Permission for Scholarly Use of Thesis

To properly administer the Research Repository and preserve the contents for future use, the University of Puget Sound requires certain permissions from the author(s) or copyright owner. By accepting this license, I still retain copyright to my work. I do not give up the right to submit the work to publishers or other repositories. By accepting this license, I grant to the University of Puget Sound the non-exclusive right to reproduce, translate (as defined below), and/or distribute my submission (including the abstract) worldwide, in any format or medium for non-commercial, academic purposes only. The University of Puget Sound will clearly identify my name(s) as the author(s) or owner(s) of the submission, including a statement of my copyright, and will not make any alteration, other than as allowed by this license, to my submission. I agree that the University of Puget Sound may, without changing the content, translate the submission to any medium or format and keep more than one copy for the purposes of security, back up and preservation. I also agree that authorized readers of my work have the right to use it for non-commercial, academic purposes as defined by the "fair use" doctrine of U.S. copyright law, so long as all attributions and copyright statements are retained. If the submission contains material for which I do not hold copyright and that exceeds fair use, I represent that I have obtained the unrestricted permission of the copyright owner to grant the University of Puget Sound the rights required by this license, and that such third-party owned material is clearly identified and acknowledged within the text or content of the submission. I further understand that, if I submit my project for publication and the publisher requires the transfer of copyright privileges, the University of Puget Sound will relinquish copyright, and remove the project from its website if required by the publisher.
