Extroverts, Introverts Pop Up As Personality Is Cultivated

BY RYERSEL BREE

A small crop of extroverts and introverts on the campus this year—a much larger crop of "above" is in the air. The college is now accustomed to consistently assigning a more diverse personality. Extroverts and introverts have been mixed in all departments with earmarks of no emotion. The former just wants to talk their way through the material.  The latter just wants to discuss the material or even debate it.
Gala Inter-Fraternity Ball Will Be Given Tonight

Largest Dance of the Year
To Be at Century Ballroom

Over two hundred couples will dance tonight at the annual inter-fraternity semi-formal, an affair which has become one of the most anticipated events of the year. Dancing will be from 9 to 12 at the Century ballroom to music furnished by Birchman and his orchestra.

Five placques with the fraternity crest embossed on them will be included in the ball, dedicated to ever-changing colors lights, and music. With the colleges involved in the event there will be over five hundred guests with music and entertainment.

Novel programs of merriment and fun will amuse and inspire the college socials, while the college insignia on the dress of the hostesses, of its origin, will become one of the most anticipated events of the year.
