In Memory

She has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent people and the love of little children; who has filled her niche and accomplished her task; who has left the world better than she found it; who has looked for the best in others and given the best she had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory is a benediction.
Dedication

To those who have gone before us, to those who have established this college, to those whose dream was of higher education, this annual is dedicated.

On these pages are many names and many faces filling the positions vacated by their predecessors. Each has his turn to hold an office, to be active in an organization or to participate in a sport. To each freshman class it is new and original but the purpose is old — the purpose of higher education.

One comes to college for an education but finds only an index for this education. When he has come and participated, he expands his bibliography. The ones who have filled the activities and organizations go from here using the foundations established to open further doors.

And so to the higher learning for which this school was established is this annual dedicated.
Foreword

When an Indian youth was ready to enter manhood he went into the woods, alone, and he fasted. After days alone, thinking and praying, he saw some creature — or thought he saw it — which seemed of special significance. And the spirit of that creature, be it frog, bear or owl, became his Tamanawas — a link between himself and the spirit world. He did not speak of this spirit to others. But it was there to sustain him all his life.

And we have tried, too, to catch in print and pictures the special spirit of the College of Puget Sound, the things that set our college apart from other colleges, the special qualities that make CPS.

As "Tamanawas" means dedication to the highest, so the College of Puget Sound seeks to make available to her students the best in education. Here awakening youth finds association with great minds, high ideals, and a way of life which creates opportunities for tomorrow.

1955 records the close of the College’s sixty-seventh year. It also means graduation for nearly two hundred seniors. As these sons and daughters of the maroon and white go out, they leave a touch of sadness within the heart; but at the same time they leave us their joy of achievement for work well done. We shall follow their careers with personal interest because we see in them leadership for today. The College of Puget Sound is proud to have an influence in the moulding of the destiny of our age.

When the seniors were freshmen they found the hatchet handle and engraved their initials on this handle, which had been separated from the head. Jerry Woodard was their Sophomore class president and Jim Nelson was their Junior class leader. While Jim was in control, the class not only caught the Seniors on their Senior Sneak just ten minutes before the deadline, but also found the hatchet.

This year's class has been under the leadership of Chuck Kruger, with the capable assistance of Donna Dettrich, vice-president; Jim Spezia, sergeant at arms; Bonna Rae Case, secretary-treasurer; Bill Couch, representative; and Roger Scott, representative. Their activities have included a Senior Dance, a class sneak and picnic on April 26, and a class project. The project is a redwood plaque on which the map of the campus is engraved.

Thirteen seniors were listed in the College Who's Who this year from the College of Puget Sound. Those selected were Evalyn Emert, Elizabeth Regester, Bonna Rae Case, Donna Dettrich, Mary Ann Norton, Karin Anderson, Don Egge, Bob Higley, John Ramsey, Jim Nelson, Gerry Murdock, John Chapman, and Marilyn Rosso.
The hatchet promoted a great deal of spirit in the Class of '56. They succeeded in keeping it from the rest of the campus. The Juniors were busy throughout the year. They planned a successful dance featuring a disc jockey show and also held a picnic at American Lake. This year’s Commencement Ball for the seniors was given by the junior class. Five outstanding juniors were listed in the "Who's Who Among Students in America's Universities and Colleges." They were Chuck Arnold, Chuck Brown, Marjorie Casebier, Audrey Stenholm, and Sue Swayne.
Junior dance committee chairmen
Elizabeth Rutledge and Chuck Brown.

John Howitt, winner of beard growing contest.
"Hatchet hunting has been the main project of the Sophomore class," said Juris Macs, president. Other activities have been the Sophomore-Freshman dance, the annual tug-o-war which they won, their participation in the Freshman "Green Beanie" tradition, and foremost—the winning of the Campus Day Banner. With the capable assistance of his officers: Jerry Aldridge, vice president; Mardell Hodges, secretary-treasurer; Dick Price and Cecil Bell, representatives; Juris has already planned the senior project for their graduation year.

Freshmen - Class of 1958

The Class of '58 entered CPS with enthusiasm and high spirits. Freshman week was a very busy one what with signing up for classes and taking tests. The freshmen were very active during the year. They participated in the Freshman-Sophomore Tug-of-War and in the Freshman-Sophomore dance. They also had a successful picnic with a dance following in the tennis courts. Money making projects were a shoe shine day and a card holder sale.

Gayle Switzer, representative; Jim Fittsimmons, sgt-at-arms; Jing Ling, secretary-treasurer; Chuck Woodke, vice-president.
The Freshman-Sophomore dance, Autumn Leaves, was a big success with music provided by the "Five Sharpes." King and queen of the dance were Cecil Bell and Joanne Storer. The chairmen, Delores Helf and Jim Fitzsimmons did an excellent job.

FRESHMAN BEANIES
Green beanies for the freshmen has always been a tradition on the CPS campus. If caught without them, the freshmen have their hair dyed green. The freshmen have to wear these beanies until Homecoming unless they win the freshman-sophomore tug-of-war.

... to provide an organization for promotion and control of student affairs, and to encourage student cooperation with the college administration and faculty in maintaining the standards of the college. . . ." this is the purpose of the Associated Students of the College of Puget Sound.

James Nelson led the students of the College of Puget Sound in one of their most successful years. He was aided by John Ramsey, vice-president, and Lynn Green, secretary. Faculty advisors were Gerard Banks, treasurer, and Ellery Capen, general manager.
Central Board

We are the Associated Students of the College of Puget Sound. It is under the auspices of such a government as this that all college activities are carried on.

The governing body of the Associated Students is Central Board. They sponsor such activities as athletics, dramatics, debate, music and publications. They further handle and appropriate student body fees.

Finance Committee

The Finance Committee is an integral and hard working committee of Central Board. They recommend solutions and ideas on financial difficulties to Central Board. This committee consists of James Nelson, John Ramsey, Lynn Green, Gerard Banks, and Ellery Capen.
Convocation

Due to the fine work of the Convocation Committee this year, the student body saw many fine programs and speakers presented. There were faculty and student musical presentations, movies, speakers on subjects ranging from "Resolved, That the United States Should Extend Diplomatic Recognition to the Communist Government of China" to "Whose World Is It?" Candidates for royal positions at dances and other A.S.C.P.S. activities were introduced.

Student Affairs

All matters of policy regarding social activities on and off campus are regulated and guided by the Student Affairs Committee. This committee is composed of the A.S.C.P.S. president, Inter-fraternity Council and Inter-sorority Council presidents, and a member of the student body who is selected by the Student Body president with the approval of Central Board, and four faculty members who are appointed by the president of the college.
Rally Committee

The Rally Committee, or "Rally Comm," promotes school spirit and is the backbone of the school’s pep and energy. Rally Comm was first formed in 1948 and is a department of the Associated Student Body who formed it in order to create and coordinate pep rallies and half-time entertainments. The yell leaders work with the committee in making signs, posters and publicising all seasonal sports. Rally Comm is composed of 14 members and 27 representatives, three from each sorority, fraternity and the Independents. This year's Rally Comm was headed by Jerry Hulscher, president; Bonnie Jordahl, vice president and Susan Ellerton, secretary-treasurer. The cheering squad consists of June Baker, Sharon Walker, Jean Weigel, Ed Dorn, Marvin Matson, Bob Weeks.
An annual to a student of any school brings back fond memories of past accomplishments and activities. To present these in an orderly sequence, with complete pictorial coverage, has been the aim of this year’s Tamanawas. The Tamanawas is an united student effort that not only means CPS to students at the college but represents our school to people in many parts of the state.

The Tamanawas is the annual publication of the Associated Students of C.P.S. It is partly supported by student fees and advertising. The editor and business manager are elected by Central Board. This year’s editor was Evalyn Emert and her business manager was Wally Simms.

Others working on the annual were Roberta Elson, classes; Karen Mortensen, activities; Don Nagley, Robert Peltola, sports; Mary Ann Mica, organizations; Bonnie Jordahl, social; Buzz Demarest, photography, and Shelly Gerarden, art.
Under the editorship of Terry Schick and guidance of advisor Ed Garrison, the TRAIL took steps toward improved readability and an increasingly important role in campus affairs.

Elimination of column rules between stories resulted in easier reading.

TRAIL sponsored three delegates to the Model United Nations Assembly at San Francisco State College in May. Don Haas and Meg Horan were selected from the student body, and Dale Wirsing represented the TRAIL.

A new feature initiated this year was the contribution of an article a week by campus leaders.

Joan Walsh served as associate editor, and Don Nagley handled the news editor position. Gerald Aldridge was business manager. In charge of the sports page was Ron Frank, and Carroll Schick managed circulation. Buzz Demarest was official photographer.
Highlight of the year for Beta Delta Chapter was their winning of the 1954 College Chapter Achievement Award, the highest honor given to a chapter by the national organization. Miss Christine Springer, national second vice president of S.A.I., made the presentation during her official visit in November.

Other activities including the annual American music concert, ushering at musical events, sponsoring the all-college Song Fest, and holding an all-Northwest State Day for actives and alumnae on this campus.

Officers were Bonnie Joy Thompson (and Rylla Rockey), president; Carolyn Newhouse, vice president; Delores Crandall, recording secretary; Donna Thorsen, corresponding secretary; Donna Bell, treasurer; Rylla Rockey (and Shirley Nelson), chaplain; Shirley Nelson, editor; and Pat Price, sergeant-at-arms.

Membership in the professional music fraternity is by invitation only, chosen from girls who are music majors or minors.

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is a national honorary and professional music fraternity for men who show a love for music either by adopting music as their profession or by working to advance the cause of music in America. Sinfonia has a four-fold purpose: to advance the cause of music in America; to foster the mutual welfare and common brotherhood of students of music; to develop the truest fraternal spirit among its members, and to encourage loyalty to the Alma Mater.

To carry out these purposes this year Sinfonia, in conjunction with Sigma Alpha Iota, held several firesides and also gave an American Music Concert. Renewed activity in the Music Department this year brought an especially large pledge class, and as the Music Department continues to grow, so shall the fraternity; therefore, the succeeding year should see an ever more-active part in campus activities being taken by the organization.

The officers of the actives for the past year were: President Jerry Pepos; Secretary Frank Niwa, and Treasurer, Frank Marks. Officers for the pledge class of 16 were: President, Jim Elliott; Vice President, Leroy Gruver; Secretary, John Howell; and Treasurer, Everett Lacy.
Adelphians

The Adelphian Concert Choir consists of 35 selected voices who must audition for membership. The Adelphians sing in and around Tacoma as well as throughout the Northwest. At Christmas time they traveled around Puget Sound on the yacht “Thea Foss” singing carols at each port of call.

Perhaps the biggest thrill for each individual Adelphian is their annual three-state tour. On this tour they gave 35 concerts and by this act of good will interest students in C.P.S. Their numbers range from “All Hail the Power of Jesus’ Name” to “Nobody Knows the Trouble I’ve Seen.” Two favorites of the tour were “Gaudeamus” and “The Happy Wanderer.” The credit of a job well done belongs to these Adelphians of the College of Puget Sound.
Madrigals

The Madrigal Singers were founded three years ago by Dr. Bruce Rodgers. The membership consists of 15 selected mixed voices specializing in vocal music of the 16th and 17th centuries.

Nine concerts were given at Christmas time and three in the spring by this group. They joined the Adelphians for a caroling boat trip around Puget Sound at Christmas, and with appearances on radio and T.V. they rounded out their year of activities. The Bach "Cantata No. 4" in which they were joined by the Adelphians and a Chamber Orchestra completed their Spring Concert.

Choral Society

The C.P.S. Tacoma Choral Society was founded two years ago by Dr. Bruce Rodgers and comprises an average of 85 in membership.

In conjunction with the C.P.S. Symphony they presented the Choral and Finale from "Die Meistersinger," Handel's "Messiah" and Howard Hanson's "Lament for Beowulf."

Workshop Band

The Workshop Band, under the direction of Leroy Ostransky, went into its ninth year of existence this year. The band plays arrangements and compositions written by both students and faculty members, with Mr. Ostransky being the main contributor from the faculty. Needless to say all the numbers are written in the dance band idiom.

An example of their numbers would be “Elephant Tango” by Reino Moisio and “Virgil Meets Venus” by Leroy Ostransky.

The band performed at a fall convocation and gave a spring concert on May 18th.

CPS Band

The College Band enjoys a wide and varied program throughout the entire school year. As the “Logger” Marching Band it joins the athletic program each fall to help make the football games more interesting and colorful. The half-time maneuvers of the band are as much a part of the great American game of football as the ball itself. The “Pep” Band adds spirit and color to a great many rallies and basketball games each year. From the musical standpoint the Concert Band season is the high point of every school year. This musical interest is well served by the convocation program, Spring Concert and various other programs each spring.

CPS - Tacoma Symphony

The CPS-Tacoma Symphony was once again under the baton of Mr. Raymond Vaught this year.

Their first performance of November 10 was highlighted by Mozart's "Symphony No. 38." Combining with the Tacoma Choral Society, they jointly performed the Choral and Finale from "Die Meistersinger" by Wagner. Handel's "Messiah," an annual institution, was presented on December 5, with Dr. Bruce Rodgers as conductor.

A March 9 concert brought Chausson's "Symphony in B Flat" before an appreciative audience. Also on this program was the first performance of Mr. Ostransky's "Memorial Fieldhouse March."

The year was ended by again combining talents with the Choral Society and presenting Howard Hanson's "Lament for Beowulf."

Rodgers energetically conducting the performance of the symphony.

Present at the dedication of the new grand were Mr. Odean, Dr. Forbes Haskell, Dr. B. F. Thompson, Mr. W. E. Kilworth, Dr. Harold Long, Dr. Bruce Rodgers.

The opening night, it will be given Oct. 21 and 22 at 8 p.m. The Homecoming play, announced as "Goodbye, My Fancy," is under the direction of Martha Pearl Jones, director of the College of Fine Arts. Pi Kappa Delta

"To teach the art of speech, beautiful and just" is the motto and purpose of Pi Kappa Delta, CPS's national speech fraternity.

Pi Kappa Delta is the nation's largest honorary. Founded in 1912, it claims 180 chapters in 38 states. Dr. Charles Battin, advisor to the local chapter, was one of the founders.

Serving as president for the past year was Harold Warren. Ron Usher was vice president and Arlene Alexander was secretary-treasurer.

Membership in Pi Kappa Delta is based on participation and excellence in forensics. Members are admitted with the degree of fraternity, and may work toward the degrees of proficiency, honor, and special distinction.

Pi Kappa Delta sponsors a kickoff banquet at the beginning of the debate season in the fall. Other activities include sponsoring a high school debate clinic, a practice debate tournament for college teams, the high school debate tournament, and the CPS tyro tournament, which attracts debaters from 20 Northwest colleges and universities. A spring event is a picnic with the debate squad.
Forensics

Under the direction of Dr. Charles Battin, CPS's forensics squad was one of the campus's most active organizations. More than 60 students participated in intercollegiate debate and speaking contests.

Assisting Dr. Battin was Frank Johnson, hard-working student manager of Forensics.

CPS debaters won at least one trophy in every tournament they entered this year. Sheila Ryan won trophies in discussion, debate, impromptu, and extemporaneous speaking. Ron Usher was a triple winner at the CPS Tyro tournament, capturing firsts in after-dinner speaking, impromptu, and debate. Spencer Stokes has taken first-place honors in debate and extemporaneous speaking. Arlene Alexander and Bob Burglin have won trophies in debate.

Accompanied by Dr. Battin, Ron Usher, Spencer Stokes, Arlene Alexander, Sheila Ryan, Frank Johnson, Marlene Nelson, and Burton Andrus traveled to California in April to take part in the Stockton Junior College Tournament and the National Forensic Tournament at Redlands College.

Choral Readers

This is the 15th year of the Choral Readers of CPS. This year’s Christmas program included a beautiful Nativity Scene. Six times it was produced for friends of the College.

Two years ago when the state celebrated the Washington Territorial Centennial, the Choral Readers gave the dramatic history of those 100 colorful years. Chapin Foster did the writing. John Cowell composed the music. But that was not to be the end of that dramatic history. Last June the International Meeting of the Rotarians was held in Seattle. The Choral Readers were asked to repeat the story of the Great Northwest, accompanied by the Seattle Symphony Orchestra.

February 11, 1955 another outstanding honor came to the Choral Readers when they were invited to take part in the beautiful Memorial Service for the Legislature of the State of Washington.

The Spring recital included the unforgettable “Pied Piper of Hamlin” by Robert Browning.
The Campus Playcrafters became involved in the first three days of the college year directing six stunts for freshmen with a class of well over 200 freshmen taking part. Then in the next two weeks the new class again formed by acting in five one-act plays directed and produced by the Campus Playcrafters. That is only the beginning, for November brings Homecoming with a mystery play for students, alumni, and guests.

Bring to Christmas everything glorious season deserves, the Campus Playcrafters produced a great hit. 1954 saw Benet’s “A Child Is Born.”

Each four years the faculty performs. This was the year! Stephan Leacock’s famous “Winsome Winnie” packed the auditorium to the rafters with people all on their feet in their “meller drama.”

And in April came “Medea” of Euripides dealing with the deepest human emotions of love, hate and revenge.

Then with a breathless gasp we chose the Frosh Stunt Committees for September, 1955.
Associated Women Students

AWS is an organization of all the women at CPS, carrying on many activities throughout the year. Some of these activities are the publication of the Frosh Handbook, sent to all incoming freshmen, and freshman orientation. A record library is maintained for the use of other campus organizations. In the spring AWS sponsors the Spring Festival to which high school students are invited, and a dance where a king is chosen to reign for the evening.

Leading the organization this year has been Donna Dettrich, president; Sue Swayne, vice president; Bonnie Case, secretary, and Iva Housner, treasurer. Mrs. Doris Bennett is advisor for the group.
LAST YEAR’S MAY FESTIVAL WHICH WAS REIGNED OVER BY QUEEN MADELINE WILLIAMS I.
Religious Emphasis Week

Religious Life Emphasis Week, traditionally sponsored by the College of Puget Sound, was co-chair-maned by Billie Shively and Sam Glass this year.

The theme for Religious Life Emphasis Week was "Design for Living" graphically illustrated in the form of the cross. The week's activities were coordinated to demonstrate and fulfill this ideal.

Featured speaker for the week was the Rev. Mr. Noel C. LeRoque, pastor of the Central Methodist Church in Spokane. One of the Rev. Mr. LeRoque's topics was "Life in 3D": meaning discipline, direction and desire.

To round out the events of this fine week were such activities as a faculty meeting, four discussion groups, morning meditations, coffee hours, prayer hours, luncheons and a banquet to end a week of thinking and prayer.

Boasting a huge line averaging nearly 210 pounds, but plagued all season by injuries the Loggers still posted a fine six-won two-loss record, nabbed second place in conference play and retained possession of the Totem Pole trophy by edging PLC in their annual preleague encounter.

After the final tackle was made certain, maroon and white gridders were honored by selection to various post-season all-star teams. Quarterback and co-captain Joe Stortini and Tackle Dick Hansen received All-Evergreen conference awards. Hansen also was named third team Little All-Coast. Halfback Dale Meshke garnered a Little All-American honorable mention spot for his excellent backfield performances.

At the annual football banquet co-captain and end Warren Logan and guard Gerry Murdock were honored as inspirational award winners by their teammates. Logan, an outstanding wingman his junior year, injured his knee in the first contest of the year and the four-year letterman saw action for only a few minutes the remainder of the campaign.

The Fieldhouse

Fieldhouse Manager Ted Droettboom worked long hours to keep the Logger Fieldhouse in top shape. The massive structure housed the home show, style show, road shows, and all classes of basketball games. Besides his regular duties of manager, Ted scheduled half time activities for athletic contests and promoted CPS sports.

In the athletic office, secretary Marjorie Robinson took care of the paper work of the sports department. Ron Frank spent many hours in the athletic office taking care of Logger statistics and sending out press releases.

Mr. Lewis put his day’s work in handing out gear and words of cheer to the athletes.

Golf

Major Owens, coach of the divot squad, was well pleased with the array of talent that answered his call to the greens. Three lettermen showed up the first day of spring practice along with newcomers Hunter and Shangula, who are both well-known around the Northwest golf circuit.

In four early season matches the Logger golfers split with the University of Washington, lost to Seattle University, and won handily from McChord Air Force Base.
Track

Richard Dodds, letterman sprinter and Logger fullback, took up the coaching reins of the CPS track team and with an under-manned squad picked up a lot of points in their Saturday meets.
Skiing

As the cold winter winds chilled the snow-covered slopes, the CPS ski team traveled throughout the Northwest to compete against the top teams of the area. Under the leadership of Dr. Sprenger, the Logger slat-men met such teams as the University of Washington, Washington State, University of Idaho, Wenatchee J. C., and the University of British Columbia.

Tennis

Cold weather and hot tennis players greeted player-coach Bill Medin for their spring workouts. The Logger squad overcame the cold and turned in some fine games against Evergreen Conference competition.
Baseball

Coach Joe Hemel was welcomed early this spring by a veteran club that showed promise of being one of the most powerful diamond aggregations fielded by the Maroon and White in several years. The Loggers competed in the Western division of the Evergreen conference which was composed of WWCE, PLC and CPS. Non-conference tilts with Seattle U. and CWCE made up the 18-game slate.

Returning letterman Don Rasmussen, Roland Jakel, Robbie Peltola, Joe Stortini, Jack Umbriaco, Bill Siebert, Dale Platt, and Doug McArthur formed the nucleus of the squad. Bolstering these were freshman pitchers Jim Fitzsimmons and Bob Maguinez who also saw lots of action as outfielders.

Stortini and Wilkerson work at the key stone.

Amburgy's big bat leaves little work for Rasmussen.
Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association is an organization for all women students interested in athletics. At least nine sports are offered throughout the year and awards are earned on the basis of participation.

Some of these sports are badminton, field hockey, ping pong, basketball, volleyball, tennis, baseball and bowling. Membership in the Women's Athletic Association may be gained by participating in at least two of these sports. Pins and sweaters may be earned also.

Men's Intramural

Members of the Men's Intramural cabinet were, FRONT: Leslie Snyder, Gerald Aldridge, Hal Hamilton, Bob Roe, Intramural manager. BACK: Dale Klint, Dick Betcher, Babe Buholm, Bill Seifert.
Men's Intramural started out its busy schedule with football in September and finished with softball in May. Between these dates a wide variety of activities were offered to keep the male inhabitants of the college busy in athletics. Periodic meetings of the Intramural Cabinet, made up of one member from each fraternity and dorm, kept the sports on the intramural calendar moving smoothly.

Up and over the bar.
Anderson Hall

With the completion of the new wing on Anderson Hall, girls settled down in a residence of modern splendor. Soon the girls established themselves in this home away from home and adjusted themselves to the organized chaos of life amidst midnight parties and cold shower baptisms for the girls pinned in the dorm.

Star boarders at Anderson live in a social group which settles all dorm problems and scholarship. Semester dues cover activities on the social calendar which include inter-dorm banquets, dances, and a spring cruise.

Directing this dormitory life are the house mother, Mrs. Daniel Schneider and the officers for the year: Evelyn Emert, president; Millie Bulatao, vice president; LaVonne Eggert, secretary; Shirley Dickson, treasurer; Margaret Rees, historian; Sue Fetterman, sergeant-at-arms, and Maureen Prawitz, song leader, served in this leadership capacity during the Fall semester.

Anderson Hall Officers: Alberta Conklin, Peggy Smith, Sybil Enschede, Marjorie Fish, Jeanette Wilson, Marjorie Casebier.

An inter-dorm banquet.
Todd Hall

Studying and sleeping were regular habits at Todd Hall, the men's residence on campus, but both were accomplished only through considerable effort. The dorm resident soon conditioned himself to the staccato of steel-tapped shoes and to the beat of a radio during the early morning hours.

The men are self-governing, setting up their own house rules which are kept at a minimum. Various social activities are planned for the year, and between studies the men played their way through a complete intramural athletic program.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Fred B. Langdon, house mother, the officers were the main governing force. The Fall semester officers were Clark Olsen, president; Cecil Bell, vice president; Paul Fitzsimmons, historian; Ron Usher, secretary, and Don Moller, treasurer. The Spring semester officers were Holmes Anrud, president; Jerry Schalin, vice president; Matt Clapp, historian; Hal Hamilton, secretary, and Floyd Weitzel, treasurer.

Officers, Spring Semester: Hal Hamilton, Floyd Weitzel, Jerry Schalin, Mrs. Langdon, Holmes Anrud, Matthew Clapp.

Officers, Fall Semester: Ron Usher, Cecil Bell, Clarke Olsen, Don Moller, Paul Fitzsimmons.
To promote school spirit, support all activities of the student body, and to uphold all traditions of college: with these as their goals, the Spurs, the national sophomore women's honorary, helped in bring to a close another successful year at the College of Puget Sound.

Chosen because of their dependability, participation in college activities, and scholarship during their freshman year, each of the girls tapped for this honor were proud to wear the white uniform and the maroon Spur emblem. This year, as in previous ones, the girls have fulfilled their motto 'At Your Service.'

Serving under their advisor, Martha Pearl Jones, were Sue Ellerton, president; Nancy Wagner, vice president; Jeanette Wilson, secretary; Iva Housner, treasurer; Virginia Weeks, historian; Pat Smith, song leader, and Joan Walsh, editor.

Spurs carrying the daisy chain for May Day.
With service, sacrifice and loyalty as their motto, the Intercollegiate Knights, the sophomore service honoray for men, have strived to uphold their standards. Those tapped at the end of their freshman year are chosen after application on the basis of scholarship, leadership, participation in school activities, and a desire to serve.

The Knights undertake such activities as service projects around the school, up-keep of the student mail boxes, bulletin boards and the log, taking tickets at convocation, ushering at various events on campus, sponsoring the Spur-Knight Mixer, and editing the log book.

Officers for the organization are members of the previous year's group. Those serving were Chuck Arnold, duke; John Vipond, scribe; Bob Hitchcock, chancellor of the exchequer; Terry Schick, keeper of the archives; John Huston, keeper of the mace; Dave Ernst, expansion officer, and Norman Anderson, advisor.

Spur of the Moment, Sue Ellertson, and Knight of the Night, Juris Mads.
Future Teachers

Actively participating in CPS functions is the Todd-Weir chapter of Future Teachers of America. This preprofessional organization is sponsored by the National Teachers Association and the Washington Teachers Association and is a member of a state wide student association.

Meetings were held each month and were highlighted by talks from local school principals and last year’s CPS graduates who are now teaching.

Serving as officers were Jim Spezia, president; Bob Ehrenheim, vice president; Rosemary Needham, secretary; Wayne Smith, treasurer, and Joe Stortini, historian. Dr. Gibbs is the advisor.

Occupational Therapy

The purpose of Occupational Therapy is to enable the group of students to become better acquainted with one another, to hear outside speakers, to promote interest in the profession, to keep up with development in the field, and to maintain a registry of alumnae members.

Their activities are sending Christmas cards to OT colleges and hospitals affiliated with them, helping majors in this field, and having an annual open house in the spring to acquaint new students with OT.

The officers were Carla Issacson, president; Ron Bailey, vice president; Evelyn Dodge, secretary-treasurer; Sonja Hohler, historian, and Joyce Harth, publicity chairman. Their advisor is Mrs. Loutzenhiser.
Student Christian Council

Presenting a program of religious activity for the student body with the idea of educating our college to learning good government and Christian religion is the aim of the Student Christian Council. The group, which works on a commission basis, tries to relate the students to the local churches and their youth fellowships, each of which is represented on the official council. Some of their main activities are sponsoring religious life emphasis week and morning meditations.

Kappa Phi

Keeping the students in contact with the church and at the same time in tie with campus life is the goal of Kappa Phi, the national organization for Methodist and Methodist preference women. Along with developing leadership, they support an active program which includes service projects, social activities and various other religious activities. Officers are Anna Mae Morris, president; Sybil Enschede, vice president; Jeanette Wilson, corresponding secretary; Joan Warren, treasurer; Kathy Jones, chaplain; Ruth Brown, historian, and Rosemary Needham, program chairman.
Chinook

Chinook is the summer and winter recreational club on campus which sponsors activities for all students. Skiing, ice skating, boat cruises, folk dancing, picnics, hiking, fishing and camping are included in their complete program.

Deep Creek Lodge is the site for many of these activities which has areas provided for exclusive use of CPS students. A membership fee of $2.00 entitles a person to stay overnight at Deep Creek at a reduced rate.

This year the officers who led the group were Ron Newgard, president; Bob Findlay, vice president, and Bonnie Jordahl, secretary. Faculty advisor was Dr. Robert Sprenger.
Axemen

The Axemen, which was formerly the Lettermen's Club, is an organization of men who have merited athletic awards in at least one major sport. The purpose of the club is to create and direct athletic interest and to uphold the ideals of sportsmanship. One of their main activities of the year is an annual dance.

Leading the Axemen to a successful year were Joe Stortini, president; Dick Graham, vice president; Jack Price, secretary-treasurer; Dick Hanson, sergeant at arms, and Joe Hemel, advisor.
Geological Society

At CPS the Geological Society, which is a student chapter of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, has as its purpose promoting interest in geology and making known what fields are available. Meetings are held each Wednesday noon.

Officers for the past year were Larry Jensen, president, and Dale Klint, secretary-treasurer. Faculty advisor is F. A. McMillan.

Chemical Society

As a student affiliate of the national organization of the American Chemical Society, the CPS chapter promotes and encourages interest in chemistry. Officers of the club were Dale LaBlond, president, and Donna Lillis, secretary-treasurer. Advisors are Dr. Phillip Fehlandt and Dr. Robert Sprenger.

Opportunities are presented for acquaintance with the professional program of the national society, the local chemistry industry and the many outstanding scientists.
Pi Phi Nu

Pi Phi Nu is the home economics honorary at CPS. To be eligible for membership, a student must be an active member of the Home Economics Club and have a home economics grade point average of 3.00 and a cumulative average of 2.5. Girls are chosen on a basis of leadership, cooperation, professional promise and citizenship.

Home Economics

This club is an affiliate member of the American Home Economics Association and the Washington State Home Economics Association. It is open to students who are interested in the field of home economics. Presiding officers were Carol Johnson, president; Marjorie Fish, vice president; Iva Housner, secretary-treasurer, and Carol Wales, social chairman.

The purpose of the club is to promote and develop standards of home and family life that will best further individual and social welfare.
Otlah

Otlah is the senior women’s scholastic and activity honorary to which outstanding women are tapped at the end of their junior year. Active participation in school activities and high scholarship are the main requirements for membership.

Those who served as officers for the past year were Liz Regester, president; Carolyn Newhouse, vice president; Marjorie Kelso, secretary; Bonnie Case, treasurer, and Marilyn Rosso, historian.

International Relations

With students from all lands who are interested in world relations and problems comprising its membership, the International Relations Club sponsors many projects which will promote international understanding. A Foreign Student Dance is one of the highlights of their activities on campus.

Serving as officers under the advisement of Dr. Warren Tomlinson were Rosemary Needham, president; Lauren Sakagawa, vice president; Harold Broman, secretary, and Bruce Berney, treasurer.
Phi Sigma

Phi Sigma, which is a national biological honorary society, is represented at CPS by the Alpha Phi Chapter which was founded in February, 1948. This club, formerly known as the Biology Club, has as its purpose the discussion and investigation of all phases of biology. Members are admitted on their scholastic and research ability in the field of biology. This club carries on its projects under the advisorship of Dr. Gordon D. Alcorn.

Commerce Club

Membership in the Commerce Club is composed of B.A. and Economics majors. Activities include monthly meetings with speakers from business and industry, a management conference for Tacoma businessmen in April, and banquets held throughout the year.

Officers are: Daryl Crat, president; Chuck Brown, secretary; Burt Fisher, treasurer, and Ellery Capen, advisor.
Reserve Officers Training Corps

CPS is one of 188 colleges and universities across the country where the United States Air Force sponsors and maintains an Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps. Since the program is furnishing the Air Force with over 80 per cent of its new officers yearly, the AFROTC on the campus plays an ever-increasing part in the future of America's first line of defense.

Now rounding out its fourth year at CPS, the AFROTC can look back to an impressive list of accomplishments, especially since this school year began. From the beginning, the emphasis was on flying, and the cadets were offered a variety of experience, ranging from indoctrination flights in C-54's to thrilling jet rides. During the spring, a group of 30 cadets flew to California and back, stopping overnight for a tour of McClellan Air Force Base. All told, the Cadet Corps racked up a record total of over 600 cadet-hours in the air, believed to be the most for any West Coast college.

On the lighter side, the AFROTC fielded a brand new Drill Team for exhibition and competition, while the Rifle Team carried the CPS colors in inter-college competition across the nation, downing some of the giants in the East, but losing out in a shoulder-to-shoulder match against the University of Washington in a shoot to select the Northwest's number one team.

Capping the year was the AFROTC Military Ball, held at the McChord Air Force Base Officers' Club on March 25. The social event was highlighted by the announcement of the cadet's choice for "Coed Colonel," another tradition to add to those already established.
The crack AFROTC Drill Team, shown here in its best finery, is fast winning a reputation for being a competition team to watch for. Sparring the team this year has been Ronald Bailey, at far right, with Robert Hough as his assistant.

The AFROTC Color Guard, shown above, has become a standard fixture at many athletic and civic events on the campus. Helping to win local repute for the group are Terry Webster, Floyd James and Gary Woodford.
Alpha Phi

1954-55 was a year of growth and activity for Alpha Phi. The year got under way with thirteen new pledges. The pledges got off to a fast start by having the year's first sneak, a successful one. The pledge dance, "What's My Line?" with the Sigma Chi's soon followed. The Chateau was the scene of the Christmas dance, the "Enchanted Forest," Dec. 3.

February 13 was a busy day for the Alpha Phi's. The day began at 6 a. m., with the pledge kidnap breakfast and pledge initiation in the afternoon. The Initiation Banquet was held that evening in the Winthrop Hotel. At that time the pledge scholarship award was presented to LaVonne Eggert.

A very successful spring rush culminated with the pledging of five girls.

Spring activities included the annual Sigma Chi kidnap breakfast and the Spring formal held May 14.

Donna Lillis gave the group able leadership for the entire year as president.

Other officers were: Evelyn Dodge, vice president; Bonnie Nold, vice president; Elbertha Conklin, chaplain; Shirley Dickinson, recording secretary; Marlene Peterson, corresponding secretary; Donna Thorsen, treasurer; Sue Ellertson, marshall, and Maureen Helms, guard.
The Chi Omega's started out their year with 15 new pledges. With the Phi Delta Theta pledges they had two successful events: the pledge sneak and the pledge dance, "Nursery Rhyme Time," held November 5th. "Winter Whirl," the Chi O's Christmas dance, was held December 10th at the Chateau.

The new year brought about many activities. Between semesters the Chi Omega's painted three of the walls in their chapter room gold and papered one in green and gold. Then they hung the gold draperies given to the chapter by their alumnae.

Along with spring rush came five new pledges. On February 25th, Roberta Elson was chosen Sweetheart of Sigma Chi at the Sigs' dinner dance. The University Union Club was the scene of the Chi O's Spring Dinner Dance on May 13th.

Delta Delta Delta

A dance was given in honor of their members by the pledges of Tri Delta and Sigma Nu Fraternity. The theme was a “Carnival in Venice.” No two couples looked alike.

The Tri Delta-Sigma Nu annual Christmas dance was held at the Chateau. Gifts that were brought for the tree were later given to a needy family. During Christmas vacation the chapter room was given a swish of the brush. The members and pledges applied the paint themselves, too!

February was Chapter Day and all sororities were present to celebrate Phi Zeta’s third birthday.

A Spring formal dinner dance was held at the Fircrest Golf Club. At that time, Dr. Thompson read the Delta Golden Girl Proclamation. Golden Girl is an honor given to a girl of junior or senior standing who best fulfills the ideals of Delta Delta Delta.

Serving as officers for the year were: Rheta Hill, president; Sue Swayze, vice president; Nancy Eierman, treasurer; Geraldine DeWolfe, recording secretary; Mary Ann Norton, chaplain; Carol Johnson, marshalls. The Spring officers are: Carol Johnson, president; Mary Jane Hungerford, vice president; Nancy Eierman, treasurer; Ruth Brown, recording secretary; Sue Swayze, chaplain, and Donna Mitchell, marshals.
Pi Beta Phi

"I wish I was . . ." set the mood for the Pi Phi-Kappa Sig draw dance, one of the first activities planned by the 13 Pi Phi pledges early in the fall.

Balloon faces grinning from a boat on the wave-swept SUB lawn won the women's decorations trophy as Pi Phi's followed the homecoming theme, "All Ashore in '54." Another award presented to the Washington Gamma chapter of Pi Beta Phi was the Vera Moss Bowl for the chapter showing the most outstanding improvement in 1954.

Since the weather didn't cooperate, Pi Phi's made their own "Snow Flake Wonderland" for the annual Christmas dance with Sigma Chi's. Later, wine and blue carnations set the background for February's dinner dance.

Steaks, chicken, hamburgers and mush were the fare set for the spring scholarship banquet. Other memorable "Pi Phi Nights" included SUB dinners, firesides and a house party.
Panhellenic

Panhellenic is the governing board of the sororities on campus. It is a body composed of representatives from the four national sororities. Panhellenic is also a member of the National Panhellenic Association.

Rushing is one of its biggest functions each year. A fall rush and a mid-year rush was held. This year Panhellenic and Inter-Fraternity Council had a joint dinner meeting at the Top of the Ocean. Judge George Boldt was the guest speaker.

Officers for the fall semester were: President, Mary Ann Norton; Vice President, Lynn Green; Secretary, Maureen Helms, and Treasurer was Donna Detrich.

Lynn Green attended the University of Washington Panhellenic Convention held at the Empress Hotel. When she returned, Mary Ann handed the gavel to her. Lynn will serve as president for one full year.

Membership in Panhellenic consists of three representatives from each sorority. The sorority president, the Panhellenic representative and the rush chairman. Advisor for Panhellenic is Miss Leone Murray, Dean of Women. Mrs. James Wilhelmi, executive secretary, was selected from City Panhellenic to help serve in the advisory capacity.
Inter-Fraternity Council

The academic year was one of great progress for the CPS Inter-Fraternity Council. The season started with fraternity rush which was supervised by IFC. The council also sponsored the Pledge Help Week on the campus. A total of 280 hours of work was supplied to the college for various projects. During March IFC sponsored the Greek Ball which was held at the Winthrop Hotel. A great number of the campus Greeks attended the annual affair. In April delegates were sent to the Western Regional Convention at Washington State College. At the final meeting of the 1954 officers, Richard Mosier, president, Jim Nelson, vice president, John Chapman, secretary-treasurer, and Ray Tabor, assistant coordinator, the 1955 officers were elected. They are: Ray Tabor, president; Juris Macs, vice president; Wade Coykendall, secretary-treasurer, and Bill Kershul, assistant coordinator.
Kappa Sigma

For the first time in several years, CPS's chapter of Kappa Sigma held a Stardust Queen event. The four sororities and the independents were represented at this gala event. The crowning of Delores Helf by Gerald Sweeney capped off a year of new and exciting happenings for the Epsilon Lambda Chapter. Many improvements were made in the house, with the house mothers' donation of two beautiful new carpets being the major "new look."

A whirl of rush functions took place in early September and 18 pledged the brotherhood. Harold Jensen was elected president of the pledges. Along with their other household duties, the pledges found time to arrange with the Pi Beta Phi pledges for a dance which was enjoyed by both houses in November.

"Man of the Year" was Russ Wilkerson, the annual award being made at Lake Wilderness Lodge. Russ Wilkerson was Grand Master in the fall and Gerald Sweeney took charge for the spring semester.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

This year has proven to be an exceptional one for the fraternity. At the beginning of the fall season, a large pledge class of sixteen men was received into the house. This class assumed the responsibility of constructing a beautiful rec-room in the basement, made of plywood, and equipped with modern recessed lights. The house has already set up a ping pong table in the room.

On March 11, Sigma Alpha Epsilon celebrated its 99th anniversary with a founder's day banquet which was attended by alumni throughout the city, in addition to the members and pledges in the chapter. The centennial next year is being looked forward to with great anticipation.

March 26th marked one of the fraternity's most important annual events, the Violet Sweetheart Ball. The dance was held at the Tacoma Athletic Club and a candidate from one of the sororities and independents was picked to be the Violet Sweetheart. In addition to the aforementioned, SAE has held several firesides and Saturday night dances this year.

John Hewitt, a new member from the house, was chosen to be a candidate for student body vice president and the chapter held its first annual "We hate women" week; the event being climax ed by a dance at the house.
The 1954-55 school year held much in store for the Sigma Nu Fraternity, located at 1402 North Oakes. From the initiating of eleven new members into the fraternity at the close of the fall semester to the staging of the annual White Rose dance, the year can be considered very successful.

The annual Christmas dance was held at the Chateau during early December and was followed throughout the winter with many varied activities such as: Firesides, the "Carnival of Venice" pledge dance, the annual Mothers’ Tea, the Hard Times dance and a rummage sale.

Through the countless efforts of the fraternity and the Zeta Alpha alumni association, plans are rapidly being drawn up for a new fraternity house. It will be the first one of an eventual series of houses to be built on Greek Row on the campus.

Leaders of Sigma Nu for the year were: Gerald Murdock, eminent commander; Charles Arnold, lieutenant commander; Charles Kruger, recorder; Dale Klint, treasurer; Juris Macs, marshall; Glen Bos, chaplain; Bob Ellason, sentinel; John Barnett, reporter; Larry Catuzio, alumni contact; Shelly Gerarden, historian.
Theta Chi

Theta Chi started the year off with a newly decorated house and fifteen new pledges. Theta Chi house decorations took second place during Homecoming activities. The pledge dance, "Sewers of Paris," was pronounced a complete success by members, pledges and guests. Thirteen men were initiated into the fraternity with Ronald Hanson named as pledge of the semester. Ted Bottiger was chosen the Outstanding Senior and received the Service, Character and Scholarship Award.

Outstanding events during the second semester were the Northwest Regional Convention at the University of Washington, the annual Paddy Murphy dance and the third annual "Dream Girl Ball" held at the Tacoma Athletic Club.

Officers for the year were, Fall: Richard Mosier, president; Cliff King, vice president; Richard McQuillian, secretary; Wade Coykendall, treasurer; Emery Franzen, assistant treasurer; Ted Bottiger, marshall; Mel Hoffman, first guard; Stan Johnson, second guard; Jerry Skaugset, historian; Dave Nicholson, chaplain; Jim Fransom, librarian; Jerry Aldridge, steward.

With the enthusiasm over the newly decorated room, and with the many capable incoming freshmen, the Independents of 1954-55 had their best year ever.

The annual events proved very successful, such as the all-school Sadie Hawkins day dance, the Christmas party and the cruise. The theme of the spring formal dance was "Brigadoon."

An "Indee of the Month" was chosen for outstanding work for the school and for the group. Millicent Bulatao was elected Homecoming Queen.

The officers were: Tom Martin, president; Millie Bulatao, vice president; Margaret Tucker, secretary; Norma Littlejohn, corresponding secretary; Donald Cramer, treasurer; Harvey Denton, sergeant-at-arms; Evadne King and Esther Blockly, historians.

The following pages of advertising are just as important a part of your 1955 Tamanawas as a sport or be 60 pages smaller, there would be no padded cover, and the entire production would be curtailed.

Whether a senior or frosh, every student should examine the ads. And when he needs to buy something or have a service performed, he should remember the advertisers in the next pages. Out of the hundreds of contacts the business staff made through the year, these were the business houses that were behind the college. These were the concerns that cared enough to support us, the students.

As students, we should care enough to support them. What better way could there be to say "thanks" for a better Yearbook?
wildlife thrives
on tree farms...

Wildlife finds food and shelter in the Pacific Northwest mountain areas dedicated to growing timber as a crop. Here it takes 80 to 100 years to grow trees to merchantable size for sawlogs. During this time the tree farmer must protect his trees from fire, insects and disease, harvest according to long-range plan, and provide for both natural and artificial reforesting. Virtually all Weyerhaeuser forestlands are in tree farms, managed by skilled foresters.

Coming to the Pacific Northwest

Natural GAS

The Natural Gas pipeline will deliver to the Pacific Northwest a volume of thermal energy equal to the combined output of Bonneville and Grand Coulee.

The College of Puget Sound—even as business and industry—will benefit by the contributions of this tremendous new source of energy to the economic developments of the area.
