MARCH FIRST IS FINAL DATE FOR ORATION THEMES

ELENTRETTA AT PARTY

Miss Ellin Hart entertained a large group of friends Thursday evening, honoring Miss Carol Hart, a graduate of the University of Washington, who has been named senator C. W. Ryan, of Vancouver, Washington, new member of the Senate.

The evening was spent social and musical, followed by a delicious dinner served at 8:30. Miss Hart entertained in an intimate and informal manner, and the guests were served refreshments. In response to the toast of the evening, the toastmaster, Mr. W. B. McMillan, made an address of appreciation to the hostess.

The evening was spent social and musical, followed by a delicious dinner served at 8:30. Miss Hart entertained in an intimate and informal manner, and the guests were served refreshments. In response to the toast of the evening, the toastmaster, Mr. W. B. McMillan, made an address of appreciation to the hostess.

MARCH 1ST IS THE DEADLINE FOR ORATION THEMES

STADIUM WINS MAY JOURNEY

North End High School Grapplers Take Five Matches in Triangular Meet

STADIUM School's mat team went to the Pacific Northwest last Thursday to face the boys from the other two schools. The meets were held at the St. Paul's School in St. Paul, Minn.

The boys from the stadium took five matches and lost none, making them the winners.

STUDENT GOES HOME FOR WEEK-END

Willie Daniels spent the week-end visiting his home town, Albany, Oregon.

FEBRUARY 27, 1934

The Tacoma Elks will invade the campus Friday night as a part of their week-end activities. The boys will be entertained by a dance at the Tacoma Elks Hall, where they will be served refreshments and enjoy the music of a live orchestra.
The secret of success is what the secret of success, asked the sage. "Press the button. Never be late, said the philosopher. "Always keep cool," said the Zen master. "Never lose your head," said the harrel. "Make light of everything," said the wise. "Wisdom breathing," said the husband. "Any two things is greater," said the mathematician. "Be sharp in all dealings," said the lawyer. The cornerstone lies in the heart of the Methodist building at National and Locust. The cornerstone of the new white stone building which is to be the heart of the Methodist Interests in the Nation's Capital was laid on January 23rd by the resident Bishop, William Frasier, D.D., L.L. D., with large crowds in attendance, despite the inclement weather. As the Bishop placed the uppermost stone in the cornerstone, the rainbow clouds parted and the sun touched the act with a benediction of light. The cornerstone contains the Holy Bible, the American flag, and various documents of the Board of Temperance, Publishing and Public Missions of the Methodist Episcopal church, which is the cornerstone, and in which will be its headquarters. From this landmark, will radiate the work and influence of the Board in 52 counties. Short addresses were made by Representatives Adlum T. H. White, Dr. Clarence T. Wilson, Dr. Francis Burgoyne Smith and Bishop McDowell. The Junior Class are we are very proud of our new officers, and we are sure that they will have a live and successful year. The officers are: President, P. James Vice President, N. Paul Secretary, E. Bruce Treasurer, F. Glenn At Arms, If Pretz Tamaques in the middle man of the Junior class and we hope you'll make it yours too. The Eastern faculties are beginning to open their eyes. The three other male characters have not been definitely chosen. Don't forget a Tamaques will be given to the man and the man getting the most subscriptions. Get the dollar and 50 cents of subscriber and turn it over to Julies and get the receipt.

The College Play

The cast for the play, "Come Out of the Kitchen," by J. E. Thomas, to be presented by the students at the Tacoma Theatre, April 16, was chosen Wednesday afternoon in the office of Coach McNeal.

The cast for the play, "Come Out of the Kitchen," by J. E. Thomas, was chosen Wednesday afternoon in the office of Coach McNeal. The cast for the play, "Come Out of the Kitchen," by J. E. Thomas, was chosen Wednesday afternoon in the office of Coach McNeal. The cast for the play, "Come Out of the Kitchen," by J. E. Thomas, was chosen Wednesday afternoon in the office of Coach McNeal.
AMPHITHEATRUM

The anniversary of the birth of George Washington was observed by the Amphithe Monday evening, Feb. 22th. The program included papers, talks, musical numbers by the brass quartet and a clever skit.

Thursday, Feb. 22, the Amphithe put on their program in Student Assembly. Chadwick Christine and Mariott Gunn presented several clever skits. Other numbers included a piano solo by Miss F. E. Connor, a vocal solo by Miss Beth Slater and an original poem "Cherry Bud," by Edna Chisrud. As classes were held Thursday the annual Washington birthday bike was given up. In the afternoon, however, a group of Amphithe went to Salmon's Beach for a cabin party. Plans have been made to have a bike in the future.

LAMBDA SIGMA CHI

The Lambda Sigma Chi Royalty entertained at an open house Valentine party, last Wednesday afternoon. Games, contests and music were enjoyed, after which divinity refreshments were served. Saturday evening, as one of the pledges were initiated at the home of Miss Helen Pangborn, on North 14th street.

DELTA KAPPA PHI

Our activities this week are not for publication.

DELTA ALPHA GAMMA

We announce our pledges: Mildred Harper, Estella Elden, Vera Lamotte, Helen Buxton and Russell Mitchell.

WHOSE SON IS HE?

This question is old and new. It is the pivotal question of the present religious controversy. Was Christ the son of God? Was He God while here on earth, or did He only appear good and true man?

After the business meeting on Monday night the following paper was read: "WHAT THINK YE OF CHRIST?"

CHRIST was God dwelling here and therefore in the form and fashion of man or was He the beginning of the world which has known Him? Why do I believe this? Because of the following plain teachings of Scripture:

1. The humanity of Christ is shown by (a) His human parent; (b) He grew as other human beings do. (c) He had the appearance of a man; (d) He was possessed of body, soul and spirit and in other ways similar to other humanity.

2. The Divinity of Jesus Christ, Divine names are given Him:
(b) He is called the Son of God. The Synoptic Gospels assign Him this title:Matt. 27:39, John 19:22.

(c) He is called God. John 1:1, Rev. 1:1, John 20:28, John 5:26. Printers claim it blasphemy when I call God the Father in such way as to denote the identity of Power and Substance.

(d) He is called the Holy One of Israel. John 6:66.

3. The question is old and new. It is the pivotal question of history. When the American people inaugurate to full membership: Ruth Blodgett, Eila Otis, Elva Miller and Julius Landis.

LAMBDA SIGMA THETA

Owing to the snow storm the program was postponed last week and was given on Wednesday, the 21st. It was as follows:

1. By Petey Valentine, , Keru Knox
2. The Ideal Valentine
3. Divine Bachelor Valentine at C. P. S.
4. Evelyn Backus Hunt.
5. Loren Buss
6. Fuzzy Valentine I Have Seen.

Margaret Lemon

The pledges received 1st degree initiation at the Blue Triangle Indian Point, Saturday night, February 25, and second degree will be given today.

CPS Varsity

vs.

Tacoma Elks

Be here.

FRIAY, MARCH 2, 1923

BASKETBALL!
The ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

Last Monday night in the Camp Lewis gymnasium was held one of the most magnificent, all-around athletic conferences ever staged. Each athlete representing a kind of event, was specially invited, and combination surpassed all expectations. Using the names of basketball hall, the conference opened with ten men on the floor. Schedule involved the onlookers—as spectators. While the men are too numerous to mention, the ladies aren’t, and C. F. R. was represented by Helen Brix, our familiar and admirable athlete. Also James, who speaks for herself, if you give her a chance, and Camp Lewis. When the referee, who in this job would make a great street referee, threw the ball under his wing and faked out from the basket to the other, he did it many times. After the next stunt was a hundred yard dash, and Elsa with her high polish men since he dashed the hundred yards in eleven flat. Harry was nicknamed at this time “Little Dasher” because of his normal stature. As reference, his attention being diverted by the names of the300.300 people did not see him until one of the classmen caught him for us. Don Van der Venter took the field for ten minutes practicing the pole vault, and easily swept his hand on Frank Brown’s shoulder like a shopboy and talked the ball. A most successful display did not merit approval from our worthy opponents, who began to realize what the nation’s ex-champion Van Der Venter’s “Irish” style of support was, and that he insisted upon. The reference, a small, quick one, grabbed the ball, turned up the spats and nearly made a basket. Then Harry Mathes, booming ahead with the monotonous of the affair, gathered a little group around him and with the aid of whiskers and nimble performed the Valentine tango. The reference was waters in between halos. A general riot took place and the panama occupied the jaws of the Terrier daemon. The referee called this a foul, and while people enjoyed this was a battle between and while the boy4040 was playing of sup­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­…