Figure Captions

Figure 1. Pre- and post-program Sensory Processing Measure (SPM) T-scores for the social participation, vision, hearing, and touch subtests. A higher score indicates greater dysfunction.

Figure 2. Pre- and post-program Sensory Processing Measure (SPM) T-scores for the body awareness, balance and motion, and planning and ideas subtests. Total SPM T-scores are also included. A higher score indicates greater dysfunction.