Ex Libris
Copyright 1930

Beatrice L. S. Rumball
Editor-in-Chief

Ralph C. Brear
Business Manager

[College Seal]
Tamanawas
1930

Published by the Associated Students
College of Puget Sound
Tacoma, Washington
foreword

We have chosen as the theme of the 1930 Tamanawas the ideals of mediaeval knighthood because these are the ideals of youth today. The knights of old faced life confidently and bravely, spurring on to whatever lay around the corner. Today Youth finds a world with horizons pushed far beyond the narrow limitations of past ages, yet the same eager question is on his lips.

Just as the knights-errant passed through a long period of training and a series of gruelling tests before starting on the highway of adventure, so does the youth in the colleges of today prepare for the future.

The College of Puget Sound has emerged triumphant from a long test-period of its own and has taken its place before the world.

Many comparisons may be drawn between campus life and the mediaeval systems of government. We hope to have given in this year-book a true picture of the past year on the Campus at the College of Puget Sound.
Contents

Dedication
Scenic Administration
Classes
Activities
Athletics
Organizations
Features
Advertisements
Dedication

To the gallant spirit of knighthood in the vivid days of ages past, to the joy in the fullness of life and the courage to face all obstacles, guided by codes of honor and chivalry, we dedicate the Tamanawas of 1930.
Highways to Adventure
May be Woodland Paths
Or the Road to a College Door
Those who train the young knights of modern life hold in their hands the future of the world. At the College of Puget Sound they are sympathetic advisors and friends. In and out of the classroom these men and women teach a respect for the finest things and a love of truth.
Administration
"It is the quality of its men that marks the quality of a University."

...William James
Courage

The knight of old was supposed to be a man of character and courage. These qualities are closely allied. The trappings of flowering knighthood have passed, but its spirit is a ripened fruit in the everyday walks of life.

To become a knight one had to subscribe to certain high principles, educate himself to know how to defend them, and demonstrate his strength, honor and courage in their defense.

That which gave knighthood its glory, today makes for a true conception of social solidarity. There is many an uncrowned knight walking the highways of life in crowded mart or lowly, lonely by-path.

The knightly spirit has good command of two short words—"yes" and "no." It takes courage, character and wisdom to use them properly. The spirit of knighthood says "yes" without fear in choosing and defending a noble principle. A decisive "no" challenges every suggestion of retreat or temptation to violate one's pledge to be strong, pure and good.

Courage will win admiration or contempt as it is used to preserve or destroy the rights and duties of men to their God and their fellow men.

Knighthood is in better flower today than yesterday. It is the way one walks more than where he walks that displays one's right to modern knighthood.
The real knight was a "good man and true," which meant that above all else he was loyal. To be true to his lord and his fellow knights was one of the finest virtues of the age of chivalry. In "The Lady of the Lake," the loyalty of the banished Douglass to his king is praised in the stirring lines—

"Against his sovereign, Douglass ne'er
Will level a rebellious spear."

In this modern day also, "It is loyalty, not success, that is knightly." Loyalty to friends, fellow workers, institutions, ideals, one's college, one's country, is one of the most commendable virtues. Loyalty is today so highly esteemed that one is ready to overlook slow head, slow hands, and slow feet where loyalty exists; while without it no skill or agility of mind or body makes one accepted.

Loyalty is the foundation of everything noble in character. Other traits, such as courage, honesty, sympathy, center around loyalty. It is also the key-stone of the arch of friendship, for loyalty is faith in others.

One should be loyal to himself. He should respond to the urges of his better self. This is a continuous struggle, for no one can be his best without striving to be so.

"To thine own self be true,
And it must follow as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man."

One should be loyal to his college. He should give his best to uphold her honor and her ideals. If he is loyal in mind and heart he will in turn receive from her many of the things in life he holds most dear.

Your love for your college and your happiness in your college life will be in direct proportion to your loyalty to your Alma Mater.
Goethe said "What we wish for in youth comes in heaps on us in old age," while Emerson wrote "Life is a search after power, and this is an element with which the world is so saturated that no honest seeking goes unrewarded." If this philosophy is true, each student in our beloved college may possess honor.

True honor does not write nor permit conversations that tear down character and reputation. It is an element that raises one's ideals and is a basis for lasting friendships. Sincere honor, deeply ingrained always recognizes the inherent weakness in that which is not right.

"Honors" may bring fame, greatness, even self-love and hypocrisy, but honor is based upon fidelity, truth, constancy, virtue and integrity. Honor is not the result of chance, but is the outcome of a constant consistent striving toward this ideal.

Honor becomes so large a part of one's character, that it is the occasion for the saying "an ear which hears not what men say, but hears what they do not say."

It is my sincere wish that each student within our college halls shall covet and possess this honor, that causes one to be rightfully attracted to you, to hold you in high esteem and to recognize your worthiness of character.
Academic Strides

WHEN President Todd succeeded in collecting the first quarter million of endowment in 1916 the College of Puget Sound was financially able to proceed toward the academic development which now makes it one of the leading institutions of the Pacific Coast.

Soon the college became a four year accredited institution. The academy was discontinued. The effort was all placed on the development of college courses, and as soon as practicable the Normal department was discontinued while a full course of four years was established in the department of Education. Similar advances have been made in other departments.

As the public realized the significance of this work further recognition came to the college’s academic progress from the outside. The Robert Laird McCormick chair of Business Administration was established. The Alumni Association began to raise funds to endow the chair of history in the name of our beloved professor Walter Scott Davis. The students and faculty set their minds to the improvement of standards, and during the past two years great strides have been made.

The standards for honors have been raised by the provision for independent study by candidates for honors. This study in the subject of the student’s specialization is supervised by the major department and is designed to secure a maximum of ability on the part of the student to do research and to reach conclusions scientifically. When such a student graduates with honors, the honors mean that the college approves of the student as one who has attained real scholarship and has learned to work independently without the necessity of small, regularly assigned tasks. It means that the student is recognized by the institution to have attained maturity and independent power.

Now the college is to offer master’s degrees. In offering the degree of Master of Arts the College of Puget Sound establishes itself as a truly higher institution. Genuine independent work of high scholarship will be required for the attainment of this degree. The mingling of graduate students with the undergraduates of the upper classes will raise the tone of all those classes, and help to inspire students toward a higher quality of work.

It is almost superfluous to mention the recognition the College of Puget Sound has received from accrediting agencies. However we are listing them again because they show the outside and official recognition our academic development has had, and all students and friends of the college should know that it is accredited by the American Council of Education, the Northwest Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the American Medical Association, the University of the State of New York, the Washington State Board of Education, the Association of American Colleges and University Senate of the Methodist Church. By virtue of the college’s membership in the Northwest Association its credits are recognized by the North Central Association of College and Secondary Schools, The Association of the Middle States and Maryland, the New England Association and the Southern Association.

In addition to this great advance it will be possible, next year, for students to major in journalism and physical education.

The academic advancement of this college is vital to the Northwest. The college of Puget Sound, under able leadership, is advancing as fast as funds permit. Nothing is being done in haste or without due consideration. Everything is done with a vision to permanency and stability. As we watch this progress in our Alma Mater we are proud. We know the future is assured.
CHARLES T. BATTIN
A. B., Ottawa University
Professor of Business Administration and Economics

JOHN PAUL BENNETT
B. F. A., University of Nebraska
Professor of Voice and Music Theory

DAVID L. BRYANT
B. S. in B. A., University of Southern California
Instructor in Business Administration

MARIORIE HULL BRYANT
A. M., University of Washington
Instructor in Journalism

HERBERT D. Cheney
A. M., Harvard University
Associate Professor of German and Latin

IDA N. COCHRAN
John Herron Art Institute
Instructor in Art and Design

ANNA H. CRAPSER
A. B., Elsworth College
Associate Professor of French

WALTER SCOTT DAVIS
A. M., Cornell University
Professor of History and Political Science

ARTHUR L. FREDERICK
Ph. B., A. M., Northwestern University
Professor of Religious Education

JUNIA TODD HALLEN
A. B., College of Puget Sound
Instructor in English

FRANCIS WAYLAND HANAWALT
A. M., De Pauw University
Professor of Mathematics

HERMAN HAUSHEER
Ph. D., University of Iowa
Professor of Sociology

page seventeen
JOHN DICKINSON
Ph. M., University of Chicago
Professor of English

GEORGIA RENEAU
Ph. M., University of Chicago
Professor of English

CHARLES ARTHUR
A. B., De Pauw University
Bursar and Associate
Professor of Spanish

BERTHA WOOD ROBBINS
Ph. B., De Pauw University
Instructor in Spanish

JAMES RODENBERG
A. M., M. Ph., Syracuse
University
Professor of Biology

DAVID LIVINGSTON
A. M., Northwestern University
Acting Professor of Physics

GRACE BLANCHE
B. A., University of Washington
Instructor in Piano

SAMUEL WEIR
A. B., Ph. D., University of Jena
Professor of Education

MARCIA EDWARDS
A. B., College of Puget Sound
Assistant Registrar

WINIFRED B. POOLE
Secretary to the Bursar

WINIFRED B. POOLE
Secretary to the Bursar

MISS OLIVE BROWN
Secretary to the President

page nineteen
In the hall, courts and yards of his own castle the young knight receives his training and tests his strength. He hears from the more experienced adventurers of the realms that beckon and he sees visions of his own future exploits.
Classes
Knights Go Riding

All things must come to an end, and so must the four years of college life. When the Seniors, dignified in caps and gowns, step forward to receive the significant roll of parchment, it symbolizes to them the closing of four years of work, play, and friendships. But the contacts they have made, the knowledge they have gained from the hours spent within the college walls go with them, and help to make life beyond college more beautiful and worth living.

The Class of '30 has left to the school examples of character and achievement that will not soon be forgotten. There have been some to win distinction in each field of activity and some have won laurels in several fields. During the entire four years, this class has maintained a very high scholarship. Some of its members have done notable work in their chosen fields, aside from the regular assignments, and much is expected from these people in the future. Perhaps they may help to make their Alma Mater famous.

This year's commencement loses to the school a number of athletes, men and women, who will not be easily replaced. Daylight will glare through the gaps in the football ranks left by Gillihan, Gardner, Ganero, and Brear.

During its career, the class has won the Glee Song Trophy, put out a tennis champion, furnished dramatic talent, musicians, and capable executives.

Cap and Gown Day brought to chapel hour one of the best speakers we have heard this year; Dr. Fridel of the First Baptist Church in Seattle.

For their senior play, the class chose "The New Poor," by Cosmo Hamilton, one of the most popular modern plays. Both from an artistic and a financial standpoint, it was a great success.

Senior Sneak Day, the annual dodge party, proved an enjoyable outing and all who went had a jolly time.

Commencement was a beautiful close to the happy four years, and every graduate learned the true meaning of college spirit then.
ALCORN, GORDON D.
Tacoma, Major—Biology
Sigma Zeta Epsilon, cor. secretary 3; treasurer 4; Altrurian Literary Society, treasurer 3; class president 3, treasurer 4; vice president 4; Senior Class Play; Laboratory assistant in biology 3, 4; Central Board 4; Chairman of Dad's banquet 4; Reserve football 1; Inter-Fraternity Council 4; Student Affairs Committee 4; Inter-Society Council 3, 4; Student Judiciary 3.

ALLSWORTH, ARTHUR P.
Tacoma, Major—History
Delta Kappa Phi; Oratory 1, 2, 3; Debate 1, 4; Reserve football 1, 4; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet 4; Knights of the Log; Pen and Ink Club.

ANDERSON, CHARLES
Tacoma, Major—Business
Alpha Chi Nu, treasurer 2, president 3; Men's Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; manager 2, 3; Knight of the Log, treasurer 2; Class treasurer 2; Inter-Fraternity Council 2, 3; Yell King 3; Trail 3; President A. S. C. P. S. 4.

ANDERSON, ISABELLE MARIE
Tacoma, Major—History
Kappa Sigma Theta; Y. W. C. A.; Altrurian Literary Society.

ANDERSON, MAE RUTH
Tacoma, Major—Education
Kappa Sigma Theta; Altrurian; Y. W. C. A.

ANNABEL, ADA
Tacoma, Major—Education
Delta Alpha Gamma, sergeant-at-arms 4; Class secretary 4; May Queen Attendant 4; Dad's Day Committee 4; Y. M. C. A.; Trail, society editor 1.

ATHOW, RUSSELL
Tacoma, Major—Chemistry

BIJORKMAN, EVELYN
Wenatchee, Major—Mathematics
Class secretary 1, 2; Women's Letter Club, president 3; Mathematical Round Table, president 2; secretary 1; Lambda Sigma Chi, vice president 4; Inter-Sorority Council 4; Secretary A. S. C. P. S. 4; Central Board 4; Amphitheatry Literary Society, secretary 4; Senior Class Play; Y. W. C. A., finance chairman 2, treasurer 3, undergraduate representative 4; National Convention delegate Spring 1928; four-year athletic award; Tamanawas Staff, Women's sports 3; Organizations 4; Pi Gamma Mu 4.

BOWEN, DOROTHY
Puyallup, Major—Business
Altrurian Literary Society, treasurer 4; Inter-Sorority Representative 4; Spurs; Y. W. C. A.; Student assistant in Accounting 3, 4; Christian Service Club; Junior-Senior Breakfast Committee 3; Ribbon-bearer May Festival 1, 2.

BRÉAR, RALPH C.
Tacoma, Major—Business
Sigma Zeta Epsilon; Amphitheatry Literary Society; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Business Manager of Tamanawas 3, 4; Publications Council 4; Iota Tau; Athletic Committee 4; Dad's Night Committee 2, 3; Hanow Roll 1.
CARROLL, C. L.
Tacoma, Major—Education

CHURCHILL, EVELYN
Tacoma, Major—History
Kappa Sigma Theta, treasurer 3, vice-president 3, president 4; Spor.
treasurer 2; Philomathean Literary Society; Chairman May Day 3; Chairman Dad's Banquet 2, commit. tee member 3; Student Judiciary 3; Y. W. C. A. social chairman 2, fi.
ance chairman 3, president 4; Cam. pus Day Committee 4; Inter-Sorority
Council 4.

CLEVELAND, MARIAM F.
Tacoma, Major—Mathematics
Philomathean Literary Society; Mathematical Round Table; Y. W.
C. A., treasurer 4; Archery 4; May
Festival Committee 4; Baseball 1, 3;
Basketball 1, 3; Volleyball 1, 3; Ar.
chery 3; Flicking 3.

CORTESI, EMILIO
Tacoma, Major—French
Cosmopolitan Club 3, 4; Delegate to the Pan-Pacific Conference, Portland 4; Christian Service Club 3.

DOCKEN, RAYMOND E.
Tacoma, Major—Business
Delta Pi Omicron, secretary 2, presi dent 4, historian 2, 3; Amphic.
tyon Literary Society; Track 1, 2.

DRAKE, WALLACE R.
Tacoma, Major—Biolog
Delta Pi Omicron, president 2, trea. surer 2, house manager 4; Interfraternity Council, secretary 3, presi dent 4; Iota Tau; Philomathean Literary Society; Editor Log Book 3, 4;
Tamanawas Staff 2, 3; Senior Class
Play 4; One-act Plays 4; Psychology department assistant 3; Chemistry Club; Homecoming Program Commmittee 3.

ELLIOTT, BERNARD D.
Tacoma, Major—Chemistry
Chemistry Club.

GARDNER, JOHN
Tacoma, Major—Chemistry
Sigma Zeta Epsilon, vice-president
2, secretary 3, president 4; Class vice-president 1, president 4; Central Board 3, 4; Chemistry Club, presi dent 4; Philomathean Literary Society, vice-president 3; Lettermans'
Club, secretary 1, 2; Football 1, 3, 4;
Inspiration trophy 4; Scholarship
Cup 4; Inter-Fraternity Council 3;
Duke 4.

GARGES, MYRTLE
Tacoma, Major—Education

GARNERO, JOHN
Buckley, Major—History
Sigma Zeta Epsilon; Football 1, 2, 3, 4.
GEISSLER, CLARENCE
Tacoma, Major—English Literature
Alpha Chi Nu.

GILLIHAN, FRANK
Tacoma, Major—History
Sigma Zeta Epsilon; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; captain; Inspiration Trophy 2; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4.

HARDIN, FRED L.
Kent, Major—Business
Track 4; One-act Plays 4; Senior Class Play 4; Y. M. C. A. cabinet 4; Altrurian Literary Society; Alumni Day Chairman 4.

HARRIS, MERETTA S.
Tacoma, Major—Latin

HOTCHKIN, ALBERT L.
Yakima, Major—Business
Delta Kappa Phi, treasurer 3; house manager 3; Iota Tau; Trail staff 3; Editor 4; Chief Justice Student Judiciary 4; Associate Editor Log Book 4; Reserve Basketball 1; Class treasurer 3.

ISAACS, F. R.
Tacoma, Major—Education

JOHNSON, ALICE E.
Major—English Literature
Alpha Beta Upsilon, reporter 2, cor. secretary 3; vice-president 4; Amphitheatram Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Theta Alpha Phi, secretary, historian; May Festival Ribbon-bearer 2, 3; One-act Plays 1, 3; Senior Class Play 4.

JOHNSON, INEZ
Tacoma, Major—English Literature
Alpha Beta Upsilon, chaplain 1, 4; Amphitheatram Literary Society, chaplain 4; Otiash Club; Y. W. C. A., cabinet 3; Christian Service Club, treasurer 3; Deputation Chairman 4.

JOHNSON, MARIAN
Shelton, Major—Home Economics
Alpha Beta Upsilon, sergeant-at-arms 2; corresponding secretary 3, 4; Altrurian Literary Society, Chairman of Finance Committee 4; Chemistry Club 3; Christian Service Club 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2; Dormitory president 3; vice-president 3; Senior-Alumni Committee 4.

JONES, L. E. M.
Tacoma, Major—Education
JONES, WENDELL L.
Tacoma, Major—Physics
Delta Kappa Phi, president 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Music Manager 3; Theta Alpha Phi, vice-president; Senior Class Play 4; Class treasurer 4; Y. M. C. A.; Inter-Fraternity Council 3; Laboratory Assistant in Physics 1, 4; College chorus 4.

KENNEDY, RALPH
Centralia, Major—Education
Class historian 4.

KINNAMAN, OWEN W.
Poulsbo, Major—Physics
Alterarian Literary Society; Mathematics Club.

KLUG, NORMAN
Tacoma, Major—Business
Sigma Zeta Epsilon, president 4.

KRANGNES, BERT
Mount Vernon, Major—History

LAW, WILLIAM
Yakima, Major—English Literature
Freshman debate; Varsity debate 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 3, 4; Debate Manager 4; Trail Staff 2, 3, 4; Columnist 4; Burmeister Oratory prize 2, 3; Newbigin Inter-Society Debate Trophy 4; Character plays 3, 4; Coach of Senior Play 4; Delta Kappa Phi, president 3, 4; vice-president 2; Pi Kappa Delta; Christian Service Club; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet; Theta Alpha Phi; Amphionian, chaplain; Jota Tau Reader in Psychology; Business Manager All-College Play 5; Represented Puget Sound at Provincial Convention of Pi Kappa Delta 3.

LAYNE, VERNON
Tacoma, Major—History
Delta Pi Omicron; Honor Roll 3, 4; Assistant in History Department 4.

LINDSAY, CAROL
Salt Lake City, Utah
Major—Mathematics
Westminster Junior College 1, 2; Class vice-president 4; Women’s Glee Club 3; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 3; Dormitory president 3; Amphionian Literature Society, critic 4; Mathematical Round Table, secretary 3; Cosmopolitan Club; Trail Staff 3, 4; Senior Day Committee 4.

LINK, GRACE
Tacoma, Major—History
Alpha Beta Upsilon, Historian 2, treasurer 3; Inter-Society Council, president 4; Spurst; Y. M. C. A.; Amphionian Literature Society; Inter-Society council, president 4; Women’s Letter Club, secretary 2; vice-president 3, president 4; Student Affairs Committee 4; Women’s Varsity Basketball 4; W. A. A.; Senior Class Play, properties; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Volleyball 1, 2, 3, 4; Archery 3, 4; Hockey 4; Track 1; Tennis 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4.

MARUCA, THERESA
Tacoma, Major—History
Delta Alpha Gamma, treasurer 2, 3, historian 3; Philomathean Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Spurst; Women’s Letter Club; W. A. A.; vice-president 4; German reader 4; Trail reporter 4; May Day Committee 3; Senior Class Play, costume manager; Basketball 1, 2, 4; Volleyball 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 3; Cricket 2; Archery 2; Hockey 4; 4-year athletic award.
MEADER, MILDRED EVELYN
Puyallup, Major—Home Economics
Delta Alpha Gamma, secretary 2; president 3; Inter-Sorority Council 3, 4; Philomathean Literary Society; Spars, secretary 2; Chemistry Club 2; Senior Class Play; May Queen Attendant 4.

MITCHELER, MILAN
Tacoma, Major—Mathematics
Delta Pi Omicron; Altrurian Literary Society, treasurer 3, vice-president 4; Mathematical Round Table, treasurer 3, president 4.

MILLER, MARGARET A.
Tacoma, Major—French
Kappa Sigma Theta, secretary 3; treasurer 3; vice-president 4; Gamma Phi Phi; Altrurian Literary Society; Theta Alpha Phi; All-College Play 3; One-Act Plays 4; Senior Class Play.

MOORE, ALICE
Pateros, Major—Sociology
Altrurian Literary Society, treasurer 4; secretary 4; Christian Service Club 3, 4; vice-president 4; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 4; One-Act Plays 4.

MOORE, JAMES A.
Algona, Major—English Literature
Christian Service Club, president 4; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet 4; Altrurian Literary Society, chaplain 4; Stage crew 3; One-Act Plays 3.

MOOS, RUBY
Tacoma, Major—English Literature
Spurs; Philomathean Literary Society; Women's Letter Club, treasurer 4; W. A. A., secretary 4; Volleyball 3, 3, 4; Baseball 2, 3, 4; Archery 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4.

OHLEN, ELIN
Tacoma, Major—History

OYEN, ARNT
Paulsbo, Major—History

PEARSON, PEARL
Gig Harbor, Major—English
Lambda Sigma Chi, cor. secretary 4; Altrurian Literary Society, program chairman 3; Otho Club, Pi Gamma Mu; Christian Service Club, program chairman 4; Orchestra 1, 3; Volley Ball 3, 4; Baseball 3, 4; Honor Roll 1, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A., service chairman 4.

PEASE, VESTA V.
Marysville, Major—English Literature
PUGH, ELIZABETH
Tacoma, Major—English
Lambda Sigma Chi, secretary 2; conductor 4; Philomathean Literary Society 3; Theta Alpha Phi; Christian Service Club; One-act plays 3; Inter-Sorority Council 1, 4; secretary 4, Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 4; Senior Class secretary 4; Senior Class Play 4.

PETERSON, ETHEL MARIE
Tacoma, Major—Home Economics
Assistant in Home Economics 4; Honor Roll.

RADEMAKER, JOHN
Tacoma, Major—Sociology
Pi Kappa Delta; Pi Gamma Mu; Mu Sigma Delta, All-College Party 3; Class historian 3; Amphictyon Literary Society 3; Varsity Debate 1, 2, 3; Reader in Sociology 3; Honor Roll 1, 2, 3.

RUMBALL, BEATRICE L. S.
Tacoma, Major—English Literature
Alpha Beta Upsilon, president 4; vice-president 3; Amphictyon Literary Society; Tamanawas Editor-in-Chief 4, associate editor 3; Publications Council 3, 4; Inter-Sorority Council, secretary 4; Sigma Delta Beta, secretary-treasurer 4; Pen and Ink Club; Trail 1, 2; Scholarship 1, 2, 3, 4; English department assistant 4; Honor Roll 2, 3.

REID, REITH
Tacoma, Major—Business
Reed College 1; Sophomore Follies 2; Senior Class Play 4.

SANDERS, ELOISE
Tacoma, Major—Business
Kappa Sigma Theta, treasuerer 2, president 4; sergeant-at-arms 4; Amphictyon Literary Society; Omikron Club; Pi Gamma Mu 4; Mu Sigma Delta 4; Assistant Manager A. S. C. P. S.; 3, 4; Finance Committee 3, 4; Central Board.

SATURNINO, ELIGIO F.
Philippine Islands, Major—Business
Cosopolitan Club 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 4; College Orchestra 3, 4.

SKRAMSTAD, HAROLD K.
Tacoma, Major—Physics
Delta Pi Omicron, sergeant-at-arms 2, chaplain 3; Altrurian Literary Society, chaplain 2; vice-president 4; Inter-Society Council 4; Mathematical Round Table, president 3, secretary 2, sergeant-at-arms 2, 4; Chemical Society, vice-president 3; Radio Club, Team in Physics 3, 4; Laboratory Assistant in Physics 3, 4; Honor Roll 2, 3, 4.

SWANSON, MARGARET
Tacoma, Major—English Composition
Vice-president A. S. C. P. S. 4; Omicron, vice-president 4; Mu Sigma Delta 4; Pi Kappa Delta; W. A. A. secretary 4; Philomathean Literary Society, secretary 3; Trail 1, 2, 3, feature-editor 4; Tamanawas staff 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Volleyball 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Hockey 4; All-star basketball team 2.

TAYLOR, MARGARET
Shelton, Major—Home Economics
Alpha Beta Upsilon, treasurer 3; reporter 2, Sergeant-at-arms 1; Altrurian Literary Society; Student Judiciary 4; Dormitory president 2; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 3; Alumni Day Committee 4.
THOMAS, DARREL J.
Tacoma, Major—Business
Alpha Chi Nu; Pi Gamma Mu; Athletic Manager 1; Tennis Manager 3, 4; Student Judiciary 4; Class president 3; Varsity tennis 1, 2, 3, 4.

TOTTEN, BETTY
Tacoma, Major—Sociology
Lambda Sigma Chi, president 4; Otlah, secretary-treasurer 4; Pi Gamma Mu; One-act Plays 4; Senior Class Play; Y. W. C. A., program chairman 4; vice-president 3; "Green Slivers," president 1; Class picnic chairman 1; Ribbon-bearer, May Festival 1; Philomathean Literary Society, program chairman 2; Assistant in English and French Departments 4.

TUCKER, WILLIAM
Medford, Ore., Major—Education
Delta Kappa Phi, House-manager 4; Amphitryon Literary Society; Chemistry Club; Track 1, 2, 4.

VAN PATTER, YATES
Olympia, Major—Chemistry
Alpha Beta Upsilon, treasurer 1, vice-president 2, exec. secretary 4, president 4; Inter-Society Council 2, 4; Spur, vice-president 2; Amphitryon Literary Society, vice-president 2, secretary 3; Otlah, president 4; Y. W. C. A., secretary 2; One-act plays 4; Chairman All-College Banquet Committee 3; Dad's Night Committee 4; Junior-Senior Breakfast Committee 3; Class Secretary, historian 2; Inter-Society Council 2; All-College Banquet Speaker 2; Basketball 3, 4; Volleyball 3, 4; Baseball 4; Hockey 4.

VEATCH, LUCILE
Tacoma, Major—Latin
Alpha Beta Upsilon, treasurer 1, vice-president 2, exec. secretary 4, president 4; Inter-Society Council 2, 4; Spur, vice-president 2; Amphitryon Literary Society, vice-president 2, secretary 3; Otlah, president 4; Y. W. C. A., secretary 2; One-act plays 4; Chairman All-College Banquet Committee 3; Dad's Night Committee 4; Junior-Senior Breakfast Committee 3; Class Secretary, historian 2; Inter-Society Council 2; All-College Banquet Speaker 2; Basketball 3, 4; Volleyball 3, 4; Baseball 4; Hockey 4.

"The New Poor," a play filled with delightful comedy, social entanglements, mystery and romance was presented by the senior class in the College Auditorium the evening of Wednesday, May 28th with superlative success.

The play was presented under the direction of Van Spencer McKenney, assisted by William Law, and with the following cast: Grand Duke, Keith Reid; Princess Irene, Mildred Meader; Prince Vladimir, John Gardner; Count Ivan; Fred Hardin; Mrs. Wellby, Margaret Miller; Amos, her son, Wallace Drake; Constance, Alice Johnson; Betty, Elizabeth Pugh, Alice, Betty Totten; Mary Maudsley, ahoress, Evelyn Bjorkman; Miller Gutteridge, Gordon Alcorn; Kirk O'Farrel, Wendall Jones.

SENIOR PLAY CAST
Alice Johnson; John Gardner, Mildred Meader, Wallace Drake, Wendall Jones, Betty Totten, Keith Reid, Evelyn Bjorkman, Gordon Alcorn, Fred Hardin, Elizabeth Pugh, Margaret Miller.
HOW they got it they'll never tell, but the Juniors have the axe, that ancient emblem of superiority. And the Seniors were putting vertebrae out of place patting themselves on the back because they were so sure they had it safe and sound! So much for Junior ingenuity.

Juniors declare that they have done nothing this year, but in thinking it over, one can see quite a few achievements to their credit. They have given to the school a stage manager, dramatic manager, and five members of the All-College Play cast.

John O'Connor, winner of the state oratorical contest, is a member of the Class of '31.

Helen Young, who represents C. P. S. and Tacoma high schools on the National College News Bureau, and who was delegate to the convention held in California in early May, belongs to this class.

In athletics, the Juniors have been well represented. Three of the four members of the women's traveling tennis team were Juniors, and Dorothy Raleigh was women's athletic manager for the year.

Men from this class have stood out in every phase of school athletic life. Richmond Mace, a Junior, was football manager this year.

With a clever miniature reproduction of a football field and game in progress, the Juniors were awarded first prize for table decorations at the All-College Banquet.

One of the biggest events of the year, the Junior-Senior breakfast, held this time at Benbow Inn, was well attended and a big success.

The location was admirably chosen and provided ample facilities for games of all kinds, boating, riding and most important, the breakfast itself. Aside from a superabundance of chicken the feature of the morning was the address by Dr. Weir which was characterized by a delightful combination of wit and inspiration.

From this time on the Juniors become indispensable to the Seniors. They will act as ushers and marshalls in helping speed the graduating Seniors on their way.

The Class of '31 hopes to make next year the most brilliant of its career.
Juniors

First row: Margaret Alleman, Hughley Arnette, Edna Baril, Theo Barwick, Harold Bergerson, Alice Berry
Second row: Lillian Boyd, Harold Brown, Ellen Chapman, Margaret Cheney, Ron Cory, Francis Darling
Third row: Glenn Downton, Edith Eddy, Carl Eshelman, Robert Evans, Milton Foren, Emery Fransen
Fourth row: Ruth Fredrickson, Grace French, Jean Fuller, Reatha Gebri, Jack Gius, Louis O. Grant
Fifth row: John Gynn, Julia Haugland, Marie Helmer, Margaret Hill, Glade Hustetter, Josephine Jams
Sixth row: Saima Kennard, Joe Ladley, Katherine Larson, Beth Latcham, Fred Lepenske

page thirty-two
Juniors

First row: Richmond Mace, Arthur Martin, Betty Martin, Esther Jean Mathie, Homer McCollom, Mable Miller
Second row: Portia Miller, Mary Milone, Isabelle Moore, Jean Mudgett, Wilbert Nelson, Roger Niman
Third row: John O'Connor, Mary O'Connor, Harold Parker, Dorothy Raleigh, Olive Rees, Chester Rhodes
Fourth row: Helen Ritchie, Augustine Santos, Lewis Shackleford, Don Shotwell, Minabel Stephens, Shigeo Tanabe
Fifth row: Elinor Taylor, George Tibbits, Ralph Tollefson, Leonard Unkefer, Arthur Weber, Mary Westcott
Sixth row: Isabelle Whitfield, Janice Wilson, Helen Young, Dorothy Lo Sound
WINNING the annual Tug of War from the Frosh would have made this a successful year for the Sophomore class, even if nothing else had been done, but it has been successful in many ways.

More members of this class returned last fall than in any other second year, which is a mark of student loyalty.

There was great rejoicing when Margery Gardner brought home the song trophy from the Annual Glee and Oratorical contest.

Spurs, the all-Sophomore girls' service organization, has aided the school in many ways this year. Some outstanding services were the serving of refreshments on the football trip to Oregon, of lunch on Campus Day, and acting as ribbon bearers in the May Day Festival.

Harry Brown, a Soph, played the male lead in the All-College play; Morris Summers and Fred Arntson also took parts.

Georgia Johnson and Bonita Reeder, who made up the women's travelling debate team, are both Sophomore girls.

The Class of '32 placed second in the interclass track meet, with Bob Young starring on the varsity team. Seven Sophomore men won football letters, two won basketball, and two baseball.

Sophomore girls have taken part in every branch of women's athletics, and there were four Sophomore members on the women's varsity basketball team which defeated Pacific Lutheran College.

Next fall the Class of '32 hopes to continue its record of the largest number of members returning to school.

Thelma Gander of our class has just been selected to be the Assistant General Manager of the Associated Students for next year, and Georgia Johnson has been installed as Debate Manager. Other women in the class have been repeatedly chosen to assist in preparing for all-college events.
Sophomores

Top row: Frederick Arntson, Mamie Baker, Pedro Baldorin, Olive Bartlett, Bertha Berg, Hazel Betchart
Second row: Margaret Bixby, Frances Bjorkman, Irma Blooomquist, Muriel Bohn, Helen Jeanette Brenton
Third row: Harry Brown, Edward Burrough, Julius Coplan, Wade Cuykendal
Fourth row: Samuel Crippen, Helen De Lune, Stanley Disher, Marjorie Gardner, Bernard Grimes, Wilbur Goss
Fifth row: Margaret Granberg, Morris Gray, Charles Green, Genevieve Grimes, Grace Grimes, Lawrence Grimes
Sixth row: Elmer T. Gruwell, Charles Guilford, Maurice Gunderson, Charles Hall
Sophomores

Top row: Carol Hanson, Vera Hardman, Bonney Hardman, Clare Hartnett, John Hayatsu, Nan Heinz
Second row: Strand Hilleboe, Gladys Homstad, Winnifred Howe, Marian James, Oscar Huseby
Third row: Charles Jerauld, Georgia Johnson, Mabel Jones, William Kellogg
Fourth row: Olive Kinman, Stanley Larsen, Mary Frances Levenske, Lucie Liddle, Ross Mace, Charles Malin
Fifth row: William Martin, Dorothy Malone, Spencer Matney, Roscoe Miller, Ralph Matson, Shirley Morris
Sixth row: Lucile Murbach, Robert Nielson, Florence Newfield, Edward Olswang

page thirty-six
Sophomores

Top row: Berniece Patterson, Violet Pearson, Donald Person, Deane Pettibone, Herbert Phenice, Charles Porter
Second row: Paul Pugh, James Ramsdell, Bonita Reader, Edward Bich, Glenn Ridley
Third row: Betty Robinson, John Robinson, Dorothy Schumborn, Tommie Scremishes
Fourth row: Ruth Sexton, Lester Seinfeld, Jay Snow, Floyd Somers, Jennie Teerman, George Teranka
Fifth row: Dorothy Turley, Louise Van Arsdale, Doris Wakerfield, Stanley Wardin, Rex West, Irene Whitfield
Sixth row: Carlton Wood, Jack Warden, Charles Wright, Robert Young
THE Class of '33 is justly proud of the history it has made in one short year. Bearing the distinction of being the largest class ever to enter the College of Puget Sound, its talents are widely diversified.

To begin with, the Freshman Mixer and Freshman Stunt Night were highly successful. Members of the upper classes generously praised the stunt night as the best ever given. At the very outset of the college year the class also proved to have a will of its own by winning the traditional bag rush, as well as by winning the decision in the Fresh-Soph battle. (More thanks to the cantaloupes!) After this victory they took the law into their own hands and ruled out green caps, and these were never fully reinstated.

The superstitious have said that the loss of the annual Tug of War by the Freshman was just punishment ordered by the Fates because of this breach of discipline. In any case the loss of the Tug of War was the only real defeat the Freshmen suffered during the year. This, however, has put a keen edge on their anticipation of wreaking vengeance on the unsuspecting Freshmen of next year.

The members of the class of 1933 have been outstanding in nearly every campus activity. Three members of the All-College Play cast, including the leading lady, were Freshmen. The Freshman class supplied the two dukes who so admirably assisted the Yell King in his duties. Representatives of the class were found on the gridiron, and on the basketball and tennis courts, on the baseball diamond, on the debate platform, on the dramatic stage, and as leaders in club activities of all kinds.

In spite of its frolicking, the class of 1933 feels that it has caught the Puget Sound Spirit and the significance of Puget Sound traditions. The college has more than taken the place formerly held by high school allegiances. The members of this large class, drawn from all over the Northwest, are welded together in a united desire to perpetuate the things which they have come to understand as the primary aims of the college and to help succeeding classes to respect them as they have come to do themselves.
Before a young knight can lead an expedition, he must show the court and brother knights his mastery of himself and his loyalty to the court. He earns his shield before he sallies forth to win the right to place upon it his own arms.
The value of an organization can be measured only in terms of its success. Since its entrance into the new era, The College of Puget Sound has made rapid strides toward advancement to a foremost post in Pacific Coast educational circles.

Progress during the past year has been pronounced.

Not only has the College grown in enrolment, but it has improved the campus; it has adopted a wider scope of activities, and it has generally increased its prestige.

The progress, in a large measure, may be attributed to the untried efforts of the faculty and student governing organizations. Just as co-operation has won success in other enterprises, so has it made possible advancement this year.

With the assistance of its various branches and departments, Central Board has carried out plans in their entirety with the result that newer and finer things have been accomplished.

Perhaps the largest individual undertaking this year was the erection of the high board fence about the athletic field. The work was undertaken as a major portion of the annual Campus Day program and when completed, C. P. S. was supplied with the best sport field since its establishment. Additional bleachers will be erected next fall, and parking space will be improved.

In the line of athletic enterprise, the College this year sponsored the first night football game ever to be staged in the Pacific Northwest. Under the huge floodlights of the Tacoma Stadium, the game was a huge success and brought C. P. S. invaluable publicity. Plans are underway for several similar contests next season.

Among other new fields entered by the Associated Students this year was the establishment of a Student News Bureau. Co-operating with the journalism department, the News Bureau has brought publicity to C. P. S. by furnishing various newspapers with items of interest concerning the College and its students.

Miss Helen Young, who has been manager of the news bureau during the past year, attended the Pacific Coast convention of news bureau managers at Berkeley, Calif., and returned with new plans for the work here.

Perfection of organization of the Pep Department was another outstanding accomplishment in student circles this year. It will have charge of all athletic trips and excursions, and will control student rooting at various contests. Glenn Downton was named to assume the position next year, and will be assisted by the yell king and dukes.

Each department at C. P. S. has accomplished its end during the past year, and is to be congratulated on the splendid way in which the affairs were handled.

The students as a body have taken more interest in student affairs this year than ever before. The enthusiasm of the student body in its support of the football team completely surpassed anything ever before seen in the college, according to the testimony of alumni who saw the students shortly before the University of Washington game. This spirit of wholehearted cooperation on the part of all the students has been one of the chief causes of the outstanding success of all the enterprises of the Associated Students this year.

Credit for the morale of the student body should go largely to its president, Charles Anderson, whose sincere effort and magnetic personality inspired the student body to unusual accomplishments which have brought praise from all who know of its record for the year. His outlook has been marked by progressiveness. His work has been crowned with success. Throughout the year he set the example and the pace to the other officers, and to the student body at large.

As we look forward to the work of the coming year we find the Associated Students in the strongest position they have ever occupied financially, in friendship and fellowship with other collegiate institutions and student enthusiasm.
The burden of the work in each department, of course, falls largely upon the manager. But plans have been made and carried out whereby assistants will relieve the head of the department of considerable responsibility.

As examples of success of the various groups, the debate department sponsored a tour of three varsity men to Wichita, Kan.; the athletics department staged a mammoth spectacle with the first night football game in the northwest; the dramatic department purchased a new curtain and constructed new stage settings, and the music department forwarded organization of the All-College Chorus and sponsored the trips of the Men's and Women's Glee clubs.

Just where the student officials of the past year have left off, there will the new officers begin next fall to bring even more honors to C. P. S.

The determination of students and faculty alike will surely bring greater success even than has been marked in this outstanding year.

A large part of the success of this year's Associated Student organization has been due to the unstinted effort and enthusiasm of Professor Charles T. Battin, head of the Business Administration Department of the college, who again consented to act as General Manager.

No one will forget his pep address to the student body at the beginning of the football season. His appearance on the platform has been a signal for the enthusiastic and sincere applause of a grateful student group throughout the year.

Without compensation he has given unstinting devotion of his time and thought to make the year a suc-
It was with regret that the Central Board accepted his resignation this spring. But his other duties made it impossible for him to continue as Manager. To take his place Central Board selected Professor O. F. Hite, who in addition to his duties in the Departments of Education and Psychology has been Assistant Coach. He has been promised the loyal support of the student body, and everyone is optimistic as he contemplates the future.

The College of Puget Sound Associated Students organization has received a great deal of unexpected but welcome praise, this year, from other institutions. This has been directed, not only at the morale of the student body but also the type of organization.

The aim is to supply leadership in all student activities, coordinating its effort under centralized control to avoid duplication and waste, as well as to help further the ideals of the college and to cooperate with the administration to the end that progress may be rapid and sure. Traditions are established and promoted that aid in the accomplishment of these aims and increasing student enthusiasm.

So, while the Associated Students have attempted more this year than ever before it is safe to say that this has been the most successful student body year in the history of the college. Organization has been perfected, and foundations laid on solid, carefully formed ideas which presage rapid development in proportion to the rapid growth in the size of the student body itself.
The art of debate, in which interest has steadily grown during the past years, has been stressed at the College of Puget Sound this season.

The forensics department this year was under the direction of Dr. Regester, men's coach, Miss Mildred Martin, women's coach, and Arthur Martin, manager.

The greatest individual triumph of debate at the College this year was the representation of C. P. S. at the national Pi Kappa Delta convention at Wichita, Kansas. Three representatives were sent—Arthur Martin, Shigeo Tanabe and Samuel Crippen.

En route and on the return trip from Wichita, the team won seven out of 13 debates with various colleges and participated in four non-decision debates.

Women debaters, too, established an excellent record when a team composed of Georgia Johnson, and Bonita Reeder invaded Oregon and won three contests, each by a 2 to 1 verdict.

The question debated this year was: "Resolved: That the nations should adopt a plan of complete disarmament excepting such forces as are necessary for police protection."

Georgia Johnson has been elected debate manager for the ensuing year.

The schedule of 1930 follows:

February 21—Dual Debate, C. P. S. Freshmen vs. U. of W. freshmen; Affirmative at Seattle (Harold Dabroe and James Garrard); Negative at Tacoma (Wilmot Ragsdale and Miles Thomas); No decision.

February 25—Women's Dual Debate with Bellingham Normal; Affirmative lost at Bellingham 2-1 (Bonita Reeder and Georgia Johnson); Negative won at Tacoma 3-0. (Pearl Disher and Margaret Swanson).

March 3—Women's Dual Debate with Pacific
Lutheran College; Affirmative won at Parkland 3-0 (Pearl Disher and Margaret Swanson); Negative lost at Tacoma 2-1 (Haru Semba and Bonita Reeder).

March 5—Albany College vs. C. P. S. Men; Affirmative won at C. P. S. 2-1 (Arthur Martin and Lester Seinfeld).

March 7—C. P. S. women vs. Linfield College; Affirmative won at C. P. S., 3-0 (Pearl Disher and Margaret Swanson).

March 12—Men’s Dual Debate with Bellingham Normal; Affirmative won at C. P. S. 3-0 (Samuel Crippen and Shigeo Tanabe); Negative won at Bellingham 2-1 (Carlton Wood and William Law).

Women’s Trip to Oregon
March 13—C. P. S. negative defeated Oregon State College, 2-1.
March 14—C. P. S. negative defeated Oregon State Normal, 2-1.
March 15—C. P. S. negative defeated Linfield, 2-1.

Men’s Trip to Wichita
(On the following debates, the negative team was composed of Arthur Martin and Samuel Crippen, and the affirmative team was composed of Shigeo Tanabe and Samuel Crippen).

March 25: C. P. S. vs. University of Utah, no decision.

March 27—C. P. S. negative defeated Colorado Teachers’ College, 2-1.

March 28—C. P. S. affirmative vs. University of Denver, no decision.

March 31—C. P. S. affirmative lost to William Jewel College; C. P. S. affirmative defeated Texas Christian College; C. P. S. Negative defeated Sioux Falls University.

April 1—C. P. S. Affirmative defeated Wheaton College; C. P. S. Negative lost to Central Mississippi College.

April 4—C. P. S. Negative defeated Oklahoma University, audience decision.

April 10—C. P. S. Negative defeated University of Arizona, 2-1.

April 11—C. P. S. Negative defeated University of Redlands.

April 12—C. P. S. Negative vs. University of Southern California, no decision.

April 14—C. P. S. Affirmative vs. Stanford University, no decision.
Climaxing many years' achievement in the department, dramatics at the College of Puget Sound, this year reached a peak that surpassed all previous landmarks. The Public Speaking Department has been under the guidance of Professor C. Sheldon Holcomb.

Not only has the dramatic department provided splendid entertainment at various college functions, but it has likewise supplied the college this year with several new stage settings and a new velour curtain. Purchased at the time of the All-College Play, these additions have added materially to the beauty of Jones Hall Auditorium.

Several One-Act plays, the All-College production, and the senior class play have been included in the dramatic realm this year.

In keeping with the policy of training students for further work in dramatics, the bulk of the coaching work for the one-act plays and the senior class presentation was turned over to them.

In the fall, to climax the events of Homecoming Week, the Dramatic Department offered two one-act plays under the auspices of the Alumni Association. The comedies were well-received, and marked the opening of a successful dramatic season.

Those playing in "Sexomania" were: Minabel Stephens, Beth Latcham, Edna Baril, Alice Moore, Edna Sylvester, Bonita Reeder, Margaret Miller and Portia Miller. The cast of "Love at First Sound" included Rietha Gehri, Janice Wilson, William Law and Robert Evans. Inez Brandt was student coach of the first play, while Rietha Gehri directed the production of "Love at First Sound."

"ASHES OF ROSES." CAST:
Dorothy Malone, Jane Porter, Wallace Drake, Rietha Gehri
Drama

Two comedies and a costume play were presented in March by the spring class in play production. The cast for "Meet the Family" included: Jean Mudgett, Esther Jean Mathie, Mary O'Connor, Betty Totten, William Law, Morris Summers, Fred Hardin and Paul Pugh. The three roles of "Finders Keepers" were carried by Ruth Burman, Lucile Veatch and Van Spencer McKenney, while parts in the costume play, "Ashes of Roses" were taken by Dorothy Malone, Jane Porter, Wallace Drake and Reitha Gehri.

The greatest success of the year was the annual All-College Play, Arthur Goodrich's famous three-act comedy, "So This Is London," was selected as the opus to be presented, and it scored such a tremendous hit with dramatic followers that the cast was requested to repeat the performance. Inability to secure an open date alone halted the plans to repeat the play.

"So This Is London" was of the popular witty type, and embodied enough good character parts to satisfy. The story concerns a love affair between the son of an American shoe manufacturer and the daughter of a wealthy English lord. Romantic leads in the production were well-handled by Harry Brown and Ethelyn Llewelen, while the English parents were characterized by Robert Evans and Reitha Gehri. Van Spencer McKenney and Helen Wilcox injected much of the comedy into the vehicle as the American husband and wife, and Janice Wilson was excellent as the refined English matron. Morris Summers carried a difficult role on a level far above the average amateur offering. Others in the cast were William Law, Fred Arntson and Edward Rich.

For the second successive year, the senior class has successfully presented a dramatic production. "The New Poor," a recent New York success by Cosmo Hamilton, was selected this year as the work to be offered.

Presented on May 23, "The New Poor" was well-received and proved to be one of the high lights on Tacoma's dramatic calendar. The cast was as follows: Grand Duke, Keith Reid; Prince Vladimir, John Gardner; Princess Irina, Mildred Meader; Amos Wellby, Wallace Drake; Miller C. Gutteridge, Gordon Alcorn; Mrs. Wellby, Margaret A. Miller; Alice Wellby, Betty Totten; Constance Wellby, Alice Johnson; Mary Maudsley, Evelyn Bjorkman; Kirk O'Farrell, Wendell Jones; Count Ivan, Fred Hardin. The play was coached by Van McKenny.

It is the aim of the Dramatic Department to afford an opportunity for as many students as possible to participate in plays and have stage experience as far as is consistent with a high quality of acting and production. The department also strives to give students practice in as many departments of play-producing as possible.

It is hoped that as the student body increases it will be possible to add to the number of plays so that this policy may be continued.

This year more students participated in the general dramatic program than ever before. While many of those who appeared were on the stage for the first time, the critics have been most kind this year. The college, the general public and the press have been most generous in their support of the dramatic activities of Puget Sound this year. This is particularly encouraging in the light of the expanded program of the department.

The success of the work of the year is due to the co-operation of the players and coaches, and also much credit should be given to the art department for its aid in the making of scenery and suggestions on properties.

Everyone who has been asked for help has given it generously.

A higher type of play has been one of the year's aims. "So This Is London" was one of the most ambitious plays ever produced in Tacoma by a college cast.

All of the plays are selected with the three fold purpose of giving good entertainment, training the students and showing what the amateur cast can accomplish.

The department feels it has a real mission since so many of its members aid in the direction and production of plays or have complete charge of this work in high schools or in their home communities.

Advancement in the Dramatic Department has but started; continued betterment is promised in years to follow. Entertainment has been on a high plane this year—it promises to reach an even higher standard next year.

"SO THIS IS LONDON"