The Student Union Building may well be called the "Hub of Campus life," for here are found the Associated Student Office, the Publications Office, the cafeteria, the bookstore and the sorority rooms. The SUB also houses a number of out-of-town women students.
Administration
R. Franklin Thompson, A.M., B.D., Ph.D
President, College of Puget Sound
THE COLLEGE OF PUGET SOUND is proud of its students and Alumni. Standing, as we do today, at the dawn of a great new age, there is more need than ever before for men and women trained in the splendid heritage of "Our College of Dreams."

This has been a dynamic year in the life of our Alma Mater. Doubled enrollment, new buildings, landscaping and new faculty have all made it a year of development and interesting evolution. The excellent spirit shown by the student body has been genuinely appreciated by the Administration.

The College is eager to serve her students and Alumni. With deep-seated joy and real pride she follows the development of your career.

R. Franklin Thompson, President
MANY NEW PROFESSORS were added to the faculty at the beginning of the fall semester and throughout the year, but none held more interest for the student body than the Norwegian exchange professor, Dagfinn Skaar.

Professor Skaar came from Norway in exchange for Professor Christian Miller, who had been CPS's registrar. While in Norway, Professor Miller occupied the chair of American Literature at the University of Oslo.
DR. TODD, president emeritus of the College of Puget Sound, came to the College in 1913, and for 29 years held the office of president. For the past few years he has been writing the history of the College.

Dr. Todd was recently honored with the announcement that the new men's dorm will be known officially as "Edward H. Todd Hall."

Dr. Thompson welcomes Howard Hitchcock, president of the Freshman Class.
Class rivalry throughout the college year is most intense between the freshman and the sophomore classes. In the fall of this year the annual Bag Rush was held for the last time. In future years a similar affair called the Frosh-Soph Scrap will be held.

This fall various evening Pep Rallies were held on the Campus, with huge bonfires as the main attraction. At one of the rallies an effigy of PLC was lynched and burned and later the same evening many students visited the PLC Campus where students from the two colleges rivalled in school yells and songs.

IN ITS SECOND POST-WAR season, the music department, under the direction of Professor Clyde Keutzer, added many new faculty members to its staff, making the organization of concert, worship and marching bands possible.

The Campus Trio maintained its popularity throughout the year and two new string ensembles were recognized on the Campus. These two groups have played for numerous occasions.

Harley Stell, music manager, and Prof. Keutzer, head of the music department.
THE ADELPHIAN CONCERT CHOIR of 40 mixed voices gave concerts this past year in twenty-two cities of Washington and Idaho. The home concert was given April 24.

Officers were: Mary Agnes Gallagher, president; Irene Frarn, secretary-treasurer, and Willard Norman, librarian. Prof. Keutzer is the choir director. Accompanist was Jewell Gueffroy.

In December the Adelphians joined forces with numerous church choirs to present Handel’s “Messiah,” which was broadcast over the radio. Over 1700 attended the performance, at which guest artists from Seattle and two of the music faculty were presented as soloists.

THE WORKSHOP BAND, under the direction of Leroy Ostransky, played for several college dances and gave a concert in the spring. The program included many original arrangements by members of the modern arranging class.
THE MARCHING AND CONCERT BAND is under the direction of Prof. John O'Connor. There were approximately 40 students in the band this year. During the fall the marching band played for football games and attracted much favorable comment because of its interesting marching formations between halves.

The Concert band, with the help of the Knights, put on an excellent Campus Radio Theater program in the spring and gave its concert as part of the Spring Music Festival on May 23.
THE WOMEN'S CHORUS and the Men's Chorus are open to any students who wish to sing. There are no tryouts as there are for the Adelphians.

Under the direction of Prof. Ivan Rasmussen, the choirs participated in the annual Dickens' Christmas Carol presentation. They also sang for chapel programs and the May Day ceremonies.

THE PUGET SOUND SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA is under the directorship of Prof. Raymond Vaught. There were approximately 65 players in the orchestra this year, over half of which were college students. The remaining members were people of the community who were interested in symphonic work and wished to play with the organization.
STUDENTS IN the dramatics department are known on the Campus as the Campus Playcrafters. They are directed by Martha Pearl Jones, head of the speech and dramatics department.

Student dramatic manager this year was Robert Lyon. Dramatics department assistants were Irene Fearn and Elizabeth Anderberg.

On Friday, October 11th, the sixth annual Freshman play night was held. Plays given were: "Evening Dress Indispensable," "Spot Cash," "Night Club," "Persia Presents" and "Long Distance." Specialty numbers were given between plays. All actors were chosen from the Freshman class.

Directors of the plays were the following upper-classmen: Elizabeth Anderberg, Art Hansen, Bonny Jean Steele, Bill O'Connell, Irene Fearn, Peggy Rough, Emily Harold, Miriam Manke, Carol Todd, and Harmon Weston.

The Choral Readers appeared throughout the year, giving programs for various Tacoma clubs. They presented their recital March 21, in which they featured The People, Yes by Sandberg.

Members of the Choral Reading group were Sheila Lamar, leader, Inez Doherty Meyer, assistant leader, Gretchen Swayze, Barbara Rowe, Zelda Lay, Beverly Farrell, Ruth Haggerness, Emily Harold, Bonny Steele, Frances Huston, Beth DeMille, Bob Lyon, Aleatha Dieatrick, Helen Strong, Bob Huston and Troy Strong.

Dickens' Christmas Carol was presented at Christmastime in cooperation with the music department. For the third consecutive year Marshall Campbell played the part of Scrooge.
THE ANNUAL HOMECOMING PLAY, "The Call of the Banshee," was a mystery farce in three acts involving an Amazon Indian, two doctors, a superstitious Irish housekeeper, a deaf servant, a Swedish maid, a couple in love, a stubborn uncle, two negro mammys and a fainting girl.

The sheriff and his deputy kept the audience in hysterics as they tried to solve the baffling riddle of two mysterious deaths. The murderer was eventually discovered and the play proceeded to a romantic end.
"The Road to Yesterday" was based on an English legend which says that "whatever you wish on Midsummer's Eve will come true and remain true until it is unwished on another Midsummer's Eve."

It is Midsummer's Eve when the play opens and Elspeth Tyrell makes a wish that takes her and all the people she knows back to the year 1603. Through two acts she and her friends live in the past, but in the fourth act Elspeth wakes to find that though she has only been dreaming she has found the man she loves.
UNDER THE LEADERSHIP of Robert McNary, the forensic department has enjoyed a very successful season. At the beginning of the year, an office was acquired—an office in which certificates and records are kept, and where debaters gather. The debaters also have a trophy case all to themselves in upper Jones Hall.

The members of the debate group this year have participated in several practice tournaments.

There have been a number of trips to Seattle for debates. In Tacoma, debaters have spoken on three radio programs, in several churches, before civic bodies, and in several chapels.

C.P.S. participated in the Western Association of Teachers of Speech tournament at San Jose, California, in November. At that tournament, Yvonne Battin won first place in junior women's oratory. Harriet Fiske and Louise Kipper took second in senior women's debate; Louise Kipper won second in women's extemporaneous speaking; and Robert Tollefson and Robert McNary took third in senior mens' debate. There were over twenty colleges participating in this tournament.

After a couple of practice tournaments, the debaters again took a trip—this time to Linfield College at McMinnville, Oregon. Over thirty colleges were striving for honors at this tournament, which was held during the last of February and the first of March. Yvonne Battin took first place in senior womens' oratory; Yvonne Battin and Beverly Van Horn took third place in junior womens' debate.

Louise Kipper, womens' debate manager, was in charge of the high-school tournament held at C.P.S. during February. There were over 400 students here from thirty-five schools throughout the state. Robert McNary was in charge of the Tyro Tournament held here in March.

The debaters of the college have taken at least eight cups this year—one in San Jose, one in Linfield, and six at the Tyro Tournament.

Washington Alpha chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, a national forensic society, is located on the C.P.S. campus. Lyle Lindelien is president; Harriet Fiske, vice president; Mary Jean Kean, secretary; Walt Loewenstein, treasurer; and Robert McNary, publicity chairman.

Dr. Battin, debate advisor, is one of the founders of Pi Kappa Delta. He holds membership certificate No. 2 and key No. 8. Other faculty members include Dr. Regester, Dr. Shaffer, and Dr. Thompson. This year, Pi Kappa Delta sponsored the high-school tournament here in February.

The national Pi Kappa Delta tournament, the first since 1942, was held this year at Bowling Green, Ohio. There were about 120 colleges and universities represented. C.P.S. returned with honors. Yvonne Battin won top spot in women's oratory, Lyle Lindelien placed third in discussion, and Lloyd Gaddis took second for his part in stunt night.

Emma Nelson, Spring Business Manager

Leo Butigan and Donna June Bennett, Page Editors

LOIS PHILLIPS, Editor

Dave Parker, Assistant Editor.

STRIVING TO GO MODERN the Puget Sound Trail adopted a new masthead this year and shortened its name to The Trail.

Under the editorship of Lois Phillips, The Trail had a very successful year with 25 issues, one being printed every week except during vacation, closed periods and the printers' strike.

Handling the financial end of the paper were Joy Moberg in the fall semester and Emma Nelson in the spring term. In the fall Dixie James was assistant editor while in the spring Dave Parker handled this job. The sports department was headed by Clay Huntington in the fall and by Leo Butigan in the spring. Serving both semesters were Donna June Bennett as society editor and Mary Jackson as feature editor.

Renewing a practice which had been carried out in past years, the freshmen were in complete charge of one issue. Leonard Docherty was chosen editor and he was assisted by Barbara Breazeale. The edition was scheduled to come out just before spring vacation but just when the news was ready to be printed the printers went on strike. Proving that they couldn't be defeated, the freshmen put out the issue right after the spring recess.

Special enlarged issues of The Trail were printed on four different occasions. Two six-page issues, one in maroon ink for Homecoming and one covering the PNCC conference, were released. For Christmas an eight-page issue in green ink was printed while a senior issue was put out in maroon ink the last week of school.

Mrs. Margaree Whittlesey was faculty adviser.

EVERY FALL each student is issued a publication known as the LOG BOOK which informs the new and reminds the old students of the College rules, organizations, social activities and athletic events of the year. It also includes data pertaining to the various honoraries, A.S.C.P.S. departments and their activities, fraternity and sorority information, and the rules governing Freshman conduct.

The LOG BOOK this year was edited by Bob McNary, assisted by Bob Winskill, and included as a new feature the names of the officers of the organizations, clubs, fraternities and sororities.

Due to the lateness of ratifying the new A.S.C.P.S. Constitution, the LOG BOOK was incorporated with the annual WHO'S WHERE, also edited by Bob McNary. Assistant editor was Dorothy Rudolph. Regarded as one of the most valuable publications of the year, the WHO'S WHERE has as its only duty the listing of the names, addresses, and phone numbers of all students registered at the College.
Organizations
OFFICERS OF THE Intercollegiate Knights, National Sophomore service honorary for men, were James Wornstaff, Honorable duke; Robert Huston, worthy scribe; Paul Gingrich, chancellor of the exchequer; Carl Niwa, worthy recorder; Clarence Nelson, keeper of the mace; Clayton Anderson, social chairman; Prof. John O’Connor, advisor.

Log chapter activities began during Freshman Week in the fall of 1946 when the Knights helped with the registration procedure and orientation of the school’s largest freshman class to date.

Since that time, besides ushering at college functions, the Knights sponsored a Campus Radio Theater broadcast, emanating directly from the CPS auditorium, and also put on a Prince and Princess of Melody contest for the selection of soloists for the Workshop Band.

October 4th saw a well-managed rally parade which began in downtown Tacoma and ended up at the College with a huge victory bonfire. The Knights-sponsored float in the annual Homecoming parade November 9th aroused curiosity and much favorable comment—especially the two representatives, Andy Anderson and Clarence Nelson, who appeared as real Knights.

In December the Knights ushered for a combined choir production of the “Messiah,” decorated Jones Hall and Howarth Hall in Christmas fashion, together with the Spurs, and acted as “Santa” to the faculty and student body on December 18th. On this occasion the Knights, rigged in cotton whiskers, mustaches and eyebrows, and crepe-paper hats, passed out candy kisses to every student and professor, while traditional Christmas music was played by the band under the direction of the Knight’s advisor, Prof. O’Connor.

INTERCOLLEGIATE KNIGHTS
BEGINNING WITH THE FIRST DAY of Freshman Week, members of the Spurs, national sophomore women’s honorary, have taken an active part in campus life this year.

Their main services to the college, besides that of ushering at chapel and other school functions, were to assist in registering the school’s record student body and to serve as a nucleus around which the Loggerettes were organized.

Officers of the group were Beverly Johnson, president; Donna June Bennett, vice president; Aleatha Mae Dieatrick, secretary; Dorothy Lonergan, treasurer; Lois Phillips, editor; Mary Ellen Irsfeld, historian; and Neva Iverson, song leader.

Decorating Jones hall for Christmas, making Homecoming pompons, and constructing a daisy chain for last year’s May Day celebrations constituted some of the special projects of the Spurs.

Two representatives from this Spur chapter, Beverly Johnson and Aleatha Dieatrick, attended a regional Spur conference at Moscow, Idaho, while the whole CPS group was instrumental in the installation of a new chapter at Linfield College in Oregon.

To climax their year of fun and service, the Spurs tapped their pledges by awakening them at an early hour in the morning and serving them breakfast before first period classes.

Besides assisting at May Day ceremonies, the Spur pledges usher for the President’s senior reception, Baccalaureate and Commencement, and perform their traditional pledge duty of polishing the CPS trophies.

Fifteen outstanding freshman women are chosen on the basis of scholarship, character and participation in school activities to be Spur pledges in the spring, taking over their full responsibilities the next fall.
OTLAH, senior women's scholastic honorary, has standards very similar to those of the national Mortar Board. Membership is limited to those senior girls who maintained a B grade average during their first two and a half years at CPS and who also participated in College activities.

The Otlah pin is the golden acorn. Advisor for the group is Mrs. Raymond S. Seward.

Officers for the year were: President, Kerttu Kahn; vice president, Louise Kipper; secretary, Lucile Randall; treasurer, Alice Ann Cross, and historian, Anna-Marie Vaughn.

The main activity of the year was the decorating of the large window between the first and second floors in Jones hall at Christmastime.

Toward the end of the spring semester next year's members were tapped in a special chapel program. The pledges were later initiated at the annual spring tea.
MU SIGMA DELTA, CPS honorary organization which is comparable to the national Phi Beta Kappa, had as its president this year Dr. P. R. Fehlandt. Other officers were Dr. Helen Fossum, vice president; Miss Frances Chubb, recording secretary, and Betty Jane Cappa, corresponding secretary.

A grade average of not less than 3.25 for seniors and 3.5 for juniors is the major qualification for membership. New members are initiated in May. No more than ten per cent of the graduating class may be included as members.

Faculty members joining the group this year were Dr. Robert Sprenger and Dr. Gordon Alcorn. Seniors in the group were Lucile Randall, Beatrice Young, Louise Kipper, Lois Lynch and Inez Doherty Meyer. Other seniors, who became members in their junior year, were Janice Lindeman, Betty Jane Cappa and Jing Ho Ling.

Juniors were Jeanne Mickens, Marshall Campbell, Merle Legg, Sara Jeane Mather, Sheila Lamar and Kathryn Hultgren.
THE PURPOSE of the O.T. club is to enable the group of Occupational Therapy students to become better acquainted with one another, to hear outside speakers, to promote interest in the profession, to keep up with the developments in the field, and to maintain a registry of alumnae members.

President was Bea Young; secretary-treasurer, Jan Blake, and historian, Dixie Simmons.

LOGGERETTES were originally organized as a drill team to march with the band. The organization was formed around a nucleus of Spurs. Loggerettes became an official organization on the Campus with the presentation of their constitution to Central Board.

Members can be identified by their white sweaters and dark skirts.
NEWLY FORMED this year, the Pep Club was organized to promote College yells and school spirit at all games. Members of the organization could be easily identified by uniform white sweaters displaying log emblems.

Officers were: President, Bruce Rector; vice president, Charles Howe; secretary-treasurer, Beverly MacDonald.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES of the Biology Club are field trips in and around the State, and care of the Museum of Natural History situated on the third floor of Howarth Hall.

Professor James R. Slater, head of the biology department, is the club advisor. Officers for the spring semester were: Merle Legg, president; Dick Eckert, vice president; Mary Ellen Irsfeld, secretary, and Galen Hoover, treasurer.
THE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB met the second Monday of every month this year in the homes of members. The purpose of the club is to give its members a better understanding of national and international affairs, which is done through discussion groups, outside speakers, forums, etc.

Two of the year's highlights were the entertaining of five UBC students on the Campus for two days and a trip to International House in Seattle.

Officers for the year were: Kathryn Hultgren, president; Janette Blake, vice president, and Ann Lowrie, secretary-treasurer. Advisor was Dr. Tomlinson.

SKI CLUB members often participate in intercollegiate competition with numerous colleges and universities throughout the West. The club sponsors the annual All-College Ski Day, the high school ski meet, and arranges for the showing of ski movies.

Officers this year were: Primo Rosellini, president, who was succeeded by Bob Church; Juanita Baumgartner and Ray Cason, vice presidents; Jenny Lewis and Peggy Rough, secretaries-treasurers; and Ken Hoggatt and Dick Eckert, social chairmen.
THE STUDENT CHRISTIAN Association is the local affiliate of the National Student YMCA-YWCA, and the World Student Christian Federation.

With a membership this year of about 140, the SCA met at Chapel time in the Little Chapel every Friday.

Officers were: President, Troy Strong; vice president, Robert Huston; secretary, Barbara Lindsay; and treasurer, Lois Vick. Advisors were Dr. Marvin Schafer and Robert McFarland.

THE ART CLUB was re-organized this semester after its absence during the war years. It was formed for the purpose of bringing together all students interested in any phase of art.

Each meeting was held in the art studio where members carried on individual work. Other activities were field trips, discussions and exhibits.

Officers were Dale Frost, president; Dennis D. Livingston, vice president, and Maxine Lister, secretary. Professor Kohler was the advisor.
TO BE A MEMBER of the Junior Affiliate Group of the American Chemical Society on the CPS Campus a student must be working toward a major or minor in chemistry.

Membership entitles a student to the society's publication, and to attendance at the national and Puget Sound sectional meetings, which feature noted chemists from all parts of the country.

President of this year's group was Bill Causin.

THE PSYCHOLOGY CLUB, Alpha Psi Chi, was reactivated in November after several years of inactivity due to the war. Gerry Kirwan served as president and Marie Switzer as secretary-treasurer during the fall semester. In the spring Arle Thayer was president, while Doreen Lockstone became secretary-treasurer.

The organization exists for psychology majors and minors and especially encourages anyone interested in psychology to attend the meetings.

FOR THE 15 GIRLS who live in the Student Union Building it is not known as such but is called Kittredge Hall. For the complete year Eileen Boyd has served as president of the group.

The residents of Kittredge do not have any social affairs of their own but go together with the girls of Anderson Hall for all activities.

Mrs. Lyle Ford Drushel, dean of women, is in charge of the girls. She is assisted by Inez Doherty Meyer, who has served for two years, and by Betty Harold.
Originally built to accommodate 36 girls, the bulging walls of Anderson Hall housed a record total of 90 students this year.

Three girls were assigned to every double room, two to all the single rooms, and 29 freshmen and three sophomores to the basement, formerly used as a recreation room.

Two men shared the feminine domicile—Troy Strong, who, with his wife, Helen, occupied a basement room, and Professor Dagfinn Skaar, Norwegian exchange instructor who lived in the guest room the second semester.

Adding to the international atmosphere of the dormitory was Signe Denstad, Norwegian exchange student who ventured into the basement quarters the second semester and decided to stay. She is the first foreign student to live in Anderson Hall.

Fall officers for the “dorm” were Thelma Hardy, president; Viletta Rowe, vice president (who served as president in place of Thelma); Neva Iverson, secretary; Elenor Roundtree, treasurer; Harriett Warne, historian; Juanita Baumgartner, sergeant-at-arms. Lucile Randall served as vice president.

Taking over these offices in the spring were Natalie Hyndman, Patricia Robinson, Janice Hitchcock, Gwen Jones, Jennie Lewis and Mary Jackson.

Because of the crowded social calendar, the dorm’s only function this year was a picnic held at Point Defiance.

Notable among the year’s events were the beginning of the landscaping around the hall, and the installing of a “Coke” machine to revive the spirits of cramming inmates.
THE MAJOR PORTION of the student body this year was classed as Independents and the Independent program was enlarged to meet the needs of this larger organization.

The Sadie Hawkins Day Dance was revived this year and a very successful affair was held in the Student Union Building in the fall. The Independent candidate for Homecoming Queen, Beverly MacDonald, was elected to rule over the Homecoming festivities in November.

In February another dance, Lamplighter Serenade, was held at the SUB with the Workshop Band providing the music.

President of the Indes this year was Louise Kipper. Other officers were Kerttu Kahn, vice president; Bill O'Connell, secretary; Charles Howe, treasurer, and Bob McNary, sergeant-at-arms.

Class representatives to the executive board were Betty Jane Cappa, Senior Class; Marie Switzer, Junior Class; Mary Jean Kean, Sophomore Class, and Kenneth Wagenblast, Freshman Class.
KAPPA PHI invites into its membership every girl of Methodist preference. Although the club has a Greek letter name, it is not a sorority and its membership has always included both sorority and independent girls.

The program work of the organization is built around a theme chosen by the chapters each year and developed with the aid of the national program chairman.

Chi chapter had to have a new sponsor this year and Mrs. Willis Carruth was elected. Officers for the year were: President, Anna-Marie Vaughn; vice president, Carol Todd; secretary, Donna June Bennett; treasurer, Polly Packard; historian, Donna Maclnnis; program chairmen, Dorothy Kostenbader and Lucile Randall, and chaplain, Helen Strong.

Chi chapter is a unique one in many ways. It is the only Kappa Phi chapter in a Methodist school. Most others are in state colleges or universities. It is the only chapter with a faculty sponsor, and the only chapter without a Wesley House on the Campus.
INTER-SORORITY COUNCIL has as its main objective the coordination of all sorority activities on the Campus. It also helps to explain the creed and purpose of Greek letter groups within the College. The Council supervises all rushing activities during the year, making the rules whereby the sororities are governed during rushing.

Membership is composed of the four sorority presidents and one representative from each sorority. The office of president rotates from one sorority to the next and is held by that sorority's representative for one semester.

Fall president of the Council was Mary Agnes Gallagher, while Vernace Barton served as spring president.

The annual Inter-Sorority Dance was held during the spring semester, as was the annual tea which had as its purpose the welcoming of all new women on the Campus.
WITH DICK LaPORE as president and George Miller as secretary-treasurer, Inter-fraternity council supervised fall rushing activities for the five fraternities, setting up the rules and distributing information in the early weeks of the semester. Clarence Schorer went to the University of Washington as a C.P.S. delegate to observe fraternity rushing on the Seattle campus, and brought his ideas back to the council where he reported on current trends.

Spring officers, Donald Burnett, president, and Clarence Schorer, secretary, laid early plans for the annual semi-formal dance. This item occupied the brief council meetings until the Inter-fraternity dance occurred on April 12, at Fellowship Hall. A colorful dance was assured when the Greek letter representatives decided to order carnations of different colors to designate the affiliation of all men attending. Under the able organizing of co-chairmen Robert Seabloom and Clarence Schorer, the dance lived up to its reputation as one of the outstanding social events of the season.

To wind up the affairs on May 1, the council gathered for an informal dinner at the 'Top O’ the Ocean, to hear a member of the U. of W. Inter-fraternity council, who spoke chiefly on the subject of national fraternities.

ATHLETICS

Coach Frank Patrick

Football Fans
The athletic season returned to CPS this year with all its pre-war glory. The football squad, which had been inactive during the war years, was newly formed by Coach Patrick with most of its membership made up of members of the Freshman Class.

In spite of a very light team, and inexperienced players, the Loggers did all right for themselves. The team fought against all members of the conference, and branched outside of the conference to play PLC in the traditional rivalry games of the school.

(3 wins, 4 losses, 1 tie)
Basketball has always been one of the major sports at CPS. This year was no exception to the rule. CPS retained its leadership in the hoop sport and ended up tied for third in the conference.
RESERVE BASKETBALL

The reserve squad had one of its most successful seasons this year, taking on all comers and virtually sweeping the field in outside competition.

SWIMMING TEAM

Wally Streeter headed up the forming and coaching of the swimming team this year. Made up of men who were first in swimming while in high school and who broke records in intra-mural competition, the team was an excellent group that made a name for the college in all types of competition.
THE LOGGER NETMEN made 26 out of a possible 28 points in their conference play this year. Lyle Morton coached the squad. Number one man on the team was Wally Cavanaugh, while Don Heselwood held down the number two spot.

The 1947 schedule was as follows:
March 21—Pacific-Tacoma (rained out)
March 29—U.B.C.-Vancouver, B. C. (rained out)
April 4—Willamette—Salem, Oregon, 7-0 (won)
April 7—Portland—Portland, Ore., 7-0 (won)
April 11—Pacific—Forrest Grove, 6-1 (won)
April 12—Linfield (cancelled)
April 18—Western Washington College, Bellingham (rained out)
April 30—P. L. C., Tacoma (cancelled)
May 3—P. L. C., Tacoma (cancelled)
May 7—U. of Wash., Tacoma, 1-6 (lost)
May 9—U. B. C., Tacoma, 6-1 (won)
May 17—Conference Matches at McMinnville (Cavanaugh lost first round; Heselwood and Mosich made the finals and then lost to Idaho.)
May 20—Western Wash. College, Tacoma, 7-0 (won)
May 23—Willamette, Tacoma (cancelled)

THE CPS GOLF TEAM undoubtedly had the greatest amount of success of any varsity squad taking the field wearing the Logger colors this year. Losing only two matches during the entire season the linksters trounced all opposition in and around this area.

Captain of the team was Lew Staples. Other members were Dick Nicholson, Les Stephens, Ernie Althuser, Jack Wilson and Fred Campbell. Mal Stevens served as manager.

The year’s golf schedule was as follows:
March 21 Pacific—Tacoma (won)
March 29 U. B. C.—Vancouver, B. C. (won)
April 4 Willamette—Salem (won)
April 5 U. of Portland—Portland (won)
April 18 U. of Wash.—Seattle (lost)
April 21 U. of Wash.—Tacoma (won)
April 25 P. L. C.—Tacoma (won)
May 3 P. L. C.—Parkland (won)
May 9 U. B. C.—Tacoma (lost)
This year saw the reviving of the old classical sports of track. Shot put, discus, high and broad jumps, pole vaulting were all handled well by the Logger trackmen and Coach Madden.

These pictures show some of the Loggers in action with pole-vaulting, hurdles, broad jump, high jump, shot put and discus.
Since the baseball season started late this year there was not enough time to build up the material available into as efficient a unit as otherwise could have been done.

In spite of this drawback the players turned in a creditable year. Patrick coached the squad.
Under the capable leadership of Bill Madden, with the helpful assistance of Art Demers and the respective managers, the men's intramural athletics once again took its place on the calendar of extra-curricular activities here at CPS.

In a meeting with the intramural managers representing the Independents and each fraternity, it was decided that "A" and "B" leagues be formed. Each organization would enter a squad in the loop. This system worked out very advantageously throughout the school year, giving room for many more men to participate than would be otherwise possible.

Many were the difficulties that Madden faced when he took over the post as Intramural Director last September. The program had been practically out of existence since 1941, consequently he had to start from "scratch."

The football season was anything but a howling success as the intramural spirit had not as yet been aroused to a fever pitch. With the initiation of the basketball campaign in the latter part of January, interest increased by leaps and bounds. A major part of this success was due to the fact that all the cage encounters were played at night in the gym. Madden and Demers found that more men were available at night to participate. All the other sports were played in the afternoon with the result showing low participation.

After the hoop season, bowling and volleyball came to the foreground of the sports picture. Bowling on the whole can be labeled as a success. Each of the fraternities and the Independents entered teams in both the "A" and "B" leagues. In the field of volleyball, however, interest fell to a low ebb. Many of the teams lost valuable points in forfeiting contests.

Perhaps the outstanding event of the spring was the two day track meet held March 27 and 28. Enthusiasm was high throughout the meet with all those taking part enjoying a grand time.

The "A" league produced many an exciting contest, with the Indies, Zetes, and Chi Nus battling right down to the wire for the coveted cage crown. The Indies came out on top. Although going through the season undefeated the Indies were hard pressed in every game they entered and rightfully deserve the title of "A" hoop champions.

A personal scoring duel between the Indies' Mel Light and the Chi Nu's Willard Norman developed as the campaign progressed. This duel came to a climax when Light canned 34 points in one game and Norman retaliated a few nights later with 38. Norman's point barrage is believed to be an all-time intramural high for a game.

Although this hoop race was not as hotly contested as the "A's," it did develop a fine brand of basketball. The Zetes were the class of the league and as a result of this fact, a two-way race took place for second position between the Delta Kaps and the Indies. The final outcome showed a deadlock for second place in the final standings.

Carol Hamilton, W.A.A. Manager
Mrs. Kenneth Johnson, W.A.A. Director

ONE HUNDRED AND THREE WOMEN took advantage of the fun, training and companionship offered by the Women’s Athletic Association in its inter-class and inter-organization sports program. The cabinet for W.A.A. this year consisted of Betty Jane “B.J.” Cappa, president; Carol Hamilton, general manager; Peggy Rough, vice president; Dixie Simmons, secretary; Lois Fassett, treasurer; Dorothy Kostenbader, program chairman; Ruth Potter, publicity chairman, and Mrs. Kenneth Johnson, adviser.

The gym always seemed to be alive with girls turning out for one of the 10 activities that the W.A.A. members participated in. The managers of the various sports were: Doreen Lockstone and Dixie Simmons, hockey; Lois Fassett and Frances Swenson, basketball; Ruth Potter, volleyball; Rosa Mae Monger, badminton; Marie Switzer, speedball; Elenor Roundtree, ping-pong; Janice Lindeman, horseshoes; Elouise Cruver, tennis; Betty Jane Cappa, archery, and Dorothy Kostenbader, bowling.

In the early part of the spring semester
W.A.A. cleaned and equipped one of the rooms in the downstairs of the gym for a W.A.A. lounge. Mrs. Johnson also moved her office to this room. Now the girls have a wonderful place to relax.

The W.A.A. banquet was held on May 6 and made a perfect ending to an active year. The event especially was important for all those who received their awards. To receive the first year award which is a chenille letter “P,” a girl must earn six hundred points. By earning an additional six hundred points a girl is entitled to a two-stripe school sweater which is awarded by the Associated Students. For each additional six hundred points up to a grand total of 2400 points another stripe is awarded. This makes it possible for a senior to earn a four-stripe sweater during her four years at school.

First year awards were earned by Joy Adams, Pat Blumenstein, Christine Clemensen, Charlotte Coors, Gwen Dean, Gretchen Ernst, Beverly Farrell, Jackie Gibson, Phyllis Kurrell, Sheila Lamar, Maxine Lister, Dorothy Lonergan, Nancy Mandell, Barbara Noble, Marian Newman, Norene Tierney, Jean Tippie, Beverly Van Horn, Gwen Roberts and Catherine Funke.

Sweaters were awarded to Donna June Bennett, Vernetta Harvlie, June Hyatt, Beverly Johnson, Dorothy Kostenbader, Doris Mitchell, Pearl Moberg, Ruth Potter, Barbara Precheck, Elenor Roundtree, Dorothy Schut, Lois Vick, Harriett Warne and Bea Young. The third stripe was earned by Helen Caputo, Lois Fassett, Doreen Lockstone, Peggy Rough and Marie Switzer. The fourth and final stripe was presented to Virginia Barker, Betty Jane Cappa, Elouise Cruver and Janice Lindeman.

Each year white sweaters are presented to two outstanding senior girls who have earned the 2400 points. Betty Jane Cappa and Janice Lindeman were the recipients of these treasured awards this year.

Another high point in the year for the girls is the awarding of the trophies. For the first time in twelve years the Independents won the athletic cup. This trophy is presented to the sorority or independent group which has earned the most points toward it during the inter-organization sports competition. Four sports, basketball, volleyball, badminton and bowling, were engaged in for this award. By winning all its games the Delta Alpha Gamma sorority received the basketball cup. A new award, the volleyball trophy, was awarded for the first time this year with the Alpha Beta Upsilon sorority being the first to win it.

For each major sport an All-Star team is picked. The girls are chosen on the basis of outstanding sportsmanship, ability, improvement and teamwork. The teams are picked by the sport manager, the general manager, W.A.A. president and the adviser.

Next year’s W.A.A. cabinet has already made many plans for the coming season of activities.
The girls who make up this new cabinet are Lois Fassett, president; Peggy Rough, general manger; Doreen Lockstone, vice president; Gwen
Dean, secretary; Dorothy Kostenbader, treasurer; Vernetta Harvlie, publicity chairman, and Ruth Potter, program chairman. A new adviser will be chosen as Mrs. Johnson will not be returning to school next year.
