In August 1884, the Puget Sound Annual Conference appointed the following committee to secure a charter for the proposed University:

In 1885 this committee was enlarged to a membership of twenty-two, as follows:

In 1886 this committee consisted of the following members:

In 1887 the committee included the following members:

In 1888 the Articles of Incorporation were adopted and the first Board of Trustees of the Puget Sound University -- now University of Puget Sound -- was elected.
