What did students do in their free time this year? They attended Homecoming, plays, concerts and lectures. They found ways of getting educated besides the usual one of sitting in the library reading a book. They explored the Pacific Northwest; they listened to speakers; they presented their own endeavors to entertain others. Sometimes they just relaxed and had fun. This section attempts to record most of what many students encountered in events open to the entire campus. A lot happened this year; if you were bored, now you can see what you missed.

Freshman Orientation

Arriving, find the right dorm, meet your first roommate, attempt to get some lunch at the SUB, go through freshman testing, and throughout that first day, worry; not just about your own mistakes, but also about those your parents might make.

This year, the first day of orientation included the parents. While freshmen took tests on fundamental academic skills, parents were told how to actively support their sons' and daughters' education by President Phibbs and the University Vice Presidents. In the afternoon parents and students attended the reception at the President's house. Then, as the parents departed, the Class of 1980 received their official welcome in Baker Stadium from President Phibbs during which he expounded on the ideal of "education for a lifetime".

The rest of orientation week emphasized recreational activities, highlighted by Tuesday's cruise to Blake Island. While some participated in Greek rushing, a crowd of 375 students received an outstanding initiation to the Pacific Northwest with a beautiful day at Tillicum Village, which included a clambake, a salmon dinner and authentic Indian dancers.

Other activities during the busy week of adjustment included excursions to Tacoma Mall and Pike Place Market, a boogie, two campus flicks, an activities fair and picnic, the second annual munchies, crunchies, cookies and cakes koinonias, and the inevitable, unavoidable registration.

The Northwest

In the emerald area that lies between the Olympics... and the Cascade Range... temperatures are mild and even. But during the autumn and winter months it is not unusual for precipitation to fall on five of every seven days. And when it is not raining, still the gray is pervasive; the sun a little boiled potato in a stew of dirty dumplings; the fire and light and energy of the cosmos trapped somewhere far behind that impenetrable slug-belly sky... . . .

It is a landscape in a minor key. A sketchy panorama where objects, both organic and inorganic, lack well defined edges and melt together in a silver-green blur. . . . It is a poetic setting, one which suggests inner meanings and invisible connections.*

Fall activities attracted participants according to diverse personal interests and moods.

The Wilderness House took advantage of the extraordinary warm fall sunshine by sponsoring two hikes, one to Mount Rainier to see the sunrise and the other to enjoy the beautiful autumn colors in the Cascades. Thirty students left campus on Friday, September 24, and camped in Rainier National Park. Getting up before the crack of dawn, they hiked from Paradise to Panorama Point overlooking the Nisqually glacier. From there they saw the mountain slowly turn from purple to pink as it reflected the colors of the rising sun. On October 23, fifteen people hiked through the Cascades to Lake Lillian, taking the day to enjoy the weather and the trees and the quiet.

For sports fans and to benefit the cheerleaders, the athletic department presented the second annual Freddie's Fallies and Hot Air Spirit Installation on September 30. This year's program featured some of UPS's most talented students: the Hawaiian Fire Dancers, vocalists Debbie Tarbuck, Brian Steberl and Dave Hall, and Athletic Director Doug McArthur as Fred Fawtsonool. For the finale, the audience bid for the privilege of dunking such campus personalities as President Phibbs, ASB Vice President Fred Grimm, Colonel James Kautz, Trainer Zeke Schuldt, and several coaches. The highest bid of $25.00 went for football Coach Paul Wallrof. The evening earned the Logger cheerleaders $150.00 to help pay their expenses for away games.

This year's Palmer lecturers, Drs. Thomas Trotter and Bruce Birch spoke on their respective themes of "Reclaiming the Ministry" and "Reclaiming Old Testament Resources for a World in Need" on October 12-14.
“Way Out West”
Homecoming ’76

The third week of the semester found student committees frantically planning for an unusually early Homecoming. The entire week offered many activities and provided students with all sorts of excuses for getting away from their studies.

On Wednesday the Goofy Goose supplied his new ice cream bar for an eating and naming contest which attracted forty contestants and 100 spectators to the music quad. Champion pig, Andy Knight, won fifty dollars for his off-campus living group. Carrie Mayes won a semester’s supply of the treat for naming it "Munchie Magic." On Thursday four teams comprised of forty people raced to produce a list of odds and ends in the scavenger hunt. The Thetas and the off campus students split the ultimate prize of a pitcher of beer for finding the most items. Fifty people stayed until 4:00 a.m. for the eight hours of movies in the Fieldhouse on Friday night.

The day of the big game started off with a spirit parade. Entries reflecting the theme “Way Out West” and their police escort wound their way around the campus to Baker Stadium amidst wind and rain. At kick-off time a rowdy crowd filled the stands to witness the Loggers’ easy victory (37-0) over Humboldt State. Halftime entertainment included the announcement that the King and Queen were Wayne Brown and Keoni Cook, recognition of President Phibbs’ 45th birthday and the final exciting heats of the Great Race. R. J. Secor and Bart Hawkins, representing the Language House Program and Owens House hopped, tricycled and slid around the track in two minutes, 57 seconds to win enough money to buy a keg of beer.

Saturday evening the week slowly wound to a close as couples danced to the sound of Onyx in the Fellowship Hall.

The Inside Theatre presented Robert Patrick's award winning "Kennedy's Children" as their fall production. The play represented a new style of drama at UPS called fragmentation. It consisted of a series of personal experiences remembered aloud by five patrons in a bar. Each character represented a different aspect of life in the sixties. The cast visited bars and observed how people who are alone conduct themselves. In "Kennedy's Children," the playwright demands that absolutely no interaction occurs between the actors. Not being allowed to react to anyone else's thoughts or feelings created a difficult and lonely acting experience. Each member of the cast found it disconcerting.

Director Thomas F. Somerville chose the play because he felt "it had something to say to students at UPS." Each audience responded differently. Of the five performances, four attracted a full house. On closing night the audience did not leave at the end of the last act. They remained in their seats, clearly stimulated by the fine performance; discussing not who the star was or what mistakes had been made, but rather the meaning and content of the play.

Events 17
Halloween is really a childlike holiday with its trick-or-treating, pumpkin carving, costumes and masks. Yet, UPS students found they enjoyed participating in the traditional antics at the end of a long week of mid-terms. Tired minds created ingenious costumes and parties abounded. Students transformed pumpkins into Jack-o-laterns during study breaks. The Sigma Chis converted their residence into a haunted house. The Tacoma Fire Department threatened to close it for violating the fire code by putting candles in pumpkins.

Unfortunately, Monday came after Sunday and the weekend of relaxation and celebration came to an end.

Politicians Invade

On November 2 most UPS students had the opportunity to help determine the next President of the U.S. The choice: Republican incumbent Gerald Ford and his running mate Robert Dale or Democrat peanut farmer Jimmy Carter and Fritz Mondale. For the first time in years the candidates debated the issues on national television. The last of the three confrontations was projected onto a seven foot screen in the SUB lounge for an audience of over 250 students. Professors Leroy Annis, Carl Clavedetscher and Craig Gunter discussed what one called, "the parallel interrogation that was created by the media." Their comments were lively and opinions flowed freely.

Candidates for the gubernatorial race deemed Washington voters at UPS numerous enough to visit the campus for some campaigning. Dixy Lee Ray and John Spellman spoke to large student audiences concerned with becoming informed voters.

It seemed a decidedly boring, apathetic election year at UPS until that evening when so many moaned, "That peanut farmer and that awful woman are actually winning!"

Interest Students

As November got underway students found numerous pastimes that continued to keep them away from their books. One group quit just complaining and actually got involved in doing something about the quality of the SUB food. Peter and Julie and Lynn and Jane and June and Bob began working with Mr. Grimwood to provide students with information on healthy eating habits with the eventual goal of making a significant change in the style of food service. They put up posters and sponsored speakers to teach students about nutrition and make them aware of what they eat.

Others wanting to maintain their health took advantage of free swine flu shots on November 17 to avoid the predicted epidemic. Two weeks later the shots were banned because they caused paralysis in a few recipients. By February no cases of swine flu had occurred but the shots were resumed because they also contained the necessary Victoria A vaccine.

On November 11 the Lectures Committees brought former CIA Director William Colby to the UPS fieldhouse. He told an audience of 400 that although spies do exist, the U.S. "has an intelligence which has been brought under the law."

The semi-annual pot and print sale on December 3 attracted many buyers for the UPS artists' work.
Wilde’s “Earnest” Amuses Audience

Described by the playwright as “A Trivial Comedy for Serious People,” the Inside Theatre’s production of Oscar Wilde’s “The Importance of Being Earnest” delighted audiences with its satiric insight into the devious behavior lurking behind high society manners in turn of the century England.

International Festival Has Holiday Theme

Over 100 people participated in the exhibits, entertainment, dinner and dance for this year's International Festival. The International Club sponsors the annual event to provide the UPS community with a view of the culture in foreign lands. This year's festival featured a theme of foreign holiday celebrations appropriate for the Christmas season.

The program included a dinner of foreign foods, followed by exhibits representing twelve countries in the SUB lounge. Two hours of music, skits, a fashion show and a slide presentation drew an audience of over 200. Topping off the evening, the Carribean Superstars provided exciting music for dancing and a limbo demonstration in the Great Hall.
December Brings Four Concerts

As the holiday season approached, perfected, polished sounds issued forth from the music building. Four concerts were presented during the two weeks prior to finals. On December 1, the Symphonic Band's diverse program attracted 400 people to Kilworth Chapel. Alfred Reed's exciting "Symphony for Brass and Percussion" highlighted the evening. The Jazz Ensemble presented an evening of blues, disco and contemporary rock for their winter concert. One of their most impressive pieces, "Spain" by Chick Corea, featured the outstanding improvisational talents of the rhythm section, including a solo by Steve Wehmhoff on vibes.

On December 5 the UPS-Tacoma Choral Society and Orchestra, conducted by Edward Hansen, featured a program of two religious pieces, "The Christmas Story" by Heinrich Schutz and "Rejoice, Emmanuel Shall Come" by Louie L. White. Lucille Reec, Michael Deviny, and Professors Margaret Myles and Thomas Goleeke sang the solo parts. The Madrigals 25th Annual Program of Christmas Music ran for five nights. A full house attended each performance, for a total attendance of 1525. Professor Bruce Rodgers directed the 16 member choir in 24 Christmas melodies, blending voices in intricate harmony and rhythm. One of their special guests, Amy Griffith, played "Chansons de Noel" on the marimba. Hers was one of the numerous solos to which the audiences reacted enthusiastically.

Finals for Christmas

The month of December immediately conjures up two images in the students' minds: Christmas and finals. What a dichotomy! The first is to be enjoyed, the second, endured. Christmas demands celebration, preparation, and introspection. Finals demand investigation (What have I been doing in this course?), preparation (How many books were we supposed to have read?), and finally, celebration (Whew!).

These four pages are dedicated to the two simultaneous events. For the holiday season Student Activities sponsored Santa's workshop where jewelry and ornaments could be made and wrapped, others sponsored parties, and the Spurs held their annual candle-lighting ceremony and banquet. For finals, students did the same things they always do, they faked, prayed, triumphed, and they agonized.

Students Retreat to Wilderness

Gliding along through fresh snow, finding breathtaking views, pausing for lunch in the silent winter scene: students and professors felt very far from the hassles of campus while cross-country skiing. Many students come to UPS just to "get away from it all" by escaping to nearby beaches and mountains. This year's new wilderness house program, funded by the ASUPS, was designed to make outings available to all students. Problems with advanced planning and publicity limited its effectiveness, but several hikes, a couple cross-country ski trips, the alpine filmfest, an REI demonstration, John Roskelley's slide presentation of the ascent of Nanda Devi, and camping trips did attract participants.

In just four weeks Professor Thomas Goleeke’s winterim class prepared and presented two complete, short operas. The cast of “The Wandering Scholar,” by Gustav Holst,(page 42) made opera come alive for delighted audiences. A wandering scholar upsets a monk’s plans to seduce a farmer’s young wife with uproarious results. Careful orchestration completed the lively presentation of the comical farce.

The second work, Henry Purcell’s “Dido and Aenaes,” was, in contrast, an oppressive tragedy. Dido, the legendary Queen of Carthage, is doomed to suicide by three witches because of her love for the wanderer Aenaes. The opera featured harpsichord music, a chorus and high school dancers.

Professor Goleeke hoped the opera theatre made opera more accessible and enjoyable to the campus community, as well as providing a tremendously worthwhile stage experience for undergraduate musicians.

Winterim Activity
Creative, Varied

The month of January provided a break in the regular academic schedule and students had time to fill with less intellectual pursuits. Steve Powell gave juggling lessons to both the skilled and the uncoordinated. Maiya, an accredited bellydance instructor, taught the ancient art of Beledi as exercise and recreation to anyone brave enough to try (next page). New state laws allowed bingo games to take place in the SUB lounge. A group of 50 students learned about the art of making wine on their tour of the San Michelle winery sponsored by the Dean of Students.

A standing room only crowd came to hear "Mr. Wallstreet Week," Louis Rukeyser analyze the economy and Jimmy Carter saying, "Up to now, Jimmy Carter, to be sure and to be fair, has undeniably been selling the most successful new product of the 1970's. I call it political litmus paper."

Of course, there was still more free time and many spent it in front of a television set watching soap operas, commercials, and "Roots."

and on, and on, and on
Things kept sort of happening as usual at UPS. The special events committee sponsored another activity in February which a number of students attended. The 25 who showed up for the leathercraft workshop busily designed, pounded, and dyed cow skin onto key rings, key cases, bookmarks, and luggage tags for Mom and Dad and all of their friends.

Those who attended the performance of the "Royal Lichtenstein Circus" could not take anything home when it was over, but boy, oh boy, did they have fun.

Things also happened in the Cellar. Under the new management of the Antique Sandwich Company there was a new tasty menu and new high prices. The Black Student Union presented a late evening's entertainment in the Cellar in recognition of Black History Month. The program included interpretive readings, soulful music and excerpts from D.T. Ward's play, "Day of Absence."

Volleyball

After a glorious headstart, three wins in the first four games, the UPS women’s volleyball team spent the season battling their way to an increasing number of losses. The seasonal record was seven and twenty. The winning games were played against Everett Community College (17-15, 16-14, 15-6), Linfield College (15-9, 15-4), Willamette University (15-10, 15-5), and Pacific Lutheran University in two games (15-13, 15-5 and 14-16, 15-10, 7-15, 15-12). Ten spikers lettered at the end of the season. The team voted Lea Nequette as Most Valuable Player, Cindy Connally as Most Improved Player, and Adrienne Murada as Most Inspirational Player.

Men's Basketball

Logger basketball grew to be of increasing interest to UPS students, professors, alumni and administrators and to Tacoma residents during the 1976-1977 season. Thousands of fans came to cheer on the cagers as they drove throughout the season to remain in possession of their NCAA Championship. By the middle of February the men had racked in seventeen wins and only five losses with a twelve win record over small college opponents. The home court game against Portland State was one of many examples of Logger power as the team fought to the very end for an exciting eighty-six to eighty-four victory in overtime.

Junior forwards from last years team, Tim Evans and Rick Walker, maintained their score making reputations on the court. This dynamic duo continually made baskets numbering in the twenties and thirties in each game. Senior guard Mark Wells saved many a match with his record holding free throw ability. The new center, sophomore Phil Hiam, stepped into his role with increasing skill and Rocky Botts and Brian Steberl turned in noteworthy performances during the Logger season.

The 1976-1977 women's basketball season was ignited by two talented freshmen, Karen Esary and Lea Nequette. These newcomers were joined by nine women from last year's squad. All would gain from more experience on the court. Key assist maker Peggy Boyle returned after an early season injury to help direct the team. With the tallest starter at 5'7" in platform basketball shoes, defense became an integral part of the game. The big 'D' stood for the sisters on the team, Celia McKay and Colleen McKay-Wells. The squad's hustle and never die attitude was exemplified in play by Alice Sigurdson, Char Davenport, Karen and Lea. Marcia Desy complimented the team effort with her shooting ability, and the strong rebounding of Barb Young provided value under the boards. First year players Adrienne Murada, Cheryl Harrison, Janet Bell, Nancy Fromk, Rochelle Brosseau, Cindy Connally and Kim Kirsner rounded out the team.

A winning atmosphere prevailed throughout the season despite a discouraging win-loss record. In spite of the disadvantages of height and lack of experience the year was one that built skills for the future of women's basketball. Success was measured intrinsically by each of the participants.

Men’s Swimming

The men swimmers brought in a winning season of seven wins and five losses by February despite their difficulties in swimming against teams from larger schools. Coach Duncan described his team as a "strong one" and cited their meets against teams like Central Washington as examples of their ability. Although the meets were losing ones the competition was keen even through the last relay. This indicated, the coach said, the increasing strength of intercollegiate swimming. Four men qualified for Nationals. Pictured at right with Coach Duncan and Pete Tomellato, they are Brian Budsberg, Dan Seeyle, Scott Wilson and Russ Wigglesworth.

A paper airplane contest and the Rose Meet touched off a season that proved to one of great improvement for the UPS women swimmers. The long meet against Willamette was a memorable one for the athletes as the men and women of four schools met and competed in alternate events. Four women, Cathy Heisler, Robin Sielk, Karen Swanson and JoAnn Moore qualified for Regionals. Cathy Heisler also clocked in Nationals qualifying times in the 50 and 100 yards freestyle.
Men’s Cross Country

The UPS men’s cross country team performed notably throughout the season from September to November, placing in the first through eighth spots in meets ranging in competitive numbers from four to twenty-two teams. The highlight of the season was again the UPS Invitational when our harriers placed first out of four teams. They beat all of the teams in the State with the exceptions of UW, WSU, Highline Community, Spokane Community and Central Washington. Jim Smith and team captain Don Greco were cited for their steady performances in competition.

The UPS women harriers spent their season running with what coach Dawn Bowman, as quoted in the TRAIL, called "tremendous individual performances." The women placed fifth in a UW Invitational in October and moved on to an end-of-season eighth in a larger field of twenty-five opponents in the NCWSA Regional Cross-Country Championships. Renee Trucksess was continually noted for her outstanding times on the courses. In taking up the momentum from last year the squad is moving forward into what promises to be a tremendous 1977 season.

The UPS booters sloshed, slid and sliced their way against the toughest teams in the Northwest this year for an overall five and seven record. In a team vote, Dave Cottler was named the most valuable player and Hans Ulland was chosen Rookie of the Year. David Stevens was named the Most Improved Player. Earl Nausid received the Coach's Award for having garnered votes in many categories. Russell Steele, the team captain and only senior starter, was chosen for the leadership award.

The UPS grapplers fought their way through a long season this year. From October to March the young team faced a number of defeats that were due more to points lost from a lack of team members to fill all of the weight classifications than to an inability to wrestle. The heartbreaking match against Stanford, which was lost by one point, was just one example of the problems of a small college team facing larger schools.

The matmen did taste victory in the Pacific Tournament when they placed fourth in a field with eleven opponents. Four UPS wrestlers are going to Nationals in Cedar Rapids. Football

The Loggers' 1976 season got off to a sloppy but winning start as they overtook Montana Tech on a water soaked field, ending with a score of 20-0. Walroff's Wonders continued on in the same spirit to drown the Lutes, in a game which PLU wished had never been played, the final results being 40-21. After winning the first five games, and losing a heart breaking sixth, the gridders ran with gusto to a final season record of seven wins and three losses.

Logger team captains were Ed Lundberg, Frank O'Loughlin, Steve Cain, and Clay Angle. Sophomore kicker Brent Wagner broke the UPS record for the most field goals kicked in a season. Senior gridders Frank O'Loughlin, Gail Wood and Tony Herdener ended their college football careers by lettering for the fourth time. Steve Cain was voted by the team as the most Inspirational Player and senior nose guard Dan Kuehl was named for Honorable Mention on the All-Coast team.

96 Sports
Offense

The offensive line did a fine job this year. Tom Grant, Steve Cain, Tom Pieha, Kevin Billings and Bill Stout comprised the interior supporting line, "Bad Company." Two notable games for the offense were the Humboldt State game and the Portland State game (a well-played confrontation although lost).

Seniors who will be leaving the Loggers are Greg Baker, Steve Cain, Tom Grant, Tony Herden, Mark Maenhout, Clay Angle and Joe Yeager. Moving up to take their places are Casey Sander, Randy Moon, Jim Adgar, Kevin Billings, Bill Stout, Rich Arena, Darrell Haglund, Mike Heinz, Rob Brede, Fred Grimm, Mike Curtis, Wyatt Baker, Bob Emerson, Pat O’Loughlin, Ken Powell and Donn Etherington.

Defense

The Loggers' defensive team proved its superior quality this year by taking third spot in the nation as a result of skilled machinations. Some of the most notable games for the defense were those played against Simon Frazer, Montana Tech, Sacramento State, Williamette University, Chico State and Humboldt.

Senior defensive standouts who will be missed next year are Dan Kuehl, Frank O'Loughlin, Brent Heath, Bob Ogden and Ed Lundberg. Logger enthusiasts can look forward to a host of talented players in Steve Levenseller, Mark Madland, Rick Gehring, John Clymo, Zach Hill, Randy Slaybaugh, Mark Scott, Jeff Hartford and Paul James when they return next fall.

I’ve never thought to thank you, God, for creating my friends and letting them enrich my life. Thank you for the short time we’ve known each other and the confidences and hopes and troubles that we’ve shared.

We can laugh together, cry together, and rejoice together. Though we may not see each other for a long time, when we come together, it is always the same.

Because of them, I am a better, happier person; and because of me, they have grown too.

Lord, bless and keep them, these people you fashioned, filled with qualities that have meant so much to me!

The times last just long enough
To make us wish for more
And often we dream and wonder
If they'll be back again
'Cause this way of living
Keeps our souls from feeling sore
And makes us trust and honor

True beauty on earth
Was not meant to last long
Yet what it gives us
Remains once it’s gone.

She brought with her sunshine
Which freely she’d share
A sweetness in spirit
A friendship quite rare.

The ability to listen
With undying love
She was a gift God gave to us
From heaven above.

So think not of sorrow
But of the peace he has granted.
One fragile flower
Has now been transplanted.

With Love—

"I am sunshine . . . the sparkle of merriment in the eyes of youth.
I am a doorway out of the common place into a new exciting experience.
I am a purpose of life which will make the later years of the girls I house rewarding.
I am noise . . . and a silence with warmth in it.
I am laughter . . . and a quiet revolution which seeks the comfort of a listener.
I am energy and a touch of loving service.
I am youth and the slowly emerging habits that make matured experience worthy.
I am today and also tomorrow that is being shaped.
I am habits, ideals, way of living, confirmed attitudes in the soul.
I am a home to which a heart can unfold.
I am a force that holds you near each other no matter how different people are.
I am a spirit that forever sings within your hearts.
I am love . . . deep, sincere, devoted love.
I am part of you . . . for though your feet may pass my door, my memory will live eternally.
I am Tri Delta."

We cannot tell the precise moment when friendship is formed. As in filling a vessel drop by drop, there is at last a drop which makes it run over. So in a series of kindnesses . . . there is at last one which makes the heart run over.

—James Boswell

Friendship, compounded of esteem and love, derives from one its tenderness and its permanence from the other.

STAY YOUNG!

Since our start in 1900 we've learned better methods to harvest our forests; we've been working to control insect, disease, and fire damage; we've expanded into making thousands of wood products; and we've made the forests available for recreational opportunity.

Forests are a renewable resource, and we've helped make sure that there are forests for the future.

In the first decade of the century, we were reforesting through natural regeneration. In 1941, we established the nation's first tree farm. And now we're planting more than 150 million seedlings and seeding thousands of acres every year.

Our aim is to stay young with new ideas and new forests.

Dedicated to:
All of the people who ever called back, especially those who were too late and those who said,
"Ya, I wanna no bout ma pitchers."
"When I was editor of my high school Yearbook . . . " and "I just wanted to give you a hard time."
