CPS Meets Lutherans Tonight In Bowl

Beef Extract

BY ED.

School spirit . . . where art thou? . . . We've heard so much about this topic in these columns and around the school that it was not until just lately that another idea occurred to this wandering intellect . . . Right at present we have more evident school spirit than was evident at any time last year. . . .

Another idea, if you'll bear with me . . . over half of the student body are freshmen . . . The freshmen have inculcated their particular brand of enthusiasm into everything their activities have touched on . . . Maybe, the Freshmen don't know that the rest of the school is disturbed about that little item—school spirit . . . Certainly they have come to take it for granted in their prep schooling. . . .

All we want is to preserve the Freshman class spirit for four long years, and the less said about the lack of "school spirit" or its by-products . . . support of games or plays or what have you . . . the more there will be of it, we believe.

LEAD. We wonder what percentage of the student body knows that there will be no baseball, or golf in this year's athletic program? . . . Baseball is one of the startlingly few sports that CPS has won an all-conference title in. . . . Four and five years ago Puget Sound golfers wiped up the Universities of Washington and Oregon, were undefeated in the Pacific Northwest. . . . We wonder what financial provision is being made for tennis and skiing, which were not allowed for in the athletic budget for 1938 budget submitted last spring?

Homecoming Set For Nov. 17

Banquet, Reception, Play and Dance Scheduled

The College of Puget Sound's annual Homecoming celebration will have as its general chairman this year, Russ Perkins, to be assisted by Dick Purlich.

The calendar of events has been scheduled as follows:

Thursday, November 17, the Homecoming Play, "The Perfect Alibi," to be presented in the Jones Hall Auditorium by the Campus Playcrafters. Friday November 18, will be the formal opening of the new Women's Residence Hall. Saturday, November 19, will see the fraternity and sorority alumni banquets, to be followed by the all-college Homecoming Dance, whose chairman is Ruth Jensen.

There has been a rumor to the effect that the sports program may be supplied by a student-faculty touch-football game which, if held, will probably take place on Saturday, November 19. Due to a conflict in this year's schedule, no regular Homecoming football game could be planned.

Further members of the Homecoming committees will be appointed by the various chairmen.

DEBATE TEAMS ARE ASSIGNED FOR TOURNEY

Nov. 21-23 Competition to Have Groups from Colorado

Members of the CPS debate squad were assigned to teams at the meeting of the debate club held last Monday noon and signed for extemporaneous, impromptu and after dinner speaking competition in the national tournament to be held here November 21-23 in connection with the convention of Western Association of Teachers of Speech which will be held in Seattle at that time. The tournament will include teams from colleges as far east as Colorado, and some 500 participants are expected.

There will be three divisions of debate in the tournament. The Varsity division will include all experienced debaters. The Junior Division will be comprised of all those who have had one year or less of debating experience, and the third division will be made up of mixed teams, and other teams which do not fit into the other divisions.

CPS competitors for honors in extemp will be James Docherty, Charles Shireman, Charles Gleiser, and Lawrence Bonneville. Impromptu speakers will be Cameron Wilson and Kenneth Sulston.

Debate teams as assigned in the women's division are: Margaret and Marie Gilstrap; Sara Louise Doub and Barbara Healy; Erna Brenner and Beulah Eskildson; Ponla Normand and Margaret O'Donnell; Helen Hite and Anita Wagner; Edith Hammond and Lucia Gjuka.

Men's teams will be: James Docherty and Charles Shireman; Stanley Nash and Charles Gleiser; Bob Corliss and Cameron Wilson; Tom Ray and Bill Melton; Lawrence Henderson and Judd Day; Gene Albertson and Yoshitaru Kawana; Kenneth Sulston and Oliver Soares; Dick Tuttle.

Log-Bucking Champs to Saw at Half

The Loggers Convention, now in session at Tacoma, will sponsor an exhibition log-bucking contest at halftime in the Stadium tonight. Canadian and American champions will be in action.

Committees for Tolo Announced

Show Changed to "Arkansas Traveler"

With Dorothy Shaw as general chairman, CPS's annual Tolo will be held Friday, November 4 at the Rialto Theater in Tacoma. The picture will be "Arkansas Traveler," with Bob Burns, instead of the picture formerly announced.

Committees planning the affair are: Tickets, Shirley Scott, chairman, to be assisted by Irma Jueling, Frances Tarr, Virginia Leonard, Phyllis Albert, and Anita Wegener. Joan Roberts is chairman of the publicity committee. Dick Sloat will be in charge of the stage show which will consist of CPS talent and will last from about twenty minutes to half an hour.

Secretary Is Chosen

Quadrant secretary for Quadrant Number 2, class of 1942, through four years of college will be William Roberts, it was announced late last week by Richard Smith of the alumni office.

Parade Scheduled

Pep Department announces: Parade and rally for the Pacific Lutheran vs. Puget Sound grid tussle will form Friday, October 28th, in front of the college facing from north to south. . . . The parade will go from there through 26th and Proctor, 6th avenue, Kay street and downtown.

Prizes will be offered for the best decorated car, the best represented organization and the noisiest delegation.

Jitterbug Session

What?—All college Dance.
When?—Tonight, after game.
Cost?—35c a couple.

Where?—CPS gymnasium.
Everyone is going to the first all college dance of the year tonight in the gym of the old Alma Mater. Hope you'll come along, too. Dancing will be to the music of those swingful rascals, Jack Marshall and his eight-piece orchestra, 10:00 to 12:00.

Admission will be but thirty-five cents for couples, and a quarter if you come alone. Sponsors for the event are Knights of the Log. Ronald Rau and his committee, Jack Hungerford and Robert Pollock, are in charge of arrangements. Spurs will furnish the decorations.

'The Perfect Alibi' To Have New Set

An entirely new stage set will be a feature of the Campus Playcrafters' production of "The Perfect Alibi," Homecoming Play scheduled for presentation on November 17. According to Clair Hanson, stage manager, the stage crew has demolished all the old sets and is starting all over again for "The Perfect Alibi." The set, constructed of spruce lumber, will be stained a dark mahogany. Done in English style, it will be beautifully paneled, complete with a ceiling, three built-in book cases, a built-in fireplace and French windows.

Those who will assist in painting this elaborate set are Ruth Jensen, Frances Cole and Rosalie Siegler. The construction crew, under the direction of Richard Sloat, dramatic manager, is headed by Clair Hanson, who formerly held the same position at Lincoln High for two years. Assisting him are Dewane Lamka, Willard Bellman, Bill Hoyle, Howard Hense, Richard McKnight, Neil Richardson and Jim Docherty.

One new member has been added to the cast of "The Perfect Alibi," David Davies, freshman, will play the role of Adams, a butler.

Plan Camera Club

Photograph bugs attention! You are invited to bring all of your camera knacks to room 115, Monday at 2:15 p. m. A camera club may be organized to help you make the best use of your camera, cheaply.

Any one who likes to take pictures is welcome to join the "camera bugs!"

Rough Contest Is Predicted for Renewed Classic

Superior Logger Power Against PLC Speed Is Forecasted

By Joe Mitchell

Football relations between the College of Puget Sound and Pacific Lutheran College, broken off in 1932, will be resumed tonight in the Stadium.

The Tacoma elevens, the Lutherans under Coach Cliff Olson, and the Loggers under Coach Leo Frank, will bridge the six-year gap in a game many observers believe will develop into a knock-down and drag-out affair, with neither team giving quarter.

For Tacoma fandom, the contest will provide an extra bundle of thrills, in that rivalry between the squads has risen to an unprecedented pitch due to the many years they have been kept apart. In the opinion of the majority of fans, there will be nothing short of an emotional explosion when the 22 starting players are cut loose at 8 o'clock.

The Lutherans, a different group than that which fought the Loggers six years ago, will nevertheless have their predecessors in mind when they trot out on the field. For it will be the memory of the 17-0 defeat inflicted by CPS that will spur Coach Olson's men on to greater heights.

No less determined are the Loggers, who will be inspired by what the championship team of 1932 did when Roy Sandberg was at the helm. This year they will unfold the strategy of a new coach in an attempt to continue their dominance.

A glimpse at the record books shows that neither team has escaped the spectre of defeat. Pacific Lutheran, although its record sparkles with several victories, has bowed twice to opposing elevens. On the other hand, the Loggers can account for but one triumph in four games. Nevertheless, one of its defeats, inflicted by College of Idaho, brought to the surface the power of the Maroon and White's running attack, which heretofore had remained obscured by a superior passing attack.

Student Directories To Cost 15 Cents

A communication from Mr. Rugh was read at the Central Board meeting Monday concerning the Student-Faculty Directory, suggesting that Central Board underwrite the publication to the extent of $45. The Board decided to act upon his suggestion and publish 500 copies at 15 cents per copy on condition that the Board carry on its own sales campaign.

The Board also decided that they would not sponsor a caravan of cars to the Willamette game.

A committee consisting of Lawrence Henderson, Bill Reynolds, Virginia Smyth and James Docherty were appointed to revise the constitution.

By ROY LOKKEN

SOLILOQUY ON WORDS . . .

Jacks* is wrong . . . Awareness is not the greatest virtue of man . . . It is his greatest vice, for must not one suffer for the things he is conscious of? Were not Jesus so aware of the sufferings of man he need never have suffered so much himself . . . Were I not so pathos, as the Greeks have it, to the iniquities of the language that I know and love so well, I need never suffer such moments as these . . . (The comparison is probably the most odious type of conceit . . . But it appears to suffice here . . .) People who are perpetually unconscious of the pains of the world are the happiest . . . Things happen to them, but they are none the wiser . . .

The reason for this outburst of feeling and remorse is a series of observations I have made for sometime on the inconsistencies in the spelling and pronunciation of our language . . . Probably no language is quite as bad as ours in this respect, unless it be the French which gave us rigid style in poetry, a questionable gift . . . The Germans leave out practically nothing either in spelling or pronunciation, but they offend in fastening word upon word merely for the sake of pedantry . . . How else can one explain such a word as Formgeschichteschule? The Chinese are the wisest in that they use character-pictures (ideographs) which gives them not only a language but a culture . . .

The English offense, however, is three-fold . . . We write out letters, which are elided in speech . . . We pronounce letters, which are never written out . . . And we use one word for any number of meanings, and one meaning for any number of words, which is sometimes quite as confusing to the Englishman as to a foreigner just learning the language . . .

For instance, I write the word walk, and I pronounce it wawk. . . If there must be an l in the word, why not pronounce it that way, or delete l altogether and substitute the pronounced w? Then there is the word condition . . . Why it is pronounced condishun and not con-di-tion is quite beyond me . . .

Suppose we were to spell out words as they are pronounced, which would be more practical in the long run, this is the way it would appear.

The condishun uv ovr yoonivers is sumthing greevus I nevr wurry uhbowt . . .

Do I hear applause from the Freshmen?

*L. P. Jacks, The Education of the Whole Man.

Modern jazz music is like a moth that flies and dances quickly about the flame of popularity until it is finally extinguished.

Teaching Alumni To Lunch Friday

Alumni of the College of Puget Sound who will be attending the W.E.A. teachers' convention in Tacoma on October 27-28, will meet at a luncheon at CPS on Friday, the 28th.

Miss Ina Coffman, an alumna who is teaching at Mason school, will be chairman of the affair and Dr. Powell will act as toastmaster.

The new professors at CPS will be presented to the group and Mrs. Schneider will give a brief talk about the new Women's Residence Hall. Musical numbers will be furnished by members of the music department.

McMillin's Trip

Prof. F. A. McMillin will leave this weekend to attend the International Mining Congress to be held in Los Angeles October 24th to the 27th. Judged by the number of world-prominent mining men to be expected there it will be a meeting of considerable importance. He is representing Northwest mining interests and will stop over at San Francisco to confer with mining executives. "Mac" expects to be home the following Monday.

And jeers to you, my little flat foot floogies . . . foo plus you equals goo . . . aren't you really ashamed of yourselves for peeking between these lines to see how your friends misfortuned . . . our leetle lecture for the weak is . . . "Learn to do things for yourself." Indifference seems to be the best developed talent most folks possess and that literally means you, profs, too. Why sit back and wait for the other fellow to do the work and then crab because he gets a little glory for it. Take the bull by the horns and try helping yourself, you all'd be surprised how things improve and are to your liking when they part part of your ideas. Moral . . . lets you genuinely cooperate, it's a swell world.

FLASH . . . Dottie Shaw and Chuck Fishel parted . . . too bad Dottie, there wa'r many a good ride left in him . . .

FROSH PLAY PRANKS . . . Evelyn Decker messing up her lines proper and declaring that "My shoes hurt awful" instead feet . . . the payoff was Pat Coatsworth also muddling her manuscript, the result being "When a boy starts out with a girl she finishes," that's no lie . . . NO LUCK . . . Glamour Boy Honeywell combing the halls for a gal wiz zee struggle buggy what would pick him up at work and take him to the game and dance . . . no luck Wed. . .

FREE LIST . . . people cry and children beg to be put on this list in a subtle way so their steadies won't grasp the significance . . . gals and guys, that is impossible . . . blunt or not at all, air our motto . . . Wayne Neely, Doris Rosellini and your reporter (me) rate the list honorably . . .

MAIN EVENT . . . Burroughs plus Burkland (in town now) after Jensen . . . I'll bet on the Cubs.

LAST BUT NOT LEAST . . . Lyle Carpenter going hunting and bagging a dear . . . I like it . . . Smyth throwing a bottle of ink at poor little Dave . . . was the floor a mess . . .

FINIS . . . Ends another week of soliciting your meanderings and I will admit its fun because everyone has such a delightfully guilty conscience. The Gammas are cheery hosts to your columnist as the Lambdas but the Thetas and Betas prefer, I guess, their tricks to filter thru other sources . . . so again I bid adieu to you and hope your little brother puts crackers in your bed . . .

CURRENT CULTURE

By Sonya Loftness

Toscanini again comes to us in national Saturday night concerts, his orchestra especially designed for the exclusive use of radio. This Saturday the symphony is playing a Rossini overture, Strauss' "Don Quixote," and the "Fifth Symphony" by Beethoven.

Friday and Saturday nights the Drama League of Tacoma is presenting "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" at the Little Theatre off Carr Street. Mrs. J. K. Gordon, once of the London stage, is billed for the leading role, a part which the famous actress, May Robson, once played in Tacoma. The curtains will go up on the comedy at 8:15.

To the interest of all those who wish to be included in a party going to Seattle this season to hear Thomas Mann, the noted writer, speak at the University of Washington, there will be at least two cars leaving from CPS. Anyone desiring to go along may leave a note in the box of Sonya Loftness in the Trail office, or contact Belle Ruth Clayman.

OPEN FOR'EM

This is your column so why not support it? Write your ideas briefly and put them in the red box outside the library door. Contributions must be in by noon Wednesday.

LET'S CAN THE RACKET!

Dear Open For'Em:

Why couldn't we raise a little money and make recordings of our yells, band music, and crowd noises. The records could be sent with the team to out of town games and played on the sound truck. The team, inspired by the sound of their own student body, would win handily. Simple, isn't it?

Rumor has it that the music department withholds news from The Trail until the Times has printed it. This condition could be rectified by a unified student demand that The Trail print music department news in spite of restrictions imposed by our local dictators. Let's support freedom of the press right here at home!

DICK JARVIS.

STUDENT UNION?

Dear Open For'Em:

Last year some students had a bright idea and started a movement to revive the school spirit. They called themselves "Student Union."

Near the end of last semester the "Student Union" put on a program for Student Chapel. They told us what they hoped to accomplish and read the names of the members. Now I'll admit that there were some students who graduated last June. A few of them had belonged to the Student Union, but I know there were a few undergraduates who had their names on the list of members and I know that some of them are still with us. Why don't they start the "Student Union" again? It may be able to put some life into the student body.

FRANK LOWTHER.

Dear Open For'Em:

ya-ya-ya, ya, ya,
yo-o-o-o-o-o Loggers!

This stirring battle cry echoed and reechoed between the bare walls of the stadium, last Saturday night as our leather lunged yell leaders did their trio act. Of course there were a handful of students in the stands but the majority of them were afraid to yell lest they seem too conspicuous. Altogether it was a rather lonesome place to work up enthusiasm.

Why weren't the stands lined with cheering spectators? The answer is that John Phan refuses to pay $1.00 to watch an outclassed CPS team play when they can see twice the football for half the money by attending a high school game. Furthermore, the high schools have marching, uniformed bands and put on a show between the halves. It seems the best we can do, even with our wealth of talent, is to play some second rate "canned" music over the loud speaker. When we again develop a football team like we had in 1932 we can charge big-time prices. Until that time we had better charge 35 cents and get a crowd. The gross receipts will be the same and the publicity a lot better.

Tonight, the band will make its debut and we hope that some wide awake organization will put on a show between the halves. Let's do our part, however, by turning out and giving the team something to fight for. Remember, the yell leaders are supposed to direct the yells, not make them.

Barbs Schedule Evening Party

A scavenger hunt and party in the college gym is being planned by the Independent group for Friday evening, October 28. All Independents are cordially invited, and the affair will begin at 7:30. A charge of fifteen cents will cover the cost of refreshments.

Miss Bobby Nadeau is general chairman of the party, and Bob Hardy is in charge of entertainment. Miss Anita Sherman and Miss Betty Wasserman are co-chairmen for refreshments, Miss Mary Frances Power is head of the decorations committee, and Miss Jean Smith will be in charge of cleanup.

'MUMS, POM-POMS FOR GAME TONITE

'Mums, pom-poms, and a good deal of ye ol' college spirit will be given out by the Spurs tonite at the PLC-CPS game. Color of the pom-poms will be maroon and white, and the chrysanthemums will sell for twenty-five cents.

Miss Marjorie Wickens was chosen Spur Queen and will hold a place of honor on the Spur float in the pep parade today.

Announces Pledgings

The pledge list of Alpha Chi Nu is enlarged with the addition of Osman Erickson, Rudy Daus, Dave Palmer and Art Doll to their fall pledge group.

Albertson Heads YMCA Group

The YMCA held elections last Tuesday during Chapel period in room 115. Dr. Williston was nominated as faculty advisor. Gene Albertson was elected president; Ash Walker, vice-president; Cameron Wilson, secretary; Leiland Thune, treasurer; and Claire Hanson, trustee. This group will meet soon with Dr. Williston to formulate plans for this year's program.

All men of the student body, Greek or otherwise, are urged to attend the meeting next Tuesday in room 115, to hear the interesting plans for next year. This organization is open to all and is for the purpose of good fellowship, promotion of the spirit of CPS, and clean living.

Remember next Tuesday, then, in room 115 at chapel hour.

Kappa Phi Pledge Twelve

Kappa Phi announces the pledgings of Misses Marjorie Dovey, Dorothy Howard, Lucia Gjuka, Evangeline Utterback, Yvonne Coman, Luella Gibbons, Margarita Irle, Yoshiye Jinguyi, Annabel Lyman, Ruth McCrea, Enid Miller, Anita Misener, June Uyeda.

Plans for the annual house-party are now being made by Miss Betty Schaad, general chairman. The dates have been set as Oct. 29 and 30.

Ace of Clubs

By Mark Porter

Les membres of Le Club Tri-Colore met Thursday afternoon . . . Those present that went to French Camp last summer told their experiences . . . A little business was dispensed with, too . . . Campus Psychologists met at Prof. Sinclair's native habitat Tuesday eve . . . Girls should've been there . . . Louise Donaldson spoke about "How to Grow Old Gracefully" . . .

Der Deutsche Verein (German Club to you) met and elected officers Tuesday noon . . . Herr Bill Reynolds is der Fuhrer supported by Vice-Fuhrer, Margaret Huseman . . . Bob Kemp is secretary and minister of finance and the Frauleins Gilstrap will serve jointly as sergeant-at-arms . . . Bob Kemp, who spent last year at the University of Munich, studying and skiing, told the club all about it . . . Last minute flash: several members have accepted an invitation of the University of Washington German Club to attend a banquet sponsored by them Wednesday, October 26 . . .

The seniores and senioritas of La Mesa Redondo can rest for one meeting, when club pledges take charge of Monday night's meeting . . . Pledges are Stan Burkey, Ed Granlund, Chet Jablonski, Con Troxell, Bettianne Wassermann, Winnie Richard, Frances Cole, Doris Day, Cora Atkinson, Irene Geddes and Doris Wittren . . .

Pledge Prexies Are Announced

Between sneak and pledge dance dates, pledges of the various sororities found time to choose officers for their respective groups. Kappa Sigma Theta elected Miss Kathleen Wallace president, Miss Lucy Spaeth vice-president, Miss Clasina Buffelen, secretary-treasurer.

Virginia Judd heads the Gamma pledges. The rest of her cabinet is all rolled into one, Miss Lorraine Albert being secretary-treasurer.

Lambda pledges elected Dorothy Hughes as prexy, Marion Longstreth, vice-president, Dorothea Theis, secretary-treasurer. Votes also went to Rosalie Siegler for social chairman, and Pat Coatsworth on that very necessary committee, Food.

Blanche Haines is head of the Beta pledges and has serving with her on the pledge cabinet Vera Healy, vice-president, Helen Johnson, secretary and Doris Wittren, treasurer.

While we are still on the subject of the humble pledges, may we add the pledging of Julianna McPherson to Alpha Beta Upsilon.

Gamma Pledges, Members to Dance

Roof Garden Scene of Saturday Shag

Atop the Masonic Temple in the Roof Garden, members and guests of Delta Alpha Gamma will dance in honor of the pledges. While the motif is being kept as a surprise, dancing will be to the tuneful croonings of Johnny Long and his orchestra. Planning this informal affair are Miss Virginia Dougherty, chairman; Phyllis Albert, Frances Cruver, Doris Granlund and Joan Roberts.

FRESHMEN YWCA

Patricia Gannon, chairman of the social department, has the following girls on her committee: Lorraine Albert, Blanche Haynes, Betty Cheney, May Ogden, Margaret Pence, Dorthes Thies, Doris Wittren, Mary King, Pat Colvert, Margaret Bowen, Anita Misener, Jean Schenk.

Vera Healy, publicity chairman, has Bette Jane Graham on her committee.

The cabinet will meet every Monday at 4 o'clock in the Y. W. room.

Fireside Honors YW Freshmen

The first Y. W. C. A. fireside will be held this Sunday at the home of Miss Ruth Pauline Todd, 1409 No. 6th, from 4 to 5:30. It is mainly to welcome Freshmen women. Mrs. D. D. Snyder, house mother for the new Women's Residence Hall, will speak. Refreshments will be served, and all women are invited.

The Y. W. C. A. cabinets, both Upper Class and Freshman Commission, had a banquet last Wednesday to honor the regional Secretary, Mr. W. Willets. The dinner was in the Commons, and Mr. Willets spoke afterward.

Gordon Tuell to Have Leading Part in Carnegie Play

Gordon Tuell, a 1938 CPS graduate, now doing post graduate work in dramatics on a scholarship at Carnegie Tech in Pittsburgh, will have the leading role in the November production of the Institute's dramatic department. The play, "Inspector General," is a Russian farce.

Tuell also broke into front page news when his picture with that of two other Tech students appeared in the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegram. The trio were present in an inn at the time it was held up.

FENCE TURNOUTS

Fencing turnouts will be held every Monday at 3 starting on this Monday. Everyone interested is urged to come out. The number of freshmen are limited in accordance with the number of upper-classmen turning out and the supply of equipment.

Cross Country Trials to Be Held Soon

Candidates for College of Puget Sound's first inter-collegiate cross country track team will soon be seen sprinting across hill and dale in preparation for their meet early in November. Turnouts are every day at 3 p. m.

Somehow the four-mile course has heretofore failed to appeal to CPS, although Whitman's teams boast victories over Washington State and the University of Idaho. Lack of material and time have placed Coach Leo Frank at a disadvantage.

Aspirants are urged to make their intentions known to either Bob Myers or Coach Frank as soon as possible.

Such a team usually is composed of seven or more members, but everyone who turns out will have a chance. Equipment will be furnished and experience is not necessary.

Let's get out there and help Coach Frank show Whitman that football is only one of the Logger's accomplishments.

Loggers Lose Game, 7-6

Mud, deep gooey mud, covered everything, the players, the officials and especially the ball. Under those conditions the College of Puget Sound lost a heart-breaking game to the College of Idaho 7 to 6 last Friday night at Caldwell, Idaho.

Coyotes Score First

The Coyotes opened the scoring in the second period as they pushed across their touchdown and converted. CPS took the next kick off, and mashing through the mud, moved to Idaho's 5 yard line only to lose the ball on downs.

The Logger's tally came in the third quarter on a blocked kick, but the attempted pass for the extra point was knocked down. A little later Bill Madden, Logger half, grabbed an Idaho punt and sliding, stopping, and skidding carried the ball for 60 yards over the goal, but the play was called back because of alleged clipping.

Indep. and Chi Nus Keep Slate Clean

Both the Independents and Chi Nus remained in the winner's bracket, by winning their touch-football games Tuesday.

Oddly enough, both victories came late in the fourth quarter as a result of long passes; both victories 6-0.

The Chi Nus victory over the Mu Chis was attributed to Foreman's passes; first to Granund, putting the oval in scoring position, then to Baker for the only score.

The Independents won their game in the same manner; a scoring pass from Hanson to Tuttle after a long pass to Wakamatsu.

SHORT SHOTS

By Mary Reitzel

Esther Waterman got so excited while refereeing a ping pong game that she sat in a can of white paint to cool off.

Hockey teams have all been chosen. One game that should be interesting to watch is between the senior and freshman teams.

Wonder why the Betas threw away the score sheet for the ping pong game last Friday. Who were they trying to help?

The freshmen girls say that the juniors are so active in other activities that they just don't have time to turn out. Seems that the seniors have a different idea.

Play day will be Saturday October 22. Invitations have been sent to Stadium, Lincoln, Annie Wright Seminary, and Saint Leo's High School. In the morning, fencing, volleyball, archery and badminton will be played. A luncheon will be held in the Commons at noon. In the afternoon exhibition badminton and social dancing will be held. Mary Jane Roberts is the general chairman, with Doris McClymont, Betty Schaad, Pauline Pumphery, and Kay Sutherland assisting her. There will be 45 girls present.

Next hike will be October 25. It will be to the waterfront.

SECOND WIND

By Gust

Combating the elements, and playing a team composed of 14 players (three being officials), proved to be too much for the Loggers last week-end, and as a result they dropped the Idaho game by a single point, 7 to 6. Rain throughout the game was responsible for the pass offense. That coupled with very poor officiating proved to be the deciding factors.

Long Run Called Back

With fourth down coming up, and Idaho leading 7 to 6 in the third quarter, the Coyotes punted to the Logger 40. Madden took the ball, cut across the field, and was off for the second touchdown for the Maroon and White. However, a referee looked behind him and called a clipping penalty on the Loggers on the Idaho 30, thus moving the ball back to the Coyote 45. This nullified the long run made by the shifty half back, and took away what would have been a Puget Sound victory.

CPS-PLC Game to Be Battle

It looks like the only scores this writer can pick correctly are on the high school games. Whitman was chosen over the Loggers, and the Maroon and White was given the nod over the Coyotes. Both of these were wrong, so this time a coin was flipped. CPS was it. Realizing that a real battle is in store for the CPS men, we take the Loggers by 7 points. . . .

And now we hear that Idaho is definitely eligible for the Rose Bowl. But inasmuch as the Vandals from Moscow have a plenty stiff schedule, taking on UCLA, Univ. of Montana, Univ. of Ore., Wash. State, Utah State, and the Univ. of Utah on successive week ends, it is our guess that the Golden Bears will be back for another crack at the championship, and that the Vandals will be on the outside looking in. . . .

To stick out that well-known neck just a little farther, we pick the following to come through this week-end:

California	13.	Univ. of Wash.	6
CPS	13.	PLC	6
UCLA	12.	Idaho	13
Col. of Idaho	0.	Willamette	26
Whitman	7.	Pacific	12
Wash. State	3.	Ore. State	6
Ellensburg	7.	Linfield	0
St. Mary's	25.	Univ. of S. F.	12
Santa Clara	20.	Univ. of Ark.	13
BYU	13.	Univ. of Port.	12
Forham	21.	Oregon	7
Stadium	19.	Yakima	6

And now that the dirty work is done for the week, we'd like to give the opinion, of one who knows, on why CPS doesn't do any better than it does in athletic contests. Valen Honeywell explains the situation this way—"CPS's squads were all built on a 'Sandy' foundation, consequently they sometimes crumble." Yes, it's lousy, but what can be done? . . .

The Zetes and Chi Nus should be contenders for the title in touch football. The Chi Nus particularly because Lloyd Baker says he can punt 60 yards. (We wonder why he doesn't turn out for varsity?)

For sheer intestinal fortitude we'll take Bill McLaughlin, the Logger quarter. The tricky signal caller played most of the game with a wrenched shoulder. . . .

Golf and Tennis Tournaments

Two fine cups, now in Coach Lou Grant's office, will be awarded the winners of the open golf and tennis tournaments. These beautiful trophies have not been awarded for the last two years because the tournaments weren't finished due to delay in playing the matches or bad weather. Because of the good weather of the last two weeks, contestants are urged to play their matches as soon as possible, and post their scores by the bookstore.

The following have reached the second round of play:

Golf

Hite defeated Beal, 6 and 5.
Tennent over Milroy, 5 and 3.
Sulenes over Mitchell, default.
Washburn, bye.
Bertholet, bye.
Ramsey, bye.
Fisher, bye.
Wood, bye.
Wagner, bye.

Tennis

Kaplin over Mitchell, 6-2, 6-0.
Kent over Gibson, 7-5, 6-1.
Walker over Stalcup, 6-2, 6-3.
Heaton over Taylor, 4-6, 6-3.
Paulson over Raleigh, 6-0, 6-1.
Cheney over Larson, 6-1, 6-3.
Hite over Shireman, default.
Leslie over McHugh, default.

More About CPS Game

Against the Coyotes, the locals pranced across the Caldwell grid-iron like frightened deer, but exhibited extraordinary shyness when they sighted the goal line.

Tonight the Loggers will have not one, but two forms of attack with which to combat their foes. Running and passing, executed by the backfield combination of Mayer, Madden, McLaughlin and Gay, will share the spotlight in the offensive.

While devising ways to catch the Lutherans off guard, they must keep a trained eye on the shifty-hipped PLC backs, who hit the line with terrific force. Fries, Pedersen, C. Fallstrom and Jurgensen—they are the boys on whom the Loggers must keep a stern vigilance.
