PR 3541
Monday came and with it the first day of Sadie Hawkins week (see Students). Indeed romped through the SUB during noon hours to advertise the dance tonight; the men assumed an aloof attitude, and were crushed if they weren't asked to the dance. Candidates appeared in chapels, (see Chapel), and proclamations by Mayor Hawkins were written on classroom blackboards. Greeks met Monday night (see Greeks). Rally Comm finished plans for the big combined rally with PLC today at 3:15 (see Students), and Indeedes dreamed up more publicity stunts for Sadie Hawkins. Chinook members came down from the mountain well pleased with the success of their open house (see Students).

Central Board met Tuesday (see CB minutes). People were still talking about the endowments which were a gift to the college (see Students). IFC delegates left by car for San Jose and the Inter-fraternity convention in the afternoon (see Students). Chapel was more Sadie Hawkins. Thursday a bit of school spirit was injected into the program in the person of Coach Heinrick, his senior ball players, and the yell staff.

All eyes were focused on the big game tomorrow with PLC. Although the rally this afternoon will serve to bring the two schools closer, the old rivalry will be back out on the Lincoln Field tomorrow night (see Sports).

The Home Ec girls worked hard for their dinner last night in Howarth, and Murray Morgan reminded an inaccurate TRAIL reporter that his radio show was aired on KTBI, and the name of his book was "Skid Road."

Students wandered about campus licking suckers, courtesy of the Spurs, who were trying to lick PLC, and at the same time gather money for their trip to Walla Walla next week. Test papers came back, with the universal remark, "I thought I did better than that."

Film Society viewers watched the showing of "With These Hands." Thursday night and wondered what was coming next week. The program stated, "to be filled."

The week-end schedule was crowded. The rally this afternoon, the dance tonight, the game tomorrow, and firesides after, filled the social calendar.

People began looking forward to Thanksgiving and vacation.

Dogpatch Days...

The male population wandered around campus all week, casually evading girls who eyed them with inquiring glances. They hid in frat houses, classes, and dorms but to no avail. The reason... Sadie Hawkins week. Some went around wearing signs bearing the inscription "caught," advertising the fact that they had been asked to the Sadie Hawkins dance tonight in the girls' gym.

Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner candidates appeared in chapels, and posters advertising the charms of Daisy Mae, and the Herculean powers of Li'l Abner blossomed forth on various bulletin boards. The gals go after their men today at noon in the quad in a mock Sadie Hawkins race.

Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner will be chosen from the following candidates: Jeanne Cameron, Indee; Evelyn Emert, Gamma; Doris Phillips, Tri-Delta; Marilyn Sander, Pi Phi; Doris Sunnen, Lambda; Francisco Equiluz, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Kirk Wagnar, Theta Chi; Sam Glass, Indee; Jim Donnell, Sigma Chi; John Barker, DK; and Bruce Jorgenson, Sigma Nu.

The winners will be married according to old Dogpatch tradition tonight at the dance. Intermission entertainment will be provided by a ukulele duo, and door prizes will be awarded. Refreshments will be served at the 9 to 12 affair. Dress will be costume, or levis and plaid shirts, and prizes will be awarded to the best-dressed Dogpatch citizens.

Music will be by Ivy Cozart's band, and tickets will be $1.50. Marcia Wallin and Larry Tyler are co-chairmen for the Indee-sponsored affair.

Committee chairman for the dance are Pat Wong and Janice Mooers, programs; Lon Hoover and Clarice Slossen, race; Chuck Krueger and Marilyn Wikander, intermission; Dave Golder and Marie Rowe, chapel program, and Robin Enschede, John Houx and Bill Nick, publicity.

IFC Convention...

Delegates from the CPS Inter-Fraternity Council left Tuesday afternoon for San Jose and the Western Regional Inter-Fraternity Council convention. The four were Ray Harbert, vice president of the convention, Wayne Haslett, CPS IFC president; Ralph Mackey, and Don Jaenicke. The group traveled in Harbert's car, and will return sometime Sunday.

Sixty schools from western states will be represented at the convention. The affair is a yearly conference to learn of improved methods in fraternity operations.

Joint Rally...

Central Board members traveled to the South End last Thursday for a joint student council meeting with the neighbors from PLC. Rally Committees from the two schools also met together, and formulated plans for a joint CPS-PLC rally, the first of its kind. The two Rally Comms presented their plan to the combined councils, and the first step was taken on the long road to better relationships between the two colleges.

CPS students will gather on campus today at 2:45 for a "get-together" rally before banding into a car caravan. The caravan will wind down 15th, and on downtown, where it will meet a caravan coming from PLC. Cars will be allowed to double-park in front of the Winthrop Hotel as students from both colleges gather for the rally at the triangle at 9th and Broadway.

Plans have been made by a committee from both schools for the yell teams and pep bands to be present. The two coaches, Harshman and Heinrick, will be there too, as well as representatives from the Young Men's Business Club, who allow PLC-ites to view the Totem Pole trophy. This will be given to the winner of the Totem Pole game tomorrow, and has not been seen at Luteville for quite some time—the Glads have yet to defeat a Heinrick-coached eleven.

Besides boosting the relationship between the schools, the rally will also serve to interest the townspeople in the game. The rally will start at 3:15 and last 20 to 30 minutes.

Endowments...

CPS continues to roll up the hill of learning and good government. The board of trustees met last week and acknowledged bequests approximating three hundred thousand dollars. The money bequeathed was left for various specific purposes which includes scholarships for religion and other departments.

Of the money received, fifty thousand dollars came from the estate of Mrs. Mildred P. Whitehouse, Tacoma; and ten thousand dollars from the late Mrs. Mary E. Schuett, Seattle. Mrs. Schuett was the wife of a former Methodist clergyman. The greater part of CPS's new inheritance came from the estate of the late Mrs. Sarah Harris Johnson of Seattle and totaled nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

Chairman of the board of trustees, William W. Kilworth, named a committee to draw plans for the new library. Things for the music department were looking up also. The panel for the music conservatory was reactivated.

Debate Again...

The second practice debate tournament in as many weeks begins today. This one is under the sponsorship of the Washington Junior College Forensics Association. Individual events will begin Friday at noon and will continue all afternoon. Friday evening there will be a speech institute on the individual events.

Saturday morning the debates will
The meeting was called to order by Vice President Rod Smith. The roll was called. The minutes were read. Larry Grotz corrected the minutes to say that the practice tourney will be held at CPS. The minutes were approved as corrected.

Bob Harader has resigned as Dramatics Manager. Don Wolvers has been recommended as the new manager. Larry Grotz moved that Don Wolvers be accepted as the new Dramatics Manager. The motion was seconded and carried.

Mr. Banks explained the budgets and finances to the members of Central Board. The money is received from dues-paying students only, a budget is estimated for the preceding year, then this money is allotted to the various departments in four parts.

Mr. Banks explained that there will probably be a change made in the seating arrangements for the basketball games. There will be no bleachers on the main floor. ANNUNCIEMENTS

The game with PLC this Saturday night will be their home game, so the tickets will be 50 cents. They will be on sale at the Bursar’s office.

A discussion was held on the advisability of having students on the Chapel attendance committee. It was felt that there should be a better understanding of the committee’s functions. Mr. Banks moved that the meeting be adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Marion Swanson, ASCFS Secretary.

A successful open house was held at the Deep Creek Lodge last Sunday. Over 70 people, including a group of student nurses, visited the camp. Some just relaxed, others wandered around inspecting the lodge, the cabins and the new ski area adjacent to the camp. Coffee and pie were served in the main lodge. Several parties drove up to the summit of the pass, where there was two feet of snow for skiing. During the afternoon everybody gave a hand in helping to saw up and stack wood for the winter supply. Chinook wishes to extend their thanks to everyone who helped on this, as much was accomplished. Many people visiting the camp for the first time were enthusiastic about the area and its possibilities. Harvey Aft was general chairman for the open house.

Ski Classes...

Here’s some important news for ski enthusiasts.

Ski classes will begin this semester. They will constitute a second-semester course, however, as they have in the past.

“We’re starting this semester to take advantage of the heavy winter months,” according to Dr. R. D. Sprenger, Chinook adviser. “Students will be registered sometime during the first part of December and classes will start soon after. The setting of definite dates is pending and will be determined by snow conditions."

Classes in the past were not started until February because of the fact that they make up a second semester course.

The fee for the course, $10. One credit hour is offered. The course extends over a 15-week period, with attendance at 10 sessions required to pass. Instruction will be given on weekends, either Saturday or Sunday at Deep Creek.

"The new college ski tow will be ready for operation by the time the classes start and that will come in mighty handy," Dr. Sprenger said.

Campus Chest

Campus Chest Co-Chairmen Joanne Wood and Warren Hunt finished plans this week for the "3-in-1" drive which opens on campus
Monday.

Funds contributed by students to the Campus Chest will be split three ways: to the Community Chest, to the World Student Service Fund, and to the Red Cross. "We want to emphasize the fact that this will be the only student-sponsored drive on campus all year," said Joanne. "Students have only one opportunity to contribute. Our goal this year will be 100 per cent contribution."

Sororities and fraternities will compete for a prize which will be awarded to the first group to obtain complete membership contribution, and a thermometer-graph in front
of Jones will mark their progress.
Several other organizations will also act as units to give money.

For those who have already, contributed to Community Chest or Red Cross, and wish to give only to the WSSF, a provision has been made to indicate where the donor wishes his money to go. Community Chest and Red Cross derive their support from the population as a whole, whereas the WSSF is supported solely by college students, who are the recipients of the fund, both at home and abroad.

Marion Swanson is in charge of solicitations, and Adele Houx is publicity chairman for the drive.

Camp-goers learned the details of the drive, and how they could contribute in Convocation periods during the week.

Banner

Tomorrow night the Logger banner will be used for the first time this year. That the school again has a banner is due to the efforts of the Junior Class. Last winter when the first banner was stolen
there was talk of replacing it. Nothing was done until this fall when the junior class organized and sponsored Spirit Night to raise money for the banner and to raise school spirit.

The three by eleven foot banner is made of maroon felt and has the word "Loggers" superimposed over CPS in white felt letters. The banner will be used at all athletic events during the year. Eileen Mc-Arthur, the yell queen, is responsible for the banner when it is not in use.

Spirit Night was the result of the work of many students. Gen Starkey and Ralph Mackey were co-chairmen of the dance. They were assisted by Maureen Gerrard, Bev Novak and Barbara Hill. Gene Campbell was responsible for the dinner. Helping him were the Knights and Spurs. Joann Wood and Bryan Brady organized the Greek's stunts given in Jones auditorium and Liz Fleming and the Rally committee planned the rally.

Spirit Night made seventy dollars,
but after the federal and city taxes were paid, and the banner was bought only $1.90 was left. The junior class treasury got this.

Organizations

OT Club

The Occupational Therapy club will meet at 8 o'clock Tuesday in the main OT workshop in South Hall.

Pictures for the Tamanawas will be taken. Guest speakers, occupational therapists from Madigan hospital, will speak on "Careers in the Women's Medical Specialist Corps."

IRC Club

International Relations club will meet Wednesday at 7:30 in Ruth Metcalf's home. Following the business meeting, the delegates will report on the IRC Regional Conference last weekend. Tamanawas pictures will also be taken. Cars leave the SUB at 7:15.

Rally Comm

Rally Comm met Monday night in the TRAIL office to plan for the joint CPS–PLC rally today. A get-together rally will be held at 2:45 on campus, and will merge into a car caravan to travel to the combined rally downtown at 9th and Broadway at 3:15.

A car caravan will tour the campus at noon today to advertise the rally. Plans were also made to have the National Anthem sung at ball games, a custom which has been neglected in the past.

Chapel

Chapel-goers were handed slips of paper on which they were asked to indicate their choice of interest among various campus groups and clubs.

Dave Golder introduced the Daisy
Mae and Lil' Abner candidates.

After Dean Regester had introduced Dr. Tomlinson, the students settled back to listen to him clarify
the purposes of the United Nations.

He began by pointing out the unrest among college students and their feelings of hopelessness and blamed it on the lack of knowledge of what is going on in the world today.

He defends the UN against the arguments that in its six years' existence it has not yet brought world peace, by saying that, "it is the most important and realistic thing in the world today."

660,000,000 people in the world today are at peace because of the efforts of the UN. Since it is not a world government, it can not pass laws yet it maintains this enviable record by just getting the people together and talking it over in a get-together rather than a conference. It requires time and patience.

He concluded by saying that the UN hasn't solved the problems of peace but it has done something about them.
Student Christian Council...

The Student Christian Council held its first meeting of the year last week. Discussed at a dinner gathering held in the SUB were aims and purposes of the organization. These are in the words of Chuck Morrison, a spokesman for the group:

"To further and supervise extracurricular religious activity of the college." The council is made up of representatives of the various CPS religious groups and denominations.

Election of officers was slated for this week’s meeting, held Wednesday night. The council will meet every two months, according to Morrison.

Geology Club...

Members of Geology Club have been meeting at noon in Howarth, discussing topics and seeing movies of interest to those in the department.

Officers were elected at the beginning of the year. Ron Miller is president; Duane Wegner, vice president; Bill Ferkovich, treasurer, and Ann Thompson, secretary.

Wednesday, the group heard Art Johnson, from the Conservation branch of the US Geological Survey, tell of the work done this past summer on Lake George in Alaska, and the continual studies being made on the Nisqually glacier.

The program next week will be a movie from the Union Oil Company. Anyone interested in geology may attend the meetings.

Mu Sigma Delta...

Mu Sigma Delta, a scholastic honorary, named its new officers at a meeting last week. After the entire summer has passed without a meeting the wheels of the honorary society meshed again.

Dr. Sprenger was elected president for the year and Professor Wilbur Baisinger was elected to the vice presidency. Recording secretary will be Dr. Seward and corresponding secretary is James Parber. Treasurer is Dr. Fehlandt.

At the meeting plans were discussed for advancing the time of election of new members so that students elected might participate before graduation.

GREEKS

Pha Epsilon presented their first serenade to the sororities Monday night. Later in the evening, Tri-Deltas and Pi Phis serenaded the new chapter. Larry Engle was appointed as the chapter co-ordinator between CPS and the University of Washington.

The next SAE social event is the Pledge dance which will be a costume affair with a French theme.

The “Danse Masque” will be held Nov. 30, with the SAE pledges from the University as guests. Pledges Bob Daniel and George Mundorff are co-chairmen of the event.

Chocolates were passed Monday night in the Delta Alpha Gamma meeting, announcing the engagement of Norma Jean Jardeen to Russ Peterson.

After the Theta Chi meeting Monday night the membership was serenaded by the Pi Phis and Tri-Delts. The pledge class under the direction of Andy Stevenson, pledge father, is engaged in a project to finish remodeling the upstairs dormitory.

At Monday night’s Pi Phi meeting Bev Warner passed chocolates to announce her engagement to Ray Rush. After the meeting the members serenaded all the fraternities.

Delta Kappa Phi will hold a fireside immediately following the game with PLC Saturday night. Don Boesel is in charge of the annual Christmas party given by the Delta Kaps for underprivileged children. Plans are being rapidly completed for the Gamma-Delta Kap pledge dance to be held Friday, Nov. 16.

Jim Ballsmith announced his marriage to the former Miss Dorothy Peterson. The event took place last Friday evening.

The Sigma Chis welcomed J. J. Overlock, Proctor of the Northwestern Province, at their meeting Monday night. Mr. Overlock helped formulate plans for initiation which will be held next week.

The membership enjoyed two large cakes, gifts of the Tri-Delts. Work is underway on renovation and redecoration of the upstairs bedrooms.

Sigma Nu’s annual intersquad football game, the A team again defeated the B’s.

Sigma Nu’s candidate for Li’l Abner is Bruce Jorgenson. After the CPS-PLC game a fireside will be held at the house for all members, pledges and guests.
Friends of Music...

This coming Tuesday evening at 8 p.m., the Friends of Music will hold their first meeting of the year in the Wedgwood room of the Hotel Winthrop. The program of music for each meeting is planned by the faculty members of The School of Music at CPS.

The program for the first meeting has been divided into two parts. Two quartets made up of members of the Tacoma Spring Quartet will make up the first part of the evening entertainment.

Making his initial appearance of the year, Clyde Keutzer, tenor, will sing two arias by Handel, and one aria by Wagner. Mr. Keutzer will also sing two manuscript songs: one by Nan Cook Smith who was a student under Mr. Keutzer while he was teaching at the University of North Carolina. The other piece was written by Daniel Gregory Mason especially for Mr. Keutzer in which Mr. Keutzer introduced at Town Hall in New York City. He will be accompanied by Leonard Jacobson, pianist.

Clutch Game...

"Tacoma is a town divided against itself as its two college teams, Pacific Lutheran and CPS, meet in a clutch game which may decide the Evergreen conference title Saturday." That's the way a Seattle PI sportswriter terms tomorrow night's gigantic at Lincoln Bowl. And, a clutch game it is.

Everything is resting on this one. Tacoma's city championship, the Evergreen title, the coveted Totem pole and a coach's record are all at stake. The Loggers must win. Should they lose, they will find

Faculty and Administration

Gibbs Goes...

Before dawn Tuesday morning Dr. Gibbs climbed into his automobile and headed west. His destination, Aberdeen, Raymond, Castle Rock, Pe Ell, and Vancouver. Some seven beginning teachers at these various communities were in on the receiving end of an inspection tour. CPS trainees under the new General Certificate, they were observed in their classrooms in any effort to spot and iron out kinks and other shortcomings, if any, in their teaching methods.

Why is CPS still interested in teachers who have already entered the professional field?

Under the new program, the first year of teaching is really considered as part of the student's training. The student-teacher must return for another year of class work following his initial nine months of actual teaching.

Students who will be included in the inspection tour:

Wayne Doan, Aberdeen; Dale Lien, Lloyd Percy, Raymond; Willard Zyestra, Pe Ell; Mark Van-Gasken, Castle Rock, and Jeanne Shugard, Vancouver.

Dr. Gibbs was due back on the campus late this week.

themselves in third place in the conference. Should they lose, it will be the first time for a Heinrick coached team. PLC has never beaten the Logger mentor. Should they lose, the Totem pole will no longer grace the fieldhouse athletic department.

Thus, it's squarely up to the 25 Loggers taking the field tomorrow night. A win will top off one of the most successful of all the Logger seasons. Only a 19-0 loss at the hands of Western mars a six-game win streak. There's a title share in it for them.

Ten Logger seniors will be playing their final tilt. Another will be watching and hoping. A useless left arm prevents him from doing anything physical about winning. He is Fred Bowen, big Logger fullback who has been out since the Central game with a shoulder separation.

The others will be doing their best. They want to end things right. They are Jack Adams, Lindy Aliment, Ed Annas, Dick Boyle, Dick Colombini, Earl Combs, Ned Conley, Jack Fabulich and co-captains Don Murdock and Bob Demko.

As for their chances, the Loggers could knock off the unbeaten Lutes. They dropped PLC 20-0 in a nonleague tilt at the opening of the season. Lest that fact make them overconfident, however, it should be pointed out that they drubbed the Lutes 35-0 in last year's opener and then barely escaped with a 13-13 tie in the finale.

Up on the practice field, Heinrick and his boys have spent the week drilling against Lute plays. PLC has shown tremendous improvement since that early season contest with the Loggers. The Lutes have one of the best lines in the conference and a hard running backfield.

The Loggers will pin their hopes on the strong right arm of Aerial Art Viafore and the churning legs of speedy Dick Colombini, Wally Erwin and hard-driving Don Murdock. Up front, the linemen are expected to handle themselves well. They have in every game this season.

CPS is ready. This one is the clutch game.

Forty and Six...

The Canadians weren't ready for Logger football last Saturday. CPS ran away with a 40-6 victory over UBC.

It was a good warm-up tilt for this week's big one. The Thunderbirds fought hard all the way and poured right through a stout CPS line to block a kick and set up their lone score in the third quarter. Then a squirming Irish quarterback, Cal Murphy, sneakied right through the middle of that forward wall to score.

The rest of the game was the Loggers'. Jack Fabulich scored once on a 19-yard end run and took a 15-yard pass from Sandy deCarteret for another. Wally Erwin grabbed a 37-yard pass from Art Viafore for a third and Ed Annas snagged one of the Arm's tosses for a fourth. Dick Colombini scooted into the end zone to tally one and Don Murdock banged over for another.

Colombini kicked four extra points in five attempts and probably would have been called on more often had not CPS elected to keep the score down. Logger reserves saw lots of action.

The win was the sixth of the year for CPS. With the exception of the Western game, the Loggers have not lost. Theirs has been a good season.

The girls played Clark J. C. Saturday morning, the U. of Idaho on Saturday afternoon, and Washington State on Sunday morning. All the teams participating in the conference gathered at the U. of Idaho in Moscow on Saturday evening to enjoy a banquet and an evening of fun and "getting acquainted" activities.

The girls all stayed at South Hall, a vacated boys' dorm on the Washington State campus. They traveled over and back on a Greyhound chartered bus with the U. of Washington team.

The 15 girls who attended the conference were Jeanne Hagemeyer, captain; Virginia Wahliquist, Marion Swanson, Glee Callahan, Kitty McDaniels, Bonnie Moncrieff, Beverly Hoback, Ann DuBois, Margaret Heinrick, Joanne Ryan, Claire McNeill, Eleanor Moberg, Joanne Wood, Corrinne Engle and Sally McLean.

The only two undefeated teams at the conference were CPS and U. of B.C.

NOTICE

Convocation attendance committee will meet Thursdays at 12. Anyone wishing to be excused from convocations must appear before the committee. The hearings will take place in Jones 23.
