You've a certain sartorial eloquence
And a style that's almost of your own
You've got the knack of being so laid-back
It's like talking to the great Unknown

You've got a self-sufficient swept-back hairdo
Pretty certain that you've got it made
Oh your lifestyle shows in the clothes you chose
Sitting pretty in the masquerade
Sing it
Don't you wanna play this game no more?
Don't you wanna play no more?
Don't you wanna play this game no more
Don't you wanna play no more?
You remain the only main contender
Though you never,
you never meant to lose at all
Down at the mouth yet unsurrounded
Adamant before the fall
Though when you go you know
I might be lonesome
But I'll keep it under close control
Go and get your kicks
and babe let's call it quits
I believe I'm feeling indisposed
FALL
ORIENTATION WEEK  Clockwise from right. A new student...A now born-again Dr. Dave Arnett returns to campus once again to perform his popular hypnotist show. (He encored during Homecoming.)...The star of his show...A journey to the SUB...The first dance of the year...Freshmen take an excursion to tour Tacoma - here, they view the Narrows Bridge...and here, the scenic Port of Tacoma area. Center: Participants in Talent Night rock the house.
Other orientation week events not shown are: The traditional cruise of Commencement Bay and salmon bake, excursions to Seattle and the Puyallup fair, and various lectures.
HOMECOMING  During the second week of October, the U.P.S. campus erupts with corruption. The era of gangsters and flappers is retrieved from the pages of history. By underground sources, rumors spread that the Tunnels Annex Kitchen has been converted into a bootleg distillery and Todd Hall's basement lounge is now a speak-easy.

Clockwise from right. The Atlanta Rhythm Section plays to an entranced audience in the Fieldhouse...The Student Union Building undergoes metamorphosis and becomes a Great Gatsby dance hall, with No Cheese Please in the snack bar area for the rockers...Those wishing to travel sideways in time waltz in to hear the big band music of Super Sound...Ever thought of corruption and charity marching off together? The Kappa Sigs sponsor a muscular dystrophy drive...Spectators fill the Great Hall for the annual display of student talent - Songfest...A Tacoma police officer fails to understand how the following female was elected Homecoming queen...The B.U.T.A. boys and their lovely queen...The Sigma Chi/Tri Delt speak-easy float captures the Most Outstanding award.

Other Homecoming events not shown are: The "Almost Anything Goes" competition, worship service, the Loggers getting axed, and nature's own contribution - Mt. St. Helens' small ash eruption.
CELEBRITIES & CELEBRATIONS  U.P.S. is honored with the presence of two distinguished and distinct intellectual troupes to help celebrate two solemn occasions. Clockwise from right. Four dynamic actors of the Royal Shakespeare Company, surrounded by their "tros" rehearse a scene exemplifying the state of war as defined by Shakespeare...U.P.S. President Phil Phibbs and King Richard III celebrate their birthdays on October 2...To put the gala affair into proper perspective, the birthday boy, faculty, and students receive the actors in the Phibbs' home...Chief Justice Warren Burger and his entourage dedicate the new U.P.S. Law School.
JAZZ & RAZZMATAZZ  Speakers and entertainers continue to enhance life at U.P.S.
Clockwise from left. Actress Nikki Flacks stages an informal performance in the Inside Theater on acting as a career...The Grammy award winning New England Ragtime Ensemble, the first of the year's cultural events, jamming in the Fieldhouse...The Empty Shoes Jazz Quintet perform a "brown bag concert" in the chapel...Former Washington governor Dixi Lee Ray speaks to U.P.S. students the day before she gets "nuked" at the polls.
the shadow box

BY MICHAEL CHRISTOFER

The Shadow Box takes place in three separate cottages on the grounds of a large hospital. It dramatically displays and discusses each of the five stages of dying - denial, rage and anger, bargaining, depression, and acceptance. The hopes, dreams, and anxieties of three terminally ill patients and their family and friends are examined as each person attempts to accept death.

CHRISTMAS CHEER. Spurs and the University Chorale bring the Christmas spirit to campus. Clockwise from right. The Spurs Christmas banquet provides a welcome reprieve for many from their usual diet. The Great Hall is transformed into a restaurant, complete with waiters, for the occasion. Santa takes time out during his busy season to wish U. P. S. Merry Christmas. U. P. S. Chancellor Franklin "Dr. T." Thompson delivers a memorable Christmas address. The University Chorale sings in the Christmas season.
WE'RE LISTENING Students hear the opinions of national personalities in lectures. Clockwise from below. John Dean asks the audience in Kilworth Chapel not to forget "the shadow of Watergate"...Author Richard Brautigan returns to his hometown to express his insights on human nature and American society to students...Political activist and lecturer Dick Gregory shocks his audience by elaborating on an alleged C. I. A. plan to manipulate the Reagan administration...Nobel prize-winning scientist Linus Pauling speaks at U. P. S.
ACADEMICS, MUSIC, & ZANINESS Entertainers provide much-needed breaks from reality. Clockwise from right. The Student Union Building lounge vibrates with the sound of Scott Jones...Pat Woodland entertains his fellow students—a star is born?...The group Interplay lulls listeners...The crazed lunatic Rev. Chumleigh walks a “tightrope” (using this term loosely) while blindfolded.
CLASSY CULTURE The campus is touched by class.
Clockwise from below. A member of the Odessa Balaikas demonstrates Russian ingenuity... "From Russia with love" come the Odessa Balaikas, a folk group performing music from the court of Czar Nicholas... the Concord String Quartet brilliantly execute Beethoven... The Grammy-winning New England Ragtime Ensemble begin this year’s Cultural Events series in a jazzy style.
TACOMA  The theme for this year's Winterim is presented through a series of lectures and exhibits.
Clockwise from right. Vignettes: Murray Morgan tells tales of the women's suffrage movement in the area...Views: Four panelists discuss the elements (or lack thereof) which make Tacoma a liveable city (besides U. P. S.)...Visions: The hopes and aspirations of the city are discussed by leading citizens...A scarred relic reminds Kittredge gallery visitors of Tacoma's lost elegance.
CAVORTING CAMPUS The Student Union attracts a variety of musical talent. Elsewhere on campus, a symbolic gesture can be noticed. Clockwise from below. Upepo adds a Latin flavor to the Christmas dance...Tree outside of Jones Hall on January 20...The Smoldering Remains play the Union House...Students bop to the sounds of Madrigal in the Union House.

The theme for this year's Winterim was "Focus on Tacoma." In honor of this, these two and the following two pages have been dedicated to picturing some of the more interesting Tacoma landmarks (beyond U.P.S.). Clockwise from right: The Old City Hall clock tower...The Seymour arboretum in Wright Park...a view from the stadium...The Washington State Historical Museum...a ship entering Commencement Bay...a marker near the site of Tacoma's first house.

a letter from the editor

The production of the book you are holding has been a year-long ordeal. It has not been an individual effort. Many people were involved in its conception and realization. I would first like to thank Mike and my entire staff for their dedication to quality and their hard work.

Many other acknowledgements need to be made. Richard Pichler got me started on this project and provided valuable assistance throughout the year. Thanks also go to R. E. Clenton Richardson, for picking the book's theme, shooting my house picture, and providing support. Lisa Martin, David Smith, and Steve Harvey of the TRAIL deserve thanks for their patience and understanding. My brother Dirk helped out on the production of the Housing section. Mark Gavin and the Safety and Security staff were helpful. Thanks also go out to “Slim” Hubert, Steve Gerrodette, and Mrs. R. for their assistance. Also of help were: the Food Service Office, George Madsen and the Print Shop staff, and everyone who helped identify group pictures. And finally, thanks go to our advertisers.

I sincerely hope that this book will be of some value to you.

Sing it
Don't you wanna play this game no more
Don't you wanna play no more?
Don't you wanna play this game no more
Don't you wanna play no more?
Don't you wanna play this game
When you go
you know I might be lonesome
But I'll keep it under close control
Go and get your kicks
and babe let's call it quits
I believe I'm feeling indisposed.

"...yet, the only area of budgetary increase will be in the area of the Safety & Security and the Executive Branch. The Department of Safety & Security will be bolstered by a threefold plan. To keep pace with our communist advisors at P.L.U., we will: 1) increase the apportionment of funds to the Department of Safety & Security by $100,000; 2) begin registering all students, faculty, and staff should an emergency confrontation arise; and 3) begin an all campus/North end training and education drive on fallout procedures and hand-to-hand combat.

"A salary increase for all in the Executive branch will be given due to the combined effects of inflation and our other proposed budget cutbacks. A proposed amount of $85,000 will be divided between the President (50 percent) and the two Vice Presidents (25 percent each).

"Vice President Weisbart and I must reiterate that every other area of A.S.U.P.S. will be trimmed. Tamanawas, KUPS, and the TRAIL will each be 'given' $150 to run their medias for the next three years. Crosscurrents will be abolished by an executive order.

"It's time for a change. The Senate, the Greek houses, and you, will work with us. We can do it. You, fellow constituents, put lumps in our throats."-President Aaron Peterson

To the University of Puget Sound Faculty and Students

Congratulations on your continued excellence in the educational community.

Your law school is an impressive asset for our community.

You have also continued to distinguish Tacoma with the best in music, art, theater, lectures and sports.

We at La Moyne's are truly appreciative of your many achievements and grateful for your continued support of our restaurant.

Thank you!

Sincerely,
La Moyne and John
Hecha.
