TAMANAWAS 1949

Published by the Associated Students of the College of Puget Sound Tacoma, Washington

Foreword

During the span of years between 1888 and 1949, the College of Puget Sound saw many improvements and additions. Each year produced at least one large development.

The year 1949, however, produced not one, but many such outstanding developments. 1949 was a year of "firsts". New ideas, new people, and new buildings were inaugurated on the Puget Sound campus.

Because the many "firsts" tell the story of 1949 so clearly and accurately, we of the Tamanawas staff have endeavored to present to you, in "firsts", the 1949 story of the College of Puget Sound.

Dedication

He once said “an institution is the shadow of a man.” The College of Puget Sound is indeed the shadow of this man. He has skillfully guided the college through the expansion years from a small war-time enrollment to the present enrollment of 2079 students.

His administration has brought to the College of Puget Sound the best in the cultural world, and has developed facilities which were undreamed of in the past. He inspires both students and faculty to higher goals and greater accomplishments, and he commands the respect of all who know him.

So, to the “first man” of the College of Puget Sound, the president of the College, Dr. R. Franklin Thompson, we gratefully dedicate the 1949 Tamanawas.
Field House Opens

1—A part of the crowd enjoys the Daffodil festival in the new CPS Field House opening.

DREAMS OF OUR ALMA MATER
COLLEGE
“First ... the Best Education Possible”

As this Tamanawas is dedicated to a year of "Firsts" so the College of Puget Sound has as its First Principle the best education possible for its students. As your Alma Mater seeks ever to be first in your affection so the faculty tries always to be first in your services. In this friendly school you create your life-long friends, your intellectual patterns, your study habits and those qualities which hold first place in your life.

This Tamanawas will reveal many events which have happened on the Campus for the first time: The Memorial Field House, Chinook, High School Art Competition, Composer in Residence, National Fraternities and Sororities, The Evergreen Conference, The Beaux Arts Ball and many others. Each new experience is a vital point in your ultimate education.

The career of each senior as he goes forth, becomes the personal interest of each of us who have known him. The registration of each undergraduate is looked upon as an adventure in excellence.

In the genial cycle of youth who come to the College of Puget Sound is found the potential leadership of this age. Your College of Dreams is justifiably proud of the leadership she has given, and the manner in which you will mould the destiny of your time.

R. FRANKLIN THOMPSON
ADMINISTRATION
Jean Button
Assistant Dean of Women

The tall, good-looking Assistant to the Registrar has another very important job—that of counseling the seniors. This work falls under her title as Assistant Dean of Women. Girls from all classes seek her guidance, which is very ably given.

Mrs. Carol Angst
Purchasing Agent

Mrs. Carol Angst's headquarters is the Bursar's Office. Serving as Assistant to the Bursar, she is doubly busy with the job of Purchasing Agent for the College. All buying, even student-buying, must pass through her hands.

Administrative Personnel

Mrs. Raymond Seward
Secretary to the President

Mrs. St. Jean
Secretary to the Dean

Miss Marlys Wallace
Secretary to the Bursar

Miss Christine Clemenson
Secretary to the Dean of Men
Bursar's Office - Registrar's Office

* BURSAR'S OFFICE—Shirley Tuttle, Mrs. Alice Kellam, Mrs. Victoria Green, Mrs. Duane Johnson, Mrs. Carol Angst, Mrs. Helen Ferguson, Elva Casebolt, Cathie Reed, Mrs. Reinhard.

* REGISTRAR'S OFFICE—Pat Keller, Mrs. Robert Lyon, Doris Smith, Kerttu Kahn, Dorothy Graves, Charlotte Stalwick.
President Emeritus

President Emeritus Edward H. Todd is one of the great educators of his generation. For three decades he controlled the destiny of the College of Puget Sound. At the beginning of his presidency the College had few assets and little property. When he became president emeritus a few years ago, it was one of the outstanding schools of the nation.

His excellent leadership, his progressive educational vision and his dedication to the fundamental purpose of making the College great, have made "Our College of Dreams" a reality.

Alumni Office

Publicity

John Blake fills one of the most important positions of the college—that of publicity manager. Concentrating on the academic and social aspects of campus life, he has done a superb job of publicizing the College of Puget Sound. His radio programs, newspaper and magazine articles, and excellent photography have graphically portrayed the story of the year.

Buildings and Grounds

LLOYD SILVER
First Manager of Field House

ALONZO EMERSON
Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds
Placement Bureau

The Placement Bureau has become an indispensable aid to the prospective teachers of this college. The Bureau contacts high school Superintendents who submit lists of vacancies. The members of the Bureau are referred to these lists when selecting a school for application.

Visual Aids

DICK FALK
Head of Visual Aids

JIM ANDERSON
Projector Operator
Fine Arts

The College of Puget Sound realized another “first” in the selection of Manuel Rosenthal as composer-in-residence. The noted French composer brought new recognition to the college when the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra gave the world premier of his Christmas Symphonies.

Members of the band and the Adelphian choir were enthusiastically received in spring tours that took them throughout the state and as far south as Los Angeles.

The art department achieved another “first” with courses in sculpture. Taught by Kenn Glenn, the classes included ceramics, stone, wood and plaster sculpture.

The speech department retained each freshman for two hours weekly. Speech majors and minors worked hard in drama productions during the year, and turned out some of the best plays produced at CPS.
* Christmas Vespers proved to be one of the most inspiring productions of the year. Above is a scene from A Night In Bethlehem presented by the Drama Department.

* Looking backward from the year 2045 A.D., Professor John O'Connor directs an original and imaginative chapel program built around the theme of World Unison.
Languages, Literature

THE OUTSTANDING "FIRST" achieved by the Division of Languages and Literature during the year was the inauguration of "CPS Views the News", a 15 minute news broadcast over station KMO. Under the direction of instructor Murray Morgan, the daily show is a student-written resume of the latest news and news features.

During his four-year stay at the college, every student is exposed to a certain amount of work in this division. The entering freshman finds at least six hours of composition confronting him. He follows through with literature, Spanish, French, German, classic languages, and English composition.

In addition to their teaching duties, the Language instructors found time to help students from other countries, advised clubs for students interested in foreign languages, and translated numerous letters.

Professors of English bravely tackled the task of teaching students to better understand their own language. In many cases they were even able to teach their pupils to speak and write intelligibly.
* Above: Members of Murray Morgan's creative writing class are more than a little amused by their own literary efforts.

* Above right: Panel discussions via radio broadcast add a new and stimulating activity to the Language and Literature Department.

* Right: Dr. Julius Jaeger amuses his literature students with a racy passage from his book of Chaucer . . . pocket edition.
Natural Sciences

STUDENT RESEARCH took on a serious aspect this year when several chemistry majors made a study of the idiosyncrasies of the chemical citrin. Hoping to find a way to make the penicillin substitute useable for human beings, they spent weeks studying test tube reactions.

Meanwhile other chemistry students struggled through quantitative and qualitative analysis, learned complicated formulae and created horrible stenches in Howarth Hall.

Mathematics students concentrated on equally complicated formulae, pored over problems, and wasted great quantities of scratch paper. Physics continued as an important subject while the atomic bomb, supersonic travel, and peace-time uses for atomic fission held the world spotlight.

Biologists and geologists spent the year slicing animals and classifying rocks, making field trips, and sweating over notebook illustrations. Home Economics courses held the interest of a number of coeds, and the Natural Science students found amusement in the form of a class in glass blowing.
* Above: Concentration plus seems to be the order of the day in the Biology class in operation.

* Above right: Fortified with bottles, test tubes, and miscellaneous paraphernalia, science students endeavor to solve a problem in the Organic Chemistry laboratory.

* Right: Neophite engineers set up tripods and instruments in the field for a try at the intricacies of surveying.
Philosophy, Education

THE CADET TEACHERS grew to a group of 34 hard-working practice teachers in the Tacoma Public Schools. They all put their courses in the Division of Philosophy and Education to practical use, while instructors from the division sat in on classes and offered suggestions for improvement in their technique.

Churches throughout the city benefitted from the field work of students in the division. At least two of them served as pastors of their own churches, and a number of others taught Sunday School classes and served as assistant pastors.

Occupational Therapy majors studied one of the most varied courses in the college. Students in O.T. covered such subjects as psychology, woodworking, metalcraft and physiology.
* Above: Philosophical and religious discussion gives way to interested listening as Dr. Phillips introduces a guest speaker in a religion class.

* Above right: Deep Creek and snowy mountain slopes become the setting for ski classes in Physical Education as this group prepares to master the art.

* Right: Anticipation brings enjoyment to Occupational Therapy students as Miss Burmeister demonstrates the creative art of weaving.
DURING 1949, SOME STUDENTS in the Social Studies Division concentrated on society's problems—what caused them and how to remedy them. Others learned the intricate workings of the world's financial doings.

Sociology students were taught the kinds of problems facing the people of the world today, and then prepared themselves to help solve those problems. In the experimental courses the students did field work in child care, instructed McNeil Island prisoners, interviewed patients at the Western State Hospital, and conducted community surveys.

The history students studied the events leading to the present world situation. They covered everything from ancient history to the morning news broadcast. They learned the significance of the history, and the effects it will have on their future.

The third department, business administration, put forth information on the manner in which to manage business, sales management, bookkeeping, business law and economic theory.
* Above: Dr. Warren Tomlinson's rare moment of calm, rather than his choice morsel of German grammar, has aroused expressions ranging from consternation to those of awe.

* Upper right: Lyle Jamieson believes in the old fashioned method . . . to collect the day's assignment at the beginning of the class period.

* Lower right: Dr. Calvin B. Coulter, in his inimitable style of dry and very wry humor, provokes a few polite snickers with well-chosen comments on, and observations of American History's lonely ones.
Classroom Candids
1—Move it a little to the right . . . 2—Leroy Ostransky and finalists for Prince and Princess of Song . . . 3—Radio broadcasting class in action . . . 4—Waiting for their cues . . . 5—Swimming class aquabatics . . . 6—That's some formula! . . . 7—Home economy in action.
Faculty Relaxes

1—Shall we dance? . . .
2—What's wrong? . . .
3—You tell 'em . . .
4—Jones Hall Blues . . .
5—My lazy day . . .
6—we frown on things like that . . .
7—Who dat? . . .
8—That's our Murray . . .
9—Chaperoning.
Faculty Relaxes

1. One, two, three glide ... 2. Do-se-do ... 3. And then Brown says ... 4. Lost, sculpture stand and lamp shade ... 5. Let's have another joke ... 6. Good Morning, Dr. Todd ... 7. Happy New Year, faculty.

AT LAST! AT LAST!

In ecstasy one hundred seventy-nine seniors cast aside pencils and books to don gowns and mortar boards and receive their respective degrees. Almost, but not quite through, are the seventy-six seniors who will receive their hard-earned diplomas in August after summer school.

The goal of four years' effort has been attained by the happy balance of work and play. Traditions played a most important part in the transition from grass-green freshmen to mellowed seniors. There are memories which will long linger in the minds and hearts of these Loggers. They will remember freshman tugs of war and green beanies, sophomore tests, and junior proms. They will not soon forget stern-faced professors and smiling classmates. They will laugh and sometimes cry as memories transplant them once more in the site of the Alma Mater.

Class officers Jack Knapp, Bill Allen, Jane Hagen and Lloyd Silver, with Gretchen Swayze and Harry Mansfield representatives to central board, all contributed to make their final year a truly memorable one for the seniors.

There were leaders in the class of 1949, leaders whose deeds will leave deep impressions on the College of Puget Sound. Sports, music, drama, debate and social functions all grew and were managed under many a senior hand. Members of the class were prominent in every field of endeavor. Twelve seniors who proved their outstanding abilities and were chosen to be in Who's Who of College Students were Clayton Anderson, Leo Butigan, Aleatha Deatrick, Anita Garland, Beverly Johnson, Edward La Chapelle, Dorothy Lonergan, Harry Mansfield, Lois Phillips, Miles Putnam, Lloyd Silver and Gretchen Swayze.

Seniors gave recitals, headed committees, held offices, gave dances, and earned degrees. The names of Fincham, Lightning, Chase, Phillips and many others will echo in the halls of the college, for they made the year and the class of '49 what it was—one of the finest ever.

Yes, they will remember, and they will sing again the songs so time-worn and dear.

We love thee, Alma Mater
All Hail, All Hail to thee.

CLASS of 1950

FRANK TAYLOR
Junior Class President

Dick Frederick
Vice-President

Lita Johnson
Secretary-Treasurer

Representatives to Central Board

Bob Rinker

Carl Niemi
Sergeant-at-arms
WITH THIS YEAR OF C.P.S. FIRSTS, the junior class, largest in the college with 486 members, has completed three successful years of eight o'clock classes and exams, and now awaits the coming year of their supremacy.

Frank Taylor, class president, led the juniors through a most successful year and Dick Frederick, vice-president; Lita Johnson, secretary-treasurer; and Carl Niemi, sergeant-at-arms, ably assisted.

The capture of the coveted hatchet from the class of '49 was the "spot-light" event for the juniors. The numeral-bedecked, tradition-bound hatchet was stolen on May 18, 1948 and was engraved with a shining '50.

The junior class received most of the homecoming festival honors. Bob Mills and Hal Wolf planned this year's event which was "bigger and better" than ever. Cynthia Harris, lovely brunette junior, was elected homecoming queen, and she set aside her yell queen's crown to greet the returning alumni.

Joe Sim, high-flying junior, took the masculine lead in the Homecoming play, "The Big Idea."

Many juniors were prominent in the field of sports including Bob Angeline, Bob Robbins, Jean Tippie, Ray Loper, Warren Woods, and Les Gilsdorf.

Nadine Kensler watched the presses roll as editor of the Trail. Cecil Reimer completed his second year as sports editor of the Trail, and undertook the same position for the Tamanawas.

One of the more outstanding members of the class was Yvonne Battin, who took oratorical honors of all sorts at every turn.

When May Day came, the juniors were represented by Lita Johnson as festival chairman. Naomi Hespen planned the Senior baccalaureate breakfast, and Hal Wolf and Rose Carbone undertook chairmanship for the final social farewell to the class of '49, the Senior Ball.

Many juniors were members of the Adelphians, and held prominent positions in most school activities and organizations. They proved their prowess not only in sports and journalism, but in music, art, debate, drama and ASCPS leadership.

Enjoying the Junior Prom given for the class by the seniors.

CAME THE RINGING of ye olde school bell heralding the 1948 fall semester of college, and with it C.P.S.'s 461 "wise fools," prepared to do or die for the class of '51. Most of them "did" and did well.

With class president Ron Tuttle and his able assistants, the sophomore class sped along, producing ability and talent at every turn.

Athletics, music, social activities, all gave room for the apt expressions of this year's sophomores. The Adelphians claimed more members from this class than from any other. Leonard Raver gave generously of his musical activities including "Life Begins at Sixty." Lavonne Schuler took first place in the Student Musicians' Contest, sponsored by the National Association of Music Clubs, and later went to the regional contest where she again won a "first." President of Spurs and pianist Betty Anne Huhn gave the winter band concert a touch of genius with her superb playing of the first movement of Greig's Concerto in A Minor. Barry Garland proved his loquacious abilities in debate.

As in the past, the class of '51 was outstanding in sports. Dick Brown, Bud Blevins, Leonard Kalapus, Mel Light, and Carol Sue Petrich were only a few who contributed to hold up the fine record of the class.

When the first semester yell leaders left their posts, Bruce Andreason donned knickers and shaker stick, and assisted as yell leader.

In the traditional Freshman-Sophomore pushball game, Cam Haslam and Garry Hersey shoved the huge ball over the line, making the winning touchdown that brought victory to the sophomores.

Indeed, despite Sophomore Tests and freshmen, the class of '51 did well, and their accomplishments will long be remembered in the annals of C.P.S. history.

5—Prince of the beards.
6—8 ball in the corner pocket.
DICK CRABS

Representatives to Central Board
FIRST IN BRAIN, first in brawn, at least in the hearts of its classmates, came the class of '52 into new and unexpected experiences on September 13. After days of tests, directions, and registration, a tired freshman class elected officers, and did a most capable job in selecting Dick Crabs, president; Jane Johnson, vice-president; Lorraine Bottiger, secretary-treasurer; Morrey Halleck, sergeant-at-arms; and Pat Kezich and Tom Rutledge, class representatives.

Freshman Stunt Night was said to be the best ever presented, and the time-worn story of "Pokey Hunt-us" won first prize, while the audience rocked in its seats. Green beanies, too, kept "upper classmen" amused, but the frosh suffered through, only to lose the traditional push-ball game with the sophomores at Homecoming. Many of the class displayed considerable talent in the Freshman Class Plays. Corinne Sule made a lovely corpse, and Tom Cherrington portrayed a most typical father faced with today's "teen-age problem."

Not to be outdone, the freshman Girl's Chorus Line proved its ability during the sports dance here after the P.L.C. game. Freshmen entered many and varied activities, among them music, debate, Campus Playcrafters, and athletics. Queens from the class reigned over several activities. Freshmen served on many committees and boards, and in journalism they have taken the lead, with freshmen holding a majority of Tamanawas staff positions, and many Trail staff positions.

The formal initiation of the 554 frosh into full-fledged college life took place on October first, Matriculation day, and their numerals were added to the white quadrant of the traditional color post.

Indeed, the class of '52 launched into college life with zest and ambition. They have already contributed much to C.P.S. and their prowess will not lie dormant, for these freshmen have the stuff to make them succeed and become one of the most outstanding classes of the college.

ACTIVITIES
"... To provide an organization for promotion and control of students' affairs, and to encourage student cooperation with the college administration and faculty in maintaining the standards of the college ..." is the purpose of the Associated Students of the College of Puget Sound as stated in the preamble to the constitution.

Elected in the Spring of 1948, Clayton Anderson led the Associated Students of the College of Puget Sound through a successful year. Everyone carrying twelve hours or more purchased a student body ticket and became a member of the student body.

Aiding "Andy" in his administration were Beverly Johnson, vice-president; Yvonne Battin, secretary; Gerard Banks, treasurer; and Ellery Capen, general manager.

In the fall semester the CPS students were led in cheers at college games by Cynthia Harris, Harry Lewis and Ed Hager. Two were not able to return in the spring semester. Central Board appointed Bruce Andreason and Chuck Caddey to take their places. Since the student body has grown, the yell team will grow with it. Next year it will consist of three boys and two girls.
Central Board

CENTRAL BOARD, as the student governing body, is charged with the administration of ASCPS funds, the appointment of committees for action on student affairs, and the direction of campus activities.

The Board is made up of the following: Clayton Anderson, ASCPS president; Beverly Johnson, vice-president; Yvonne Battin, secretary; Gerard Banks, treasurer; Ellery Capen, general manager; Harry Mansfield and Gretchen Swayze, senior representatives; Bob Rinker and John Sampson, junior representatives; Mary Lou Johnson and Ed Balarezo, sophomore representatives; Tom Rutledge and Pat Kezich, freshman representatives; Dick Smith, alumni representative; Herb Stark, drama department manager; Bill Allen, Forensic representative; Stan Langlow, Intramural representative; June Larson, Women’s Athletic representative, and Harley Stell, Music representative.

The Finance Committee studies financial requests and recommends action on the requests to Central Board. The committee includes Clayton Anderson, Yvonne Battin, Beverly Johnson, Gerard Banks and Ellery Capen.
WITH MANY OUTSTANDING features as a result the Chapel Committee scheduled programs for the three chapels each week. Faculty and student musical presentations, speakers and movies helped to vary them. The candidates for royal positions at dances and for ASCPS functions and class offices were introduced.

The outstanding program was "Unison 2045," a musical pageant about the United Nations written and directed by Professor John O’Conner. Others were the student talent show, the Stadium Girls’ Glee Club, the Lincoln A Capella Choir, the Jason Lee Glee Club, and the Adelphians.

Presented by the Campus Playcrafters and the Choral Readers, the Christmas play was given the day before Christmas vacation.

Among the outstanding speakers were Dr. Thompson, Professor Frank Williston of the University of Washington, Professor John Magee, and Bishop Gerald Kennedy.
WOMEN'S FEDERATION provides the organization necessary to raise funds for carrying on the activities of various women's organizations on the campus.

Consisting of the presidents and treasurers of Otla, Spurs, Women's Athletic Association and representatives from the women of SCA, Women's Federation was led for the year by Shirlee Kinnane.

The annual tolo was held in February to gain working funds. Gloria Whitworth was elected tolo queen by monetary votes. Gretchen Ernst served as chairman of "The Lions and the Lambs." A prize was given for the best corsage a boy received from his date.
The Trail

UNDER THE EDITORSHIP of Miles Putnam, the Trail became a five-column, tabloid size paper. It continued its traditional Prince and Princess of Song contest and supported the campaigns for contributions to the French orphanage, du Bon Secours.

Heavy reading matter was published in the guise of Bill Sullivan’s "In The Magazines" column, along with a number of campus surveys.

Business manager John Youngman managed to afford a 6 page issue now and then, causing no end of trouble for News Editor Nadine Kersler and Sports Editor Louis Raphael. Shirley Niesen and Marian Maxin took turns as Society editor.

EDITED BY NADINE KENSLER during the spring semester, the Trail continued its policy of appearing late Friday afternoons. The six-page paper appeared a little more often, and the editorial policy continued alternately criticising and supporting campus doings.

When John Youngman dropped out of school, News Editor Ken Adair shifted to the business manager’s slot. Chris Nickolas and Jim Lantz became co-news editors. Marian Maxin handled the society news, and Cece Reimer was Sports editor during the spring semester.

Log Book

THE LOGBOOK, as a handy directory to the College of Puget Sound, was edited this year by Charles Gruenewald. Jack Young served as Associate Editor. Also helping on the staff were Leon Clark, Jay Fox and Mary Gruenewald.

The Logbook contains information about every organization on the campus, the ASCPS Constitution, an explanation of CPS traditions, and a list of students and faculty members with their addresses and phone numbers.
BATTING A MONTH LATE START, the Tamanawas staff labored to catch up in time to meet photographer, engraver and printer deadlines. During the year the third floor art lab became a second home for members of the staff.

Aiming to tell the story of 1949 with as many pictures as possible, Layout Editor Martha Wright gathered, trimmed and pasted thirty full page layouts, and the endsheets.

The art staff worked overtime to design the division pages, then worked out cartoons for the class pages.

All through this the writing staff struggled through stacks of copy, tried to run down lost copy, and compiled the index.

AS IN OTHER YEARS, Yvonne Battin has proved herself to be the leading debater on the College of Puget Sound campus.

In the debate held at the University of Washington by the Washington Association of Teachers of Speech, Yvonne finished first in both extemporaneous speaking and experimental speaking. Joyce Cousins received third place honors in oratory, while Barry Garland and Paul Stolz placed third in debate.

The open forum before civic groups up to 400 in size, a unique type of debate, was held in the Vanport Extension Center at the University of Oregon. In this town meeting tournament George Loerch placed first, and Bill Allen, the debate manager, placed fourth.
Unfortunately, in the Tyro Debate Tournament held at the College, CPS was vanquished.

Again in extemporaneous and experimental speaking Yvonne Battin received firsts in the Linfield College Debate Tournament. Phil Anselone and Alex Mortellaro were first in the men’s debate senior division.

At the Redlands University Tournament in California, Stan Worswick placed fourth in the preliminaries of the one man debate. He lost, however, in the final rounds to a representative from Southern California who took the first place trophy.

On the trip to Peoria, Illinois, for the National Pi Kappa Delta Tournament, the group attended debates at the University of Montana.

Pi Kappa Delta

THE FORENSICS HONORARY established on the campus, Washington Alpha chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, is maintained for those students who have distinguished themselves in the field of forensics.

Intercollegiate competition in debate, oratory, extemporaneous or impromptu speaking are requirements for membership in this organization. Pi Kappa Delta sponsors regional and national tournaments to which a representative from CPS is always sent.

Arthur Stolz was president of Pi Kappa Delta for the year and Dr. Charles Battin was advisor.
Concert Band

FIRST YEAR of a New Tradition! Senior certificates for uninterrupted service with the Concert Band were given for the first time to four graduating seniors who have been with the organization since its founding in 1946 by Professor John O’Connor. Those to receive these awards were: Anna Kinrod, Merle Stevens, Dick Henderson, and Joseph Martin. The Inspirational Award, top honor of the year, was given to Jack Potter for his contribution of untiring service and inspiration. Highlights of the season: two more outstanding concerts in the “Music of the Nations” series, and the successful completion of a five hundred mile concert tour of Washington.
THE WORKSHOP BAND under the direction of Leroy Ostransky is the nationally famous group formed to study and experiment with the possibilities of American music. Last fall Mr. Ostransky and the band were featured in "Downbeat," the musician's magazine.

In addition to playing a series of ten concerts in Western Washington and concluding with a home concert, they played for the incoming freshman classes and inaugurated Campus Day, both traditions.
Adelphian Choir

THE HIGHLIGHT of the Adelphian Choir's year was its two-week tour through the main California cities to San Diego. They left eight days before the start of Spring vacation and returned the day before classes were again resumed.

Hailed as one of the outstanding concert choirs of the Pacific Northwest, the group has made extensive plans for next year.

April 8, they gave a concert for the public at Jason Lee Auditorium. They sang in chapel the following week for the entertainment of the students. They also took part in the Christmas presentation of the Messiah at the Temple Theatre.
SIGMA ALPHA IOTA, national music fraternity for women, completed its "first" year as Beta Delta chapter.

High scholastic standing and excellence of musicianship are basic requirements for membership.

Outstanding events of the year were the initiation of honorary members, violinist Carroll Glenn and Claudine Verneuil (Mrs. Manuel Rosenthal); a visit paid to the chapter by national president, Mrs. John B. Davisson; and two articles of the Beta Delta activities which appeared in the national music magazine, "Pan Pipes".

Tacoma Symphony

SPONSORED BY the College of Puget Sound, the Tacoma Symphony is a college and community orchestra which is conducted by Raymond Vaught. College students make up approximately half its membership. The rest are residents of the city, some of them high school students.

Of the three concerts given this year Miss Margaret Myles was guest soloist for the first. The second singled out Prof. John O'Conner; and the third featured Miss Myles, Prof. Clyde Keutzer, Mrs. Margaret Davis, Mr. Ivan Rasmussen, the Collegiate Singers and the Adelphians.

MU Upsilon Sigma

MU Upsilon Sigma is an honorary professional music fraternity. Men who are interested in music as a profession or as an activity are eligible to join this fraternity.

The main function of the group is to foster the mutual welfare and brotherhood of music students and to help advance the cause of music on the campus.

President of Mu Upsilon Sigma for the fall and spring semester was Arthur Knight.

Homecoming Play

AS ITS PART in the Homecoming festivities, the Campus Playcrafters presented two performances of "The Big Idea." This comedy starred Gretchen Swayze and Joseph Sim and was directed by Martha Pearl Jones, who was assisted by Wilber H. Baisinger. The student dramatic manager was Herbert Stark, while Barbara Rowe and Patricia Lou Schaller were the student directors.

Christmas Vespers

PRESENTED as the annual Christmas Vesper service for the College this year, "One Night in Bethlehem" was given four times for the students and the public in Jones Hall Auditorium.

Under the direction of Martha Pearl Jones the participants were chosen from the men's and women's choruses. Students from the Campus Playcrafters and Choral Readers dramatized a very effective and inspiring play.

Spring Play

ANOTHER FEATHER was added to the already be-plumed cap of the Dramatic Department when the Campus Playcrafters presented their fine rendering of Justin McArthy's "If I Were King". A glimpse of French Renaissance frivolity and Good King Louis' corrupt court was enacted as seen through the eyes of the infamous French rogue-philosopher, Francis Villon, whose satirical wit nearly brought about his untimely end.
LED BY GRETCHEN SWAYZE, the Choral Readers have been very active this year. At Christmas they presented programs at various clubs and were a part of the Christmas vesper services of the college.

They participated in the Easter services at First Methodist Church. Besides giving a recital in the latter part of February, the group was presented in assemblies at high schools in the county. It is an upper division class.

No small part of the success of Logger teams this season was due to the expert leadership of the coaches.

John P. Heinrick, Logger athletic head, added more laurels to his long coaching career by leading the Logger football team to a co-championship in the new Evergreen League. This season was Heinrick’s debut as Logger football coach. He also piloted the basketball team to a second-place tie in league standings.

Assisting Heinrick were Harry Bird, frosh coach; Rod Giske, line coach; Ray Mahnkey, backfield coach; and Chuck McMillan.

Mahnkey, new at CPS, also headed the baseball team. He coached at Yelm High School last year.

Bird and Giske coached the tracksters. Coaching the golf team was Mal Stevens, while Walt Olsen led the tennis squad.

New coaches of the ski team were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Fopp.
The rampaging Loggers hung up their fourth pelt in succession when Bob Robbins smashed through Central's line ten minutes before the end of the game.

The game, played before a large partisan homecoming crowd, saw the Loggers and Wildcats hack and scratch at each other for three and one-half periods before Robbins scored. Defensive play on both sides was superb.

Mel Light rambled 29 yards on a fake punt in the outstanding play of the day. An interception by Light on the Logger one-yard line as the game ended saved the day for C.P.S.
San Jose State's rough and tough Spartans wore down the Loggers with reserves to score twice in the last 12 minutes and win the game 20-7.

For three quarters the Loggers led by one point. The loss of Bill Kowalski, star tackle, in the second quarter hampered the Logger defensive play.

Mel Light was a ball of fire for the Loggers on the offensive. The slim speedster went 52 yards with a Spartan kickoff to set up the CPS score. The Logger linemen held off the Spartan attack until they tired in the final period.
CPS - Pirates

A powerful, inspired Logger line tore the Whitworth attack to shreds as CPS punched over two scores to win 14-0. Vern Tucker, Pirate triple-threater, was squelched by the Logger forwards.

Harry Mansfield hit speedy Len Kalapus with a 38 yard touchdown toss, and Mel Light scampered 55 yards with an intercepted pass for the touchdowns.

Mansfield was injured in the second quarter and forced to end his playing career. Kalapus stood out for his two 60-yard punts, one of them from the CPS end zone at a crucial stage of the game.
CPS - Eastern

Fooling the experts and taking over first place in the Evergreen Conference, the Loggers travelled to Cheney to defeat the previously unbeaten EWC Savages, 22-6.

Eastern had won six consecutive games until the Loggers snapped their string. The Savage team had been favored by 13 points.

Len Kalapus capped a 55-yard drive in the first quarter by going over on an off-tackle smash. In the third period Light pranced 74 yards with an interception. The last Logger score came when Buster Brouillet rambled 28 yards around end. Hank Pond blocked a punt for the safety.
CPS - Rangers

Exhibiting power-plus, the Loggers rang up three quick scores and coasted to a 34-0 victory over an outclassed St. Martin's team.

Mel Light, operating from the quarterback slot for the first time, passed for one TD and scored two to lead the CPS offensive. Dick Brown's catch of the scoring pass made him the standout line performer for the day.

As usual, the strong Logger line play foiled the opposition. Coach Heinrick unveiled a new play which put Light around end twice for scores. The Rangers exhibited good passing, but could not score.
A mud-caked, underdog Western Washington Viking raised his bruised body from soggy Battersby field and split the Logger ship with his dreaded war axe. Coach Heinrick had foreseen the Vikings playing their best game before a large WWC homecoming crowd, and his fears were realized.

Two conversions by Walt Clayton won the contest for the Vikes. Norm Hash, huge fullback, was the outstanding offensive threat of the afternoon.

Robbins scored twice for the losers, once on a 50-yard ramble. The stocky back went through the line for several good gains.
Joe Hedges' long pass to Dick Brown set up the only Logger score of the game and Warren Wood's conversion gave CPS a 7-6 win over a determined band of Willamette Bearcats. Bob Hall blocked a kick to set up the score.

Hedges scored the only touchdown of his football career after sparking the goalward rush of the Loggers. Stout Logger defensive play staved off late Bearcat threats.

The victory was the first for CPS over Willamette since 1933 and the first Bearcat homecoming loss in 20 years.
After being held to a 6-6 tie in the season’s opener with PLC, the Loggers clinched the City Collegiate Title and a half-share in the Evergreen Conference bauble with a 13-7 win over the Lutes in the final game of the year.

Clicking with their passes for the first time all season, the Loggers gained consistently on the slippery stadium floor. Passing by Light and Hedges, receiving by Kalapus and Brown, and line-smashing by Robbins and Kalapus cooled PLC hopes of winning. The line held the Lutes in check when the chips were down.

Hedges and All-Stars

JOE HEDGES, alternate first-string quarterback, was chosen by his teammates as inspirational award winner. Joe, most polished passer on the Maroon squad, led CPS to a 7-6 win over Willamette and inspired his mates with his constant, hustling spirit all season long.

Citations were awarded the following members of the Varsity Team:

Mel Light, fullback — Honorable Mention All-Coast; All-Conference; All-NW.
Dick Hermsen, tackle — All-Conference; All-NW.
Captain Hank Pond, tackle — All-Conference; All-NW.
Warren Wood, guard — All-Conference; All-NW.
Laverne Martineau, center — Honorable Mention All-Conference.
Dick Brown, end — Little All-America (2nd team); All-NW (2nd team); Honorable Mention All-Conference.
Bob Robbins, halfback — All-Conference (2nd team).
CPS - Gonzaga

Climaxing the season for the Loggers was their 47-37 victory over Gonzaga. Paced by Brown, Gibbs and Angeline, the Maroon and White held a 27-16 edge at halftime. With seven minutes to go, the Loggers still led, 41-29. The Loggers employed fast-break and double-post techniques. Gonzaga's slow, deliberate type of offense was held in check by CPS' big men. With this victory, the Loggers won the right to go to the N.A.I.B. tournament at Kansas City, Mo., where they were eliminated in the first round.
CPS - PLC

In the first round of the N.A.I.B. district one playoffs at Yakima, the Loggers met their cross-town rivals—PLC. In this one, Gibbs, Brown, and Angeline blazed the trail for the Heinrickmen by scoring 48 points among them. Rangy Rod Gibbs canned 23 points in this encounter for high point honors. The first half was nearly even until Angeline scored eight in the last four minutes to give the Loggers a 29-27 halftime lead. But it was all CPS in the second half and the Loggers won in a walk 62-45.
Before this game, the Loggers were tied in the top spot in the conference with Central Washington.

The Loggers jumped to an early 3-0 lead over the Wildcats as the tip-off play clicked two points. Then Gibbs added a free throw, but the rangy Centralites couldn’t be held down. They tied up the score and went on to build up an 18-11 lead. The Loggers pulled away to a four-point lead with five minutes remaining, but they couldn’t hold onto it. The game ended 49-48, Central.
For the first time since 1937, the Loggers beat the highly-touted University of Washington Huskies. The 48-41 victory was the third time in history that a Logger hoop squad has beaten a Washington team. Of this game the Seattle P-I said, "Not in many years has a team from a smaller conference humbled the Huskies as the Loggers did tonight." Bob Fincham led the Heinrickmen with fifteen points in this important victory.
Playing their final conference game on CPS boards, the Loggers rolled over Eastern Washington College of Education by a 60-44 score. The Maroon and White came from behind at halftime, 22-16, to win their final conference game, a tie for second place in the Evergreen Conference and a ticket to the N.A.I.B. playoffs at Yakima. Before this tilt, CPS, PLC, and Eastern were tied for second.
The Loggers had little trouble with an outclassed St. Martin's College Ranger team. In this particular tilt the Heinrickmen trounced the Rangers by a 71-48 tally. It was the first game of a week-end series which the Loggers swept winning the second game by a 68-37 margin. Rangy Dean Dion of St. Martin's was the only thorn in the side of CPS hoopmen. He garnered a total of 30 points for the two contests. But the Loggers' Angeline countered with a total of 31 for the two tilts.
Dick Brown and Don Hoff alternated at the other forward position. Bob Rinker spelled big Rod Gibbs at the pivot slot and also figured into Heinrick's double post offense.

Bill Stivers rounded out the first five at the remaining guardspot. After Fincham's accident Bill took over the captaincy of the squad.

In the second line of the Logger attack were Don Ellis, Herb Klippert, Bob Sater, Buster Brouillet, Garry Hersey, Bill Richey, Bud Blevins, Lloyd Blanusa, and Dwayne Westlin.

The Loggers got the season off to a good start with a 49-46 win over the McChord Field Packets. In their next encounter, the Loggers had their ears pinned back by a more experienced Portland U. quintet. The Port-landers trounced the Heinrickmen 68-52.

Climax of the season was the 48-41 victory over the University of Washington Hus- kies. It was the first time since 1928 that a Logger hoop squad had beaten the Huskies.

CPS split the 4-game series with PLC for the city championship. CPS won the first and

BASKETBALL

ALTHOUGH THE LOGGERS finished the Ever-green Conference race in a second place tie with Pacific Lutheran, they came up with the best small college basketball team in the state and won the right to represent Washington at the N.A.I.B. tournament at Kansas City.

Paced by Rod Gibbs and Bobby Angeline, the Loggers ran up a total of 1501 points in 24 conference and non-conference games, for an average of better than 62 markers per game.

Rangy Rod Gibbs, who handled the pivot spot, hit the hoop from the field 80 times and dropped in 81 free throws for a grand total of 241 points or an average of 10.1 per game.

Diminutive Bobby Angeline came out of the Loggers' first encounter with a bruised heel which kept him on the bench most of the time in the next two weeks of play. Despite that handicap, the speedy Logger guard wound up the season with 239 tallies in all games played.

Bobby Fincham, playing his fourth con- secutive year as captain of the Logger cagers, was injured in a late-season accident while enroute to Vancouver, B. C. and was out of action for the remainder of the season.
last games, while the Lutes took the second and third encounters.

A loyal band of rooters followed the team to the N.A.I.B. playoffs at the Yakima Armory to see the Loggers smother PLC 62-45 the first night. The Heinrickmen avenged their last year's defeat by Gonzaga by overwhelming the Zags 47-37.

A 70-58 loss to Southwestern Louisiana State Teachers' College in the first round of the N.A.I.B. tournament rang down the curtain on this year's CPS basketball story.

* John McCorry, Bob Rieflin take the hurdles.
THE LOGGER TRACK squad won two of its four opening meets this season. April 15 the trackmen lost to P.L.C. 66 1/3 to 64 2/3. April 23 found the team winning a triangle meet with W.W.C.E. and U.B.C. with a 14-point margin. The results were C.P.S. 81 1/2, W.W.C.E. 66 1/2 and U.B.C. 13. In another triangle meet April 30 the Loggers scored 62 1/2 points while P.L.C. chalked up 58 and U.B.C. gained 42 1/2. May 7 the C.P.S. team came in second in the St. Martin Relays in Olympia; Central gaining 45 1/2, C.P.S. 31 1/2, P.L.C. 27 1/2, and U.B.C. 18. In a triangular meet at Cheney, May 13, Eastern won on their home-ground with the following tally: Eastern 87 1/2, the Loggers 42 1/2, the Lutes 29. A subsequent triangular meet on Logger territory found the hosts victorious with CPS 102, St. Martins 42, and Seattle Pacific 16.
THE FIRST warm days of late March saw 34 baseball aspirants playing catch and poling fungoes under the direction of new diamond coach, Ray Mahnkey. Leading the hopefuls were Hank Semmern, Bob Snodgrass, and Weldon Stillwell, lettermen pitchers.

Returning catchers Bus Mitchell and LaVerne Martineau; veteran infielders Wells Anderson, Earl Birnel, and Gary Hersey, and outfielders Jack Tanner and Holly Gee were meeting stiff competition from newcomers for the first-string positions.

As the Tamanawas goes to press, the Logger team holds the Western Division title of the Evergreen Conference.

KEEPING TRACK OF ALL the equipment issued to CPS athletes is the responsibility of “Pop” Throdahl, custodian of the gym. P.E. students learn to rely on “Pop” for everything from towels to basketballs. Serving as athletic publicity director for the college is Mal Stevens, Logger graduate and golf coach.
Varsity Skiing

THE C.P.S. SKI TEAM fared well throughout the season in intercollegiate meets with other schools of the Pacific Northwest. The Loggers walked away with a meet with Western Washington and U.B.C. at Mount Baker, captured third place in the Northwest Intercollegiate contest at Snoqualmie Pass, and barely won a meet with Wenatchee Junior College at Stevens Pass. The C.P.S. team captured all but one of the first ten places in a contest with Everett Junior College at Stevens Pass.

Members of the team placed well in the four "Stevens Standards" they entered, although the entries were as individuals rather than as a team. The women's ski team showed well, winning a meet with W.W.C.E. women, and placing in several races with Washington State.
Tennis

MAKING A NAME for themselves this year, the tennis team sent four representatives from the College of Puget Sound to compete in the newly-organized Evergreen Conference. Conference matches held at Whitworth College over the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth of May were deciding factors for team championship and individual honors. The whole ladder of men struggled all season for team positions, but, despite this internal rivalry, managed two straight wins over their cross-town threat, Pacific Lutheran College, as well as matches throughout the state.

Golf

PROSPECTS were very bright for the Logger divot team with several returning stars and outstanding freshmen vying for positions. Morgan Barofsky, Bruce Andreason, Don Mozel, Dick Carter, Jim Fowler, and Ernie Althuser returned to bolster the linksmen. Freshmen standouts included Louis Youngman, Bud Holmes, and Ken Baldwin.

In the first match of the season, the Loggers defeated PLC 15-0 at Fircrest. Meets later in the season included Oregon and Washington on the home links. Mal Stevens coaches the golfers.
Intramural Council

HEADING this year’s intramural program is Stan Langlow. Stan not only starred on several KS teams but also arranged schedules, released publicity, and performed numerous other chores.

Bowling

OMICRONS copped first places in both intramural bowling leagues this year. In the Maroon League, Indies, Mu Chis, and Sigma Nus won second, third, and fourth places, respectively.

Sigma Nus, Indies, and DK’s followed the Omicrons in the White League. Honors for high series in the Maroon League went to H. Peterson of the Omicrons with 609. High game was also Peterson’s. B. Washburn of the Indies was high in total pins with 1131.

Intramural Football

FINAL STANDINGS in the intramural touch football “A” League found three teams dead-locked for first place. Sigma Nus, Kappa Sigs, and Omicrons were the three.

The “B” League also ended in a tie with Kappa Sigs and Mu Chis on top of the pile. Bruising, blocking, and good organization featured the play of the winning teams in both leagues. Many of the players in both leagues also played in the touch football league sponsored by the Tacoma Park Board.

Play was close in most games with three ties resulting in the “B” League.

Softball

INTRAMURAL SOFTBALL enthusiasts were limbering up throwing-arms and sharpening batting eyes in preparation for the coming season as the Tamanawas went to press.

Stan Langlow, intramural head, had scheduled a full round-robin schedule for the eight team league.

This year’s softball league will probably be faster than last year’s since intramural track has been called off, leaving more men available for the diamond sport.

The ten-man teams will play all games on the Jefferson Park diamond again this season.
Intramural Basketball

TWO FAST, well organized Kappa Sigma basketball teams swept through both intramural leagues undefeated. Sigma Nus in the White League and Omicrons in the Maroon League were runners-up.

Led by the fine backboard play of Cam Haslam and the play-making of Stan Langlow, the KS Maroons scored 275 points while holding their opposition to 181.

Wayne Mann, Don Danielson, who scored 13.4 points per game, Carroll Walters and many reserves enabled the KS Whites to outscore their opponents 327 to 160.
KAPPA SIGS edged out the Indies to place first in the Intramural Ski Tournament with Sigma Mu Chis, Sigma Nus, Pi Tau Omegas, DK's, and Omicrons following consecutively.

Eddie Drew, Indie, finished first in the slalom with Dave Wales, Pi Tau Omega, Les Gilsdorf, Don Lochow, and Les Fasig following closely.

Les Gilsdorf, Ben Fawcett, Bob Morrison, Lindy Aliment, and Stan Langlow made up the winning team. The meet was held in February at Chinook Pass. This feature of the Chinook Ski Carnival was held for the first time this year.

Women’s Athletic Association

Alice Bond

* The girls who earned the national basketball referee’s rating are Bev Johnson, Barbara Prechek, Carol Sue Petrich, Jean Tippie, and Phyllis Blaser.
THIS YEAR THE WOMEN'S Athletic Association was under the capable direction of President Ruth Ann Potter. Helping in the arrangement of competition between classes and sororities were General Manager June Larson, Barbara Prechek, vice-president; Pat Smith, secretary; Pearl Mcberg, treasurer; Harriett Warne, program chairman; Nadine Cleary, publicity chairman, and Jo Copple, historian. Miss Alice Bond advised the group.

Early in the fall, the Seniors defeated their subordinates to capture the field hockey championship. Carol Sue Petrich won in the individual badminton tournament and was followed by Jean Tippie and Bev Johnson in second and third places respectively. The Gammas won the inter-sorority badminton tournament.

In the volleyball tournaments, the Senior I Team captured the class championship, while the Gammas copped the inter-sorority points. The Seniors and Gammas scored again in the basketball playoffs.

The WAA sports year came to a climax when three representatives from the local group attended a conference of the Athletic Federation of College Women at the University of Wisconsin.

The National Spurs

Always "At Your Service" were the Spurs, national sophomore women's honorary. The CPS chapter tapped fifteen sophomore women on the basis of participation in school activities, dependability, sincere friendliness, and scholarship during their freshman year.

The white skirt, white sweater, and Spur emblem could be seen in Chapel, at school plays, and many other school events. A group of Spurs journeyed to Ellensburg to install a new chapter, as well as to Pullman where the Spur regional convention was held.

Old Spurs marched with their newly-tapped baby Spurs on May Day, carrying the traditional daisy chain. Spurs also served at the tea which followed the May Queen coronation. Commencement was another big day for the service-minded Spurs, who were capably led by president Betsy Huhn and adviser Martha Pearl Jones.
Intercolligiate Knights

Intercolligiate Knights is a sophomore men's honorary. Three members of each CPS fraternity and ten Independents are selected each year to become active in this honorary organization during their sophomore year.

Scholarship, leadership and participation in school activities during the freshman year are used as the basis for selecting the new members for this sophomore honorary.

Members of the Knights become inactive in their junior year with the past officers serving in an advisory capacity for the new active members.

The Knights usher, sponsor an all-college dance, a campus radio broadcast and a picnic held with the Spurs.

MU Sigma Delta

MU SIGMA DELTA membership is one of the highest honors on the campus.

High grade point averages are required of upper classmen and faculty members in this local scholastic honorary.

Meetings are held three times yearly, with new members initiated at an annual spring banquet.

OTlah

OTLAH, senior women’s honorary, invited into membership those who at the completion of their junior year had participated in school activities in addition to having maintained high rank in scholarship.

A chapel program introduced the new members, and the annual tea was held in the spring. OTlah also decorated Jones Hall at Christmas.

Alpha Rho Tau

ALPHA RHO TAU, college art honorary fraternity, invites into membership students showing interest and ability in art.

The group sponsored their "first" High School Art Exhibit in December, which displayed entries from Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana.

In February, the famed Parisienne Beaux Arts Ball was given in honor of college students from other lands. The Music and Art Departments were also guests, and prizes were given for the best costumes.

The Annual Student Art Exhibit had its formal opening May 15th.

ANOTHER FIRST! Installation of a chapter of Delta Phi Delta, largest national art honorary fraternity for men and women, brought another "first" to the College of Puget Sound. Installation ceremonies were held on June 4th and those initiated were Maxine Lister, Yvonne Battin, Cynthia Harris, Irene Vokich, Catherine Funke, Dick Frederick, Ingwald Thompson and Howard Hitchcock.

Mathematics Club

ORGANIZED MAINLY to supplement instruction received in class, the Mathematics Club presents various speakers to correlate the position of mathematics and mathematicians with other fields of study.

During the year speakers were called in to discuss and clarify the relationships between mathematics and chemistry, physics and laws of chance.

Meetings were held at the College of Puget Sound early in the year, and were subsequently held in the homes of the members.
American Chemical Society

TO PROMOTE AN INTEREST IN CHEMISTRY, to hear and meet outstanding men in the field of chemistry at monthly lectures, and to acquaint its members with ACS is the threefold purpose of the student affiliate of the American Chemical Society.

Students who are majoring or minoring in chemistry or chemical engineering are eligible for membership in ACS. Opportunities for the presentation of papers and for interchange of ideas by the active members as well as by outstanding guest speakers are given to the members of ACS.

Psychology Club

THE FURTHERING OF INTEREST IN PSYCHOLOGY is the aim of Alpha Psi Chi, the Psychology Club. With no written requirements for membership, the club is composed of majors, minors and others interested in the subject.

During the year the club sponsored such speakers as Dr. Cochran, Mr. Edward Prince, Dr. Kenneth Hitch, and Dr. Theodore Barber.

Officers for the year were Sydney Pryor, president; Edwin Muller, first semester vice-president; Victor Zimmerman, spring vice-president; Mercedes Cox, fall secretary-treasurer; Jean Gudmundson, spring secretary-treasurer; William Farone, fall publicity director; Ken Adair, spring publicity director, and Professor Richard Peterson, advisor.
Pre-Med Club

THE PRE-MED CLUB was organized in the spring of 1948 to bring a closer relationship between pre-med students and their prospective vocations. James Caillouette and Richard Hanson first organized the group and served as president and vice-president respectively. In the fall of this year Bob Martin was president, with Professor James Slater as club adviser.

Business meetings were held once a month and qualified medical men talked of their own particular fields. Doctors from the University of Washington Medical School as well as prominent Tacoma physicians came to answer any questions the Pre-Med Club had. Colored slides and x-rays were also shown.

One field trip was made to Western State Hospital, with other trips to be made in the future. Les Erickson served as the Pre-Med Club's spring semester president.

Occupational Therapy Club

THE O. T. CLUB is composed of Occupational Therapy students on the campus.

The purpose of the club is to enable O. T. students to become better acquainted with one another, to hear outside speakers, to promote interest in the profession of occupational therapy, to keep up with developments in the O. T. field and to maintain a registry of alumnae members.

The president of Occupational Therapy Club for this year was Dixie Simmons.
BASEBALL, BASKETBALL, football, track and any of the many other types of sports found on the campus here at the college are all represented in the Axemen's Club.

The Axemen's Club was formerly titled the Lettermen's Club. Any man attending CPS who earns a letter in at least one major sport is eligible to become a member of this club.

The purpose of this club is to foster athletics and athletic interests and uphold the ideas and rules of sportsmanship among its members and other sports enthusiasts.

Guiding the Lettermen at the first of the year was Harry Mansfield. Taking over the spring semester Dick Salatino served as the president of the club. The club had a successful year which was climaxed by the annual dance.

The Varsity Ball was held at the Odd Fellows Hall, April 24. Harvey deCarteret was the general chairman of the dance. Assisting him were: Dick Lewis, programs; Earl Birnel, music; Ed Notley, publicity; Roy Loper, refreshments and Joe Hedges, decorations. Irving Sjolund from the Evergreen Ballroom near Olympia supplied the music for the dance. The high-point of the evening was the presentation of sweaters and letters to deserving athletes.

* Axemen Officers—Bob Ryan, secretary; Dick Salatino, president; Don Hoff, treasurer; Earl Birnel, vice-president.
STUDENT CHRISTIAN COUNCIL was always available to fulfill the religious needs of its fellow students. New students especially benefited from help which was offered by this group. Churches of their own denomination were quickly found in the new surroundings.

Seeking to help young people as well, the group organized deputation teams to aid youth programs at local churches.

Student Christian Council gave added stimulus to the World Student Service Fund drive in December. Lead by John Sampson as chairman, the drive materialized into funds for student supplies abroad.

A morning meditation period was provided in the Little Chapel and cell groups improved personal religious living. Socially the council sponsored a square dance in the Student Union Building.

Kappa Phi

THE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION for Methodist college women, Kappa Phi includes both sorority and independent girls of the Methodist denomination.

The organization is maintained to promote friendship among the members, to support other campus activities, to develop leadership in church work and to make vital contributions to the religious, social and cultural growth of the club’s members.

Patty Schaller was the president of the organization. Many teas, parties and campus get-togethers were held by Kappa Phi members this year.
Phi Sigma

THE PURPOSE OF PHI SIGMA, national biological honorary society, is to discuss and investigate all phases of biology, especially in the field of research.

The Alpha Phi chapter of Phi Sigma was founded at the college in February of 1948. Before becoming national, the organization was known on the campus as the Biology Club.

Membership into Phi Sigma is based upon scholastic standing and research ability in the field of biology.

IRC

THE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB endeavors to unite students of foreign lands and students from the United States who are interested in world problems and relations.

The club supports the promotion of the sponsorship of a French orphanage, Du Bon Secours. The foreign students were guests at many programs this year.

Representatives were sent to the regional IRC annual conference this year. Jim Johnson was the fall semester president, and Don Bremner was president for the spring semester.
Chinook

JEAN GUDMUNDSON, Pi Beta Phi, was the winner of the coveted title of Ski Queen. Queen Jean reigned over the first winter ski carnival sponsored by Chinook. Her princesses were: Delores Breum, Indee; Lorayne Willoughby, Lambda Sigma Chi; Dorothy Schweinier, Delta Alpha Gamma and Rae Jeanne Neeley, Alpha Beta Upsilon.

German Club

UNDER THE LEADERSHIP of Mr. Bachimont, German instructor at the college, as their advisor, German I and II students gathered together many times during the year for an evening of entertainment.

The purpose of the club is to foster the interests of all students who are taking German. Entertainment is given during the meeting, discussions are carried on in German and many talks given, both in German and in English.

* CHINOOK MEMBERS—Dorothy Schweinier, Delores Breum, Lorayne Willoughby, Lois Leland, Jean Gudmundson, Rae Jeanne Neeley.

WITH JUNE LARSON and Harriett Warne as their chiefs, the residents of Anderson Hall again led an active life this year. Despite the fact that the hall is overcrowded, many social functions were held.

The first Inter-dormitory party was held in March. The party was for all residents of Anderson, Todd, Kittredge and the Cottage.

A cruise was taken in April by the girls. Barbara Albertson was in charge of this trip.

Although many of the students cannot remember when the hall was not so crowded, it is the general opinion of all who live there that the old saying, "the more the merrier" still holds true.
TODD HALL, in its second year as a men's resident hall, was governed by Ed Stanton during the Fall semester and by John Tuttle for the Spring semester.

The men of the dormitory are self-governing, setting up their own house rules which are kept at a minimum.

The men from the hall had a basketball team for the first time this year, and they also entered into the other intramural athletic activities on the campus.

There are one hundred and eleven men living at the dormitory. These men include students from China, Norway, Finland, Bolivia, Iraq and many other foreign lands.

* TODD HALL OFFICERS—Spring: John Tuttle, Frank Peterson, Art Whitson, and Byron Brady. Fall: Don Bremner, Art Whitson, Ed Stanton, and Tom Rutledge.
Kittredge Hall - The Cottage
Independents

THE INDEPENDENTS won recognition from the national independent organization early this year. Organized as a unifying group for all non-greeks on the campus, the Indees include about two thirds of the student body.

Under the presidency of Bob Hanson, the Indeess sponsored the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Fall semester officers for the Indees were: Bob Hanson, president; Jim Beyer, vice-president; John Youngman, treasurer; Betsy Huhn, secretary; and Hal Padgett, sergeant-at-arms.

Officers for the spring semester were: Byron Norton, president; Jim Beyer, vice-president; Lane Hill, secretary; Bob Goslee, treasurer; and John Tuttle, sergeant-at-arms.
Greek Councils

FIDELITY — VERSATILITY — SERVICE

Tacoma Engraving Company printing plates give you a true presentation of your message—striking results in black and white or color. Engravings for all purposes—newspaper coarse screen, fluoro hilite halftones, commercial fine screen, combinations, line, and color work.

Maximum speed in production time assured by modern plant equipment, and operating personnel of highly skilled craftsmen.

Our staff of creative advertising artists offer you a practical solution to your pictorial problems. A new idea, a striking layout, and an interesting illustration that will tell your story quickly and convincingly, and sell your product or service.

Acknowledgments

WE OF THE TAMANAWAS STAFF tip our editorial hats first to the Student Body and Faculty who made the yearbook possible. A great deal of the success of the book can be attributed to the advice and guidance of Professors Lynn Wentworth, Doris Bennett, Ellery Capen, Lyle Jamieson and Barbara La Bounty. The patience and understanding on the part of the printers, engravers and photographers is also appreciated. The pictures contributed by Grant Barker, John Blake and other campus shutterbugs did much to augment those taken by the staff photographer.
