COLLEGE OF PuGET SOUND
Tacoma, Washington
Foreword

The 1936 Tamanawas is a northwest pioneer in the field of lithographed year-books. Because of this change to off-set printing, it is possible to stress the pictorial side of the book. The field is large; if the Tamanawas this year meets with your approval, the future is bright, and you will see a progressively more inclusive year-book.
Dedication

To the students of the college who, through their activities, made this book possible. To the faculty of the college who are willing to share their knowledge and experience with the students. To the college which brings the faculty and the students together for a mutual broadening of understanding.

THREE APHORISMS

1. What one is, and not what he seems to be, is what counts.
2. Like a humor in the blood, character comes to the surface.
3. True self-evaluation is an attainment. Application of that evaluation is an achievement.

Read Romans XXII, 1-3, to get the application of these aphorisms.
