FOREWORD

THE DOORWAYS ON OUR CAMPUS HAVE OPENED OPPORTUNITIES TO US FOR LEARNING, LEADERSHIP, AND PLEASURE. THE 1942 TAMANAWAS PORTRAYS A HISTORY OF OUR SCHOOL YEAR AND A BRIEF GLIMPSE INTO ITS PAST AND FUTURE. MAY THIS BOOK OF MEMORIES INCREASE IN VALUE AS THE YEARS RECEDE.
WE DEDICATE THE 1942 TAMANAWAS TO THE CONTINUED SUCCESS OF OUR COLLEGE WHICH HAS BEEN UNDER THE CONSECRATED LEADERSHIP OF PRESIDENT TODD FOR THE PAST TWENTY-NINE YEARS, AND WHOSE DREAM FOR IT IS EXPRESSED ON THESE PAGES.
WHAT WAS . . . IS . . . AND MAY BE . . .

It will be twenty-nine years in September since we were asked to be the president of the College of Puget Sound. It was a difficult undertaking. About the only people who were not discouraged were the students and faculty. Our coming was rated by a good many as a losing experiment. We had a promise in our heart. God spoke to us, saying, "You will not fail," and we went to work. By His help and that of friends of privately endowed education, we are where we are today.

The artistic, substantial buildings are the emblems of the quality of the real college. A cultured, Christian faculty creates a Christian atmosphere. The fact that the College is on the approved list of the Association of American Universities and in the roster of institutions of higher learning of the world, attests success academically. We rejoice in "what God hath wrought."

What the College will be, depends on alumni, friends and responsible leaders. Industry is seeking the electric energy from our snow-capped mountains. That means a larger population on the Sound. More youth will be ready to receive what the College has to give. War is demanding more and better educated personnel. Peace will but multiply that need many times over. But better spiritually balanced men will be required.

Mrs. Todd and I are thankful to have had the opportunity to work with you. The College has a great future. We ask God's richest benediction to rest upon all. We hope that the spirit of loyalty and devotion to God and His truth may ever abide in the College.

EDWARD H. TODD.

PRESIDENT JIM'S MESSAGE

The highlight of this year's events here on the campus was Walesby's student drive for a student union building, ending ultimately with the super structure on our campus.

Cross and his cohorts started with great success bonfire rallies. The joint parade and rally with P. L. C. was a good beginning of inter-college cooperation. The new committee, Maroon and White, was formed to initiate all-college activities and gain the support of the campus organizations. A student employment bureau enabled about one hundred C. P. S. students to secure jobs. Haley's homecoming will long be remembered as one of the outstanding celebrations. In general, the cooperation of the student body and faculty, in view of present conditions, has been exceptional and any success of this student administration is due to their work.

Our hope for the future is that the new president of this College will have the interest, foresight, initiative, and ability that Dr. Todd possesses.

JIM PAULSON.

CLASSES
CLASS OF 1945

Two hundred and twenty-seven members of the class of '45 began their stay at C. P. S. by taking an active interest in school affairs. Several freshmen were outstanding on the football and basketball teams. The Freshman S. C. A. was very active, and the Frosh were also successful in debate and oratory.

It was an indeed sad day in our lives to lose the annual bag rush to the Sophomores, who compiled twice as many points as the green hats.

LeRoy Vaughn, President; Jean Hallen, Secretary
Rudy Mockle, Sergeant at Arms; Jack Moore, Vice-President

Don Carlos Stephenson, President (not present)
Walter Gould, Vice-President; Janice Eisenhower, Secretary

CLASS OF 1944

The class of '44 became the first class within the last decade to win a double victory in the bag rush. Again this year the class swamped their opponents in the annual affair by the decisive score of 945 to 456. The “bag toting affair” climaxed a week of hot rivalry during which the Frosh president was twice abducted and held captive along with the vice-president.

The class of '44 also claimed the title of “Champion Fire Builders” when they built a fire with railroad ties, planks and cardboard boxes to a height of thirty-four feet and ten inches for the P. L. C. game rally. The flames rose to a height of close to one hundred feet, and could be seen for miles around.
CLASS OF 1943

The class of '43 gained notoriety by losing both of its bag rushes, a record unequalled in many years, and only winning the tug-of-war from the Freshmen saved complete disgrace.

We are the third largest class ever to enter our college with a membership of 283. Many of this original number are now serving in the armed service.

We are proud to claim two of the best athletes ever to perform for Maroon and White. These men, Harry Werbisky and Norman Walker, were fine scholars as well as sportsmen, and their untimely deaths were great losses for our class.

CLASS OF 1942

The class of '42 started its career four years ago under the able direction of president Bill Moore. Moore was also the prexy the second year, but gave way to Tom Cross when the class reached the junior level. Phil Walesby led the class the past year.

In the first year the class lost the bag rush, but came through in the tug-of-war. A victory was chalked up in both events the sophomore year. Lawrence Henderson and Frank Walter shared leadership in the Knights of the Log while Virginia Judd was Spur president.

Jim Paulson was elected president of the student body while Virginia Judd and Ruth Pauline Todd held down the vice-president and secretary positions.

On the field of sports Bill McLaughlin was tops, having earned awards in football, basketball and track. Bill Tregoning, football and Tom Cross and Jim Paulson, basketball, are the other top sportsters in the class of '42.

Margarita Irle was given the A. A. U. W. award while Dorothy Ann Brenner topped the class in scholastic achievement.

What can one write about a person such as Norm? Just to enumerate his activities is not enough, for all of his endeavors were tinted by him. Mere analysis of his activities will not show the real Norm. Probably the usual thing would go something like this:

NORMAN WALKER:
Basketball; Track.
Class Representative to Central Board; Sigma Zeta Epsilon, vice-president; Intra-mural sports; Scholarship.

A good record—yes, but when you read it, does it represent Norm as you remember him? No, for each of us saw him in a different light—in the light created by his personality on each of us. Then what can one write about Norm? Let each of us write our own memorium. It would be the most splendid tribute that we could give him.

Otlah, scholastic honorary for senior women who have maintained a grade average of B or above, follow an active routine during the year. One of the important functions sponsored by the group is the annual spring tea, this year held in Kittredge Hall before the Women's Federation style show. A chapel program, announcing members for the coming year is another anticipated activity planned by the group. This year the Christmas window in Jones Hall was decorated by members. Officers for this year are Dorothy Ann Brenner, president; Ruth Pauline Todd, vice-president; and Betty Troxell, secretary-treasurer.

Mu Sigma Delta, scholastic honorary for faculty and students alike is a local chapter, based on principles of the national Phi Beta Kappa honorary. Qualifications for membership require a grade point of 2.5 for juniors and 2.25 for seniors. In May the largest social function is sponsored in the form of a banquet honoring new members of the organization. Officers for this year include Dr. Coolidge Chapman, president; Miss Lucille Meredith, vice-president; Richard Smith, recording secretary; Miss Irma Hawkinson, corresponding secretary, and Mr. Charles Robbins, treasurer.
Outstanding sophomore men, selected from the fraternal and independent organizations on the basis of scholarship, character and activity during their freshman year, make up the ever active Knights of the Log of our campus. Fulfilling their pledge of loyalty and servitude the Knights carry on an active program during the school year. Their various duties include ushuring at college functions, decorating the halls for Homecoming and Christmas, posting and organizing pep affairs, and assisting in the debate tourneys and music concerts held at school.

Officers for this year, fall: Norman Breckner, president; Bob Hamilton, vice-president; Bill Causin, secretary-treasurer; Kenji Oyanagi, sergeant at arms. Spring: Bob Hamilton, president; Bob Moles, vice-president; Bill Causin, secretary-treasurer; Don Brown, sergeant at arms.

One of the most active service groups on the campus, Spurs, promote school spirit, support all student activities, and foster among women of C. P. S. a spirit of loyalty. Their many activities include ushuring at all plays, concerts and recitals, and helping with Homecoming, Christmas, and Campus Day. The traditional May Day daisy chain is carried by active Spurs and this year with the help of the Knights of the Log a large flower arch was made for Homecoming. The annual Spur-Knight all day picnic is a function sponsored by the group as well as the assembly announcing pledges selected from the freshmen class on the basis of scholarship, activities and character.

Gertrude Kincaid was president for this year, and her cabinet included Doris Meredith, vice-president; Jean Button, secretary; Norma Gagliardi, treasurer; and Maxine Bitney, editor.
A year of diversified activity for the Dramatic Art Department began late in September with the annual Freshman Stunt Night. Four skits, featuring virtually all members of the freshman class, were directed by upperclass members of the Campus Playcrafters. The winning stunt was written and directed by Bill Stewart and Blanche Haynes Gemperli.

In October, the freshman class gave three one-act plays, first for the public, and then several weeks later, as a special performance at Camp Murray.

In April, three one-act plays were combined with the one-act faculty farce and an evening’s program was presented to the public. The plays were directed by Anita Misener, Janet Robbins, and Dorothy Howard.

On May 7, members of the Literary Interpretation classes presented a recital of poetry and prose which took the place of the annual junior and senior speech recitals.
Comparatively a new organization on the campus, this term saw the second year of activity for the Choral Reading Division of the Campus Playcrafters. Included in their year's program were several programs at Camp Murray and Fort Lewis, before civic groups, and before several high school audiences. In February a choral reading program was presented for members of the annual high school debate tournament and the year was concluded with a formal recital. Members of the group are Irma Hawkinson, Dorothy Howard, Velma Powers, Peggy Steele, Doris Wittren, Blanche Haynes Gemperli, Mildred McKenzie, Anita Misener, Deborah Webb, Kay Woods, Willard Bellman, Margarita Irle, Frank Hanawalt, Betty Thralls, and Wilbur Baisinger.
A riotous courtroom farce was this year’s Homecoming Play. “Ladies of the Jury” presented November 17 by the Campus Playcrafters. For two weeks before the public performance of the play, it was given before soldier audiences at Camp Murray. Directed by Martha Pearl Jones, the cast included Bob Heath, Betty Thralls, Anita Sherman, Asa Maylott, Willard Gee, Bill Stewart, Rolland Lutz, Mary Katherine Hager, Jack Graybeal, Felicie Dahl, Dixie Bullard, Pat Davis, Art Sheets, Chuck Swanson, Jack McGuire, Blanche Haynes Gemperli, Doris Wittren, Bob Craig, Peggy Steele, Frank Hanawalt, Wilbur Baisinger, and Dorothy Howard.
"SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE"

This year's spring play, "Seven Keys to Baldpate," featured the following cast: Frank Hanawalt, Anita Misener, Anita Sherman, Wilbur Baisinger, Gertrude Kincaid, Mary Katherine Hager, Norman Anderson, Chuck Swanson, Bob Heath, Rolland Lutz, George Lutz, Russell Alsgaard, Philip Walesby.

Every four years, members of the faculty of the College of Puget Sound present a Faculty Play. This "fourth year" year saw the presentation of the melodramatic farce, "Winsome Winnie," a one-act play written in three acts, with the following cast: Miss Meredith, Mrs. Drushel, Miss McClanahan, Dick Smith, Mr. Anderson, Professor McMillin, Dr. Tomlinson, and Dr. Williston.

"WINSOME WINNIE"
An efficient business manager and staff has helped put the Trail on the top of the heap and at the close of the year, for the second time in several years, the publication is well out of debt. Ed Hungerford, second term editor, succeeded in keeping the editorial policy of the paper on the same high level. A new method was introduced in the spring semester, with the page editors each taking over one issue. A larger staff than usual worked this year.
Material for the Tamanawas was compiled throughout the school year by an efficient and cooperative staff under the leadership of Ruth Pauline Todd as Editor and Dick Haley as Business Manager. Many ideas for the actual production and layouts were obtained from the Associated Collegiate Press Convention which was represented by the College of Puget Sound for the first time by this year's editor.

The college string ensemble, which is known as the Puget Sound Chamber Music Society, has been under the leadership of Mr. Erich Koker for the past four years. They have participated in the Sunday afternoon vesper concerts, presented a program in Seattle and also at the First Methodist Church in Tacoma. There has been a regular attendance, and the members of the organization have had the opportunity to play a wide variety of music under capable direction.

The college band has been directed by Mr. Louis G. Wersen and played at the home football games held in the Stadium bowl. Their rehearsals are held every Tuesday and Thursday mornings throughout the year. On May fourth the students of the college heard the band perform on their own platform for the first time during the year when they presented a short program in one of the assemblies.
The Puget Sound Symphony has rehearsed with Mr. Louis G. Wersen on Tuesday evenings throughout the year. They presented one concert in the vespers series on January twenty-fifth and another later in the spring on May 24. The group is larger this year and though the members are not all C. P. S. students, they have brought fame to the college for the fine quality of the music which they have produced.

The Adelphian Choral Society was somewhat disrupted this year, but the members gathered together and under the direction of Mr. John Paul Bennett presented a unique and interesting program of Russian folk music and liturgical chants. They have been known as the Schola Cantorum which is fashioned after the plan of the famous “school of singing” originated by Johann Sebastian Bach. The guest artist was Mme. Anna La Vaska of St. Spiridon’s Russian Orthodox Church in Seattle.
The Tacoma Art Association, in cooperation with the College, has this year sponsored eight monthly exhibitions in the Towers of Jones Hall. In addition to bringing valuable works of art to the students of the College, these exhibits have attracted thousands of visitors to the campus during the past few months. Highlights of this year's exhibition season have been the Van Gogh, Rouault, and Latin America shows.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

The College of Puget Sound is one of six institutions in the State of Washington accredited by the State Department of Education for the training of Junior and Senior High School Teachers. All candidates for the Three Year Secondary Certificate must spend a fifth year in college and present one hundred and fifty semester hours of credit, including specific academic and professional courses. During the fifth year each candidate must spend one semester in practice teaching in a subject regularly taught in junior or senior high school, and the whole program is arranged and directed by the Head of the Department of Education. Teacher graduates are placed in positions by the Teacher’s Placement Bureau which is directed by Dr. R. Powell, Head of the Department of Education. Placement has always been high, even in years when teachers were plentiful, because superintendents have come to recognize the high standards of training maintained by the College of Puget Sound.

Dr. Powell is assisted by Mr. E. Delmar Gibbs, Assistant Professor of Education.
FORENSICS

The forensic department entertained the Washington High Schools at its ninth annual meet, the largest of its kind west of the Mississippi. Over thirty schools sent representatives.

Colleges and Junior Colleges of the Coast were entertained at the seventh annual Junior College Meet at the end of the year.

EXTEMP.

C. P. S. speakers were finalists in all extemporaneous speaking contests they entered. The general subject was "Pan American Cooperation." Miss Meredith was the coach for the extempers and the orators.

Seated: Mary Elizabeth Morton, Charlene Hefflinger, Ruth Sonnemann, Hester Robinson.
Standing: Sam Batt, Walter Seabloom, Bill Koivisto, Oliver Soares, Don Lamka, Frank Hanawalt.

---

ORATORY

At the Burmiester Oratorical Contest, first place in the men's and women's divisions was won by Frank Hanawalt and Mary Elizabeth Morton, respectively. Second place honors were won by Frank Price and Marilyn Gilstrap.

INTER-SORORITY COUNCIL

Important because of the many duties it must perform, Inter-Sorority Council is called one of the most needed groups on the campus. Composed of presidents and representatives from each of the four sororities, the council sets rushing rules, levies all needed discipline and promotes a feeling of unity among the groups. The Inter-Sorority Ball was held this year at the Fellowship Hall, January 10, with Betty Heaton as chairman.

Officers for the first semester were Kathryn Evans, president, and Betty Heaton, secretary. Mary Ellen Peterson was the second semester president, and Kay Woods was the secretary.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

Consisting of the presidents and representatives of the college's fraternities, inter-fraternity council formulates the rules and regulations which govern these organizations. The settling of difficulties and problems arising in these groups, as well as cooperation with Inter-Sorority Council and Student Affairs Committee, and assistance to freshmen are among the activities of the council.

The annual inter-fraternity dance was held May 1.

Officers for the year were:
Fall—Phil Walesby, president.
Spring—Phil Raymond, president.
The Maroon and White, a new committee of fraternity and sorority presidents and two representatives of the Independents, was organized by Jim Paulson for the first time this year.

Its purpose was to initiate and gain support of all-college activities. This organization helped make bon-fire rallies, our homecoming, and "dime dances" successful on our campus. It also has been selected to be the defense committee of C. P. S.

"DIME DANCES"

The "dime dances" which were held in the Student Union Building following games and college plays were anticipated by all of the students. They proved to be very successful and the nickelodeon provided music by top rating orchestras all over the country.
Those students not affiliated with any Greek letter organization are Independents. The aim of this group is to promote activities for the welfare of the whole student body and to help those students belonging to get into school affairs.

The group meets monthly and the cabinet meets once a week. A Sadie Hawkins Dance was the main activity of the year.

Officers for the year were: Norman Schut, president; Wilfred Woods, vice-president; Marjorie Wagner, secretary-treasurer, and Don Robbins, John Lantz, Russel Alsgaard, Enid Miller, freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior representatives respectively. Advisor was Dr. Williston.

MEN’S DORMITORY

Across the south side of the campus is the men’s dorm, alias Anderson Annex, alias Oscar I. Anderson Hall. Inhabited by out-of-town campus men, the building is run on a co-operative basis, although Oscar Anderson serves a house-mother.

The building was purchased by the college this last year to provide comfortable living conditions for men not living in other places.
Among the newer buildings on the campus, Agnes Healy Anderson Hall this year has forty occupants. Under the direction of Mrs. Schneider, the hall was governed by four committees consisting of scholarship, social, standards, and courtesy.

Highlighting the social calendar was a formal Christmas dinner dance. Other activities for the year included firesides, a Halloween dance, a Thanksgiving dinner at which the faculty carved, a Valentine dance, open house at Homecoming, and at the opening of the Student Union Building, a spring picnic, and the President’s reception for graduating students.

Officers for the first semester were: Kay Evans, president; Berget Carlson, vice-president; Betty Jane Pyle, secretary; Mary Ellen Peterson, treasurer; Ethel Peterson, historian; and Betty May Hampton, sergeant-at-arms. For the second semester they were: Tad Burd, president; Jane Hudson, vice-president; Mildred DeSpain, secretary; Mary Frances Johnson, treasurer; Odeena Jensen, historian; Peggy Steele, sergeant-at-arms.
During the past year the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. have combined to form the Student Christian Association. All college students are eligible to belong to this organization, which is a voluntary group of students and faculty devoted to working toward the developments of the individual and society in accordance with the principles of Jesus.

Highlights of the year's activities were the W. S. S. F. drive to aid less fortunate students in other countries, led by Herman Kleiner, and the inter-racial worship service attended by representatives from C. P. S. and the various churches. Other activities included a panel, religious programs at Fort Lewis, early Thursday morning worship services, and a joint meeting of Japanese and white American students at the home of Dr. Powell to orient themselves mutually with the problem facing the Japanese students.

Elected at Seabeck were Lawrence Henderson and Margarita Irle, regional co-chairmen, and Herman Kleiner area chairman.

Officers were: Frank Hanawalt, president; Jean Stanton, vice-president; Carol Webb, secretary; Etheljane Cohoon and Evans Nelson, treasurers; Bob Elliott, service commission chairman; Mary Ellen Peterson, program chairman; Frank Price, freshman president; Michiko Tinguji, freshman representative.

Row two: Bob Elliott, Mary Ellen Peterson, Gertrude James, Ruth McCrea, Kay Woods, Miss Lewis, Frank Price.
INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

During the fall semester of 1941 the International Relations Club held as its chief topic for discussion, Far Eastern Affairs, and in November a delegation of six met at the University of Washington to discuss publications on subjects of international interest. Sponsored by the Carnegie Foundation, the group aims to fulfill its purpose of acquainting and discussing contemporary international affairs.

Officers for the year were Harris Martin, president; Bill Koivisto, vice-president; Marjorie Wagner, secretary; Don Lamka, treasurer, and Dr. Frank G. Williston acting as advisor, opened his home frequently for informal group discussions.

JAPANESE STUDENTS

Organized to promote a Japanese solidarity at the college, is the Japanese Club. The main purpose of the organization is to help Japanese freshmen to get into school affairs.

The activities of the group consist of parties and socials, including a reception for high school seniors at which the college setup is explained.

This group was headed this last year by Shigeo Wakamatsu.
As a social science honorary, Pi Gamma Mu is recognized with both students and faculty. The purpose of the group is the study of the social science. In group meetings both the students and faculty act as leaders.

Officers for the past year were: John Boyle, president; Professor Marvin Schafer, vice-president; Dr. John Robinson, chapter secretary.

Membership in the College of Puget Sound chapter of the Student Affiliate of the American Chemical Society is open to chemistry majors who have at least fifteen grade points in that subject. The organization promotes an exchange of information of interest to chemists, and keeps members in touch with the chemical world.

Officers of the year were: Lee Crain, president; Dick Musser, vice-president; Shigeo Wakamatsu, treasurer; Asa Maylott, secretary. Advisors are Dr. Phillip Fehlandt and Dr. Hugh Picard.
CAUSERIE FRANCAISE
(FRENCH CLUB)

Though unorganized as a club, Causerie Francaise is a group of French students who have had the equivalent of some upper division work. Once every two or three weeks informal gatherings were held at the apartment of Miss McKinney, where an hour or two was spent in French conversation. The purpose of these meetings was to further the ability to converse freely in the French language, as well as to provide an interesting afternoon. To create an atmosphere in keeping with the occasion, tea and some French tidbit was usually served by Miss McKinney.

GERMAN CLUB

Marjorie Wagner, president of the college German Club, lead the organization through a successful year. Meeting occasionally for a song fest, or a little conversational German, the club fulfills its purpose of putting the language into everyday use to the best advantage. Several hikes were also held this year with Dr. Tomlinson, faculty advisor, accompanying the group.
Always one of the most active groups on the campus, the C. P. S. Ski Club followed an active program this year. Included in the membership, accommodations plus free ski lessons were offered as special inducement for college students to take advantage of this opportunity. The purpose of the organization is to promote skiing at C. P. S. and furnish rides, accommodations, and lessons for its members.

The fifth annual Washington Birthday Intramural races were held February 23, and over thirty college students entered. With a record of five years the oldest and strongest high school meet, sponsored by the college club was held March 15 with eight schools participating.

Officers for this year are Ted Rinck, president; Bob Dodds, vice-president; Elinor Upper, secretary; Helen Argue, treasurer, and Dr. Tomlinson, faculty advisor.

Made up of the presidents and treasurers of Otlah, SCA, WAA and Spurs, Women’s Federation is organized to earn money with which to finance these organizations.

Among the activities of the year were a skating party, a tolo, and a style show.

A delegate to a national convention for organizations similar to Women’s Federation was also sent from C. P. S.

Officers for the year were: Dorothy Ann Brenner, president; Nelda Peterson, vice-president; Pat Keene, secretary Gertrude Kincaid, treasurer.

The '41 football season saw the last efforts on the gridiron of one of the greatest athletes ever produced by C. P. S., Captain Bill McLaughlin. Ever driving, never down, always fighting and never out, he was always an inspiration to his team. His brilliant college career far surpasses any words in praise that could be put here. Bill Tregoning, another veteran, also played his last football for C. P. S.; he terminated his career here by being chosen for the second team of Little All Coast Stars. The football squad admiring their guidance and unlimited courage, elected them Honorary Captain and Inspirational Award winner respectively.

BASKETBALL

Shocked by another tragic death, the squad nevertheless came through the season with the city collegiate title and a lot of basketball to their credit. Turning out since early autumn in preparation for a trip to Central America, the boys' hopes were blasted by the Jap attack on Pearl Harbor. With the death of Norm Walker and the injury of Jim Van Camp, the spiritual and physical strength of the squad suffered severely. In light of these tragedies, no small amount of credit should be given to the basketball team and the two departing seniors, Tom Cross and Jim Paulson. Winning their letters for the '42 season were the following boys: Jim Paulson, Jack Duncan, Don Brown, Bob Loftness, Tom Cross, Bob Graham, Al Danielson, Mel Blanchard, Carroll Winslow, and Lloyd Baisinger.
With several veterans returning to Coach Frank this spring, the track squad was in good condition to meet any competition that might confront it. Several promising freshmen also turned out to more than balance those lost last year by graduation. Cushman, Moles, Clevinger, Blanchard, and Graybeal came back this year to hold down the field events, while Walters, Maycumber, Hamilton, Oxholm, Frank, and Beck came back for the running events. Freshmen, among them Dyer, Wood, and Gregory, filled in the gaps. Al Danielson, also a freshman, showed great promise when, in an early meet, he went as high as six feet, one inch in the high jump.

Two meets have transpired thus far, a dual meet with P. L. C. and a triangular city meet involving C. P. S., P. L. C., and St. Martins. C. P. S. won both and with the splendid performance shown by our team in all events the squad should do well at the Annual Conference meet at Walla Walla, the results of which are not in at the present time.

No lettermen will be lost by graduation; so if the Service doesn’t induct them, C. P. S. has a good track team coming up next year. Probable lettermen this year are: Beck, Cushman, Moles, Clevinger, Blanchard, Graybeal, J. Walters, Frank, Maycumber, Hamilton, Oxholm, Wood, Gregory, Dyer, and Danielson. Head Manager George Miller will also receive his award.
The first semester saw the Zetes taking every event in stride. Starting with football, the Zetes won all games and lost none, to end the season by defeating the Delta Kapps in the championship game.

Volleyball and badminton followed in quick succession with the Zetes taking the badminton trophy and holding the volleyball award from last year.

Basketball took the limelight at midyear with all teams looking good: but the Zetes, for the fourth consecutive time, took the “A” league trophy and, for the second consecutive time, the “B” league. The first half of the intramural program was over at this event, with the Zetes well out in front for the all-year trophy.
The second semester started the same with the Zetes taking the skiing event led by Dick Steele; but the tide turned in favor of the Delta Kapps after that event.

Pugilists from all fraternities met in the boxing meet, and the leather fisted boys from the Delta Kapp house punched their way to victory.

Table tennis followed this and again the Delta Kapps took the event with little competition from any house. Wrestling came into the spotlight and the Delta Kapps took the trophy away from the Independents, who won it last year. It was left to the Zete bowling team to break the winning streak of the Delta Kapps. Wilfred Woods of the Independents stood out in this event, however, making the highest average score to take the individual honors.

In April, the Delta Kapps won the Annual swimming meet by nosing out the Zetes in a close battle.

Tennis, softball, and track were not finished when this book was rushed to press. Thus the close race for the all-year trophy has not as yet shown us a winner, so the outcome will be left to our watchful observation.
Nearly eliminated from the College curriculum was the minor sport tennis. It was saved, however, by several enthusiasts, including Coach Parks, and was finally allowed to remain in the program with the meager budget of twelve dollars. No conference matches were held, but several non-conference games were played, starting with Lincoln High School. Following this, matches with P. L. C., St. Martins, Sand Point Air Base, and Reed College were played. Number one singles man was held by Glen Murray with veterans Lloyd Baisinger, Bus Brown, Rolland Lutz, and Willard Gee following close. Promising freshmen, Dick and Bob Strom, George Lutz and Bob Skidmore, composed the remainder of the team.
The Women's Athletic Association is an extra-curricular organization which fosters participation in athletics among the women of the college. Its purpose is to promote the qualities of democracy, leadership, cooperation, and good sportsmanship. During the present crisis, W. A. A. has more than ever a responsibility for the health and morale of the women students and has, accordingly, expanded its program. At the close of the year, awards are made according to a system of points based upon participation in the various activities.

Upon the resignation of Pat Keene as president, Vera Healy was elected president for the remainder of the spring semester. Other officers were: Betty Jane Pyle, general manager; Ruth Pauline Todd, vice-president; Virginia Judd, secretary; Nelda Peterson, treasurer; Felicie Dahl, publicity chairman; Margarita Irle, program chairman; Mrs. Mann, advisor.
The basketball season is especially popular in the women's sport calendar. This year the Betas came out on top to take the trophy from the Gammas. In accordance with the expanded program the sororities put B teams upon the floor for the first time.

Badminton and ping pong are individual sports for fall. Swimming is the last of the intersorority competition. Life saving is also offered at the Y. M. C. A. pool for points.
Volleyball is always of major interest to W. A. A. members. The seniors won the interclass games and the Lambdas came out first in intersorority with the Betas taking the B games.

Riding is a year around activity offered by the physical education department. Tennis and archery are out-of-doors spring sports for interclass competition.

RIDING: Ogden, Armstrong, Lister, Moore.

ARCHERY: Jinguji, Irle, Todd.

TENNIS: Eisenhower, Roach.
The annual hockey game with the University of Washington is always a high point in the athletic year. Ice skating was a very popular winter activity offered by the physical education department.

For the first time bowling was made an intersorority sport. The Independents took first place in it as well as in golf.
To Our Advertisers and Readers:

In presenting an advertising section for this year’s Tamanawas, a new plan is introduced. Most year-book advertising has been merely a source of revenue for the annual and only rarely resulted in any particular benefit to the advertiser. We feel that in the most part it is unattractive and uninteresting. To provide interest, local color and charm, students are included in this year’s section.

May we emphasize that these patrons of our book are not just business men striving to increase their business. More important is it, that they are friends of the Tamanawas and the College. It is to these men that we owe our gratitude and patronage:

Timber is a crop that grows on Tree Farms. The unending harvest is homes, schools, churches, factories, stores. In the Pacific Northwest, two-thirds of the region's economic life comes from the forests. From the trees come the main revenues for our schools. From the trees come wages for men, taxes for communities, products for everybody, earnings for invested capital. The trees will keep on producing revenues for our schools and other life blood for the people if only we, together, all of us, keep fire away from our green and always growing dollars—and trees. Weyerhaeuser Timber Company invites your cooperation in that common objective.

It looks as though Emery Watte and his car full of collegians are out for some fun. They have chosen the right place to go for good entertainment. At the Rialto can always be found the latest and best first-rate pictures. This home-owned and operated theatre has the approval of both the student and faculty members.
These tense, young C. P. S. students watch Roy Murphy, our bowling champion, roll down a strike. You can see the earnest look of admiration on their faces for the expert technique that Roy has developed. Roy and his colleagues typify the spirit of clean fun and good sportsmanship that can be found at the North End alleys. He and his friends are but a few of the great college clan that love to pass their spare time bowling on alleys of superior quality.

All students interested in league play this fall will be well satisfied with the plan laid out by Jerry Warden, manager of the North End Alleys, 26th and Proctor.

Tacoma City Light

Gertrude Kincaid, Janet Armstrong, and Maxine Bitney, popular C. P. S. coeds, rest in the shadow of a Tacoma City Light switch-yard structure and discuss some of the things they’ve learned about this city’s municipally-owned utilities. They all agree that public ownership has proven its worth and its efficiency, for they’ve seen the inner workings of the power system—and they’ve experienced the advantages of Tacoma City Light’s greatest achievement: that of consistently bringing America’s lowest electric rates to every home in the city.
Virginia Judd was our homecoming queen. Kennell-Ellis was our portrait photographer for the annual. When Virginia had her picture taken for the Tamanawas she learned that Kennell-Ellis Studios are outstanding photographers. She claims that they are as exacting in their work as they are artisans in their field.

Kruger's Triple XXX Barrel

To be caught refreshing ourselves at Kruger's is no sin. In fact it is sign of good taste and judgment. Tom Cross and "Scraper" Hallen find it just the place to go after that show or dance, as do Jim Frank and Beverly Velton. These two prominent campus couples reflect the ability of all C. P. S. students to recognize the merits of Kruger's XXX Barrel. With drive-in service, quality foods and refreshments at moderate prices, Kruger's offer all that can be desired in the way of dietetic enjoyment.
Three Envious Students...

...namely, Vera Healy, Ed Granlund, and Bob Hamilton...envious of the big Logger letterman’s blanket with its superior look as it emerges from the efficient blanket unit at the Superior Service Laundry. Giving the popular trio the complete story of how his plant has built a reputation for the outstanding work it does on blankets is Jack Heresy, manager.

PACIFIC FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION OF TACOMA
Seattle - Bellingham - Portland - Eugene

Dick Haley and Kay Woods discover one of the many unique devices used by Pacific 1st Federal Savings for the protection of our 40,000 thrifty folks. Dick and Kay are learning about the Recordak machine which records every important document in the institution on tiny film. They are stored in bomb proof vaults for the protection of our thrifty folks.
"Candy from clean sunlit kitchens" is the report of Helen Pat Beem and Marijane Lewis in discovering how candy is made by Brown and Haley. These makers of the world famed Almond Roca are famous too for their quality chocolates. For perfect gifts, these "candies of distinction" are received with eagerness and thrill. Remember those occasions where gifts count so much and "sweeten the day with candy."

Esther Mann, Kay Evans and Nelda Peterson, dorm girls, watch closely and intently to the preparation of their dinner by "Ma" Peterson. "Ma" tells them to be smart when they grow up and use complete gas service in their homes. She says it's modern, it's faster, and it's better.

The Hager sisters agree on one thing. They are convinced that to save contributes to future happiness and security.

Dorothy's financial philosophy is "a penny saved is a penny earned." Mary Katherine prefers United Mutual Savings Bank to keep her pennies.

Helen Marie Walker and Mary Marush know practically nothing about kodaks and photography. However, they are learning fast, under the expert guidance of Mr. A. Q. Montzel of the Eastman store. Not only can Eastman fill every need in photographic supplies but they are anxious for their users to be proficient with photographic equipment. Let Eastman help you keep those memories of the past.

Phil Walesby and Betty Jane Pyle, agreeing that thrift is more important today than ever before, are learning about United States War Bonds from the Puget Sound National Bank. They put their approval on saving by buying bonds, just as C. P. S. students, faculty, and organizations have put their approval on the friendly, cooperative banking service enjoyed by customers of the Puget Sound National Bank of Tacoma.

Allstrum Printing Company

Mary Cornell and Chuck Swanson are inspecting a page of the college bulletin. Mr. Allstrum is showing them some of the finer details that go to make up a properly printed page. Not only is Mr. Allstrum of the Allstrum Printing Company one of Tacoma’s finest printers, but he is a wizard at making up dance programs. The skill and precision with which his craftsmen finish difficult tasks makes a world of difference. At the hand of this wise and experienced artisan, any job will be an excellent job.

The lumber carrier that is shown here is dropping lumber in front of a planer. This planer has planed many thousands of board feet of lumber, making it ready to be finished into sashes and doors. The Tacoma Sash and Door Co. has been performing these operations for more than a decade and in the last year it has been furnishing the army with a great deal of such material. It is to this extent that the Tacoma Sash and Door Co. are putting their efforts. They feel that too much is none too little to give.

The Associated Students for the Prevention of Bores in Chapel, was organized in the fall of '41, by Bill Brown and Arnold Rukan, to fill a distinct need in the Student Body. In the spring semester a women’s auxiliary was added. The A. S. P. B. C. has entered into various school functions and continues to be a part of campus life. Officers are: Bill Brown, president; Arnold Rukan, vice-president; Bill Glover, chief scout; Doug Hicks, secretary; Warren Montgomery, treasurer; Warren Harvey, chaplain.
Employment opportunities in business and in Civil Service are plentiful these days for those with specialized business training.

Knapp College, Tacoma's finest business training school, located at Tenth and Pacific, offers special War-Time Intensive Courses to quickly prepare one for these positions. An active Placement Service, without charge or time limit, is available to all students who qualify for positions.

Regards

Our work is done and you have seen the fruits of our labors. We hope you have enjoyed seeing your campus friends and that these pages have brought back to you many pleasant memories.

We ask also that you remember those other friends who have contributed to the success of our book—the business men. They make these things possible—help them to help us.
