Tolo Tissies Take Lonely Lads on Spree

The tickets are sold! How many will you get? I'm afraid I don't have a clue. How about you? Tolo has two tickets on sale now. The only one left is the T. L. T. F. (Tolo's Last Tissie). It's a very special day, for it will be the last day of school, and the last day for Tolo to make a profit. The tickets are sold in pairs, so you will have to buy two. The price is $5.00 per pair, and the proceeds will be donated to the Red Cross.

The Tolo Tissies are a group of students who have been working hard to raise money for the Red Cross. They have been selling tickets for the last few weeks, and they are now ready to give them away. The tickets are numbered, and they will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis. The last day of school is Friday, and the tickets will be sold until then. The Tolo Tissies are proud to say that they have raised $500.00 for the Red Cross.

Spain,- French, Spanish, and German classes are still in session. Members of these classes are busy preparing for their exams, which will be given next week. The exams will cover the material that has been covered in class, and they will be held in the main auditorium. The exams will be given on Wednesday, the 26th of November. The students are advised to study hard, as the exams are very important.

The importance of Spanish, French, and German studies lies in the fact that they are essential to the understanding of other cultures. Without knowledge of these languages, it is impossible to understand the thoughts and feelings of people from other countries. Spanish, French, and German are spoken by millions of people around the world, and they are used in a variety of fields, such as business, diplomacy, and international relations. It is important for students to learn these languages, as they will be in demand in the future.

The Tolo Tissies have decided to use a new method of selecting members for the organization. Prior to this year, the Tolo Tissies were selected by a committee of students and faculty. This year, however, the Tolo Tissies will be selected by a random drawing. This will ensure that all members of the organization have an equal chance of being selected.

In the Tuesday evening of the week before Thanksgiving, the Tolo Tissies will have their annual banquet. This banquet is a tradition of the Tolo Tissies, and it is an opportunity for the members to socialize and have fun. The banquet will be held in the main auditorium, and it will begin at 8:00 PM. The Tolo Tissies will wear their traditional uniforms, and the banquet will be followed by a dance.

Coach Frank Leaves Parting Message for College Friends

I regret leaving at this time, but I feel that as long as the country has an army for its duty to give them my best and as many as others are doing, and as still more will be doing in the future. It is my opinion that the gesture we all get into this matter the quicker the whole mess will be over with.

Vesper Concert Enjoyed by Large Audience

Professor J. Frank, English department head, and Miss Grundy, assistant professor of English, who reviewed the various courses in English literature that the students will be exposed to in college. The students were advised to take advantage of this opportunity offered.

The performances both on the stage, the faculty, and students are greatly enjoyed. It is hoped to see Professor J. Frank again after Thanksgiving.

Miss McKinney Addresses Club

Stevens' L., 180, was received by Miss Grundy for introducing the subject of the evening, "The English Reader," at the Western Advertising Club, The floor was then opened to Miss McKinney, who introduced the subject of her address. Miss McKinney's talk included the following points of interest to the students present. The chief of these is the English language, a subject which is of great importance in the United States and a discussion of the place held by the English language to secure this same end. This is a subject which is very important in helping the people of the United States.

For pertinent information on this subject, there is a general idea that there is a good French and German class here. Miss McKinney is furnishing the class.

Success of Bond Drive Is Responsibility of Students

The price of freedom is high, but no price is too high. The price of a war of town and sentimental flag waving, is a war of blood. As students we cannot fight, but we can be co-workers in the war of the countryside. We can use our influence as friends, in the store, in the office, we can use our influence as students, but fundamentally, we must help in the fight for victory! We must help to make this war the most thrilling experience of our lives, and those big round pumpkin pies that are so tasty, and so easy to bake, and so delicious, but the freedom we fight for, will make those pies taste even better to our taste buds.

If you have trouble finding your way to 10 o'clock classes today, are you interested in changing Alpha or Kappa? If you are interested in changing some classes, please see your advisor. This is an efficient way of gaining some freedom, and of changing classes. The only thing that is regrettable, is that it is not as easy as it may seem. If you do not take any classes, you may have a good time. In the meantime, there is a lot to be said about those who have been Regrettably informed.

The clicking wheels murmured lowered tones and over, Chicago.

At 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon our train came into the Central Station and we managed to secure a room in the hotel. After registering, we were hurried away to the Chicago Tribune, and top to top pretty well by bus, to the offices of the Advance, the Chicago Sun, the Chicago Tribune, and the Tribune Tower. On the way to the Advance our correspondent, "Why Tell 'Em We Can Do It?" at 10:30 and 11 A.M., was heard by the members of the Soldiers' Aid Society.

Thanksgiving comes but once a year, and when it comes, every lamb opalescences on turkey, dressing, cranberries, and all the fixings. This year promises to be the hardest Thanksgiving ever, but as everyone knows, a war is no war, but it will have all the trimmings of a war, and those big round pumpkin pies that are so tasty, and so easy to bake, and so delicious, but the freedom we fight for, will make those pies taste even better to our taste buds.

EXPERIENCE-Have you ever told a tall tale at dawn between two miles of copses of pine? Here, a news, with a sting in the tale when the morning sun comes up, the odors of the forest, the warm air, the gentle breeze, the rustling of the leaves, the sound of the whippoorwill, the sound of the birds, and the sound of the morning sun getting up. This is a perfect place to tell a tall tale! In the morning sun, between two miles of copses of pine, between the oaks and the pines, and the morning sun, the perfect place to tell a tall tale!

Hunting Lure Sports Fans to Field and Fen

The male order of animals at CPH have turned from the football gridiron to a less strenuous but just as thrilling sport, commonly known in this part of the country as hunting.

The hunter has enjoyed the exact same type of pleasure that the common man feels from a visit to the circus, without a ticket. The games have been played of late evenings, and the only excitement to be found has been in the form of a few shots or a missed hen. The only obstacle to the enjoyment of the sport is the necessity of having a good dog to hunt with.

Any Saturday or Sunday evening Dick Brown Skying to a canoe with the two most prominent members of the hunting fraternity, they have been heard to say, "What a great sport hunting is!"

A few evenings ago Dick Brown was returning home and noticed a great deal of smoke coming from the direction of the woods. He immediately returned home and was soon joined by two other members of the hunting fraternity. They proceeded to the woods and found a great deal of excitement. The four men were soon joined by several others and the hunting party was in full swing.

Rain Beats Lumberjack's Aerial Game

Tak from the Lumberjacks, Frank McDonald receives news that sport. It happens just today, because they've got a taste of the real McGyver that happened yesterday. Why? Because the Lumberjacks' College Washington's College top two men in the field two men by definition it was the Lumberjacks' third man.

The kill, played in weather much rougher than the wooden sidewalks, was a sure and lucky shot. The Lumberjacks' bird, however, shot the woodcock, dodge by dodge and not once dodging but thirty. The Vikings added the extra point on a punt from Wideout to Larry Money.

And so we leave the Vikings to the Lumberjacks to go on the hunt for the big game of quarterback and running back. Bob Loftness, D. Brown, Lloyd Balsil, are the only three men of the Lumberjacks' team that are still playing. The other five men are playing basketball. The Vikings have the only chance of winning the game.
