Religious Life Emphasis Week - Feb. 24-27
Editor's Note...

Because the cost of printing previous editions of Trail has run higher than the amount allocated by Central Board, it will be necessary to publish Trail on a limited basis during the spring semester in order to stay within the budget for the year.

Faced with the alternative of either cutting down on the size of Trail or of cutting down on the number of editions, it was decided to cut down on the number of editions. The schedule of Trail publication for the remainder of the spring semester is as follows:

March 6, March 20, March 27, April 17, April 24, May 1, May 8.

"Mudlark" Due at Jones

The CPS Film Society will present "The Mudlark" next Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Jones hall. The weekly presentation of the society stars Irene Dunne in another one of the better "oldtimers" from filmland.

Keutzer Presents Singing Groups

Clyde Keutzer, former CPS music head who resigned last year to do graduate work at the University of Oregon, will appear with three Oregon choral groups in the near future. On Feb. 24 he will conduct the all-city choir of Astoria, and on April 3 will lead the choir of the First Congregational church of Eugene in a performance of "The Seven Last Words" by Dubois.

He will appear as soloist with the Gleemen, a men's choral society, in Eugene March 10.

Tacoma Choral Society To Be Organized

The formation of a new Tacoma Choral Society was announced this week by Professor Bruce Rodgers, CPS music head.

Although the first performance will not take place until sometime next fall, Mr. Rodgers is already laying the groundwork for the group.

Similar in stature to the "Messaiah" group heard in the Fieldhouse last Christmas, the Society will number from between 110 and 150 singers. They will perform the greater choral works such as Mozart's "Requiem Mass," "Lament for Beowulf" by Howard Hanson, and Bach's "St. Matthew Passion."

Auditions will be held in Jones Hall auditorium on February 24, March 3, and March 11 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Mr. Rodgers said that tenors and basses were especially needed.
"King of Hearts" is the theme of the annual tolo dance being sponsored by the Associated Women Students Friday, February 28. This informal dance will be held in the SUB with music being supplied by Wendel Kinney’s band.

The decorations for the dance will be in keeping with the theme and tickets are being sold for $1.50. The tolo "King of Hearts" will be crowned by AWS president, Joanne Lowery at the dance. Each fraternity and Indees has a candidate running for this honor. Kathy Jones and Elberta Conklin are in charge of the candidates.

Other committees for the tolo are chaperones, Shirley Skinner; tickets, Margie Strand; decorations, Donna Dettrich; publicity, Janet Vroman; refreshments, Glee Callahan; and programs, Barbara Combs.

Central Board Committee Proposes Insurance Plan

Last fall Mr. Banks announced to Central Board that the college would not assume responsibility for any accidents to students on the campus or anyone who was hurt while participating in intramural athletics. Central Board formed a committee of three of its members and three members of the student body to investigate the problem and find a solution if possible. An opinion poll taken last fall revealed that the majority of students felt that there should be insurance but didn’t want a compulsory policy.

The committee composed of Jim Nelson, John Chapman, Don Pirie, Janice Beitz, Janet Vroman and Gene Campbell made an investigation to see what other schools in a similar situation had done. They then contacted several insurance companies to find what plan would give the coverage needed here on the campus. The plan finally selected as the one which would give the coverage needed at a reasonable cost was one put out by the United Pacific Insurance Co. Basically it is an accident policy covering accidents incurred while on the campus during the school day. It covers injuries received while playing intramural athletics and also trips which are school sponsored and supervised. The policy also covers the students on a daily direct route to and from school. Maximum payment is $500 with a schedule of payments covering each specific injury. Treatment may be had at any recognized hospital and by any qualified doctor. The cost will be $1.25 per semester and will be paid upon entrance.

The plan is first presented to Central Board, the college finance committee then acts upon it, and then it is presented to the Board of Trustees. If all are agreeable, the plan will go into effect next fall.

Ski King to Be Revealed At Annual Ski Day

Ski day, held each year on Washington’s birthday, February 23, by the College of Puget Sound’s Chinook club, will begin with the announcement and crowning of a ski king to rule over the day’s events, announced Duane Wegner, Chinook club president.

After the crowning at 11 a.m., a slalom race with CPS intramural teams participating will be run. The race will be set up and timed by the CPS ski team. Girls may enter the race if they desire.

The candidates for ski king were voted upon by the college students at last Tuesday’s Convocation. Candidates were Dutch Brandeegee, Phi Delta Theta; Sail Hendricks, SAE; Walt Espeland, Kappa Sigma; John Ramsey, Sigma Chi; Ted Bottiger, Theta Chi; and Fred Schmidt, Sigma Nu.

An open house at Deep Creek, CPS’ outdoor recreation spot will follow the races at 4 p.m. Cake and coffee will be served.

Adviser of Chinook and for the ski team is Dr. Robert D. Sprenger.

Dr. Magee Attends Earl Lectures

Seismological Specialist Visits CPS

William K. Cloud, chief of the seismological field survey from the U.S. Dept. of Geodetic Survey, recently visited the CPS geology department and discussed local seismological conditions with head of department, Dr. Frederick A. McMilin.

Cloud toured the campus and also discussed future plans for the geology department.

Religion, Dr. Magee represented the professors who advise ministerial students at CPS:

Choral Readers Schedule Recital

The CPS Choral Readers, a dramatic reading group which has been presenting programs for 13 years, is the only group of this sort west of the Mississippi to give public seasonal presentations.

Another outstanding recital is scheduled to be given in the Jones Hall auditorium Friday, February 27 at 8:15 p.m. by the Readers under the direction of Martha Pearl Jones and Wilbur Baisinger.

The program will feature a variety of types of readings such as: patriotic, religious and serious, sophisticated and humorous, and poems of childhood.

Inspiring Program Outlined for Next Week

An interestingly varied program will be featured in the observance of Religious Life Emphasis Week. Featured on the program as the main speaker will be the Rev. Chester B. Fisk, pastor of the First Congregational Church. Rev. Fisk attended Dwight L. Moody School of Religion, Princeton University, Chicago Theological Seminary, the University of Chicago and spent one year as an exchange student at the University of Berlin.

Also featured with Rev. Fisk in Convocation periods will be Mrs. C. Fisk and her nationally famous rhythmic choir, the Adelphian Concert Choir, the Choral Readers, and the Sigma Alpha Iota Choir.

Other speakers for the week will be: Dr. Frank Williston, former CPS faculty member and now on the faculty at the University of Washington, who will speak at an interdorm dinner Thursday in the Student Union Building; Dr. Edward Lauer, former dean of the University of Washington, who will speak at a faculty dessert meeting in Dr. R. Franklin Thompson’s home.

Rev. Fisk will meet with students in the faculty lounge during coffee and discussion hours following Tuesday and Thursday Convocation periods.

Unique experiments for this year’s observance will occur when science professors visit theology classes to discuss the relation of religion to the sciences and debate teams argue fair employment practices in the light of the week’s theme.

Rev. Fisk will relate his experiences during flight training and the life of a flying officer in the Air Force.

Purpose of the talk, according to Brigadier General M. K. Deichelman, AFROTC Commandant, is to stimulate flying training interest among AFROTC graduates. These talks by Korean veterans are being carried out all over the United States at the 200 AFROTC detachments located throughout the country.

CPS Custodian Dies

Thomas Cochran, 67, an employee of the CPS custodial staff for over two years, died suddenly last Friday night of a heart attack. His only survivor was a daughter in Wisconsin. His body has been sent to his home in Utah.

Korean Vet To Speak To CPS ROTC Students

Speaking to College of Puget Sound Air Force ROTC students February 26 will be Korean war veteran First Lt. Orval E. Mauk, it was disclosed today by Lt. Colonel Fred H. Newman, P AST, AFROTC, CPS.

In Korea, Mauk saw active duty piloting B-26 light bombers in 1951-52. He received the Distinguished Flying Citation, Air Medal, two Oak Leaf clusters, and various other medals.

During his visit to CPS, Mauk will relate his experiences during flight training and the life of a flying officer in the Air Force.

Last Saturday evening the Indees very successfully staged their Service Men's Party at the Youth Center. The cheerful evening included square dancing, ping-pong and friendly chit-chat with a swell bunch of fellows. Our DICK HOHN-BAUM did a wonderful job of promoting the affair, and he says, "Thanks a million" to the kids who helped out.

The date of publication for the Color Post has been postponed until the weekend of the 28th, so we won't need your help until two weeks hence. Don't forget it then!

The Independents have been fortunate in obtaining Rabbi Rosenberg for their Religious Life Emphasis Week speaker. As he is one of the most interesting and inspiring speakers in Tacoma it will be worthwhile for everybody to hear him.

The next meeting won't be next Monday but the one after—March 2nd.

KATHIE JONES and ELBERTA CONKLIN have been selected as our candidates for Sigma Chi Sweetheart and we are proud to present them.

Since the Indee room has been re-conditioned, many groups on the campus have been using it for their noon-time meetings. This has proven very inconvenient for some of our members who would like to hold their Indee committee meetings there. While we are very glad to accommodate you when possible, we do wish you would check with our president, PHIL GLEB, who will be glad to reserve it for you when available. And please remember, it is only common courtesy to clean up your leftovers when you have finished. Thank you.

Delta Delta Delta...

Initiation was held in the little chapel of the First Congregation church last Sunday for the 15 pledges of Phi Zeta chapter. They were: Agnes Beall, Nancy Cranston, Nancy Eierman, Faith Elvin, Rheta Hill, Carol Johnson, Delores Keller, Ruth Karuse, Marjorie Mosolf, Kathleen Musgrove, Patricia Price, Barbara Schaller, Diane Siler, Suzanne Swayze and Janet Swenson.

After the initiation the new members were entertained at a dinner at the home of Mrs. Paul Weitzel.

Chicken dinner was served to the big sisters of the new initiates Monday night at the home of Sue Swayze.

Joanne Lowery is the Tri Delta candidate for May Queen this year.

Plans are being formulated for the dinner dance which will be held at the Chateau March 21.

Kappa Sigma...

The K-Sigs held their annual Black and White on Saturday, the seventh of February. This formal dinner dance was held at Lake Wilderness Lodge. Congratulations are out to chairman Fred Fontana and Dave Schweinle for the fine job they did. "Mom" Sloat presented the Man of the Year plaque to Wally Millard.

Spring semester officers were also announced at the dance. They are: Grand Master, Dick Columbini; Grand Procurator, Clarence Tiessen; Grand Master of Ceremonies, Jack Nelson; Grand Treasurer, Dick Bryan; Grand Secretary, Fred Fontana.

The remodeling of the house is all but complete. The new room upstairs will sleep four men, with plenty of study room.

Farewells were said to Gail Varner and Doug Yost who left CPS to serve in the Marine Corps.

Phi Delta Theta...

An impressive day-long ceremony climaxed a semester of pledging for 17 new Phi Delts last Sunday. Those initiated are: Jim Miller, Bill Barber, Bob Wright, David Holmes, Duane Erickson, Jim Ballamith, Al Hanson, Franklin Johnson, Jim Osborne, Dick Lankford, Jack McDougal, John Barker, Terry Schick, Chuck Holtzinger, Dutch Brandege, Bob Ehrenheim, and Dick Jacobson. The new Phis were honored guests at an open house following the initiation ceremony.

Last Monday the Phi Delts entertained the Pi Phi girls at the Phi House at a fireside. During the course of the evening, Don Snider announced his pinning to Doris Caldwell.

Sigma Nu...

New pledges to Sigma Nu are Wayne Smith, Larry Bergquist, Tom Lennon, Doug Mellis, and Doug Tenzler.

The candidates for White Rose queen were at the house for lunch Wednesday. They were completely satisfied with Mrs. Steele's homecooking.

Charles Kruger, a sophomore, was one of four recently accepted into Phi Sigma, national biological society on campus.

Jim Oakes, a member in '47 and '48, is back with us again after serving his time in the army. Also Buzz Pease, a Sigma Nu transfer student from the University, is now with us.

Sigma Chi...

The Sigs welcome Dick Thayer to our spring pledge class.

John Ramsey has been chosen Sigma Chi candidate for Ski-King, and the intramural team has been practicing for the coming Ski Day races.

Plans are also being made for the coming initiation, to be formally held on Sunday, Feb. 22.

GREEKS
Sigma Alpha Epsilon...

During the last two weeks the following men were officially pledged to SAE: Jack Madsen, Paul Hartman, Wally Rich, Don Sabol, Don Byington, Jack Cranfill, and Bill Baird.

Last Monday evening Richard Martinez, Lars (Larry) Wetterhus and Gilbert (Gibb) Hallett were formally initiated into the chapter at a ceremony held at the Masonic Temple.

Announcement was made at the Monday evening meeting that the chapter has been awarded a $1,000 grant through the Lavere Memorial Foundation toward development of library and study room facilities in the fraternity house.

New social chairman of the semester is Rick Martinez with Bob Wilson serving as chairman of the annual SAE Dreamgirl Ball.

Theta Chi...

After last Monday's meeting the Theta Chi members and pledges adjourned to the home of faculty advisor, Professor and Mrs. Walker, where several gallons of chili were dispatched.

Friday, Feb. 20, the Theta Chi hoop artists will tangle with the staff and student squads of the Rainier State Custodial School at Buckley.

Rainier State coach, alum Tom Jabusch, '50, promises a tight game.

Chairman for the Theta Chi regional convention to be held April 17-18 is Slim Mosier.

Operation of Auxiliary Enterprises at CPS

CPS has six auxiliary enterprises: (1) Fieldhouse, (2) dining hall (cafeteria and fountain), (3) residence halls, (4) book store, (5) print shop, (6) intercollegiate athletics.

Auxiliary enterprises are auxiliary operations carried on by the college to serve the students, but are not part of the educational function of the college. They are intended to be self supporting.

In the belief that many CPS students do not understand the operation of these enterprises, a series of articles will be run covering the operation of one of the auxiliary enterprises in each successive issue of the Trail.

All auxiliary enterprises at CPS are under the direction of Bursar Gerard Banks who has been in college administration work since 1933. Although Mr. Banks is directly in charge of all auxiliary enterprises at CPS, he is assisted by a manager in most of the enterprises. These managers are: Ted Droettboom, Fieldhouse; Mrs. Melba Rollefson, dining hall; Dr. Julius Jaeger, bookstore; Mrs. Ava VanBuskirk, print shop.

The next issue of Trail will cover the operation of the CPS Fieldhouse.

Todd Hall Redecorating

Todd Hall is taking on a new appearance. Gone is the "boarding house beige" motif. Instead "designed by Savidore Dali" seems to be much more appropriate. Permission has been obtained from the administration to completely redecorate the whole interior. The halls have been painted, and now the Todd Hall men are painting their rooms, choosing their own color scheme.

Although they are limited to only two colors, some of the rooms have taken on an atmosphere of complete unreality. Chartreuse and blue, Chinese red and black, all possible color combinations can be seen. Some, not satisfied with merely painting their color in the normal manner have taken to draperies, wrought iron lamps and murals.

It is not yet known whether the fellows have adopted the artistic habits of drinking wine and eating garlic but that will probably be covered by the next issue of the TRAIL.

Plaudits go to Plant Supt. Col. Ackerman. "He's been simply marvelous," according to Mrs. Langdon, House Mother.

Notice of ASCPS Elections

In accordance with the ASCPS Constitution (Chapter II), the general election of ASCPS officers will be held March 17 through March 20. The first balloting will be held on March 17 and 18; the final election will be held on March 19 and 20.

At this time the president, vice-president, and secretary of ASCPS, the yell king (or queen), May queen, and one representative to Central Board from each of next year's senior, junior, and sophomore classes will be elected.

To place a candidate's name on the ballot it is necessary to present a petition signed by fifty students endorsing the candidate. This applies to the executive officers of the ASCPS and to the representatives to Central Board. Petitions must be turned in to one of the following persons not later than March 2: Gene Campbell, Roger Chaney, or Professor Willard Gee.

On March 17 the candidates will be presented in Convocation and the candidates for president of the ASCPS will be given opportunity to present their views to the student body.

Regulations governing the conduct of the campaigns will be circulated among the various groups in the immediate future.

It is earnestly recommended that petitions be turned in at an early date, to assure that the candidate's name will appear on the ballot and that he will have ample opportunity to make himself and his views well known to the students.

Central Board Mulls Over ASCPS Constitution Changes

Last week 20 recommendations by the Judiciary Council which would revise the ASCPS constitution were submitted to Central Board for review, announced Duane Wegner, Judiciary council chairman.

Most of the revisions are for the purpose of bringing the constitution up to date. The following four revisions which will be brought up are the basic subjects which the Judiciary council feels should be changed in the constitution:

Plans Judiciary Council Changes

Chapter I, Section 6: "The ASCPS President, in conjunction with the President of the College, will appoint three sophomores at the beginning of each fall semester to be members of the Judiciary council. They will serve a term of three years."

Fresh Officers Would Take Test

Chapter II, Section 4: "In September the freshman class shall nominate candidates for president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, sergeant-at-arms, and two representatives to Central Board. The candidates for president, vice-president, and Central Board representatives shall be required to successfully complete an examination on the ASCPS constitution and Robert's Rules of Order before the primary election. This election shall be presided over by the ASCPS president. All officers elected in the freshman election shall assume their duties at once."

Slates More Student Affairs Committee Members

Chapter V, Section 1: "The Student Affairs Committee shall be composed of the president of the Inter-Fraternity Council, Panhellean, a member of the ASCPS appointed by the president of the ASCPS with the approval of the Central Board, president of Independents, the four class presidents, and four faculty members appointed by the president of the College. The vice-president of the student body will be chairman."

Would Change Hatchet Rules

By-Laws, Article IV: "Hatchet Rules—Senior class of 1953. (1) Dr. Thompson must know of the hatchet's whereabouts at all times, (2) Private property is to be respected at all times, when looking for the hatchet, (3) Clues will be extended to the junior class four days before the sophomore class, and the freshmen will receive a clue two days after the sophomore class, (4) If the hatchet has not been found by Senior Recognition day a clue shall be given to the entire student body, (5) Beginning the fall semester, the hatchet cannot be off campus for more than one week a month, (6) If a class other than the juniors gets the hatchet, they should put their initials on it and put it into circulation again and issue clues to the junior class, (7) Every class which has possession of the hatchet must keep a record of all the movements of it during the year. This record will be filed with the class record."

More Functional Government

Commenting on the revisions, Wegner said, "These revisions are the steps which we as a committee deem necessary to provide a more functional type of student government. Each recommendation received careful consideration and study before being submitted to Central Board for further action."

Yesterday and in coming meetings Central Board will decide which revisions will be placed on the March 19-20 general election ballot. Other members of the Judiciary council are JoAnne Neff, Pat Novak, Sall Hendricks, seniors; Mary Ann Jugovich, Nancy Beeman, Clarence Engell, juniors; Jean Cameron, Margie Berry, Don Chew, Florence Fleck, sophomores.

Save That Blood!!

Students planning to give blood this month are asked to save their donations for the College of Puget Sound's blood drive scheduled for the first of April, announced Madeline Williams and Don Boesel, blood drive chairmen.

WAA Initiates 16 New Members

A general meeting of the Women's Athletic Association was held on Wednesday, February 11, at noon in the women's gym. The principle order of business was election of officers and initiation of new members. Certificates of Merit were also awarded to girls who were selected to comprise the All-Star Hockey team.

The following girls were elected to office for the ensuing year: president, Janice Beitz; vice-president, Barbara Johnston; secretary, Dolores Kaiser; treasurer, Joan Warren; publicity chairman, Margie Casebier; and social chairman, Elizabeth Regester. These girls will hold office for the remainder of the spring term and for the fall term of 1953.

Sixteen girls were initiated into the Women's Athletic Association. They are as follows: Margie Casebier, Shirley Demko, Carla Issacson, Bonnie Jordahl, Cora Ann Keller, Sally Nelson, Shirley Rutledge, Ann Scalfurton, Maureen Helms, Joan Hemminger, Liz Regester, Joan Warren, Mary Lee Gray, Donna Lillis, Delores Kaiser, and Agnes Beall. These girls, in order to be eligible for membership, must have earned at least 200 points by actively participating in women's sports.

Turnouts for women's basketball are now being held. Girls are also urged to turn out for swimming. A bowling tournament is to be held in the very near future.

Suzanne West to Give Concert at Wenatchee

Suzanne West, CPS music secretary, and recent graduate, will travel to Wenatchee Monday, Feb. 23, to appear as guest artist in the Young Artist Series, sponsored by the Ladies' Musical Club of Wenatchee. She will be accompanied by pianist Barbara Combs, a senior at CPS. Miss West is a student of Ivan Rasmussen, and Miss Combs of Leonard Anderson.

Tact is making a blind date feel at home when you wish she was there.
On the Limb . . .

Feb. 20—PLC at UBC—The Thunderbirds surprised everyone last weekend, including Western, but the Lute offense should get rolling again. PLC over UBC, by six.

CPS at Western—The Loggers have got the smell of the play-offs in their nostrils—Western won't keep them out of it. Loggers on the long end by eight.

Feb. 21—PLC at Western—The up and down Western outfit could make it rough on the Lutherans, but—PLC on top of the Vikings—four points difference.

CPS at UBC—The Loggers should nip the Thunderbird's tail feathers, but good—CPS by 12.

Whitworth at Central—The Pirates, by all rights, should tame the Wildcats, but could be wrong. Whitworth's cloud scrapers, by seven.

Feb. 26—PLC at Central—Marvel Harshman will want a victory in this, their last conference game. They will probably get it, too. PLC on top, five points.

Feb. 27—Whitworth at Eastern—You can toss a coin. Will have to string along with the champ when they are on their home floor. Eastern by a narrow three points.

UBC at CPS—It won't be "Be Kind to Invaders Week." The Loggers, in their last home appearance, by 14.

Feb. 28—Eastern at Whitworth—This game will depend a lot on the results of the night before. Not on record, but a hunch—Whitworth, by four.

CPS Students Receive TB X-Rays

As of 1:30 Wednesday afternoon, 774 students had had their "pictures taken" by Walter J. Kain, x-ray specialist, in the mobile X-ray unit which spent the first three days of this week on the campus.

Kain and his mobile unit were on campus in March of last year. At that time a total of 817 students had X-rays taken. Although school enrollment at that time was higher than at present, Kain prophesied that approximately 75 more students would take advantage of the free X-ray service before he discontinued his college stop at 4 p.m.

Two tuberculosis cases have been discovered and treated in the past five years through this yearly campus TB checkup.

Although the goal of 100% was not reached, the percentage was higher than last year.

Swish!

Jake Maberry, the Logger basketball captain, is currently second in the nation among small college free throw tossers. "Old Automatic" has dropped 157 through the cords, out of 189 attempts. His average is 83.1 per cent.

The team as a whole is only 1.5 per cent behind the first place team in the same category. They have made 520 out of 749 for a 69.4 per cent. They are ranked fourth in the nation.

Loggers Thump Whitworth
At Memorial Fieldhouse

Jake Maberry hit for 27 points to pace the Loggers to a 78 to 65 victory over Whitworth last Friday night. It was in the final fifteen minutes of play that Puget Sound showed their superiority over the Pirates. At the midway point in the third quarter, CPS was on the short end of a 38 to 34 score. This was due to a Whitworth rally in which they scored 11 points to the Loggers' 3. The latter promptly started their own rally, however, and pulled ahead, 55 to 46, at the three quarter mark. From there the Heinrick-men coasted to their fifth conference victory.

In spots the Loggers showed signs of greatness. In the last quarter and a half, it didn't seem to matter who was spearheading the fast break, two points were in the making. Also there were a couple of instances when they couldn't seem to buy a basket, from underneath. All in all, however, it was the brand of ball that any fan would enjoy watching.

Tiessen, Moyles, and Wilkerson followed Maberry in the CPS scoring with 15, 12, and 11 points respectively. Jordan was high for the Pirates with 26.

Savages Whisk Past Loggers...

The Eastern Washington Savages jumped to an early 16 to 5 advantage at the CPS Fieldhouse, Saturday, and held their lead to lash the Loggers, 69 to 62.

After the opening five minutes the two teams played on even terms, but CPS could never clumb closer than six points to the hot shooting Savages.

With this victory, Eastern just about sewed up the Evergreen Conference championship. They need only one more win out of three games to insure themselves of the title.

Jake Maberry led the CPS scoring for the second night in a row, with 13, but was out-scored by no less than three of Coach Red Reese's Savages.

During the second week of intra-mural basketball, a couple of high scoring feats held the spotlight. In last Thursday night's game the "B" league Indee club rolled up a total of 117 points while holding their Theta Chi opponents to 35 counters.

'Bevo' Schmidtke took scoring honors as he pounded the twine for 60 points. Schmidtke's performance is believed to be a record, though nothing can be official, since no data is kept from season to season.

Other "B" league games found ROTC flying by the SAE squad, 50-14. Knudson led the scoring with 22 counters. Elsewhere the Sigma Nu kept the Sigma Chis a 42-18 setback as Dale Meshke dunked in 23 points for the victors. Over in the girls' gym Kappa Sigma dumped the Phi Deltas, 55-19.

Earlier in the evening the "A" league clubs had battled it out with the Indees again holding the high score, a 76-29 victory, over Theta Chi. Graham scored 19 for the Indees while And-son garnered 18 for Theta Chi. Elsewhere Todd Hall rolled by SAE, 63-23 with Kari dunking in 18 for the winners, and Cisco Egiluz pouring in 19 points for the losers. Sigma Chi, led by G. Murdock's 22 points, took measure of Sigma Chi, 56-24. Phi Deltas and Kappa Sigma game was postponed.

Loggers Lump Lutes...

An aggressive and hot-shooting CPS basketball team who wanted to beat PLC, and showed it, chased the harassed Parkland boys all the way from North Lawrence to fourth place in the Evergreen Conference. When the final buzzer had sounded at the Fieldhouse Wednesday night, Heinrick's hoopsters were on the long end of a 72 to 57 count.

The Loggers jumped to an early lead and were never headed. With Warren Moyles sparking the attack, CPS practically put the game on ice in the third quarter. In this all important period, they scored 22 points to stretch their lead to 13. The Lutes put on a spurt in the fourth quarter, but despite a full court press, they failed to out-score the Loggers even then.

The Maroon and White hit on 24 out of 52 shots from the floor for an excellent 46 per cent. The Lutherans didn't hit nearly so well. This was due largely to the tight defense that was thrown against them.

Don Maitland, Russ Wilkerson, and Moyles played what might have been their best ball of the year. Moyles hit the hoop for 18 to lead all point-getters, while Rustlin' Russ followed with 14. Maitland climbed from the bench to garner 11, while at the same time out-hustling every one of the smaller South-enders. Captain Jake Maberry started CPS off on the right foot by collecting 10 points in the first quarter. His total for the night was 13. Jake fouled out of the ball game, in the fourth quarter, for the first time this year.

High point man for the Lutes was Glen Huffman. The PLC captain hit for 12 points.
