FOREWORD

It is customary for a college annual to be dedicated to some idea or person, so that all who read it are made conscious of the school, through that central thought.

This year, we, instead of putting forth any one thing as the most important here at the College, have left the choosing to you, and have presented as best we know how, a complete picture of the college year of '45-'46.

That which you have felt and enjoyed as a member of the Associated Students of the College of Puget Sound has been covered herein with a few words and pictures.

We hope that these will remind you of the problems, plans and ambitions of all of us here at the College, that in the years to come you may once more feel as a part of the year just finished.

As elsewhere the return to peace, and to peacetime pursuits here at the College, was not easy. Instead of labor troubles, the student and faculty administrations had the honor of welcoming a large group of veteran students; but at the same time had the trials of re-orienting this large group, that soon outnumbered other students, into college activities.

By the end of the second semester there were over eight hundred and fifty students at the College as compared to the previous high of approximately seven hundred. Of these 800, the men, for the first time in three years, outnumbered the women. Yet this large increase was not the end. Even as room was being made for those students who came back this year, plans were allowing for over 1200 students to attend the College next year.

To meet this influx, the faculty administration and trustees okayed the building of a new mens' dorm to be ready for next year's students.

In spite of this great increase in the schools' population, classes ran as smoothly as ever, and slowly the student government integrated the newcomers into an all-college program.

All students took part in the ASCPS elections, said to be the hottest in many years here at the College. Mixers. Dances. Games. Campus Day, the Senior Sneak; all of these instilled into each student some of the friendly spirit of the College.

By the end of the year, all could truthfully say that indeed the College of Puget Sound had lost none of the cordial, friendly atmosphere that made every student feel as though he were wanted here on the Campus.
With the great increase in the size of the Student Body came the necessity of an increased faculty. Several new faculty members were added to the staff by June, and Dr. Thompson came from back East where he had been interviewing members of the teaching profession with the promise of fifteen new faculty members for next year’s enrollment.

Another new feature was the adoption of the plan’s for the new Men’s Dorm by the board of trustees of the College. This structure is to be built sometime this year.
The student government here at the College is carried on by elected representatives who serve on the various committees of the ASCPS. Central Board, the legislative group, passes all laws and rules of the student body; appropriates all of the money used by the various departments; and carries out the traditions of the College. Student department heads, class representatives, the editors of the Trail and Tamanawas, and the officers of the Associated Students of the College of Puget Sound, are members.

The Chapel Committee plans all chapels for the College, obtaining speakers, musicians, and outstanding personalities who speak to the students three times a week. This year they obtained such speakers as General Wainright, and Mrs. Buena Maris.

The other important legislative group on the Campus is the Finance Committee which recommends to Central Board a solution to all financial difficulties and troubles.

We entered CPS with Dr. Thompson, all of us very green. He called us a class with 'spizirinctum'! That has been our motto throughout four years, during which time we dwindled from a class of near 200 to 42 in our Junior year. True, we didn't win the bag rush in our Freshman year, but we did give the Sophomores a run for their money. We showed off our vast variety of talent on Stunt Night and in the Freshmen Plays.

In sponsoring the first dime dance of the year as Frosh, we said good-bye to some fifty of our own classmates, plus about the same number of upperclassmen leaving the campus to join the Armed Services. It was at this time that we bid farewell to our able president and vice-president, Dick Perkins and Bernie Crowell. Then for the remainder of the year we watched as one after another of our group left the campus.

As Sophomores we adopted Martha Lucille Thompson as our official mascot, presenting her with a CPS letter sweater (her size), and a scroll signed by the entire class. This was in the form of a tribute to Dr. Thompson as he entered CPS the same time we did.

When we reached the status of Juniors, our number had shrunk to 42. Yet, in spite of that, we still had 'spizirinctum.' We sponsored the first social event of the season, a splash party for the entire school. Still on our toes we discovered the Seniors at their secluded 'Sneak Spot,' and later snatched the coveted Hatchet from the grasping fingers of the Sophomores.

In this our Senior year, we are glad to see many familiar faces returning to the campus. We managed to elude the Juniors, for the most part, when we took a day's vacation at Lake Sylvia. Renewing another tradition we are sponsoring a Senior Ball to be held Commencement night. Now we leave CPS with some sadness, there are only seventeen of our original class, but as the boys return they will follow in our footseps. We have great faith in the future of our Alma Mater and pass on our Pep School Spirit, and 'Spizirinctum' to all those who enter these halls after we have gone.

As Freshmen we entered CPS 137 strong, just another wartime class. However, we had plenty of pep and spunk. We did have one particular note of distinction, the ASTU moved onto our campus when we entered school. These 238 Army Specialized Training students became a part of our class for their stay here on the campus of CPS.

We showed off our talent at Stunt Night and in the Freshman one-act plays. In the last bag rush to be held until the end of the war, we carried off top honors over a team of upperclassmen. Our song, written by Maxine Atkinson, "Our Gentle Mother," won the Homecoming Songfest that year.

In our Sophomore year we had lost a number of male members. However, we kept up traditions as much as possible under war-time conditions. Even though we had to discontinue the annual bag rush, we kept up the social end of things by sponsoring an evening of games and dancing at the SUB. We were also the first class to sponsor an All-College ice skating party.

This year we have been active in bringing the college back to pre-war basis. Outstanding among our efforts has been the reviving of several traditions abandoned during the past few years. Perhaps the most prominent and successful of these was the Junior Prom. We also entertained the Seniors at a Junior-Senior breakfast, as well as another bit of entertaining when we interrupted them on their Sneak after chasing them from street to highway, to ocean, and finally to lake.

We entered CPS as just another war-time class, our ranks sadly lacking in man power. However, we still had spirit and ambition. Before Matriculation day we had planned a dance, "Pilgrim’s Dance," which proved to be a success. In the Stunt Night and Freshmen Play performances we showed the upperclassmen that we had talent.

In spite of the fact that we had to abandon the regular rivalries between the Freshmen and Sophomores that year, we still kept up our green beanie spirit. Four of our class were on the first-team basketball that year.

As Sophomores we revived an old tradition this year; or rather enforced it. With the Frosh in such evidence we saw to it that they were properly respectful to upperclassmen by wearing their green beanies. This was a big step in rehabilitating our campus to pre-war activities.

One of the outstanding social events of the first semester was the barn dance given by our class, the "Hayseed Hi-Jinx" which was held in the gym. Teamed with the Seniors, we took top honors in the Victory Bond Drive.

Reviving another tradition, we participated in the Frosh-Soph tug-of-war on Campus Day ... and won!

As Freshmen we had Shirley Oslund, John Scupen, Clair Candler, and Charles Morris as officers. Carol Todd was our representative to Central Board. This year we have had Peggy Rough, President; June Larson, Vice-President; Marian Tregoning, Secretary; Dick Eckert, Sergeant-at-arms; and Clair Candler as Class Representative.

We Freshmen have the distinction of being the first class to enter CPS after the close of World War II. In September we came in some 200 strong, one of the largest classes in several years. During Freshmen Week we elected officers to lead our class throughout the year. These included: Harold Simonsen as President; Waldo Davila, Vice-President; Jeanne Miles, Secretary; and Nick Nicholas and Ed Meneghetti as class representatives.

Our Stunt Night was a huge success and we were noted for our pep and good spirit. Faithfully we wore our green beanies under the watchful eyes of the Sophomores. In October we led off with the first dance of the year, the 'Beanie Bounce.' Next in line we presented a group of exceptionally good one-act plays. We made a further name for ourselves when we carried off the winning honors in the Homecoming Songfest. Our classmates were active in many school events.

ACTIVITIES
DRAMA

One of the busiest years for the dramatics department began with the production of five Freshman plays on October 5, 1945. The five plays produced were “Before the Curtain Rises,” “Ghost in the Green Gown,” “Would Your Husband Shoot?”, “Wrong Numbers,” and “Thank You, Doctor.”

Student directors for these plays were Mary Rough, Dorothy Schweinler, Elizabeth Anderberg, LaVerne King and Irene Fearn. Assistant directors were Peggy Rough, Martha Jean Sandin and Lorraine Hasson.

The first of November saw the production of a mystery farce in three acts, “Ramshackle Inn.” The leading role, that of Belinda Pryde, was taken by Irene Fearn. Others in the cast were Walter Seabloom, Ray Cason, Sherley Baisinger, Bonny Jean Steele, Marshall Campbell, John Larson, Maisie Harold, Dale Nelson, Mary Rough, Leonard Raver, Byron Crull, Elizabeth Anderberg, Kelly Hamilton and Harold Simonson.

Campus Playcrafters, in cooperation with the music department, presented the annual Christmas program. This year’s play was “Dicken’s Christmas Carol.”

On February 15 the Playcrafters gave four one-act plays in honor of the debaters who were on the campus for the annual high school tournament. The plays were directed by Inez Doherty, Dorothy Schweinler, Elizabeth Anderberg and Irene Fearn. Prompters and property chairmen were Martha Jean Sandin, Gloria Beckerman, Helen Thomas, Beverly Farrell, Miriam Manke and Jane Hagen.

On the floor: Ray Cason.

The Choral Readers, in their sixth annual recital, presented four groups of poetry, including children's poetry and Lindsay's "The Congo." The most effective part of the program was the ending poem, "Cathedral Chimes At Midnight," for which the group gradually formed a cross.

The spring play, Thornton Wilder's "Skin of Our Teeth," was given May 3 and 4, with Irene Fearn, Troy and Helen Strong, Shirley Milsted and William O'Connell in the leading roles. This play, a Pulitzer Prize winner, depicts man's survival through the Ice Age, deluge and war.

Director of the Campus Playcrafters is Miss Martha Pearl Jones. Dramatic manager is Charles Nee and dramatic department assistant is Ruth Ann Dodsworth.

FORENSICS

Forensics began its successful return to normal by hanging out the welcome sign for Coach Dr. Charles T. Battin who had been in government service in Alaska during the war. In his absence, Dr. Marvin R. Schafer, assistant coach, served as adviser. The annual high school debate tournament in February was the first event sponsored by the department. It turned out to be one of the largest ever held west of the Mississippi River drawing teams from some 30 schools in Washington and Idaho.

Practice debates with colleges of the Puget Sound area warmed up the Logger squad for participation in the Northwest Tyro Tournament held on the CPS campus in which teams from Washington and Idaho competed. In this revival of pre-days, CPS's Rad Hartwell took first-place in impromptu speaking with Harriet Fiske landing in the finals in that event of the two-day affair.

The season that far turned out to be just proving ground for the squad, for when it traveled to the Coast Regional Tournament at Linfield College in McMinnville, Oregon, to participate, it returned with two first-, a second- and a third-place. Taking the honors at this three-day meet by walking away from 25 colleges representing Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California were Norman Schut, returned veteran, first in one-man Lincoln-Douglas style of debate, first in extemporaneous speaking and second in impromptu: Harriet Fiske and Lyle Lindelien, third in junior division of University or two-man style of debate.

The season reached its climax when the squad traveled to Stockton, California, to compete with colleges from eight states in the Pi Kappa Delta, Province of Pacific Regional Tournament, held on the College of Pacific campus.

CPS there nabbed two first-, one second- and two third-places besides reaching the finals in all events entered, despite competition of such schools as UCLA, USC and OSC. Norman

Schut took first in one-man debate, with Lyle Lindelien backing up the Maroon and White record by placing second. In junior division, Harriet Fiske and Louise Kipper teamed to take first place among the women, while Bob McNary and Byron Norton placed third among the men. Harriet Fiske and Mary Jean Kean landed in the finals of impromptu speaking with Harriet taking third.

Washington Alpha chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, which is the national forensic fraternity maintained on this campus, admitted the following on the merits of their work during the year: Degree of Special Distinction, Norman Schut; Degree of Honor, Lyle Lindelien; Degree of Fraternity, Harriet Fiske, Louise Kipper, Mary Jean Kean, Bob McNary and Byron Norton. Faculty members of Pi Kappa Delta are Dr. Charles T. Battin, Dr. Marvin R. Schafer, and Dr. John D. Regester.

The squad which competed at the different tournaments during the year on the topic of establishing a policy of free trade was composed of Ferd Bondy, Bernie Crowell, Kelly Hamilton, Rell Anderson, William Johnson, Harriet Fiske, Louise Kipper, Mary Jean Kean, Byron Norton, Bob McNary, Lyle Lindelien, Norman Schut, Rad Hartwell and manager Don Bennett.

In April the finalists of the high school oratorical contests in the Sixth Congressional District competed at the College before the student body. Local businessmen who acted as judges gave first place to Richard Drues of Stadium High School in Tacoma.

The contest, sponsored by the State Department of Conservation and Development, awarded a first prize of $100, besides a medal and a trip around the state inspecting Washington's resources. The six district champions will vie for the state championship in Seattle May 22.
MUSIC

Under the direction of its new head, Prof. Clyde W. Keutzer, the music department of the college expanded 165% this year, with 55% of the entire student body taking courses in music.

Prof. Keutzer came to CPS from Scott Field, Belleville, Ill., where he served as director of the USO. He has been head of the Department of Voice at the University of North Carolina, concert soloist throughout the East and South, and Director of Voice at Baldwin-Wallace College.

His revival of the Adelphian Concert Choir, which had been almost inactive throughout the previous years, brought about that organization's extended tour throughout Washington and parts of Idaho during the spring semester.

President of the Adelphian Choir was Irene Fearn, while secretary-treasurer was Mary Ann Truitt. Marshall Campbell edited the new music column, "Off Beat," which appeared in the Trail.

Mary Ann Truitt acted as music department manager and director of the Puget Sound Symphony was Frank Anarde.

The Campus Trio remained an ever-popular group around town, with its personnel changing more frequently than usual. Trio members at the beginning of the year were Virginia Kilde, soprano, Midge Heidinger, second soprano, and Betty Heidinger Smith, contralto. At the end of the first semester Betty was graduated and replaced by Frances Swenson. Toward the end of the spring semester Virginia Kilde dropped out. The new soprano was Anita Stebbins. Accompanist was Jean Thurber.

A new group on the campus, the Harmonairs, composed of Elizabeth Anderberg, Neva Iverson, Carl Niwa, Don Carsten and Arthur Knight, made their debut on the Adelphian tour, and thereafter sang for various programs around town and at the Fort.

Since admission to the Adelphians is by try-out and permission of Prof. Keutzer, and is of limited membership, the Women's Collegiate Singers were organized for those women who wished to belong to a choral group, but who were not eligible for membership in the Adelphians.

TAMANAWAS

Despite the handicap of a staff of thirteen students, the Tamanawas of 1946 came out on schedule. Another major barrier to its publication was a lack of funds. Editor Winskill felt that a student body the size of CPS's should have a bigger and better annual than ever before, and every effort was made in that direction. Bob appeared before Central Board to plead the case and receive 625 dollars in addition to the budget.

The editorial staff has tried in every way possible to make this year's annual a clear picture of the years' events. When actual photographs were not available, it was endeavored to paint word pictures so that in after years people will be able to know what happened at CPS in the year '45-'46. The staff consisted of Elizabeth Anderberg, Don Carsten, Kertru Kahn, Murden Woods, Harriet Fiske, and Lyle Lindelien.

The art staff though small was very good. It turned out fine work and in quantity. Art editor Peggy Doubek drew the sketches of the professors, and Cathie Reed designed the cover and the division pages.

Mary-Anna Schenk, Bus. Manager

The ad staff, too, did its part in turning out a bigger and better Tamanawas. They got busy and secured enough ads to fill all the holes in the budget. Headed by Mary-Anna Schenk and Gwen Simmons, were Beverly Farrell, Jackie Holmberg, and Barbara Hodges.

Gwen Simmons, Bus. Manager
The photographer for this year was Nelson Richards. He spent lots of time following Bob around the campus and did a swell job on the group photographs. The class pictures were taken by Kennell-Ellis Studios.

Our advisor Dr. Jaeger has been a big help to us all.

The Puget Sound Trail embarked upon one of its most successful seasons this year under the direction of Elizabeth Anderberg, Editor-in-Chief. While finances did not permit the Trail's coming out every week, it did come out every other week: with every issue better than average. All of the honors are due to Miss Anderberg's direction.

Those who served on the staff in particularly responsible positions were the following:

Betty Jane Cappa, and Anna Marie Vaughn as Business Managers; Lois Lynch as feature editor; Sheila Lamar as society editor: and Nick Nicholas and Harold Simonsen as sports editors.

Those features that were liked particularly were, Off Beat by the Em Cee, actually Marshall Campbell; The Senior Spotlight written by Carolyn Cummings; Dorm Dora of course: and Gym Shorts by Evelyn Marshall.

One of the highlights of the publications' year was when the office was moved back to its old location at the SUB. Tired newsmen, too long used to fighting their way through the mass of junk in Jones Hall, could really take pride in their new room complete even to keys, to keep those persons out who insisted upon borrowing the staff typewriters. Immediately the room was christened the PUB and became known as "the PUB in the SUB."

Dr. Jaeger acted as Trail advisor throughout the entire year.

Athletic Director Frank W. Patrick

Wartime Athletic Director
Delmar Gibbs
A former University of Pittsburgh and National Pro All-American football star, Frank W. Patrick has been named as the new athletic director for the College of Puget Sound. He comes to CPS to fill the vacancy left by former Coach Leo J. Frank, who is now a captain with the army and serving as educational instructor at Fort Ord, California.

While at the University of Pittsburgh, Patrick played fullback under the noted Jock Sutherland and with such familiar pigskin personalities as Marshall Goldberg and Bill Daddio. He was named on the 'coaches' All-American grid list as well as mentioned on the All-East, and All-American mythical squads.

Many Pacific Coast football fans can remember when, at the Rose Bowl classic in 1937 between the University of Pittsburgh and the University of Washington, Patrick displayed brilliant ball-carrying by scoring two touchdowns for the Easterners which helped them defeat the Huskies, 21-0.

His professional gridiron action was with the Chicago Cardinals of the National Professional League in '38-'39.

When Patrick was not playing professional football, he had a faculty position at the University of Oglethorpe as assistant athletic coach and professor of physical education and psychology of athletics and coaching. In 1943-'44 he served as assistant coach to Bernie Bierman at the University of Minnesota and has been named by many as one of the outstanding figures of football.

Mr. Patrick has announced that we can look forward to a rejuvenated sports program. In the winter varsity sports shall consist of skiing, basketball, and football. During the last half of the school year track, tennis, boxing and wrestling will hold forth.

We now wish to salute Mr. Gibbs who acted as Athletic Director during the war emergency period as well as heading the Education department. He did a fine job.

BOB OQUIST
With John P. Heinrick, Stadium High School's athletic director, as their newly acquired coach, 23 enthusiastic basketball aspirants began workouts in the CPS gymnasium early in the season.

Of the nearly two dozen prospective cagers, Coach Heinrick welcomed several hoop veterans who had considerable basketball experience on former high school and service teams. With these fellows forming the backbone of the group, a powerful varsity squad was formulated, backed up by a capable group of second-stringers. As the season advanced the team continued to grow better and lost its last game with U.B.C. by only 6 points.

Mr. Heinrick deserves a bouquet for his remarkable job of turning out a team which finished in the upper division of the Pacific Northwest Conference.

During the season the College of Puget Sound's Bob Fincham captured undisputed top scoring honors in the Northwest Basketball Conference by scoring a total of 250 points in 12 games, an average of 20.8 tallies per contest. Bob outscored his nearest rival by 81 points.

The graceful stylist, who totaled this fat count by means of 95 field goals and 60 free throws, turned in his most impressive showing against the College of Idaho, connecting for 31 and 41 points on successive nights to snatch records for both single game and two-game series.

Runnerup position on the Logger squad was captured by Jim Van Camp, who accumulated 102 counters.

TENNIS

The tennis squad started the season with one returning letterman, Don Carsten, but soon the beginning squad consisted of Jess Curtwright, Kirk Stewart, Bob Fincham, Jack Knapp, Bob Causin, Don Hesselwood, and Don Carsten. The team was evenly balanced and able to give stiff opposition to any comers.

Matches were played with local colleges, and the climax was reached when the College of Puget Sound was represented at the Northwest Conference meet at Salem, on May 18.
SKI TEAM

After a lapse of five years, our ski team ventured forth to match its skill and daring against the leading West Coast colleges and universities. C.P.S. was represented in two meets this season, one at Martin, the other at Donner, California.

A five man team consisting of Jess Curtwright, Bert Kade, Richard Simpson, Harry Berg, and Carl Arness attended the meet at Martin, but only Briggs was able to go to the Donner meet.

Next year the team hopes to compete in most of the major meets on the Pacific Coast.

W. A. A.

The Women’s Athletic Association has witnessed a fine year of inter-class and inter-organization sports. Ninety-six girls participated in the sports program, fifty-five of which are regular W.A.A. members. The cabinet for W.A.A. this year consisted of the able president, Margaret Lindeman; vice-president, Betty Jane Cappa; treasurer, Carol Hamilton; secretary, Mary Agnes Gallagher; social chairman, Ruby Smith; publicity, Shirley Gibbs; the busy general manager, Helen Miller, and the friend and advisor Mrs. Kenneth Johnson.

A large variety of activities were offered and fine managers oversaw each activity. The sports and their respective managers were: baseball, Helen Miller; basketball, Murden Woods; volleyball, Lois Fasset and Dixie Simmons; badminton, Evelyn Marshall; ping pong, Joy Moberg; speedball, Ruby Smith; horseshoes, Mary Agnes Gallagher; tennis, Eunice Moberg; archery, Janice Lindeman; and bowling, Helen Caputo.

Award time is one that all the girls look forward to during the year. A girl who has earned six hundred points is entitled to a first year chenille letter ‘P,’ one who has earned an additional six hundred points or a total of twelve hundred is entitled to a two-stripe school sweater. These sweaters are given to the award earners by the Associated Students. For each additional six hundred points up to a grand total of 2400 points another stripe is awarded. There is a possibility then for a senior to have earned a four stripe sweater during her four years at school. Receiving first year letters were Evelyn Coubrough, Barbara Engberg, Helen Mahoney, Wanda Smith, Bea Young, Helen Caputo, Alice Ann Cross, Louise Kipper, June Larson, Doreen Lockstone, Phyllis Newman, Dixie Simmons, Marie Switzer, and Viola Warner. Receiving sweaters were June Larson, Lois Fassett, Mary Agnes Gallagher, Jean Hallen, Joy Moberg, Rosa Maes Monger, Peggy Rough, Virginia Barker, Eloise Cruver, Shirley
This year’s athletic cup went to the Delta Alpha Gamma girls again, after a hard struggle over the determining game of bowling. They nosed out the Betas for the final victory. The cup was given in Awards Chapel.

The awarding of white sweaters was an exciting one this spring as there was not only one sweater given but two of them. One of these sweaters went to Ruby Smith and the other one went to Murden Woods; both are four year letter girls and well deserved their awards.

The elections for the coming year brought favorable results for W.A.A. for next year. Short but full of vigor is Betty Jane Cappa who was chosen to serve as president of the group for next year and to serve as sports manager is Carol Hamilton. Others on Miss Cappa’s cabinet will be: Vice-President, Peggy Rough; secretary, Dixie Simmons; treasurer, Lois Fassett; publicity, Ruth Ann Potter; program chairman, Dorothy Kostenbader.

We hope that next year’s group will continue to grow and that they will have as successful a year as Margaret and her group had this year.

Gibbs, Helen Miller and Eunice Moberg. Third stripe awards were given to Betty Jane Cappa, Carol Hamilton, Janice Lindeman, Margaret Lindeman and Evelyn Marshall. Two people, Ruby Smith and Murden Woods, earned a fourth stripe.

Besides the numerous awards for points, there is an All-Star team for each major sport made up of the best players—an ideal team. These teams are chosen by the sport manager, the general manager, W.A.A. president, and the advisor.

Perhaps the top of the year is reached when the athletic cup is awarded to the one sorority or the independent group whichever has earned the most points towards it during the sports season. This is given during awards chapel and as yet has not been decided for this year. Last year it was awarded to Delta Alpha Gamma.

This year’s fall president of the dormitory was Peggy Doubek; the Spring President was Virginia Mekkes.

The Dormitory was enlarged this year; the basement being filled with bunks to house 38 girls. At the same time the dining hall was made into a study room for the girls, and meals were taken at the SUB.

The Fall social program consisted of a dance given by the girls called Campus Club. The chairmen were Lucille Ludwick and Gwen Simmons. This Spring the girls had a picnic at Point Defiance.

The Dorm has weekly meetings, some social, some informal with popcorn, punchfeasts and songfests the order of business.
To become a member of Otlah, senior women's Honorary, is the dream of every College woman. Only those who have a grade average of 2.0 or more are tapped for membership in this group.

Mu Sigma Delta is the counterpart on our campus of Phi Beta Kappa on other campuses. This year five new members were asked to join. They were Maurice Goldenhar, Ruby Smith, Shirley Baisinger, Betty Jane Kappa, and Janice Lindeman. Miss Van Norden was this year's president.
The most active Service group on the campus is the Spurs. Established here on our Campus in 1926 it is composed of the fifteen outstanding Sophomore women. These women are chosen when freshmen on the basis of scholarship and general participation in college activities. Rosa Mae Monger was this year’s president.

While kept to a wartime scale of little activity because of lack of manpower, the Intercollegiate Knights were fast regaining their position on the Campus of a true service organization. Their ranks swelled with returning members and the new pledge group, the Knight could look forward to a year of true service to the College.

The I.R.C. meets every week at the homes of the members where discussions are held on world problems. Among the speakers who have presented talks at these meetings this last year, are Jan LeBlue, a holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor, and heir to the Throne of Java; Col. Ensley Llewellyn, former editor of the 'Stars and Stripes,' and members of the International House of the University of Washington. Murden Woods was president of the group this year. Dr. Tomlinson acted as advisor.

The Ski Club this year carried on one of its most successful seasons under the direction of President Carl Arness, and Advisor Warren E. Tomlinson. The highlight of the year was the Ski Club sponsored All College Ski Day at Paradise the 22nd of February, Washington’s Birthday. As well as arranging a time for all those interested in skiing to get together, the Ski Club also arranged transportation for those who wished to go skiing. At meetings experts in the field were asked in to give pointers on the true way to ski.

S. C. A.

The S.C.A. had an extremely active year under the leadership of Miss Bea Young. Foremost among their activities was the presenting of Religious Chapels every Tuesday in the Little Chapel.
The Independent group was led through a comparatively inactive season this year by the executive committee headed by president Betty Jane Kappa.

Due to the great increase in the size of the Student Body and the correspondingly great increase in the size of the Independent Organization, it was found necessary to re-write the entire Constitution of the I.O. This was done by a committee composed of these people: Betty Jane Kappa, Troy Strong, Bob McNary, Louise Kipper, Harriet Fiske, Norman Schut, and Bob Winskill.

Plans were laid this year for next year's program and the re-activating of some of the Independent traditions on the Campus including the always popular 'Sadie Hawkins Day' and dance.

KITTREDGE HALL

Inez Doherty, Mary Ellen Irsfeld, Dorothy Lonergan, Joyce Nelson, Gladys Jones, Eileen Boyd, Ruth Gustafson, Rosa Mae Monger, Mrs. Drushel, Mary Louise Guthrie, Peggy Hume, Gwen Dean, Aleatha Mae Dieatrick, Betsy Burleigh.
The traditions of the College are typified in this one picture of the true 'Loggers Axe.' Passed down from Senior to Junior for over forty years, it truly symbolizes the competitive spirit of our Classes, our Organizations, our Teams.

May you seize from it the essence of what has made our College great and apply it to your life and to those around you. For what has made an institution great will make you worthy of the name "Alum" of the College of Puget Sound.

ADVERTISING
Attention Students:

Your gratitude is to be extended to the many advertisers who have helped make this book possible, for without their help the interesting record you have just read of this past college year would not be yours. Their civic-mindedness and interest in our welfare should be reciprocated by your patronage.

To increase their interest to you and to increase their value to our advertisers, the policy of student pictures in their advertisements has been continued, because of its singular success in recent years. We would also like to take this opportunity to acknowledge several contributions made by friends of the college. Below is a list of advertisers. You students should help them as they have helped us, at every opportunity.

Weyerhaeuser Timber Company

BECAUSE trees are plants which have a life cycle similar to all other living things, mature trees grow little and may deteriorate. Young trees, like children, grow faster, therefore produce more wood in less time. TIMBER IS A CROP and must be harvested when ripe just the same as corn or wheat. Mature trees occupy forest space, consume sunlight and soil food needed by the faster-growing young trees.

The oft-stated policy of Weyerhaeuser Timber Company is:

"To operate the properties entrusted to its management in such a way as to provide a permanent and profitable investment for capital; to bring about continuous, profitable and enjoyable employment for men; and to furnish uninterrupted supplies of forest products to society."
