Homecoming Week Hits CPS Campus

Homecoming week will swing in to full speed Thursday of the first of the three-day activities gets underway.

The coming co-chairmen, Mary Ann Jugovich and Tom Baker, will put the sleepless nights since the start of the arrangements into the name committees, do a commendable job of organizing and soliciting for the marriage celebration.

Dear Student Senator

Strangers to the CPS campus will immediately notice that about half of the school's male population are growing stubble on their chins. The persons sporting the longest and bushiest beard will capture the Homecoming King crown for his great effort. The beard judging contest will be held Thursday at 2:30 in the SUB.

Besides awarding the King, the judges will be on hand to award prizes for: The reddest beard; the best trimmed beard; the best bearded, and the sorriest looking beard. The judges will be the five Homecoming Queens, Berta Pi, Joann Hatchells, Alpha Phi: Karen Anderson, Independent; Delta Phi Delta; Marilyn Wagner, Delta Delta; Doroihy Powell, Chi Omega. Other judges will be Alphi Phi president, Sara Jauger; Dr. Thompson, President; Martha Bushy and Inoke president, Joan Wa- ren.

Chairman for the beard judging affair is Chuck Arnold. As the final judging contest is np, the local news, Arthur Maris, and Pete Schmitt.

Immediately following the beard judging contest, will be a coke donut which will last until 11 p.m. The Judging by the four sororities and Inter-Chapter, chairman is Gertrude Marsh.

The dance will be held in the Homecoming activities.

Eastern Game Set Saturday, 2 p.m.

Eastern Washington College's football team rolls into Tacoma Saturday to meet the College of Puget Sound in the annual CPS Homecoming game. Kickoff time is 2 p.m. for the Evergreen conference battle.

The game appears to be about a toss-up. Comparative scores all seem to indicate that the Saturday contests will be close and exciting.

Eastern topped the University of British Columbia Thunderbirds 26-7 while the Lobsters defeat the Birds 46-20. Both winning margins were 14 points.

The Heinsenk slaugthered the Savages 46-0 last year with 123 points in a starling victory. This year the Cheney school has added two outstanding freshmen to their roster and coupled with returning veterans they have an outstanding team.

All-state quarterback Don Fako, who only weighs 150 pounds, has been doing a very successful job of directing the Spokane offense. It seems that he is only a freshman.

Other outstanding performers for the eastern eleven are Earl Bonilde and Mel Bussey. Both were all-state in their high school days and have established themselves as two of the best in the Evergreen conference.

CPS's hopes for victory have improved since the return of Western.

Just Perceiving

By CARROLL P. TAYLOR

Critique of a young scientist who entered the laboratory late, taken with the fact that he was a freshman, makes up a most thought-provoking combination.

Our friend told of a young scientist who went to India bent on investigating rumors of Indian metaphysicians performing superhuman acts. He found progress predicating suspended animation in his point of view; a whiff of his every imagination. His interest in the Western hemisphere a generation before his time. But person to tell him of "Great Ones" living in a distant mountain town walked on water and traveled by desenchanting their bodies and reappearing elsewhere at will.

According to these reports, these "Great Ones" are reputed to be powered by the devil's own secret, so man's Messiah did not appear to his contemporaries; so our Mahomed did not appear to his contemporaries, so the Bodhisattva appeared to his contemporaries, and so on.

Quarterbacks Don Egg and Joe Stortini. Egg had been on the shelf for several weeks with a broken wrist while Stortini had missed the Central game because of an eye injury. Eastern will probably start Hancock and Bauer at ends; Lister and Axelson at tackles; Rudd and Duffy at guard; Norman at center; Fawston at quarterback; Graham and Foster at halfbacks, and Davis at fullback.

Bucketball

The 1953-54 intramural basketball season started off with a bang Wednesday and all eight teams came out to show what they could do. This season's intramural basketball race could prove to be very close as all teams won by narrow margins.

Theta Chi dropped the Phi Delta 28-15. In a tough fight all the way with the Theta Chi boys brought it out in full. Jerry Aldridge and Ronnie Bryant led Theta Chi scoring with 14 and 7 respectively. Bill John Chapman was high point man for the Phi Delta with 6. Don Solder, Terry Schill and Don Harrison each put 5 through the hoop.

Theta Chi "B" team won a forfeit from the Phi Delta "B" team. Sigma Nu won the ROTC 24-6. It was Guglin who lead the way for the Sigma Nu victory as he sank 12 points to be high on the team. Les Johnson dropped in 8 points. ROTC Andy Coley was high with 8 and Bob Shilf with 6. Sigma Nu "B" team won a forfeit from the ROTC "B" team. Todd Hall shelled Kappa Sigma 34-23. History Proves CPS

Homcoming Game

Results Run 50-50

If past records are given consideration, the College of Puget Sound football eleven have about a 50-50 chance to win the Homecoming game Saturday. In their last four outings in the Homcoming games the Woodmen have won two and lost two. Maroon and White forces triumphed in the 1949 classic and then after a two-year drought, came back to win last year. The football athletic of the great 1949 Juggernaut gave the alumni plenty to cheer about as they ran roughshod over the Williamsbeau Tablets of the Northwest Conference 27-6. A hard charging line led by Warren Wood and a powerful backfield spearheaded by the elusive Mel Light were too much for the Saxon eleven.

CPS scored a hard fought 18-7 over Whitworth in last year's Homecoming tilt. Backfielders Todd Hall, Spike Schrelte started fro the Puget Sounders. Western Washington threw a monkey wrench into the 1951 festivities by blinding the Heinricksen 18-0. The Loggers were gongeaged 17-1 by the Eastern Washington Savages in the 50 game. Both CPS alumni and students are hoping the Loggers will make it two Homecoming victories in a row by beating Eastern Saturday. It certainly would make this Year's affair a huge success.

Homcoming Queen in Jones Hall auditorium, after which the curt- tain will go up on the produc- tion of the Homecoming play, "Muder in a Nunnery."

At 3:00 on the women's athletic field the sororities will join forces for a football championship game. Chi Omega and Alpha Phi sororities will meet with Pi Beta Phi and Delta Delta Delta. In charge of game services is Liz Blacker.

Downtown Parade

At 8:00 will be the final per- formance of the Campus Play- crafters of the Homecoming play. "Murder in a Nunnery."

for halftime entertainment dur- ing the football game on Fri- day. The sororities and frater- nities will compete against each other with probable hilarious re- sults. A song fest in honor of break old timers Dr. George Nare of the Homecoming band will be introduced. Ball committee has also procur- ed the services of the CPS march- band and their performance.

Colorful "mums" in the CPS colors will be sold during Home- coming week as a senior class project. Marilyn Williams and Gertrude March are in charge.

This is the first year that chrys- antemums have been sold for the game and it is hoped that it will become an annual affair. They may be purchased at the dorms, at the alumni banquet and at the Toppers for $1.

For those not in the "mums" are worn on the girls.

Winding up the week's action will be the annual Homecoming ball for the Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- ice out of the funds allocated by Central Board, the group is de- voted to providing more than a minimum amount of serv- i
