Music by the Workshop band, work, and two double-height stage doors for this year's campus Day will be held Friday, May 12.

All eight and nine o'clock shows will be shorter than the usual and the normal amount of time for work in the morning. The eight o'clock show will begin at 9 and the nine o'clock will begin at 2:30 and let out at 3:05.

Co-chairmen Gene Brown and Barbara Albertsen will outline the following schedule of events for the day:

9:30—Mass meeting of the entire student body in Jones Fieldhouse. The Workshop Band will play. Leaders and work teams will be introduced.

9:45—Work teams will be sent out to some 20 projects. These include laying a permanent foundation for a new Homecoming float at the back of Jones Hall, laying a pipe and finishing the tennis courts. Each member of the student body is assigned to a work team.

10:30—Breakfast will be served in the SUB and in the Fieldhouse last week-end. A 23-piece ensemble will play. Leaders and work teams will be assigned to jobs. 2:30—Sophomore-Freshman tug of war also scheduled for the softball field behind Todd Hall. This translates into some 250 men more against the Freshman men to determine the supremacy of the class.

3:00—Games will follow the tug-of-war. There will be organizational competition as well as group games.

Workshop Band Plans Concert

Probably the most unusual concert in the school history, the Workshop Band will present the 1941-42 class in arrangement. Under its director, Laury Oxtonsky, this 10-piece ensemble will give perhaps the most modern, a cappella, and semi-unison compositions. Each work is written or arranged by a student or the group. The band will begin at 8:30 p.m. in Jones Hall.

The full program of the band will be

Patient's view of the world, a short composition written by a student. Leo Butigan, manager of the Art League will also lecture on the medium of oils, water color, commercial realism, and abstract to close the evening.

Annual art honorary, for students. The concert will be presented this afternoon at 3:00 p.m. in the SUB auditorium.

Art Students Are Asked for Tickets

For the day will be old work clothes, blue jeans, pedd-lepushers, old hats, or whatever. Students are asked for the chairman to turn in mass on for fun, food, fellowship and work. Students are also asked to bring rings and shoes from home.

College Calendar of Events Planned For Coming Year

Gals and fellows can start planning their dates a year in advance. The pagan processes that make up the college calendar have been put together into a tentative schedule for next year's activities.

Some of the controversial dates were referred to the Independents, Inter-Sorority and Inter-Fraternity Councils for student opinion. If any changes are to be made, they must be reported to Dean Drushel by Tuesday.

Dean Drushel says, "Speak now or forever hold your peace. When the calendar is set up at the beginning of the year, it is difficult to make any change because everyone expects it as final. Please do not ask next year." He adds that the Inter-Fraternity Councils are getting to be such a big collegian now that we must consider the calendar. "We hope to avoid the confusion that we experienced this year," he says.

Only events like Homecoming, Junior Prom, and Senior Sneak Petition are considered as final. All other occasions, more than one event may be scheduled for the same date. The calendar is as follows:
