the "voice of the student body,"

A complete variety athletic program should be in the student. An athletic program does an infinite amount of good to the student body, the student body, and the administration. I believe the"voice of the student body,"

June Pooe

Since Tuesday night in the chapel program, I believe, the need of the student body. This is the time to call for more people to work on this program, the student body, and the administration. I believe the "voice of the student body,"

Joan Roberts

I believe that the student body should be more involved in the selection of the programs and in the presentation of the programs.

I believe that the student body should be more involved in the selection of the programs and in the presentation of the programs.

Bill Hoppin

If more athletic control will make better, we have seen evidence of this in the past. The trend is to be expected, to continue, and to continue, the "voice of the student body,"

In Sympathy

Friends of Don Hartman, the late domineering and good-natured student leader, are in a period of mourning.

Don was a member of his college and over his untimely death, we are in mourning.

We miss his unique influence on our college and over his untimely death, we are in mourning.

...to make room in the budget to buy more tickets to make the games possible. But practically speaking, such department should put on the program that it holds interesting to everyone—not just members of the department. Athletics cost—money—that would be used for a better purpose, as it is. Therefore, a good athletic program should bring in revenue for the athletic teams.

Pauline Pumphrey...

I believe that ASCPS should present more of our chapel programs. We have, in my opinion, the best programs this year from numbers of our own student body. Let's have our chapel programs for the coming year presented by ASCPS. I believe that the athletic department does not have the best programs today.

As the athletic program is one of the most important things in a college, I think it should be given more attention. The students should be more interested in the athletic program. I believe that it is important for the future of the college.

The athletic program of CPS needs a leader. It seems to me that the athletic program is not very successful. I think that the athletic program should be given more attention.

Tracksters Prepare For Relays

With the University of Washington Relays set for tomorrow afternoon, the Loggers' tracksters are busily preparing for their opening meet under the guidance of Coach Leo Frank. This meet will decide if one of the biggest gatherings of tracksters will be in the Arena. The players will be off Friday and Saturday nights. Next week time trials will be run in the various events in which Coach Frank plans to enter the men. The events are not announced but the following is as follows: Distance running with the first man run the 444, the next 110, the third 880, a mile and the last mile. Thursday is the best quarter mile; John Sharp, half mile; and George Waten, Terrell, John MacDonald, Bill Moline, or John Meyn in the distance.

Some of our fellows will be putting some competition practice in this weekend and in a practice meet between the teams will be run.
