Dedication

When this man came to the College of Puget Sound in 1924, he planned to stay only one year. But such was not his fate. Like others who had come before him, he, too, was caught in the thrills and experiences of a growing liberal arts college. So he stayed on.

Twelve years later, in a small room, with a few ragged maps, and a cracker-barrel full of rocks, he started the geology department at the College of Puget Sound. From that day forth, Professor Frederick A. McMillin taught and worked to make the CPS geology department what it is today — one of the finest in the Pacific Northwest.

To some scientists the call of research is the only thought. To others the desire to teach the sciences is uppermost. So it is with "Mac," as his students call him. His role has been to prepare young men to go forth and make contributions to the advancement of science and mankind.

To Frederick A. McMillin, geologist, and teacher of future geologists, the 1954 TAMANAWAS is dedicated.

Foreword

When an Indian youth was ready to enter manhood he went into the woods, alone, and he fasted. After days alone, thinking and praying, he saw some creature — or thought he saw it — which seemed of special significance. And the spirit of that creature, be it frog, bear or owl, became his Tamanawas — a link between himself and the spirit world. He did not speak of this spirit to others. But it was there to sustain him all his life.

And we have tried, too, to catch in print and pictures the special spirit of the College of Puget Sound, the things that set our college apart from other colleges, the special qualities that make CPS.

As "Tamanawas" means dedication to the highest, so the College of Puget Sound seeks to make available to her students the best in education. Here awakening youth finds association with great minds, high ideals, and a way of life which creates opportunities for tomorrow.

1954 records the close of the College's sixty-second year. It also means graduation for nearly two hundred seniors. As these sons and daughters of the maroon and white go out, they leave a touch of sadness within the heart; but at the same time they leave us their joy of achievement for work well done. We shall follow their careers with personal interest because we see in them leadership for today. The College of Puget Sound is proud to have an influence in the moulding of the destiny of our age.

Adjusting the crown

Looking over the bell
One September day in 1950 the College of Puget Sound was invaded by a group of eager individuals who, in a few days, would become the green beanied Freshman Class. Warren Hunt was elected president of the Class of '54 and started organizing this group of individuals into a closely knit class that desired education, activities, and a lot of fun.

During their sophomore year, Warren Hunt was again given a vote of confidence and he continued for another year as class president. Members of the class of '54 were making their names familiar on the campus.

As this outstanding group of people became upperclassmen, Jolly Johnston took over as prexy and led them up the college ladder. The Class of '54 foiled the Senior Sneak, found the hatchet, won the Campus Day banner for the third straight year and took over the campus leadership.

Then, led by Don Boesel, they moved into their final year. Mums were sold at the Homecoming game, the hatchet was moved around the campus, and plans were made for the sneak, graduation, and for the future. This group of individuals who had entered the halls of the college as frosh were graduating as a Class of '54. After graduation they will go in many directions, but they will never forget those four wonderful years at the College of Puget Sound.

The Class of '57 entered its first week at CPS with high hopes and aspirations. Freshman week was a busy one what with signing up for classes, various tests being given, and a tea given for new entrants. All this took place under the heading of Freshman Orientation and Matriculation. Greek rush also took place during this time and so a busy time was had by all.

The Freshman Class had a lot of leaders in it for they had more than their share of student body presidents and valedictorians. They participated in the annual Freshman-Sophomore Tug of War at Homecoming and in the Freshman-Sophomore dance, "The Moon Is Blue."
Warren Hunt
ASCPS President

"...to provide an organization for promotion and control of student affairs, and to encourage student cooperation with the college administration and faculty in maintaining the standards of the college..."; this is the purpose of the Associated Students of the College of Puget Sound.

Warren Hunt ably led the Associated Students of the College of Puget Sound in a highly successful year. Minor changes in the constitution were made and Central Board, headed by Warren Hunt, made our school year one of the smoothest yet.

Warren was aided by Janet Johnston, vice-president, and Joyce Anderson, secretary. Faculty advisors were Gerard Banks, treasurer, and Ellery Capen, general manager.
Central Board

The governing body of the Associated Students of the College of Puget Sound is Central Board. Central Board is vested with the responsibility of appointing committee heads, supervising the control of A.S.C.P.S. finances, choosing publication heads and planning special campus events. Such college activities as athletics, dramatics, debate, music and all publications are under the auspices of this government.

The Finance Committee recommends to Central Board solutions and ideas on financial difficulties and consists of Warren Hunt, Jolly Johnstone, Joyce Anderson, Gerard Banks and Ellery Capen.
Convocation

This year’s Convocation Committee presented a number of outstanding programs. Faculty and student musical presentations, speakers and movies helped to insure the interest of the student body. The candidates for royal positions at dances and for other A.S.C.P.S. activities and class officers were also introduced.

Student Affairs

The Student Affairs Committee is composed of the president of A.S.C.P.S., Inter-Fraternity Council, Inter-Sorority Council, a member of the A.S.C.P.S. who is selected by the Student Body President with the approval of the Central Board and four faculty members who are appointed by the president of the college as chairman.
Rally Committee

The Rally Committee or "Rally Comm" as it is generally called, is the main spring of the school's pep. They are the ones who put up posters for the football, basketball, track and baseball games "to create and co-ordinate school spirit." They also sponsor all pep rallies and half-time entertainment besides co-ordinating the activities of the cheerleaders, the Athletic Department and the Student Body. Rally Comm was first formed in 1948 and in 1950 a Rally Committee constitution was passed which gives the organization seven officers, 14 members and 27 representatives, three from each sorority, fraternity and the Independents. This year's Rally Comm was headed by Don Boesel and assisting him were Jayne Strickland, secretary; Jane Mueller, treasurer; Jack Madsen, rally chairman, and Elizabeth Regester, stunt chairman.
The Tamanawas is the annual publication of the Associated Students of C.P.S. It is partly supported by student fees and advertising. The editor and business manager are elected by the Central Board, representing the students' choice; this year's editor was Evalyn Emert and the business manager was Jon Torgerson. The sports editor was Don Boesel and assistant editor, Karen Mortensen.

The Tamanawas is an united student effort resulting in a book that not only contains many memories but represents our school in many parts of the state. Every C.P.S. activity, from clubs and organizations to social activities of the Greek organizations, are listed as well as a complete sports coverage. The thick Tamanawas is carried away with pride, to exhibit and remember.
Closing a year of many "firsts," the staff of the C.P.S. Trail distributed the last issue May 11 and settled back with a well-earned sigh of relief.

Replacing the former narrative news-magazine with a tabloid format, Editor Scott McArthur and Advisor Ed Garrison expanded the publication schedule to 25 weekly issues. Distribution time was changed from Friday afternoons to Tuesday mornings and increased advertising volume found Richard Mosier, fall business manager, and Bob Linrothe, spring manager, rubbing their eyes with disbelief as, for the first time in several years, no year-end deficit was reported.

Initiating another new move, the staff brought forth in March the "Goof," annual humor issue.

Assisting in the publication of Trail were Roy LaPlante and Tom Lennon, fall sports and Greek editors, and their spring counterparts, Ron Frank and Joan Rivisto.
The Sigma Alpha Iota national music fraternity for women was installed on the College of Puget Sound campus in 1948. The 21 members are all music majors and minors actively participating in the music department.

Numerous activities included sponsoring of the Songfest, several recitals and a tea.

The officers for the year were J'Anna Sharrard, president; Marjorie Newhouse, vice-president; Donna Thorsen, recording secretary; Carolyn Newhouse, corresponding secretary; Kathy Polo, chaplain; Bonnie Joy Thompson, treasurer; and Gerry Gordon, editor.

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia had a busy and most successful year. In August they presented Leonard Ravergave, an alum, in an organ recital and Jess Smith, another alum, in a piano recital. November was the month in which they presented John Howard Walters, violinist, and Carl Svedberg, pianist. They presented a joint recital. In March La Vonne Dickson, an S.A.I. alum, was guest soloist in the American Music Program. Willard Norman, tenor, and Frank Niva, baritone, were also presented at the same time. Leonard Jacobsen and Gordon Bingham played a two-piano sonata.

The officers for the past year were Gordon Bingham, president; Bob Wilson, historian; Frank Marks, secretary, and Clem Carvalho, treasurer.
The C. P. S. Tacoma Symphony is composed of not only students of the College of Puget Sound but also members of the community, the total of which is about 75 members. They present two programs of symphonic music a year, in the fall and spring. They were under the direction of Mr. Bruce Rodgers when they combined with the chorus for the "Messiah" by Handel. (The above picture is taken from that presentation.)

Our newest addition to the faculty, Mr. Thomas Burris, was their conductor for this year in the absence of Mr. Raymond Vaught, who was on a leave of absence from the college. Mr. Burris put them through their paces with such numbers as "Overture and Allegro" by Couperin-Milhaud, Symphony No. 104 ("London") by Haydn, and "Choral Prelude and Fugue" by Bach.
Workshop Band

Leroy Ostransky’s Workshop Band went into its eighth year with possibly the best sounding group since 1949. In addition to the band’s fine sound, the modern dance band arranging class kept pace with the group by turning out some imaginative and swinging compositions and arrangements. Both the band and the arranging class were founded and are directed by Professor Ostransky, and judging from their success in the past, they’re here to stay.

The band played a fall semester convocation concert and culminated the year’s activities by presenting their annual spring concert in May.

C. P. S. Band

The C. P. S. Band found itself in lieu of a membership last fall but began to build rapidly under the baton of Thomas Burris. Mr. Burris started with a new modern rehearsal room which was soon filled with a few veterans from the band of 1953 and interested freshmen. After appearing at athletic contests at home and at M. L. C., not to mention pep rallies, the band settled down to work up a difficult concert.

The officers for this year’s band were Gary Aleshire, president; Bob Hinshaw, vice-president; Arlene Thompson, secretary, and Bonnie Joy Thompson, librarian.
Adelphian Choir

The Adelphian Concert Choir, with representatives from all the classes, was seen in two complete new outfits this year. The choir wore maroon blazers with the school emblem on them and grey slacks and skirts for afternoon concerts. For formal concerts the girls wore new formals that were backed by the boys' tuxedos.

The spring tour carried the Adelphians 2500 miles and into four states, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Oregon. In addition to the twenty concerts given on tour there were five concerts given locally which included a radio broadcast.

At Christmas the choir was given a two-day cruise to Victoria on the Thea-Foss by KTNT-TV, The News-Tribune and Henry Foss of the Foss Tugboat Company. The Adelphians were joined by the Metropolitan United Church Choir for a TV program from Victoria that was seen here and on a Canadian network. A complete recording of the choir concert was made by the Century Record Company.

Madrigal Choir

The College Madrigal Singers was founded by Mr. Bruce Rodgers in 1952. They are a group of 16 selected mixed voices specializing principally in the performance of vocal music of the 16th and 17th centuries.

They prepare two programs a year, a Christmas program and a spring program. There were eight performances of the Christmas program and three spring programs including radio and television broadcasts, and an International caroling tour to Victoria, British Columbia.

The spring concert featured the choir doing the traditional Madrigals and the seldom heard Carissimi's "Jephtha," a 17th century oratorio with a double string quartet and organ background.
“Speech, beautiful and just,” is the motto of Pi Kappa Delta and is the guide for all forensic department activities. They seek justice and fair play in all competitions. They compete with representatives from 32 states.

The records of wins are equal to that of any college on the Pacific coast. They never take less than five trophies per year. They hold the State High School Invitational Tournament which is the largest on the high school or college level in the United States.
Scholarship is also an important asset of the members of the forensic department. Four people have a 4.0 on the squad, with three freshmen who had a straight 4.0 in high school.

Next year the national tournament will be held at Redlands, California, and Dr. Battin has high hopes of his team coming out very close to the top.
C. P. S. has the honor of sponsoring the only Verse Choir in the Northwest. It was organized in 1940, and they are constantly in demand after they have prepared their programs. They work principally on a Christmas program in which they present a variety of well known Christmas readings. They presented one program to church organizations and the vocational school. On March 5 the annual Choral Reading was given, including a traveling section, the well known Broadway play, "Common Clay," a children's section in toyland, and the religious section. This program was presented to junior colleges and church groups.

This summer the Choral Readers are going to present a program for the national convention of the Rotary Club to be held in Seattle during the first of June.
Everything concerned with dramatics is under the auspices of the Campus Playcrafters who produce and act in productions and who have always been a big part of the activities of the campus. They present all-college plays, the Homecoming play, spring plays and sponsor the freshman one-act plays given early in the year. Previous experience in dramatics is not always a prerequisite as a person who is interested and willing to work is always needed.

The Homecoming play, "Murder in a Nunnery," was well received by a capacity audience, and the Drama Department went on to further triumphs with the Christmas play, "Why the Chimes Rang." For their spring activities the Campus Playcrafters blended more of their one-act plays with the faculty play.
The purpose of A. W. S. is to further scholarship, service and the cultural aims of all the women at C. P. S. They accomplish these ideals through the many activities carried on throughout the year. Some of these activities are the publishing of the Frosh Handbook, Freshman Orientation, SUB dances after the football and basketball games, maintaining a record library, conducting a career conference and sponsoring the Spring Festival and Spring Dance.

This organization is headed by Maris Anderson, president; Ruth Nicholson, vice-president; Donna Dettrich, secretary, and Robin Enscheide, treasurer. Their advisor is Mrs. Bennett.

Religious Emphasis

The main speaker, Dr. Robert E. Fitch from Berkeley, California, produced an inspiring Religious Emphasis Week when he presented many new ideas to our campus March 1-4.

The theme, "Conscience of a Christian Campus," brought forth ideas and questions which led to discussions, deeper thinking and a few conclusions.

Nancy Beeman and Bob Higley, co-chairmen of the week, planned the events with a group of interested students. These students organized a week of morning meditations, three main convocation hours with Dr. Fitch, a welcome breakfast, study classes, a large discussion group at Dr. Thompson's home, a luncheon for the Christian Education Fellowship and a Student Christian Council banquet.

The week was preceded by a retreat day for the faculty who studied and discussed educational possibilities on our campus. The retreat was organized by Dr. Phillips.

Mr. Magee, Dr. Phillips and Prof. Frederick were helpful Religious Emphasis Week advisors.

In early September the CPS gridders started the grueling routine of football turnouts. The squad consisted of green, eager freshmen talent mixed well with the experienced veterans. During the first two games the Loggers showed promise. Then came the disappointing night in Richland where everything went wrong and the Loggers were defeated in their first conference game. From then on they came battling back, overcoming injuries, rain and mud to gain a share of the Evergreen Conference title. Every man played his very best every minute he was in the game. Success was not due to any one performer, but the combined efforts of the entire squad.

Several Loggers were honored on the Evergreen Conference All-Star teams. Back Sandy de Carteret and End Lou Grzadzielewski were honored on the first team. Walt Espeland, Dick Graham and Warren Logan were selected for the second team.

A Logger breaks into the clear.
John P. Heinrick coached his football team to a share of the Evergreen Conference crown for the fourth time since the Conference was set up in 1948. This year, as in the past, the Loggers had a well-balanced offense and defense which kept them on the winning side of the ledger, even though they had many bad breaks.

This was also the year for the Totem Pole to return to the CPS campus after spending a year at PLC. The Loggers handily defeated their cross-town rivals twice during the season.

Since he is only losing three men off this year’s squad, Coach Heinrick is dreaming of an even better team next year.

With only five returning lettermen, Coach Heinrick started molding the ninth CPS basketball squad of his career. When the season was just getting under way, the Logger mentor received a tremendous blow when Clarence Tiessen, tallest man on the squad, was declared ineligible by Evergreen Conference officials. After a slow start in December, the short Loggers improved steadily and ended the season in third place in the Evergreen Conference and possessing a 12-win 12-loss overall season record.

The future of the Loggers looks bright. From this year’s squad only Warren Moyles will be lost by graduation. Moyles, captain, high scorer and All-Evergreen Conference forward, will be a big loss but with at least 12 experienced men returning, the CPS basketball future is certainly bright.
The Loggers opened their basketball campaign against the Falcons in Seattle. The CPS five showed plenty of hustle and drive. Both games were played on even terms till the last quarter, when the Loggers pulled away.
In mid-December the Bearcats arrived on the CFS maples for the renewal of an ancient rivalry. The Loggers lost out in a hard-fought battle the first night, but gained their revenge the following night with an impressive victory.

The short, scrappy, and hustling Logger squad battled bitterly against the tall, nationally ranked Chieftains in both contests, but went down in defeat. The Chiefs knew, however, that they had been through two tough ball games.
One of the best Thunderbird teams in recent years made the CPS squad hustle to win the first game of the series. At Vancouver the tables were turned and the Loggers lost a close one the last minute.
At the Totem Tourney in Vancouver, the Loggers found the Vikings hard to beat. In the two league contests, the Maroon and White cagers found things a little easier.

Captain Warren Moyles goes up for one against Vikings.
After dropping the first game to their arch rival, the Loggers went back to Parkland to take the thriller from the Lutes. The rubber game of the series was a thriller all the way, with PLC getting out on top in the second overtime.
The hustling Loggers made the tall Pirates work for their two victories. In Spokane, the Loggers kept the score even up to the last three minutes. At CPS, the Pirates didn’t get a commanding lead until the last quarter. Too much Phil Jordan.

Arm in arm, but no ball.

Central took a fairly easy victory from the Loggers in a pre-season contest at Ellensburg, but when the chips were down, CPS came through with two spectacular victories. The conference game at Central was decided in the last minute of an overtime contest.

The Fieldhouse

Fieldhouse manager, Ted Droettboom, worked night and day to keep the Logger pavillion in shape. The massive structure housed the home show, style show, road shows, circuses, and all classes of basketball games. Besides his regular duties of manager, Ted scheduled half time activities for athletic contests and promoted CPS sports.

In the athletic office, secretary Lorraine Zuber continuously worked over forms, letters and the ever-ringing telephone. Jack Nelson had another important job in the athletic office, that of keeping statistics on Logger teams and sending out press releases.

Down in the equipment room Mr. Lewis was busy handing out paraphenalia to the athletes.

Wrestling

A group of CPS students who had done some wrestling in high school, decided to organize a team without any financial support from the College. They secured the services of Phil Johnson as coach. They started turning out and scheduling meets. Their record was a commendable one; three wins, three losses and one tie, against some of the best teams in the Northwest.

Next year they hope that wrestling will be included in the regular athletic budget. During the past year all the expenses were paid by the team members and the coach. If the enthusiasm of this small group of students grows, wrestling will certainly become an important part of the athletic program of the College.
Some twenty hopefuls turned out for Coach Larson's call for tracksters. Much of the squad was made up of new men with only Odey Victor, Newell Gragg, Clarence Tiessen and Lou Grzadzielewski returning from last year's squad.

Poor weather early in the season necessitated much indoor practice.

The squad had plenty of spirit and will show much improvement as the season progresses.
When first signs of spring appeared on the campus, the Logger tee men pulled their clubs out of the closet and started warming up for the 1954 golf season. The nucleus of the squad was returning lettermen Ray Aest, Warren Moyles, Del Anderson and Dick Baker, plus newcomers Leland Waite, Marv Christianson and Bob McDonald.

Lead by Evergreen Conference Singles Champion Bill Medin, the Logger netmen braved cold wind and rain to ready themselves for the opening meets. Other returnees besides Medin from last year's squad are George Pearson and Bill Rush. Newcomers Babe Buholm, Dave Berg, Erle Tallman and Bob Dalton are battling for the remaining positions on the squad.
Baseball

Cold weather and heavy rains kept Coach Hemel's baseballers inside for most of their pre-season practice. With only Joe Stortini, Russ Wilkerson and Don Rasmusson returning from last year's squad, the fate of the CPS baseball success rests upon the shoulders of the promising group of newcomers.

After opening against Seattle University, the Loggers meet Seattle Pacific, Western Washington, St. Martins and PLC.

Skiing

As the cold winter winds chilled the snow covered slopes, the CPS ski team traveled throughout the Northwest to compete against the top teams of the area. Under the leadership of Dr. Sprenger, the Logger slatmen met such teams as University of Washington, Washington State, University of Idaho, Wenatchee Junior College and University of British Columbia.

Men's Intramural started out its busy schedule with football in September and finished with softball in May. Periodic meetings of the Intramural Cabinet made plans for the eight different sports included on this year's calendar. Support was also given to several co-recreational activities.

The purpose of Men's Intramural is to provide athletic activities for the male inhabitants of the college.

Kittredge Hall houses twelve girls and their house mother is the Dean of Women, Miss Leone Murray. Carol Hahn is President, Merle Blunt is Secretary-Treasurer and Lynn Green is Social Chairman. The hours for girls living in Kittredge Hall are the same as any other residence on campus, with 10:00 on week nights, 2:00 on Friday and Saturday nights and 11:00 on Sunday nights being the accepted hours.

One of our off-campus living accommodations is called the Cottage which accommodates eight to ten girls for the school year.

Their house mother is Marjorie Kelso and their assistant house mother and president of the group is Deloris Jungert; treasurer is Jeanne Thomas and representatives to the Rules Committee are Mary Ann Hahn and Marjorie Kelso.

Rules are about the same as are enforced at Anderson Hall. Hours on week nights are 10:00, on Friday and Saturday nights 2:00 and 11:00 on Sunday evenings. These girls have a lot of fun and enjoy being a separate unit on campus.
Anderson Hall

Anderson Hall was a very comfortable home for ninety-six girls this year. There have been many friendships built by living with girls from different parts of the country and the world. Next year there will be some breathing space for the dormitory girls as the new addition will have been completed.

The freshmen became accustomed to dorm life together in the basement. The dormitory was decorated with traditional Christmas decorations to give their home away from home a holiday atmosphere, by the capable hands of the freshman girls.

Mrs. Carolyn Schneider, house mother, has done a wonderful job during the past years keeping watch over her girls. The presidents of the dorm were Mary Krocker, first semester, and Barbara Kidder, second semester. Throughout the year, with the help of the other officers, they did a wonderful job in planning the dormitory life.
Todd Hall

Todd Hall is the men's residence hall on the campus. The men are self-governing, and set up their own house rules which are kept at a minimum. Todd Hall participates and plans many social events during the year such as an open house, held at the beginning of the year, participation in the intramural program of the college and during Homecoming Week, a huge logger was in front of the hall. Bob Higley served as president, John Vipond as vice-president, Robert Hinshaw as treasurer, Richard Rudow as secretary, and Tom Martin as historian. Mrs. Fred B. Langdon takes top honors as house mother for these men.

A ball in the Sub.
The main event of the sorority year for the Alpha Phi's occurred October 10th, when they were officially installed as the Gamma Zeta chapter of Alpha Phi. The former Lambda Sigma Chi members wore pledge pins during rush but were soon initiated. November came and so did the Alpha Phi and Sigma Chi pledge dance entitled "Wish I Wuz." December 22 was the date of the Installation Ball which was held at the Greenwood Manor.

With the coming of Spring many social events also arrived. The Alpha Phi's enjoyed their Spring Formal which was held March 27 at the Chateau. The pledge trophy was awarded at this time.

Maintaining a 2.7 grade point average the fall semester, the group was the highest sorority scholastically on campus.

Officers for the year were: Fall: Sara Jaeger, president; Fran Ellertson, vice-president; Helen Radisch, pledge trainer; Marian Christie, recording secretary; Barbara Johnston, corresponding secretary; J'Anna Sharrard, treasurer. Spring: Fran Ellertson, president; Joeann Huchttoen, vice-president; Evelyn Dodge, pledge trainer; Marion Christie, recording secretary; Barbara Johnston, corresponding secretary; J'Anna Sharrard, treasurer.

Chi Omega

The Gammas began their year by exchanging their pin for the Chi Omega badge and name. Official installation ceremonies took place October 17th.

The pledges had a successful sneak with the Phi Delta Theta pledges and continued their success with the Phi Delt-Chi O “Gay 20’s” pledge dance.

In December the Chi O’s had a Santa Claus party for the children from St. Ann’s and on the 26th they held their annual Christmas formal at Greenwood Manor.

February brought about a month of room improvements and also spring rush. March was a succession of fraternity and sorority dances and on March 12th Lynn Green was chosen Sweetheart of Sigma Chi. April 5th was the Founder’s Day Banquet and in May before finals and last minute preparations of the semester took over, the Spring Dinner Dance at the Crystal Ballroom in the Winthrop Hotel was held.

Chi Omega officers for the year were: Dorothy Powell, president; Janice Beitz, vice-president; Evalyn Emert, pledge mother; Bev Jones, secretary; Ruth Nicholson, treasurer; Diane McCormick, herald; and Audrey Stenholm, chapter correspondent.
Activities for the Tri-Deltas started with the pledge sneak and shortly thereafter the pledge dance. In November the Founder’s Day Banquet was held at the Winthrop.

At Christmas time the Formal Christmas Dance was held with the Sigma Nus at the Fircrest Golf Club. In February they celebrated their birthday with all the sororities as guests.

The Spring Dinner Dance was at the Chateau. At that time the Delta Golden Girl, a girl of junior or senior standing, best fulfilling the Delta Delta Delta ideas, was chosen. She was Burtine Beal.

Following were the Mother-Father-Daughter Banquet and the Senior Banquet.

The year’s social functions were climaxed with the Pansy Ring Tea, presented in honor of all senior women on campus.

Delta Delta Delta officers for the year were: Fall, Shirley Skinner, president; Madeline Williams, vice-president; Janice Scott, recording secretary; Barbara Kidder, corresponding secretary; Doris Soder, treasurer; Carol Johnson, Panhellenic representative; DeLores Burns, chaplin; Burtine Beal, marshall; Barbara Schaller, historian. Spring: Rheta Hill, president; Suzanne Swayze, vice-president; Geraldine DeWolfe, recording secretary; Arlene Kirishian, corresponding secretary; Nancy Eierman, treasurer; Mary Ann Norton, Panhellenic representative; Diane Siler, chaplin; Dawn Planta, marshall; Faith Elvin, historian.

After the pledge reception in the Sub, the Pi Phi's, with thirteen new pledges, started their active school year. While actives searched within fifty feet of the pledges, the ten o'clock deadline was reached and the pledges' sneak was a success. "Say It with Music" was the theme of the pledge dance with the Kappa Sigs. The annual Pi Phi-Sigma Chi exchange at the Chateau in December was entitled "Sleigh Bell Saturday Night," with snow outside to enhance the atmosphere.

The membership joined in the Christmas spirit by filling a large basket of food and clothing for a needy family in Tacoma. Spring rush brought nine new pledges to the membership. In March, the formal dinner dance was held at Lake Wilderness, celebrating the 50th anniversary of the sorority on this campus.

Chapter officers during the year were: Fall semester, Marilyn Ruchty, president; Bonnie Beardsley, vice-president; Frances Marinkovich, recording secretary; Marilyn Rosso, corresponding secretary; Donna Dettrich, treasurer; Joni Piper, supervisor; Mary Ann Jugovich, Panhellenic president; Kathy Kaer and Mary Ann Jugovich, censors, and Barbara Gonia, rush captain. Spring semester: Marilyn Rosso, president; Elizabeth Regester, vice-president; Janet Brinkman, recording secretary; Doris Snider, corresponding secretary; Robin Enschede, treasurer; Donna Dettrich, pledge supervisor; Donna Dettrich, Panhellenic representative, and Jeanne Stewart and Mary Lee Gray, censors.
The name of Panhellenic is still relatively new on the campus. It was the Inter-Sorority Council but last year the name was changed due to the addition of another national sorority on campus. Last spring and this fall saw two more local chapters going national, making a total of four national chapters and no local chapters.

Panhellenic is the governing board of the sororities. Rushing is one of its biggest functions each year. It has also been active this year in participating with Inter-Fraternity Council for the Greek Sneak and this year's Commencement Ball.

Mary Ann Jugovich handled the gavel during the fall semester and Mary Ann Norton was president this spring after attending the University of Washington Panhellenic Conference held at the Empress Hotel in Victoria, B. C.

Membership in Panhellenic consists of three representatives from each sorority. The sorority president, the Panhellenic representative, and the rush chairman. Adviser for Panhellenic is Miss Leone Murray, Dean of Women. This spring Panhellenic decided to have an executive secretary. Mrs. Boldt was selected from City Panhellenic to help serve in an advisory capacity.
The School year 1953-54 was one of great progress for the C.P.S. Inter-Fraternity Council. The year was begun under President Willis Peacock, Vice-President George Pearson, and Secretary-Treasurer Tom Baker Jr. The year started off with Fraternity Rush which was supervised by I.F.C. In October, I.F.C. sent representatives to the Western Regional Inter-Fraternity Council Convention at Corvallis, Oregon.

During the Fall semester I.F.C. completed plans for Greek Help Week which was held at the start of the Spring semester. During this week the pledges of the various fraternities did extensive work for the Tacoma Council of Churches.

At the final meeting of the Fall semester, the officers for 1954 were elected; these included Slim Mosier, President; Jim Nelson, Vice-President, and John Chapman, Secretary-Treasurer.

In Support of the College, Inter-Fraternity Council took a great step when they volunteered to take over the managing of the Commencement Ball for 1954.

All in all, 1953-54 was a year in which I.F.C. took the lead in building a stronger fraternity system at C.P.S.
From the Waffle Breakfast in October to the Black and White Dance at Lake Wilderness Lodge, Kappa Sigma Fraternity members enjoyed a full year of activities and accomplishments. Many memorable moments are sure to be remembered by the Kappa Sig's.

The annual Waffle Breakfast for the pledges of all four sororities was held in the large fraternity house at 12th and Alder. The sorority pledges were taken on a tour of the house, besides being introduced to the entire membership.

After a successful rush, 22 new CPS students were pledged into the fraternity. The pledges under Pledge Father Jack Price began to learn the history of the fraternity and perform the many tasks of cleaning the house. During "Help Week" the pledges painted and completely renovated the interior. Nine new members were initiated on March 1.

At the annual dance held at Lake Wilderness Lodge, Clarence Tiessen was announced as the "Man of the Year in Kappa Sigma." Tiessen was the spring semester Grand Master while Fred Fontanta was the fall semester Grand Master. The fraternity made many accomplishments under their capable direction.
The Phi Delta Thetas were very active this their first year anniversary of going national. The first social event of the year was the annual pledge dance, "Flapper Flip," given with the Chi Omega pledges. Some of the members went on an excursion to British Columbia to visit the British Columbia Alpha of Phi Delta Theta. The winter formal was held at Lakewood Terrace December 5, with the spring formal being held at Lake Wilderness April 30. The Phi Delts received a scholarship award from national headquarters. Firesides and social functions were held with all the sororities on campus. Improvements to the house were made by the Mothers' Club.

Fall officers were: George Pearson, president; Jack Brown, reporter; John Chapman, treasurer; Ken Kinzel, warden. Spring officers were: Ken Kinzel, president; Jack Brown, reporter; John Chapman, treasurer; Robert Wright, warden.
A year of varied activities was enjoyed by Washington Gamma chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Hard work and play were intermingled as the brothers added many improvements to the chapter house along with the usual calendar of social events. Beginning the year, as a message of congratulations from the chapter, the SAE’s presented each of the new sorority pledges with a corsage of violets. The annual pledge sneak, successful for the first time in many years, and the pledge dance were two of the first social events of the year. In addition to several parties, the semester was climaxed by the announcement that the SAE’s had once again received top honors on the campus for scholarship, and was further heightened by the fact that the CPS chapter had taken national honors for first in scholarship in the country out of 136 chapters of SAE.

The second semester started out with the annual founders’ day banquet, followed by several firesides which did much in promoting friendly relations with other groups on the campus. The season was climaxed socially with the holding of the annual spring formal dance.

Several interior improvements and renovations, including the installation of a new heating plant, the formation of a sleeping porch and new study room, the installation of a double stainless steel sink, presented as a gift from the Mothers’ Club, and the enlargement of dining facilities have made this year one of outstanding progress in the physical properties of the chapter.
Participation in campus activities, sports and scholarship were achieved successfully by Sigma Chi. Leading the way was Brother Warren Hunt, the President of ASCPS. The Sig ski team won the championship for the fourth straight year, and our homecoming and daffodil floats both placed in the competition.

The Sweetheart Ball led this year's social events. Through the excellent planning of Brother Roger Scott, the dance served as a beautiful background for the announcement of Miss Lynn Green as the "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi."

The men largely responsible for this successful year are the officers. Fall: Ralph Mackey, consul; Jon Torgerson, pro-consul; Bill Adams, annotator; Dean Scovell, quaestor; Warren Hunt, magister; Ray Tabor, kustos. Spring: Jon Torgerson, consul; John Ramsey, pro-consul; Norman Lawrence, annotator; Bill Adams, quaestor; Roger Scott, magister; Dave Berg, kustos.
Highlights of the 1953 school year, which centered around the house at 1402 North Cakes, included numerous social, community and athletic achievements.

Outstanding among these were such events as the Sigma Nu Northwest Regional Convention, the first of its kind to be held on the CPS campus. During the homecoming festivities, the men of Sigma Nu took time enough to win first prize for their homecoming float and second prize for their house decorations.

Heading the spring social calendar was the annual Sigma Nu White Rose Banquet and Dance. A White Rose Queen, crowned at the dance, was selected from the most lovely girls on the CPS campus. The White Rose Dance commemorates the founding of Sigma Nu Fraternity and is always the biggest social function of the year.

With the strong backing of the local Sigma Nu alumni association, plans were rapidly developed for a modern new fraternity house; the first of the new houses to be built on Greek Row. It is expected that the class of 1957 will graduate from this house. Many improvements have been made on the inside of the fraternity's present home. Due largely to the untiring efforts of an enthusiastic Mothers’ Club, many pieces of new furniture have been added.

Sigma Nu officers for the year were: Willis Peacock, eminent commander; Fred Schmitt, lieutenant commander; Clarence Engall, recorder; Dale Klint, treasurer; Chuck Arnold, marshal; Dale Bailey, chaplain; Bob Powell, sentinel; Mitchell Lundquist, alumni contact; Bob Burglin, reporter; Charles Kruger, historian.
Theta Chi at CPS can claim the past year as one of its best. The year started off fast, with the house pledging 18 men. Theta Chi again took first place in house decorations and stunts during the homecoming festivities. The semester ended by initiating 13 new members and awards were given. Chuck Goforth was named this year’s outstanding senior and received the Service, Character and Scholarship Award. Ned Spearbeck was named as pledge of the semester. At the end of the semester it was also learned that Theta Chi placed first in scholarship among fraternities on campus.

The second semester started off with Theta Chi pledging 12 new men. Outstanding events included several members attending the Northwest Regional Convention at Linfield College, the annual spring formal held this year at the University-Union Club, where the members chose the “Dream Girl of Theta Chi” for the CPS campus.

Indees

With the spirit of new freshmen providing the driving push, the Indees of 1953-54 went over the top in making this year an outstanding one. The first meeting in September with over 90 persons present provided an insight into what was to follow, as the average attendance far surpassed that of any other year.

The traditional schedule of activities, which includes the Sadie Hawkins Day dance, Christmas party, the annual cruise, the spring picnic, and others, was followed with much enjoyment. A St. Patrick’s Day party was held for the first time this year and it will undoubtedly become an annual event.

These next 20 pages of advertising are just as important a part of your 1954 Tamanawas as a sport or student section. Without them, the Yearbook would be 80 pages smaller, there would be no padded cover, and the entire production would be curtailed.

Whether a senior or frosh, every student should examine the ads. And when he needs to buy something or have a service performed, he should remember the advertisers in the next 20 pages. Out of the hundreds of contacts the business staff made through the year, these were the business houses that were behind the college. These were the concerns that cared enough to support us, the students.

As students, we should care enough to support them. What better way could there be to say "thanks" for a better Yearbook?

wildlife thrives
on tree farms...

Wildlife finds food and shelter in the Pacific Northwest mountain areas dedicated to growing timber as a crop.

Here it takes 80 to 100 years to grow trees to merchantable size for sawlogs. During this time the tree farmer must protect his trees from fire, insects and disease, harvest according to long-range plan, and provide for both natural and artificial reforesting. Virtually all Weyerhaeuser forestlands are in tree farms, managed by skilled foresters.
