UNIVERSITIES TRYING TO OUST WOMEN

University of California, March 22—Students of the University of California are conducting a fight to oust women from the University. They are charged with bankrupting their families to maintain themselves in style; having no regard for self-supporting students, coming to college to seek eligible young men, creating an artificial world around themselves and distracting the men from their studies with social life. The women, in turn, claim that the men are jealous because they are being beaten by students, and that women are being eligible for young men to settle down among them as they go away dis-appointed.

PLAN TO ADMIT STUDENT IMMIGRANTS

In the fourth annual report of the Institute of International Education, Stephen P. Duggan, Director, announces that an agreement has been reached between the Commissioner of Immigration at Ellis Island, Robert R. Peck, and the Institute whereby the entry of non-English speaking students to this country will be allowed even though the quota of the student's country has been exhausted. Since the present immigration law prohibits the entry of non-English speaking students to this country, the Institute has had to deal with a number of cases where students from certain countries were refused admission because they were not proficient in English. These students have been furnished with a list of those from whom the Institute would be willing to accept them. They are required to have a certificate from their own universities, which foreign students have matriculated by correspondence before leaving their country, and a sworn official notice of that fact to the effect that the student is proficient in English. The Institute is in the process of examining these cases, and will furnish a list of those from whom it would be willing to accept them. The Institute will also furnish a copy of the law making no provision for foreign students who are unable to obtain admission to American colleges.

MISS PURKEY HEL

Friends of Fila Purkey were very sorry to hear that she has been marked for deportation. As the case is only a light one, however, we hope to see Mrs. Elka back in town before long.

GIRLS BACK AT SCHOOL AFTER ILLNESS

We were glad to see Mary Don-aldson and Juliette Parker return at school Monday, after having been absent for several days, both having been sequestered with a slight attack of the flu.

MISS FURSETT SING

Miss Furrsett entertained the University of Puget Sound on Monday evening, during the intercollegiate contest. She sang in a most interesting way, all the songs being a mixture of classics and modern songs. Her voice was very clear and sweet, and she had a beautiful sense of rhythm. The audience was greatly pleased with her performance.

HOW TO USE THE BOOK OF SPIRIT

The big clash of the year for the varsity debaters comes Friday evening, when the College of Puget Sound will debate Simpson College. Puget Sound will defend the negative, and will be represented by our veteran debater, Stanton Warburton, and by Allison Wetmore.

The debate will take place in the college chapel Friday evening, at 8:00 o'clock, and a letter has been received from Simpson College, granting permission for us to use the chapel, and giving our team the moral support and backing that means so much to a team going into battle. Everyone of us that possibly can is going to the chapel Friday evening to show that as student body, we are not lacking in school spirit, and that we can give our best efforts as a team when they go on the field of battle.

The debate will take place in the college chapel Friday evening, at 8:00 o'clock, and a letter has been received from the Simpson College Association by Dr. Todd urging all Simpson Alumni to be present at the debate. The defeat of Simpson will go a long way toward putting C. P. S. on the map, and the best way in which we can help is to be present in numbers, and on time. Congratulations, and give us your moral support and backing that means so much to a team going into battle. Everyone of us that possibly can is going to the chapel Friday evening to show that we are not lacking in school spirit, and that we can give our best efforts as a team when they go on the field of battle.

DELTA ALPHA GAMMA

If you'll listen you will hear that some main topics of conversation are unimportant. Dutch bulb, and six-mile hiking (13) bein'—poor, born, near—ah. Of course, you can guess this all refers to a Houseparty at Dr. Martin's wonderful summer home on Vashon Island.

We left a "la" Ishaka and lot of per on the five clock boat. Friday afternoon, and returned on the three clock boat Sunday of interest moves about eighteen hours asleep.

Some of the main features were the shuffle and sing each ev'ning by the fire, big log fire in the fireplace. We really didn't know we had so much harmony, but that is, like music, we did.

One m. on Sunday morning, the disguised program was given by the pledges. They're some entertainers, considering the fact that Helen Bro and Ethel Thomas finished on land and that we heard the echo just finishing its trip around the island on we were having on Sunday.

At noon Sunday, a wonderful chicken dinner was served, which had been prepared mainly by Carol Havens and Norma Lawrence under the assistance of anyone who felt like assisting. By the Katheryn Chester, Ethel Thomas, and Norma Lawrence amongst others, they claimed it was a six-mile hike just to get home by the legs. Katheryn Chester had to stop about half way and swing her child's rock, because it weighed too much the otherwise.

Our chief detectives, Carol Havens and Helen Small are working on a deep mystery said to involve Barry Shanks, a Fool, and Helen Martin's Cinderella-like going boat. Anne Davis may use the mystery is a feature writing-area. Any- way, very soon all room will be open and we are working now on an Easter program for our next meeting.

It consisted of songs by the Varsity Quarter, readings, and vaudeville acts. We ended the program by singing one of the college songs which the audience also enjoyed.
