TAMANAWAS 1977
P81-130
Published by the Associated Students of the College of Puget Sound Tacoma, Washington
After a glorious headstart, three wins in the first four games, the UPS women's volleyball team spent the season battling their way to an increasing number of losses. The seasonal record was seven and twenty. The winning games were played against Everett Community College (17-15, 16-14, 15-6), Linfield College (15-9, 15-4), Willamette University (15-10, 15-5), and Pacific Lutheran University in two games (15-13, 15-5 and 14-16, 16-14, 15-10, 7-15, 15-12). Ten spikers lettered at the end of the season. The team voted Lea Nequette as Most Valuable Player, Cindy Connally as Most Improved Player, and Adrienne Murada as Most Inspirational Player.

Men’s Basketball

Logger basketball grew to be of increasing interest to UPS students, professors, alumni and administrators and to Tacoma residents during the 1976-1977 season. Thousands of fans came to cheer on the cagers as they drove throughout the season to remain in possession of their NCAA Championship. By the middle of February the men had racked in seventeen wins and only five losses with a twelve win record over small college opponents. The home court game against Portland State was one of many examples of Logger power as the team fought to the very end for an exciting eighty-six to eighty-four victory in overtime.

Junior forwards from last years team, Tim Evans and Rick Walker, maintained their score making reputations on the court. This dynamic duo continually made baskets numbering in the twenties and thirties in each game. Senior guard Mark Wells saved many a match with his record holding free throw ability. The new center, sophomore Phil Hiam, stepped into his role with increasing skill and Rocky Botts and Brian Steberl turned in noteworthy performances during the Logger season.

The 1976-1977 women's basketball season was ignited by two talented freshmen, Karen Esary and Lea Nequette. These newcomers were joined by nine women from last year's squad. All would gain from more experience on the court. Key assist maker Peggy Boyle returned after an early season injury to help direct the team. With the tallest starter at 5'7" in platform basketball shoes, defense became an integral part of the game. The big "D" stood for the sisters on the team, Celia McKay and Colleen McKay-Wells. The squad's hustle and never die attitude was exemplified in play by Alice Sigurdson, Char Davenport, Karen and Lea. Marcia Desy complimented the team effort with her shooting ability, and the strong rebounding of Barb Young provided value under the boards. First year players Adrienne Muroda, Cheryl Harrison, Janet Bell, Nancy Fronk, Rochelle Brosseau, Cindy Connally and Kim Kirsner rounded out the team.

A winning atmosphere prevailed throughout the season despite a discouraging win-loss record. In spite of the disadvantages of height and lack of experience the year was one that built skills for the future of women's basketball. Success was measured intrinsically by each of the participants.

Men’s Swimming

The men swimmers brought in a winning season of seven wins and five losses by February despite their difficulties in swimming against teams from larger schools. Coach Duncan described his team as a "strong one" and cited their meets against teams from larger schools as examples of their ability. Although the meets were losing ones the competition was keen even through the last relay. This indicated, the coach said, the increasing strength of intercollegiate swimming. Four men qualified for Nationals. Pictured at right with Coach Duncan and Pete Tonellato, they are Brian Budsberg, Dan Seelye, Scott Wilson and Russ Wigglesworth.

A paper airplane contest and the Rose Meet touched off a season that proved to one of great improvement for the UPS women swimmers. The long meet against Willamette was a memorable one for the athletes as the men and women of four schools met and competed in alternate events. Four women, Cathy Heisler, Robin Sielk, Karen Swanson and JoAnn Moore qualified for Regionals. Cathy Heisler also clocked in Nationals qualifying times in the 50 and 100 yards freestyle.
Men's Cross Country

The UPS men's cross country team performed notably throughout the season from September to November, placing in the first through eighth spots in meets ranging in competitive numbers from four to twenty-two teams. The highlight of the season was again the UPS Invitational when our harriers placed first out of four teams. They beat all of the teams in the State with the exceptions of UW, WSU, Highline Community, Spokane Community and Central Washington. Jim Smith and team captain Don Greco were cited for their steady performances in competition.

The UPS women harriers spent their season running with what coach Dawn Bowman, as quoted in the TRAIL, called "tremendous individual performances." The women placed fifth in a UW Invitational in October and moved on to an end-of-season eighth in a larger field of twenty-five opponents in the NCWSA Regional Cross-Country Championships. Renee Trucksess was continually noted for her outstanding times on the courses. In taking up the momentum from last year the squad is moving forward into what promises to be a tremendous 1977 season.

The UPS booters slossed, slid and sliced their way against the toughest teams in the Northwest this year for an overall five and seven record. In a team vote, Dave Cottler was named the most valuable player and Hans Ulland was chosen Rookie of the Year. David Stevens was named the Most Improved Player. Earl Nausid received the Coach’s Award for having garnered votes in many categories. Russell Steele, the team captain and only senior starter, was chosen for the leadership award.

Wrestling

The UPS grapplers fought their way through a long season this year. From October to March the young team faced a number of defeats that were due more to points lost from a lack of team members to fill all of the weight classifications than to an inability to wrestle. The heartbreaking match against Stanford, which was lost by one point, was just one example of the problems of a small college team facing larger schools.

The matmen did taste victory in the Pacific Tournament when they placed fourth in a field with eleven opponents. Four UPS wrestlers are going to Nationals in Cedar Rapids. They are pictured on page right. Clockwise from Center: Bill Stout (who won the Pacific Tournament in the Heavyweight Division), Jeff Watson, John Smith, and Ric Rakevich.

Football

The Loggers' 1976 season got off to a sloshy but winning start as they overtook Montana Tech on a water soaked field, ending with a score of 20-0. Walroff's Wonders continued on in the same spirit to drown the Lutes, in a game which PLU wished had never been played, the final results being 40-21. After winning the first five games, and losing a heart breaking sixth, the gridders ran with gusto to a final season record of seven wins and three losses.

Logger team captains were Ed Lundberg, Frank O'Loughlin, Steve Cain, and Clay Angle. Sophomore kicker Brent Wagner broke the UPS record for the most field goals kicked in a season. Senior gridders Frank O'Loughlin, Gail Wood and Tony Herdener ended their college football careers by lettering for the fourth time. Steve Cain was voted by the team as the most Inspirational Player and senior nose guard Dan Kuehl was named for Honorable Mention on the All-Coast team.

Offense

The offensive line did a fine job this year. Tom Grant, Steve Cain, Tom Pieha, Kevin Billings and Bill Stout comprised the interior supporting line, “Bad Company.” Two notable games for the offense were the Humboldt State game and the Portland State game (a well-played confrontation although lost).

Seniors who will be leaving the Loggers are Greg Baker, Steve Cain, Tom Grant, Tony Herdener, Mark Maenhout, Clay Angle and Joe Yeager. Moving up to take their places are Casey Sander, Randy Moon, Jim Adgar, Kevin Billings, Bill Stout, Rich Arena, Darrell Haglund, Mike Heinz, Rob Brede, Fred Grimm, Mike Curtis, Wyatt Baker, Bob Emerson, Pat O’Loughlin, Ken Powell and Don Etherington.

Defense

The Loggers' defensive team proved its superior quality this year by taking third spot in the nation as a result of skilled machinations. Some of the most notable games for the defense were those played against Simon Frazer, Montana Tech, Sacramento State, Willamette University, Chico State and Humboldt.

Senior defensive standouts who will be missed next year are Dan Kuehl, Frank O’Loughlin, Brent Heath, Bob Ogden and Ed Lundberg. Logger enthusiasts can look forward to a host of talented players in Steve Levenseller, Mark Madland, Rick Gehring, John Clymo, Zach Hill, Randy Slaybaugh, Mark Scott, Jeff Hartford and Paul James when they return next fall.
