TO AN ATHLETE DYING YOUNG

"The time you won your town the race
We chaired you through the market place;
Man and boy stood cheering by,
And home we brought you shoulder-high.

Today, the road all runners come,
Shoulder-high we bring you home,
And set you at your threshold down,
Townsman of a stiller town.

Smart lad to slip betimes away
From fields where glory does not stay,
And early though the laurel grows
It withers quicker than the rose.

Eyes the shady night has shut
Cannot see the record cut,
And silence sounds no worse than cheers
After earth has stopped the ears:

Now you will not swell the rout
Of lads that wore their honors out
Runners whom renown outran
And the name died before the man.

So set, before its echoes fade,
The fleet foot on the sill of shade,
And hold to the low lintel up
The still-defended challenge-cup."

—A. E. Housman.

IN MEMORIAM

EVERELL S. COLLINS

The College lost a great friend in the death of Mr. Everell S. Collins. He was an understanding, sympathetic trustee. His interest in the College was that of one who thought of youth and the opportunity which the College afforded them.

He helped materially to open the doors of higher education to youth, feeling that they could be of greater service to God and their fellows if cultured and educated.

He was an earnest Christian man, and a business man who maintained an exalted standard for his business life as well as for his private life.

His interest in the College was not restricted to good advice and wise counsel. It was he who put up the initial challenge of $100,000 for the raising of $1,000,000 in 1920. He usually took one-tenth of the amount to be raised in succeeding campaigns. Referring to the proposed library building, he wrote last September: "I am prepared to give such funds as are needed, and as soon as needed, by the contractor, payments being made as usual for that type of work." His sudden death in December made necessary that his purpose be carried out as his estate is settled.

Trustees, faculty, alumni and students unite in paying a loving tribute to Mr. Collins. His influence will reach through the years, and we shall look forward to the time when a worthy building, of the character and quality of our other buildings, shall be dedicated to his memory, that those who may not have been privileged to know him will likewise reverence this friend and benefactor of the College of Puget Sound.

PUBLIC RELATIONS means the inter-relations between public groups composed of individual human beings.

The College proceeds on the principle that to have good public relations it must not only make individuals stronger and better, but cause them to think more highly of themselves. Let me give three examples of methods of procedure.

The first is the Color Post. The faculty matriculates the freshmen into the college classes. The student body, by authority of the trustees, parallels that matriculation by formal Color Post ceremonies to induct the freshmen into the student body. The senior class of the previous spring formally relates itself to the incoming class by committing its interest in the Color Post to this new class. Thus alumni, students, faculty and trustees in a cooperative act declare good will one to the other.

The second is the publication of the Tamanawas. Here is a student enterprise in which the students, faculty and alumni participate. The published record of student organization and activity is one which acts on the memory of alumni like a record on a phonograph. The memories of days in college speak again.

The third is the Order of Founders and Patrons. Here, those who have labored and loved, whose steps are slowed and whose energies are waning, are given honorable recognition, and are drawn out of their seclusion with the declaration that they are still recognized by trustees, faculty, students and alumni as having played an important part in making the College of today what it is.

No one in any of these groups can ever forget what the College did to make his or her life happier, better and stronger. Here are shown some of the bases upon which lasting value of publicity is built for developing good public relations.
CHARLES A. ROBBINS, Bursar

The College of Puget Sound gratefully acknowledges the twenty-five years of faithful service given by Mr. Charles A. Robbins to the school. The past quarter of a century has seen many changes since 1916 when Mr. Robbins first came to the College. There was a small campus, inadequate frame buildings, meager equipment, a small, though well qualified faculty, three members of which are still here. There was no football team, basketball team, no gymnasium; there were no sororities or fraternities. There was an organized student body, but because of limited funds, there were few student activities as we know them today.

It has been through the loyalty and devotion of men such as Mr. Robbins, through their untiring efforts in behalf of this school, that the College of Puget Sound has grown until it can take its place proudly among the colleges and universities of this country.

May I take this opportunity to thank Central Board and all those other faculty members and students who have so ably aided and cooperated with me during this past year.

I wish to thank all of you for the opportunity of representing you as the president of A.S. C.P.S. Whether the school has progressed or not, I have gained much from my year in office.

From attending the Pacific Student Presidents' Association conventions and corresponding with other schools I have found that we, at the College of Puget Sound, enjoy a very liberal type of student government. Why don't you make use of this opportunity and do your utmost to make of this institution the type of school that you wish it to be?

For your new officers and those of you returning to Alma Mater's halls, I give you my best wishes for many successful years to come in developing The College of Puget Sound as the most outstanding small college in the Northwest.

Respectfully yours,

LYALL JAMIESON.

It was late September when the 1940 Loggers first gave spectators a preview of their potentialities, with the Western Washington College Vikings serving the opposition. Playing bang-up football, behind some exceptional running by Bernie Remson, the Puget Sound gridders came home on the long end of a 12 to 0 victory.

When the Loggers journeyed to Cheney the following week-end they were defeated in one of their toughest games of the year, the Savages winning, 13-6.

Linfield college from McMinnville served the opposition for the Loggers the next week, in the first home game of the season. Apparently C.P.S. had everything their own way, making a total gain of 249 yards to 109 for Linfield. One of the highlights of the contest was Bill McMaster’s 39-yard run that set up the touchdown for the final score, which ended 14 to 6 in favor of the Loggers.

The Whitman Missionaries from Walla Walla came over for the C.P.S. homecoming celebration, and were battered down by a score of 21 to 0.

The boys from Willamette caught Coach Frank’s proteges at a low ebb, defeating them by a score of 39 to 0. Despite the loss by such a large score, Bill Madden played one of the most brilliant defensive games of his career, making a large percentage of the tackles from the safety position.

The Loggers next faced a stubbornly, persistent squad of Pacific University gridmen, who came to Tacoma from Forest Grove. The contest took place during a deluge of rain and on a field of mud, with the final score 0 to 0. Puget Sound gained the amazing total of 209 yards from passes and scrimmage compared with the Badgers’ 97, yet failure to hang on to the slippery pigskin and lack of initial drive in scoring area, left the Loggers with a tie.

College of Idaho’s Wildcats entertained the Loggers in their final game of the season. The Idaho troupe, led by Ralph “Rabbit” Bennett, kept hammering away at the Maroon and White defenses until they led when the gun sounded by a score of 20 to 6.

Bill McLaughlin, quarterback, was voted captain, and teammate, Bill Madden, was chosen inspirational captain of this year’s football squad.

With the encumbering distinction of defending champions, Coach Stuart Parks’ Loggers whipped through a season replete with both thrills and disappointments to finish in second place in the Northwest Conference standings.

The sudden death of Harry Werbisky, team captain and all-conference guard, saw the Loggers hit the skids at times, but recover to finish out the regular schedule in excellent shape.

Puget Sound opened their Conference competition, surprising even their coach, by defeating Whitman, 57-45 and 55-52, respectively. Walker was high for the series with 24 points.

At Willamette the Loggers just couldn’t find the hoop, losing, 44-39, the first night and again drubbed the next night, 45-39.

On to Forest Grove traveled the Loggers and pushed themselves into striking distance of first place by winning a two-game series from the Pacific Badgers. Led by Van Camp and Walker, C. P. S. won the first game, 31-26, and repeated the following night, 39-31.

Linfield’s giant-killing Wildcats, heralded as the dark horse team of the Conference, lived up to expectations by splitting their series at Tacoma. With a tie for first place the bounty, the Loggers played inspired ball, but were nipped by the sharp-shooting Oregon lads by the score 54-53, despite the fact that Walker and Cross each scored 18 points.

The next night the Loggers put the brakes on the Wildcats, winning a thrilling overtime, 59-58.

The Loggers next faced Pacific Lutheran in a foul-studded, hoop-crazy contest at the south end gym. Although the Lutes were favored to repeat their pre-season victory, C. P. S. upheld their rights to the city collegiate title by defeating the Gladiators, 49-48, in a thrilling overtime.

Tom Cross went through the season with a sensational display of shooting ability, canning them from all angles with a one-handed push shot, and will be invaluable next year.

Van Camp was the cog that made the Logger machine function and although not a flashy player, his consistent ability gave the team stability.

Norm Walker was the mainstay of the Logger squad and ended up highest scorer in the conference, averaging 15.8 per game.

Don Brown did excellent work against men with much more experience that he, and improved with every game.

One of the strongest and best balanced track squads in recent years carried the Loggers' colors through the 1941 cinder campaign. Starting the season with the loss of several 1940 high point men, Coach Leo Frank faced the task of developing a squad to cope with Whitman's defending champions and the mighty Forest Grove thinclads.

The Loggers opened their 1941 campaign against Pacific Lutheran College, and although a weakness in the sprints was revealed, C.P.S. ran up 92 points against their cross town rivals' 39. Jack Leggee, 440; John Sharp, 880; Julius Beck, mile and 2 mile, and Bob Maycomber, in the hurdles, all letter men from last year, won their respective races, while Bill McLaughlin defeated P.L.C.'s Marv Harshman in the shot put.

The next week the Loggers drubbed the Bellingham Vikings on their own cinders, 85 to 46. The Puget Sound men showed even greater strength than the previous week, taking 11 firsts to the Vikings 4. The same men were outstanding performers, with Bill Oxholm, Nate Hale, Jim Frank. Mel Blanchard and Gene Clevinger also breaking into the headlines.

A week later the Maroon and White squad crushed the Willamette Bearcats, 82 to 49. Dale McCord and Dan Cushman entered the win column, winning the broadjump and discus respectively, while Mel Blanchard tossed the javelin 177 feet.

When the Loggers journeyed to Forest Grove the following week-end and dealt the Pacific Badgers a 103½ to 22½ setback, fans began to envision a possible conference championship for the Puget Sound men. C.P.S. won thirteen of the fifteen events and took 12 seconds. Bob Maycomber won firsts in the high and low hurdles, broadjump, and placed second in the century, for a total of 18 points.

John Sharp, who was elected captain, will receive a blanket for his four years of competition, while Bill McLaughlin and Jack Leggee will be awarded 3-year sweaters. Julius Beck, Nate Hale, Norm Walker, and Bob Maycomber will receive 2-year sweaters and Bob Hamilton, Jim Rice, Gene Clevinger, Jack Graybeal, Dan Cushman, Mel Blanchard, Axel Oxholm, Jim Frank and Jim Walter all won letters.

Maycomber wins high hurdles.
Stuart Parks, physical education director and basketball coach, came to C. P. S. in the fall of this year from Grinnell College in Iowa. He graduated from Springfield College in Springfield, Massachusetts, where he played football, basketball, and track.

Mr. Parks, with a basketball team placing second in the Northwest Conference this year, has done a splendid job in directing physical education and intramural activities at C. P. S. He hopes to have the recreational facilities of this college expanded to meet the needs of the students, a situation which he believes is gradually taking place.

Coach Leo J. Frank, director of athletics, graduated from Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he played half-back on the football squad, guard on the basketball, and was middle distance runner in track. Coming to C. P. S. in the fall of 1938 when athletics were decidedly on the down-grade, with the athletic department considerably in debt. Coach Frank has wiped out this indebtedness, while the college football teams have been steadily improving, finishing third in the Northwest Conference in 1940. The track team has been undefeated in dual competition in the past two years, finishing second in the conference meet.

Coach Frank's biggest ambition is to see a new stadium on the campus of the College of Puget Sound with a turf football field; he believes that this will eventually be accomplished.

YELL LEADERS

BUS BROWN, ED GRANLUND
SKIIING—Beginning the season with prospects for a strong, well balanced team, the Loggers ski hopes were shattered by one disappointment after another.

Several injuries, while others found the pressure of work too exacting, the C. P. S. ski squad was finally made up of Bud Barrett, Bob Dodds, and Ted Rink.

The first meet of the season was with the University of British Columbia at Vancouver, B. C. On the steep slopes of Grouse mountain, the Loggers trounced their opponents to the tune of 298.3 to 289.8.

With an abbreviated entry list C. P. S. placed sixth in the Pacific Northwest Conference meet, held on Mt. Rainier, defeating such schools as Gonzaga and the University of Oregon.

SKII TEAM

Bill Taylor wins silver skiis.

TENNIS—Under the guidance of our new coach Mr. Parks, this year's tennis squad is so well balanced that a day of intra-squad matches sometimes produces a drastically revised ranking. At the start of the season there were nineteen men trying out for positions on the squad.

Chuck Arnold, who played the number one spot throughout the 1940 season, is expected by Coach Parks, to do exceptionally well again this year, and at the present time is holding that same position.

Other lettermen returning, and filling the number two and three positions respectively, are Jack Duncan and Jim Paulson. Don Brown and Don Carstens, freshmen, complete the regular line-up.

At the present time, the Loggers have lost a dual match to Whitman, 4-2; and won from P. L. C., 2-6. Reed College, Western Washington College, Central Washington, Pacific University and the conference meet at Walla Walla will round out the season.

SKII TEAM

Bud Barrett, Bob Dodds, Ted Rink.
With the intent to bring more interest in Intramural sports and for the welfare of "Joe College," who was growing very soft from lounging on fraternity davenports, our new intramural director, Mr. Stuart Parks, added several activities to this year's program. These include boxing, wrestling, horseshoes, skiing, bowling, foul shooting, and swimming. Because these sports were introduced experimentally, they will not count toward the all-year intramural trophy until next year.

As the annual went to press early this spring, final results were not yet complete. However, Sigma Zeta Epsilon seems headed for its thirteenth successive all-year trophy with 397 1/3 points; the Zetes are closely followed by Delta Kappa Phi with 391 1/3 points; Alpha Chi Nu is third with 367 1/3; Sigma Mu Chi is fourth with 359; the Independents are fifth with 314; and Delta Pi Omicron trails with 292.

TOUCH FOOTBALL

Although Sigma Zeta Epsilon dominated the play up until the last game of the season, the Delta Kappa Phi team came through in the final tilt, defeating the Zetes, 13-0, to throw the race into a three-way tie. The Chi Nus had previously downed the Delta Kapps, but dropped a close decision to the Zetes; because the Zetes were defending champions, they were presented with the trophy.

VOLLEYBALL

A six-year Chi Nu domination of volleyball was ended this year as Sigma Zeta Epsilon wrested the trophy from the Chi Nus. Given only an outside chance at the start of play, the Zetes came through undefeated with the Delta Kapps close behind.

BADMINTON

Another upset came in the badminton playoffs as the Independents, paced by Bob Powell, Francis Chapman, and Clair Hanson, defeated all comers. The closest matches were the finals with the Barbs taking a close decision from Alpha Chi Nu.

"A" LEAGUE BASKETBALL

The Zetes this year won the "A" League Basketball crown, going through the season undefeated. They met the Independents in the finals, and although the scrappy Barbs put up a tough battle, the Zetes were the victors. Three players, Bob Moles, Ted Kintz, and Walt Piper, were voted as all-college players from the championship squad.

"B" LEAGUE BASKETBALL

Zete players this year ended the two-year championship of the Independents when they won the "B" league basketball title. A large squad of experienced players proved to be the winning factor in this year's contest with such freshman sharpshooters as Austin Fengler and Roy Murphy leading the Zete attack.
INTRAMURAL

PING PONG
Two Jims and a Jack were all that the Delta Kappa Phi team needed to wrest the ping pong cup from the joint Zete-Omicron possession and carry it to their Cedar street house.

TRACK
Allowing freshmen who had been conditioning themselves for varsity track to enter the intramural track meet, the Delta Kappa Phi thinclads took a close decision from the Zetes and Chi Nus to win the contest. Individual stars in the field were Bob Moles, Zete, in the high jump; Dan Cushman, Delta Kapp, in the shot put and football punt; and Lee Foreman, Chi Nu, in the broadjump. Jim Frank and Chet Dyer, Delta Kapps, Jim Walter, Zete, and Ed Granlund, Chi Nu, were outstanding in the running events.

SOFTBALL, GOLF, TENNIS
Final results of the softball, golf, and tennis contests could not be obtained; however, at this writing, Alpha Chi Nu, and the Independents are leading the softball race with three wins and no defeats, followed by Sigma Zeta Epsilon, Delta Kappa Phi, and Sigma Mu Chi, each with one victory and two defeats.

Sigma Zeta Epsilon won its first tennis match, while the other fraternities have not yet competed for the championship which last year ended in a three-way tie between the Mu Chis, the Zetes, and the Chi Nus.

The golf tournament which was won last year by Sigma Zeta Epsilon has not yet been played, but will be held May 14 at the Highland Golf course.

OTHER ACTIVITIES
The winners of the new sports begun this season by Coach Parks and Manager Frank Walter are as follows: Horseshoes saw Steve Truselo win the singles title, and Jim Paulson and Herman Kleiner take the doubles.

Wrestling was won by the Independents, while Bob Wilhelmi, 125 pounds; Leo Kawai-saki, 135; Bob Rowan, 145; Norm Burke, 155; Roy Murphy, 165; Lee Foreman, 175, and Elmer Moffett, heavyweight, were individual champions.

Skiing was won by Delta Kappa Phi.

Team bowling was won by Sigma Mu Chi, while Earl Mamlock won individual honors with a score of 605 with a 69 handicap.

Foul shooting was won by Keigi Omori, with 18 baskets out of a possible 25.

Team swimming found Sigma Zeta Epsilon the winner.

The Harry Werbisky Memorial Ping Pong Trophy for the individual championship was won by Norman Walker.
1. Don't rush me.
2. I'll be skiing you.
3. Not that we need exercise.
4. The egg looks swell.
5. Typical college lad.
6. Aren't we having fun?
8. Won't be long at that rate.
The Women's Athletic Association is an extra-curricular organization which fosters participation in athletics among the women of the College. Its purpose is to promote the qualities of democracy, leadership, cooperation, and good sportsmanship. Among the annual activities of WAA are a Sports Spree for the women during Freshman Week, a Play Day for the high schools of the city, and a Gym Jubilee in the spring to exhibit the achievements of the association and the physical education department. At the close of the year, awards are made according to a system of points earned by participation in the various activities.

Officers for the year were: Mary Ogden, President; Muriel Woods, Vice President; Margerita Irle, Secretary; Janet Hatch, Treasurer; Louise Jayko, General Manager; Doris Sommer, Historian; Elizabeth Bona, Program Chairman; Mrs. Mann, Adviser.

Sports Managers were: Kay Woods, Hockey; Elizabeth Bona, Volleyball; Eleanor Graham, Basketball, Baseball, Ping Pong; Betty Jane Pyle, Fall Swimming; Yoshiye Jinguji, Spring Swimming; Pat Keene, Tennis; Janet Hatch, Archery; Ruth Pauline Todd, Badminton.
One of the big events of the women sports year were the hockey games with the University of Washington. In conjunction with the University, a Hockey Club was formed and membership in the Northwest Hockey Association was obtained. Tennis is the last activity of the year; interclass competition was held in April and May.

Badminton is becoming a major sport for women as is ping pong, this year being the first for choosing all-star teams from the interclass contest. The Gammas took the badminton title from the Betas.

Basketball is probably the outstanding women's sport of the year and causes the most competition and excitement. The freshmen took the honors, snatching them from the seniors who tied for second place. With a one point lead the Gammas retained the inter-sorority trophy for the third consecutive year.

The golf competition ended with the Thetas in the lead.
Baseball, a spring sport, was a tie between the upper class team and the lower class team.

Two hours a week of regular class instruction in swimming are offered at the Y.W.C.A. pool. A third hour is used as a plunge period free of charge to anyone who wishes to earn points toward a letter.

Offered for the first time this year, dancing has proved very popular.

The Gammas took first place in volleyball, but the all-star team chosen from the interclass competition is shown.

The most outstanding event in the Washington Alpha chapter's history was the installation last May of the Washington Beta chapter in Seattle Pacific College. Dr. Charles T. Battin, representing the National Council of Pi Kappa Delta, conducted the installation ceremony with the assistance of the entire membership of the C.P.S. chapter. The local chapter also sponsored the eighth annual state invitational high school forensic tournament at which eighty-three teams from thirty-five high schools participated. It likewise sponsored the seventh annual junior college tournament at C.P.S. Justine DeWolfe, Margarita Irle, Robert Elliott, Frank Hanawalt, Herman Kleiner and Yoshiteru Kawano were official Pi Kappa Delta representatives sent to the regional tournament at Stockton, California.
EXTEMPORE

Don Stephenson and Sam Batt won cups in extempore and impromptu speaking respectively in the junior college tournament at C.P.S. Sam Batt, Frank Hanawalt, Margarita Irle and Yoshiteru Kawano made finals at Linfield. Bill Koivisto, Norman Schut, Herman Klieker, Ruth Sonneman, Mary Elizabeth Morton, Marilyn Gilstrap, Bill Koivisto, Russell Alsgaard, Ruth Sonneman, Margarita Irle, Sam Batt, Bob Elliott, Yoshiteru Kawano, Don Stephenson, and Frank Hanawalt all participated in both extempore and impromptu.

ORATORY

Felicie Dahl and Don Stephenson won first place in women's and men's divisions respectively, of the Burmeister oratory contest. Ruth Hanawalt and Frank Hanawalt placed second.

Other students who competed in oratory were Lorraine Justman and Sam Batt.

DEBATE

Norman Schut and Don Stephenson, who placed second in the Junior College tournament at C.P.S. entered with Don Lamka and Bill Koivisto, the final rounds of debate at Linfield. In ten other Puget Sound teams, Yoshiteru Kawano, Norman Breckner, Russell Alsgaard, Lawrence Henderson, Sam Batt, Waichi Oyanagi, Bob Elliott, Frank Hanawalt, Floyd LaFleur, Ed Winskill, Margarita Irle, Ruth Sonneman, Mary Elizabeth Morton, Marilyn Gilstrap, Helen Hite and Justine DeWolfe participated.
To a competent editor and business manager, and even more, to a capable and cooperative staff goes the credit for the organization and publication of this book.

Under the efficient management of Frank Walter, business manager, and Betty Peterson, editor, the Tamanawas has been painstakingly compiled throughout the school year.

The organization committee consisted of Tom Hill, Betty Peterson, Charles Swanson, Anita Wegener, Mr. Drummond, and Mr. Oiseth.

Assisting on the editorial staff of the year book were Blanche Haynes and Jean Rohmer with Administration and Ruth Pauline Todd with classes. Activity chairmen were: Campus life, Marguerite Kath; Forensics, Justine De Wolfe; Dramatics, Mary Catherine Lincoln; Music and Honorary, Bette Brock and Betty Piatt; Publications, Ruth Sonneman; Organizations, Kay Evans and Doris Wittren. Women’s sports were handled by Betty Jane Pyle, while John Sharp was in charge of men’s athletics. Picture Editor, Anita Wegener, was responsible for the snapshot drive; copy editors were Mary Katherine Hager and Marijane Lewis. On the business staff were Frank Walter, manager; Bert Poling, Dick Watson, and Betty Siegle.
The main objective of this year's Trail staff was to put the school newspaper back on its feet, both financially and editorially. The method employed was a high-pressure sales act, conducted by each member of the staff with the result that by the beginning of the second semester the paper was enlarged from five to six columns.

Second semester, with the increased size of the Trail came also an increase in the size of its staff. For the first time in the history of the paper there is a girl as its Sports Editor; the increasingly popular Loggers Ax has added unique humor to it, a humor which has originated at the college. Bob Heaton and his clever linoleum blocks have furnished a series of absorbing caricatures of school life.

STUNTS and "THE TAVERN"

Preliminary to the 1940-1941 season of Dramatics, the Freshmen of the College of Puget Sound, Friday, September 20, presented Stunt Night as a means of acquainting the upperclassmen with their talents. The award went to “Spot Cash,” directed by Doris Wittren and Dorothy Howard.

Filled with excitement and humor, Geo. M. Cohan’s “The Tavern” presented October 17, under the able direction of Miss Martha Pearl Jones, provided unusual and amusing entertainment for Homecoming this year.

The cast included: Blanche Haynes, the attractive and flirtatious governor’s daughter; Jack McGuire, the Vagabond to whom all the world is a stage; Herman Kleiner, the Tavern Keeper’s son; Sylvia Langdon, the hired girl; Keith DeFolo, the Tavern Keeper; Robert Elliot, the hired man; Betty Thralls, the mysterious woman; William Stewart, the Governor; Annabel Miller, the Governor’s charming wife; Charles Swanson, the Fiance; Richard Jarvis, the sheriff; Steve Truselo, Arthur Sheets and Cyril Hanson, the sheriff’s men; Wilbur Baising-er, the Insane Asylum attendant.
OUR TOWN

“Our Town,” Thorton Wilder’s Pulitzer prize play, presented November 29 and 30 by the College of Puget Sound Play Crafters under the direction of Miss Martha Pearl Jones, was remarkable in its simplicity and deep understanding. It is said that it was one of the finest plays ever produced here.

The romantic fantasy “Smiling Through” was presented as this year’s spring play. The appealing and tender story takes place in 1870 and in the years immediately following the first World War. Those who see it will not soon forget the memorable performance of the cast in their portrayal of those tragic but brave characters. It can truly be considered one of Allan Martin’s best plays.

CHORAL READING GROUP

Newly organized this year at the College of Puget Sound was the Choral Reading division of the Campus Play Crafters, one of the first groups of its kind appearing in the Northwest. Although it was the earliest form of poetic interpretation it is the newest interpretive movement of our day.

The Freshmen took the spotlight November 8 before a regular student assembly, when they presented Booth Tarkington's exciting comedy, "The Travelers." Later at a Masonic banquet in Puyallup, they repeated their excellent performance.

The cast included: Art Sheets, Mr. Roberts; Ruth Hanawalt, Mrs. Roberts; Roberta Humble, Jessie, the daughter of Roberts; Ed Ercegovic, La Sera; George Victor, the man in the doorway; Dorothea Federico, Martha, the servant; Bob Albertson, Luigi, another servant; Gordon Soder, the chauffeur; Everett Lowther, Salvatore; Patricia Hanson, Mrs. Slidell; Frank Hicks, Freddie Slidell.

FRESHMAN PLAY
Only ten senior women have this year attained the necessary high scholarship and participation in campus activities which qualify them for membership in Otlah, senior women’s honor society.

The year’s officers were: Doris Hartman, president; Frances Hoss, vice president; and Mildred McKenzie, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Raymond Seward is the adviser for the group.

Mu Sigma Delta

Only juniors and seniors with exceptionally high scholastic standing and faculty members with Phi Beta Kappa rating are elected into this scholastic honorary. Only students excellent in scholarship in the field of liberal arts may qualify for membership in Mu Sigma Delta.

Knights of the Log

The Knights of the Log is a sophomore men's honorary service organization. At least one and not more than four members are chosen from each fraternity and the Independents to become Knights. They ushered at college and civic affairs, sponsored with the Spurs, the freshman mixer, and served at Campus Day, May Day, and the all-college party. They gladly combined business and pleasure when they entertained the visiting Spurs, and they completed the year by cooperating with the Spurs to make their annual picnic at Lake Wilderness a memorable college party. Officers for the year were: President, fall, Tom Barker; spring, Sam Batt; vice president, fall, Matthew Seto; spring, Paul Heuston; treasurer, fall, Raleigh Utterback; spring, Jim Walter; sergeant-at-arms, fall, Jack Seltzer; spring, Tom Brown.

SPURS

Three women from each sorority and the Independent Group are chosen annually, on a basis of participation in activities and service to the school, as members of this Sophomore women's honorary organization.

With the Knights of the Log they usher at plays and other school programs, plan the Campus and May Day programs, and the freshman mixer. The completion of their year is the Spur Knight picnic, held this year at Lake Wilderness.

Miss Martha Pearl Jones is adviser of the group.

Officers for the year were: Kay Woods, president; Mildred DeSpain, vice president; Bette Brock, secretary, Fall; Carol Webb, secretary, Spring; Doris Sommer, treasurer; Betty Jane Pyle, historian; Mary Katherine Hager, editor.

Leaving April 25 for their annual spring concert tour, the Adelphian Choral Society of the College of Puget Sound, under the direction of Professor John Paul Bennett, appeared before audiences in fourteen Eastern Washington towns on their ten-day trip.

The C.P.S. band, under the direction of Mr. Louis Wersen, made striking advances this year when they went with the football team to the game at William and played at every home game. Members of the band with members of the Adelphians formed a unique marching unit, the first of its kind at the College.
The Puget Sound Chamber Music Society, under the direction of Mr. Erich Koker, has grown from a five-piece orchestra to the largest Chamber Music organization in the Northwest. On December 4 they presented their winter concert; their last concert of the year will be given at summer band camp.

This spring the Puget Sound Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Louis Wersen, played a full evening of symphony music as its part of the program being sponsored by the College's Conservatory of Music.

Celebrating this year its twenty-fifth anniversary is Kappa Phi, national Methodist college women’s club. Established to give college women a fellowship and common interest through their church and through their school, Chi Chapter of Kappa Phi is this semester observing its ninth year at the College of Puget Sound.

Officers for the year have been: Lola Hughes, president; Margarita Irle, vice president; Lucia Gjuka, secretary; Enid Miller, treasurer; and Anita Misener, chaplain. Completing second year as sponsor is Miss Helen McKinney, head of the French Department.

Lola Hughes, Fall and Spring President
THE INTER-SORORITY COUNCIL is composed of the presidents and representatives of the four sororities on the campus. It is their purpose to make rules guiding these social organizations. They play the important part of stimulating a feeling of unity among the groups.

The annual inter-sorority dance was held on January 11 this year.

Officers of the group were: Fall, Marie Mulligan, president; Muriel Woods, vice president; Doris Wittren, secretary; Virginia Judd, treasurer. Spring, Muriel Woods, president; Doris Wittren, vice president; Mary Ann Jelusich, secretary; Janet Robbins, treasurer.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL, comprised of the presidents and representatives of the college's five fraternities, formulates the rules and regulations which govern these five Greek-letter organizations. Difficulties and problems arising in the groups as well as activities planned for the year, are settled by this council.

PI GAMMA MU

Reorganized last fall with both student and faculty officers, Pi Gamma Mu, social science honorary, this year sponsored a student assembly, the topic of which was "Can a Democracy Present a United Front?" and conducted a number of round table discussions on economics, biology, sociology, psychology, political science, and other social studies. In these group meetings both students and faculty members acted as leaders.

Officers for the year were:

S. A. C. A. C. S.

In its second year at the College of Puget Sound, the Student Affiliate Chapter of the American Chemical Society is an organization limited to students of Chemistry who have at least eighteen grade points in that subject.

During the year, members of the Puget Sound chapter attended monthly meetings at the University of Washington and visited a number of industrial plants.

Officers for the year were: Ed Grahn, president; Bill Thorp, vice president; Asa Maylott, secretary; Shigeo Wakamatsu, treasurer. Advisers are Dr. Fehlandt and Dr. Picard.

WITAN

In 1932, half a dozen out-of-town men grouped together for the purpose of providing as satisfactory and economical living conditions as possible while attending college. The need was felt for some organization and it was from this beginning that the Witan was formed. At first the group operated on a purely cooperative plan, but it was soon found advisable to have a house-mother and cook.

The Witan is not a fraternity in the sense that it sponsors a set social program. It is rather the purpose of Witan to furnish men the fellowship and experiences that come from living together while attending college.

Officers for the year were: Asa Maylott, president; Weldon Rau, secretary; and Frank Lowther, house manager.
Concluding a strikingly successful year, the C.P.S. Ski Club included upon a crowded calendar the following events:

They sponsored an all-school skating party early in the year, followed by the College of Puget Sound ski day at Mount Rainier on February 22. Late in March they sponsored the high school ski meet.

February 8, members of the Ski team traveled to Canada where they won the Vancouver U.B.C. meet; in the Northwest Intercollegiate Ski meet they placed sixth, coming in ahead of both Gonzaga and Oregon University.

Bill Taylor, one of the members of the club, won the Silver Skis at Mount Rainier, the biggest ski race on the west coast.

Officers for the year were: Chuck Swanson, president; Ronald Robbins, vice president; Kay Woods, secretary; and Jean Button, treasurer. Adviser of the club is Dr. Warren E. Tomlinson.

Dr. Williston is adviser of this group which is sponsored by the Carnegie Endowment Fund. The club meets for the purpose of studying international affairs. Members of the organization attended a convention with members of other similar groups from northwest colleges.
DER
DEUTSCHE VEREIN

Organized for the purpose of providing members with practice in conversational German is Der Deutsche Verein, the German Club. Open to students who have taken one or more semesters of German, the members take hikes in and about Tacoma and hold social meetings throughout the winter.

Dr. Warren E. Tomlinson is the adviser of the group.

LA MESA REDONDA

The Spanish Club is comprised of students who have had at least one year of Spanish and who are interested in the language and culture of the Spanish-speaking countries. Mrs. Charles Robbins is adviser for the group.

Officers for the year have been: Stan Burkey, president; Betty Cook, vice president; Bettianne Wasserman, secretary; and Esther Sandstedt, treasurer.

JAPANESE STUDENTS’ CLUB

Comprising two per cent of the student body and completing their third year as a campus organization are the Nippons, the Japanese-American students of the College of Puget Sound. As participants in the intra-mural program, members of the Choral Society, of the Campus Playcrafters, of the forensics department, of all phases of school life, they have organized with the purpose of developing understanding in Japanese ways and culture among the students at the College.

Officers for the year were: Yoshiteru Kawano, president; Yoshiye Omori, vice president; Waichi Oyanagi, secretary; Matthew Seto, treasurer; Yoshiye Jingui, historian; and Kenji Oyanagi, sports manager.

YW-C.A.

All college women are eligible for membership in this group, which has Christian fellowship as its aim. The program throughout the past year emphasized "Christian living in a modern world." Activities are directed toward the promotion of service projects and social affairs—Christmas baskets, entertainment for children of the White Shield Home, etc.

W.S.S.F. was promoted by this group for the relief of foreign students, firesides and parties helped in developing the social side of the calendar.

A series of "Philosophy of Life," which included various faculty leaders and an informal discussion, was also among the highlights of the year's program.

The purpose of this group is to promote fellowship among the men of the school. The Y.M.C.A.

Y.M.C.A.

provides a common ground on which all of the men of the campus can share freely and easily the society and fellowship of one another.

Another aim of the Y.M.C.A. is to encourage honest and intelligent patriotism as we are citizens of the school and country. This is done through discussions and talks on problems of school relationships and policy as well as on questions of national and world-wide interest.

The Y.M.C.A. is a group that fosters world-wide fellowship by striving for the highest type of citizenship at home. And finally, by our relationships with one another, bound by a common loyalty to the ideals of Jesus, the Y.M.C.A. strives for the making of these ideals effective in personality and society.

YW. Y. M. CABINET

The officers of the Y. W. C. A. for 1940-41 were: Margarita Irle, president; Ruth Pauline Todd, vice president; Eleanor Warne, secretary; Muriel Woods, treasurer; Audrey Albertson, membership; Anita Misener, religion; Mildred Blake, asst. in religion; Doris Sommer, publicity; Ruth McCrea, service; Ruth Hanawalt, freshman representative.

Officers elected by the Y. M. C. A. for this year have been: Larry Henderson, president; Sam Batt, vice president; Russel Alsgaard, secretary; Bob Hardy, treasurer; Frank Hanawalt, program chairman; Bob Elliott, service chairman; Bob Albertson, freshman representative.

WOMEN’S FEDERATION

Women’s Federation is an organization made up of the presidents and treasurers of Spurs, W. A. A., Y. W. C. A., and Otlah. By means of a style show, skating parties, and candy sales, money was made to provide for equal financing of these groups. Mrs. Drushel, Dean of Women, is the adviser of the group.
ANDERSON HALL

Formally dedicated in October, the newest building on the campus was named Agnes Healy Anderson Hall. The late Mrs. Anderson was one of the most generous donors of the Women's Residence Hall.

Highlighting the year's social calendar was the dinner dance given on Friday, December 13. There were also firesides, dances and picnics which completed the year's social life.

Favorite guest at the hall was "Aggie," a store dummy, who made her appearance in the closet in one of the rooms. From then on she was the object of most of the jokes played on the girls until her departure.

INDEPENDENTS

All students not affiliated with a social Greek letter organization belong to the Independents. This organization enables members to participate in the various activities of the intra-mural program, also carrying on a social program sufficiently varied to appeal to different interests.

Officers for the year were: Shigeo Wakamatsu, president; Kathleen McCallum, vice president; Sam Batt, secretary; Bette Myers, treasurer; Lorraine Justman, program chairman; Helen Willschko, manager of women's athletics; Clair Hansen, manager of men's athletics; Dr. Williston, adviser.
ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Associated Students
College of Puget Sound
Tacoma, Washington

Dear Students:

The editor, the business manager and the entire staff of the 1941 Tamanawas take this opportunity to thank you for your cooperation in the editing and printing of this book.

We would like especially to thank Mary Catherine Lincoln for designing the covers on this year's annual, molding the clay figures for the division pages as well as for other art work throughout the book. We also wish to thank Winfield Brown, who spent many hours photographing the division pages, and Willard Bellman and Asa Maylott, our amateur campus photographers.

There are also those with whom only a few students come in contact, but without whom we would be unable to publish this year book. We make this public acknowledgment to express our appreciation for their work and cooperation:

THE COMMONS
FORESTS

The state of Washington is dependent upon its forest resources for many of the things which make life enjoyable and worth while.

Forest land owners very generally desire to keep their properties in a high state of production.

Such an undertaking requires public cooperation in prevention of fire in forest properties, in securing adequate markets at home and abroad for forest products, and in maintenance of equitable systems of taxation.
